It is a smart child that tempts its mother's slippers.

A vamp is a young woman who acts the way an old maid thinks.

A girl seldom kicks when an old man lays his fortune at her feet.

It used to be bottled in bond. But now, nobody knows where it is bottled.

The easiest way to get rid of something you don't want is to try and keep it.

It was jealousy of Adam's first wife (Zerish) that caused Eve to be talked about.

The only man who has a right to look down in the mouth nowadays is the dentist.

Eve would have had a very hard time tempting Adam with an apple at the present price.

Why is it always put forward as "women's kind of apparel?" Is there some other kind of apparel?

A boy first loses faith in the perfection of his pretty school teacher when he notices her obvious preference for the boys with clean necks.

The origin of all mankind was the same; it is only a clear and good conscience that makes a man noble, for that is derived from heaven itself.

You should be polite to the young boys you meet. Perhaps some day one of them will be superintendent of the porchouse of which you are an inmate.

"Germans Worry About Texas." Why? All they have on hand is the war repudiation which they don't have any railroad or shipping board deficits to pay, do they?

Speaking of raising money, there is no more discouraging job than raising funds to meet the deficit of a victorious party except the job of raising funds to meet the deficit of a defeated party.

The poor man has no chance in this country. Mr. Stillman's yacht, "The Modesty," has received much newspaper mention because Mr. Stillman is a rich man. But you never see anything in the papers about your yacht.

One of the rules for catching a husband formulated by a woman's club in Philadelphia is: "A blonde should marry a brunette, and vice versa." How vice versa? Is it meant that a blonde should marry a brunette the first time, and then become a brunette and marry a blonde next time?

Dry cleaning makes his suits spic and span according to Dainty Dorothy

"I don't take a man long to bag his pants at the knees, and to make a finely tailored suit look thoroughly disreputable—that's the man of it," avers Dainty Dorothy.

But she goes on to explain that the man who is making use of our cleaning, steaming and pressing services is keeping his clothes in much more presentable condition than when he got acquainted with us. And it doesn't cost much, either.

The ice man is crazy about the heat.

Women have always had a roll in their stockings.

The man out of work regards any job as a vacation.

An "old flame" is one you have told to go to blazes.

The real wheels of commerce are worth a dollar each.

Good evening, have you noticed the skirt shortage?

Lots of self-made men forget their wives bossed the job.

The nation that has caused most wars is imagination.

The trouble with the prodigal son is it returns too often.

It is now a well-established fact that girls have knees.

Maybe Burbank could cross the orange and the shamrock.

Lenine's real name is "Ilitch." Russia should scratch him.

Too many hobby-horses are being fed from the U. S. treasury.

Chicago reports finding 12 drunks in one house. A full house.

Reformers don't believe in making the world good for nothing.

A wife's permanent wave is fine; but we need a permanent wife wave.

Disarmament will solve the problem of making a round world square.

Why does a chicken cross the street nowadays? To show her knees, of course.

When a woman sticks to an automobile seat you can't convince her summer isn't here.

They say that familiarity breeds contempt, and there are the dirty dishes three times a day.

A hospital claims it can cure wives of bad temper. Now watch some woman send her husband there.

The British are asking Ambassador Harvey's advice on the Jap question. So they'll know what not to do.

As we understand the immigration law, it's intended to prevent the United States from becoming an alienation.

Many go to art galleries to see fine paintings. And many men stand on the street corner and watch them pass.

When a woman sees a man with his collar discussing her clothes she just laughs up where her sleeves used to be.

French farmers are moving to town. Like us, the back-to-the-farm movement is the way people are turned, not headed.

Raising the income tax exemption on dependent children from $200 to $400 still leaves it about as far from the real cost of a child as before, but still $4 is $4.

When those experts employed by the Rockefeller Foundation at fancy salaries get tired of pulling John D.'s leg for money with which to fight hookworm and pellagra, mebbe they will turn their attention to the redbug, alias the chigger. A war on that varmint will be something worth while.

