It was time to wake up, all right

MY BRAIN was busy.
BUILDING AIR castles.
FOR I wasn't sleepy.
FINALLY I dozed off.
AND PROMPTLY dreamed.
THAT I was awake.
BUT WOKE right up.
AND FOUND I was asleep.
THEN I got thinking.
OF A wonderful formula.
FOR MAKING cigarettes.
I PLANNED it all out.
SO MUCH Turkish tobacco.
BLENDED JUST so with Burley.
AND OTHER Domestic leaf.
AND I knew that blend.
WOULD MAKE a hit.
I COULD just see.
CROWDS OF happy people.
THRONGING INTO stores.

TO BUY that cigarette.
THEN LIGHTING up.
SMACKING THEIR lips.
AND SAYING, "Oh, Boy.
IT'S THE exact copy.
OF THAT 'Satisfy' blend."
AND THEN I came to.
AND SAID to myself.
"THIS TIME you're dreaming.
FOR SURE.
WAKE UP, you darn fool.
WHY, THAT 'Satisfy' blend.
SIMPLY CAN'T be copied."

THAT'S a fact—the "Satisfy blend" can't be copied. It's our own secret—putting those good tobaccos together in a way that gives you every last ounce of their fragrance. You'll smack your lips over Chesterfields. And remember—you can't get "Satisfy" anywhere else.

20 for 20 cents
in air-tight packages.
Also obtainable in round tins of 50, vacuum sealed.

MURRAY NEBRASKA

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hallas were visiting with friends in Plattsmouth last Sunday.

Harry Todd was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Tuesday looking after some business matters for a short time.

Mesdames E. S. Tutt and O. A. Davis were visiting in Plattsmouth with friends for a short time last Tuesday.

F. T. Wilson was called to Union last Monday afternoon to look after some business matters, driving down in his car.

Uncle J. W. Edmunds was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Tuesday afternoon, where he was looking after some business matters.

Guy Stokes will remain on the farm and promises to set up the cigars in a short time, on account of the joys of batching, probably.

Eddie McBride of Plattsmouth, was looking after some business matters in Murray last Tuesday and returned home with Mr. Albert Cotner.

Geo. Edison was a visitor at the home of Mrs. Emaline Kniss and sons Kinsley and Edward, and departed for the east last Monday evening.

George Jenkins of Omaha, was the guest at the home of his friend, Mr. Ralph Kennedy, last Sunday, it being the birthday of Mr. Kennedy.

Mrs. H. F. Goss and Miss Hazel Doye were visiting in Murray as guests at the home of Miss Margie Walker for a short time Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Pearl Downy of Omaha, was a visitor in Murray last Sunday and the guest at the home of Mrs. V. A. Kennedy and enjoyed the day to the fullest extent.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore was a passenger to Omaha last Tuesday afternoon, where he was looking after some professional business and also was visiting with friends.

L. H. Puls who is a handy man at whatever he may be placed, has just completed a very nice and useful tool chest which he will take west with him when he goes.

John Vantine and wife of Weeping Water were visiting in Murray last Tuesday, driving up for a visit at the home of Mrs. Vantine's mother, Mrs. W. A. Brown, and other friends.

Albert Cotner of the Lincoln Telephone & Telegraph company of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Murray last Tuesday, doing some work for the company here and also north of town.

Mrs. V. A. Kennedy was able to be over to town of couple of times during the past week and when it is considered the recent very severe illness, she is making very satisfactory progress.

Little Mable Howard, who has been very sick at the home of her parents, Roy Howard and wife, for the past few days, is reported as being slightly improved. She is afflicted with jaundice.

County Attorney A. G. Cole and Sheriff C. D. Quinton passed through Murray last Tuesday afternoon on their way to Weeping Water to look after the holding of an inquest over the remains of a person who was killed there that day.

The suppers which are to be given at the Presbyterian church on the coming Saturday and the one of May 14th, will be of the same high standard which has characterized those given by the library association, and will be at the popular price of 25 cents each.

Percy Wheeler met with an accident last Tuesday morning while working on a lister, his hand slipped when he was attempting to tighten a bolt, and striking against the sharp edge of the lay of the lister, cutting a very severe gash in his hand. The injured member is getting along as well as could be expected.

The report was current on the streets of Murray last Tuesday of the closing of many of the elevators along the line on account of the little amount of grain which is being offered, the line house thinking it less loss to close for the time being than to operate with but slight receipts. What the result or real intent is, is difficult to surmise.

Mrs. W. H. Hendricks was a visitor during last Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Carroll, and considering the very severe illness which Mrs. Hendricks has just passed through, she is to be congratulated that she was able to get out this quick. But with her temperament, and determination to get well again, she has overcome the frailties of the flesh.

Highway Patrolman, August Krecklow, and son Louis, were in Murray Monday and went to Plattsmouth to meet with the county commissioners from here. They were picked up by Mr. W. H. Frost of Manley, the lumberman, who had some business in the county seat to look after, and who was passing through Murray to the county seat with Messrs. Joseph Macenty, and Andrew Schiefert, both of whom had business in the county seat.

Keep Your City Clean.

