"I've worn these Wurkshus since morning, and I have had a hard day, too. But my feet are as comfortable as I'd want them to be. Even if the Smiths dropped in I wouldn't change. I got the Wurkshu habit from son, and he got it at that camp he liked so well last summer."

The Wurkshu habit is also a saving habit. More people find it so every year. Hood Wurkshus are famous for their durability and comfort. Heavy mail-bag duck uppers, grey tire-tread soles, Hood patented pneumatic heels—you walk on air.

The best "sneaker" for boys. Baysides are the ordinary low price foot covering for boys, next to going bare foot. You can't beat them for price. Don't ask for "sneakers," ask for Hood Baysides.

Casco Oxfords are light, easy and cool, stylish in appearance and give excellent wear. Every member of the family should "give their feet a treat" these hot afternoons and evenings. And save money in the bargain.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

From Saturday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Peter Herold entertained a number of little folks in honor of the seventh birthday anniversary of her little son, Poissal Herold, at the home on Granite street. The decorations of the rooms were the red June roses which were very attractively arranged and made a pleasing feature of the entertainment.

A very dainty two-course luncheon was served by Mrs. Herold which was assisted by a few of the neighbors and friends in serving the little folks. The dining room was darkened and the members of the party were marched into the room and requested to count in unison the seven candles which decorated the birthday cake.

The place cards were in the form of little hatchets and the ice cream decorated with American flags.

Those to assist Poissal in celebrating the occasion were: Randall York, Don York, Harold, Lucille, Harry and Don Connors, John Merritt, Georgia Merritt, Helen Virginia Price, Hazel and Violet Speck, Paul and Kenneth Poissal, Mary and Dorothy Mayfield, Billy O'Donnell, Vernon Theodore Arn, Jane and Richard Poissal, sister and brother of the guests of honor.

After the luncheon the little folks adjourned to the city park where they enjoyed many games and frolics until the time for the departure home-ward came. Poissal received many handsome gifts in remembrance of the pleasant occasion.