There were profiteers in the Civil War, too. The first year the contractors unloaded onto Uncle Sam any amount of shoddy clothing, sprouted beans and wormy hardtack and meat, also defective ammunition and guns that did about as much execution to the fellow who fired them as to the fellow shot at.

The Wichita banks have announced that 5 billion dollars of "wheat money" in that territory is now available to help the livestock feeders out of their financial difficulties. That confirms the contention of this department against a certain deputy states officer that the "wheat money" in Kansas is not spent for gasoline for motor cars.

The penitentiary gives you credit for good behavior, but you can get some credit for good behavior without going to the pen.

Dancing masters say that in dancing the new society dances, intricate steps are not necessary, but "just be natural and you'll be an up-to-date dancer." But that's what started all the agitation against jazz—too many were just being natural.

While there is so much unemployment everywhere, perhaps it is as well that our more prominent movie stars don't effect reconciliations with their estranged spouses, as it would be disastrous to dump so many press agents out of jobs just now.

A New York woman protested against her husband selling liquor. "You should be proud to be the wife of a bootlegger," he retorted. The words cost him $300 a month all money which goes to show that even a plutocratic bootlegger should put the soft pedal on in talk with his wife.

"A jealous wife throws acid to spoil rival's beauty." It is expected that the Ku Klux Klan in Dallas, where twelve hundred new members have just been initiated, will reprimand the lady severely for taking matters into her own hands and resorted to forge in the manner described.

The cashier of the bank at Spring Hill, Kansas, was "one of the towns of exemplary young men," and now has admitted a shortage of $50,000, which acquaintances say was dissipated in "polite poker parties" and wild celebrations in nearby cities. But when an exemplary young man starts out to set that kind of example to the young men of his community, he ought to leave them enough funds to carry out the program.

FUNERAL OF WALTER SEBATKA HELD TODAY

Services This Morning at the Holy Rosary Catholic Church Conducted by Rev. Suesser.

From Tuesday's Daily.

This morning at 10 o'clock at the Holy Rosary Catholic church occurred the funeral services of the late Walter Sebarka, whose sudden death Saturday afternoon came as a severe shock to the family and friends.

The requiem mass of the church was celebrated by the Rev. Father Ferdinand Suesser, rector of the church and was very beautiful and impressive as the last tributes to the young man were paid by the minister.

Following the services the body was borne to the Catholic cemetery, where it was laid to rest. The pall bearers were selected from the friends and associates of the deceased, being John Toman, Frank Bueck, Charles Strastky, John Palacek, Joseph Vanek and Albert Janda.

Thus is laid to the last long rest of one of the best and most generous of the community and one whose loss will be keenly felt by those who have been so intimately associated with him in the past and who will miss very much his pleasing and genial ways in their daily walks of life.

TRAINMEN START TO TAKE A STRIKE VOTE

First of Big Four Paves Way For a Walkout, Other Three to Defy Ballot For a Time

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Taking of the strike vote of railroad workers of the country was under way today. The brotherhood of trainmen was the first of the big four union organizations to start its test of workers' sentiment on whether to accept wage cuts, or walk out.

Ballots were sent out to the 159,000 members of the trainmen's union, simultaneously with the dispatch of union officials and representatives to various railroad centers of the country to see that every member votes. A complete vote is expected by the union leaders.

Five hundred thousand members of the federal union crafts have already voted to walk out of their demands are not met.

The other three brotherhoods' strike vote will be started before the end of the week. The trainmen broke away from the other three brotherhoods in taking the strike vote because of the proposed wording of the ballots.

A statement accompanying the trainmen's ballots declared the vote of the membership to accept the wage reduction or to "leave the service of the railroad rather than to continue under the reduce wages now in effect" will be final and binding upon officers of the union.

The other three brotherhoods, it was said by officers of the trainmen's union, desired to word the ballot in such a manner that the union officers would be authorized to disregard a vote to strike if they saw fit.