The rural village, as well as the city, should have pride enough to keep the streets, the homes and grounds and the alley-ways clean from rubbish and papers and other trash which so frequently is blowing around disfiguring an otherwise beautiful landscape. Look to the matter each one and see if Murray cannot be the prettiest town in the state.

Mrs. C. C. Tucker Very Ill.

Mrs. C. C. Tucker of Oconto, in Custer county, has been in very poor health since her removal to the west and accompanied by her husband and father, Mr. Ben Dill, arrived in Omaha Monday evening, where she entered the St. Joseph hospital and was waited upon by their family physician, Dr. J. P. Brendel, and will remain there for some time for treatment. Mrs. Tucker will be under the care of Dr. Durmody and Sack while there. It is desired that she may soon improve so that she may be able to return to her home well again. Mr. and Mrs. Dill were with her in the hospital at Omaha during the consultation and clinic, which was given here.

Young Mr. Rose is Here.

The stork made a visit last Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rose, when there was left in their care one of the finest little Americans that one could wish to see. The boy and his mother as well as the proud father are getting along nicely, and joy reigns supreme in the Rose household.

Will Serve Two Suppers.

The ladies missionary society of the Presbyterian church will serve supper at the church parlors on May 7 and May 14, at which time they will give the meal which has characterized them as very popular caterers and for which the modest price of 25 cents will be charged. All are cordially invited to attend and enjoy these suppers.

Will Observe Mother's Day.

The Presbyterian Sunday school will give a program at the church at 10:30 Sunday morning, when a very appropriate program will be rendered in honor of Mother's day. The mothers are especially invited to this service, which will be well worth while.

Eat in the Open.

Last Friday evening Mrs. J. A. Walker and daughter Margie, entertained for a wienie roast in the pleasant shade of the pasture. Their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Nelson, who had stopped to visit them while on the way from Texas to the east, and included in the merry party also Dr. G. H. Gilmore and family and Postmaster W. S. Smith and wife.

Visit in Murray Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dennison were guests last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Saddle Oldham and afterwards went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Beck, where they remained over night and with him went to Omaha Tuesday, from where they took the train for the east, their destination being their home at Jamestown, Pa., from where they have been in the past six months visiting in the west and the most of the time being in California, where they left one of their sons who is attending school in the west. They were accompanied to the east by the father of Mrs. Dennison, Mr. Geo. Edison, who has made his home in Lincoln for a number of years past, but who lived between here and Union years ago.

Last Supper Proves a Success.

The last supper of the series which have been given by the members of the library association for the benefit of the library building, was given last Saturday evening and was under the charge of Mrs. Albert Young, and notwithstanding the weather being rainy and the roads very bad, the closing one was a great success, and while depending on the patronage of the town, proved indeed a very satisfactory success. The ladies who have conducted the series of suppers are to be congratulated upon the success they have achieved, and upon the purpose to which they are placing the funds received. That a band of earnest workers can take hold of such a proposition and carry it to a definite and successful termination if to be approved, and we are glad that Murray has such a band of determined workers for the public good.

Improving the Home.

Dr. Brendel and wife are having their home put in excellent condition. They have just been having the walls refinished and stenciled after painting and are refinishing the floors as well. Mr. Phil Lambert has had charge of the decorating, while

Miss Carlson, who is an adept with the brush, has added many beautiful touches to the interior of this beautiful home.

Murray School Notes.

Harley Puls was absent from school Monday.

Joe Dietl is still absent from school on account of sickness.

Marie Puls was a visitor at the home of Hazel Davis, Sunday afternoon.

Dick March returned to school Monday. He has just recovered from a siege of the pink eye.

Opel Homan was absent from school three days last week on account of having the pink eye.

Donnabelle Edminsten returned to school Monday. She has been absent for some time on account of sickness. In Roman history the high school is now studying about the last and best of the "Barrack Emperors," Diocletian.

On account of the rainy weather the "Wahelo Sewin Club" was again disappointed in not getting to meet Saturday.

In spite of the rainy weather, many of the pupils waded the mud Saturday evening and distributed May baskets.

Hazel Davis was absent from school Wednesday afternoon and Marie Puls was absent Wednesday afternoon and Friday.

Mabel Howard was absent from school last week on account of sickness, but is some better today. She is not yet able to return to school.

Lois Scotten, Leona Puls and Esther Puls went flower picking Saturday morning. They were hunting for flowers to put in their May baskets.

Thursday and Friday will be a vacation for the high school pupils. They are planning to put forth extra effort toward getting book reviews and preparing future lessons.

Some of the pupils of the Murray school were planning to go to the indoor carnival Saturday, which was being held at Plattsmouth. The rain spoiled their plans so that only a few went.

Those neither absent nor tardy in the Primary room during the eighth month are: William Mrasek, Albert Griffin, Madge Homan, Lorene Hatched, Leona Puls, Esther Puls, Lois Scotten and Mildred Steiner.

Those neither absent nor tardy in the Primary room during the eighth month are: Margaret Puls, Catherine Long, Ruth Homan, Margaret Mrasek, Leon Gansemer, Bronson Timm, Edward Howard, and Hazel Wilber.

Katherine Lutz of Plattsmouth, spent several days last week with Marie Puls. She came down on the morning train Thursday and returned Friday. She visited our high school Thursday afternoon. We are always glad to have visitors at our school.
