JOE BANNING,

UNION -- -- -- NEBRASKA

Miss Lydia Hines, of Omaha, formerly of Union, was a visitor with friends here last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Keedy were visiting for Sunday at the home of Attorney C. H. Taylor and family in Omaha.

Earl Leesley of Omaha with the Missouri Pacific was a visitor in Union, where he was working for the company.

Miss Gladys Eaton departed last Saturday for Wakefield, where she will make her home for the winter with her sister.

Mrs. Charles Hoback and babe spent the day last Monday at the home of her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor.

The Rev. E. W. White, while on his way from Omaha to Peru, stopped for a short visit with his friends, the Rev. S. Miller.

Last Friday Attorney J. D. Graves of Peru was a visitor in Union and guest with his brother, Attorney C. L. Graves of this place.

R. D. Stine was busy last Monday afternoon building cribs for the holding of his excellent corn crop, which he is beginning to harvest.

Messrs Clarence Dukes, Herbert LaRue and Hollis Banning, who are attending the state university at Lincoln, spent Sunday at home.

Mrs. B. A. Taylor, who has been ill for some time, is greatly improved and is able to be up and about the house most of the time now.

Grant Simmons and John Madison, of Nebraska City, were callers in Union, where they were looking after some business for the day.

Joseph Fetzer, of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Union for the day last Sunday and guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. M. Patterson.

While D. R. Frans was looking after some business matters in Omaha last Monday, Mr. W. H. Mark was looking after the affairs at the lumber yard.

Jack Lidgett purchased Spotted Poland China hogs recently and will embark in the pure bred hog business, selecting the Spotted Poland China as his choice of breeding.

The Rev. W. A. Taylor held services at Wabash last Sunday morning, but did not remain for the evening service on account of the death of Mrs. Taylor's brother at Denver.

George Lindsay was at the Weeping Water fair last week assisting in caring for the herd of Chester White hogs, which Jack Lidgett has been selecting.

Joe Lidgett sold four hogs at the Cass county fair and purchased two more. And say, did you see his green pig? He secured within twenty days 22 ribbons on his Chester Whites.

A. L. Becker and son Roy were in the market at Nebraska City last Monday with a load of fine Duroc Jersey porkers, which were raised on the Becker farm and were a fine lot of hogs.

Miss Fay Hansel won the first prize in the fancy work, her work being the tating of a center piece, which was indeed a thing of beauty. The first premium was awarded the right one.

The Baptist Missionary society are meeting this week at the home of their fellow member, Mrs. J. I. Dyson, and are enjoying the day greatly besides disposing of their regular grist of business.

The World Wide Guild girls gave a banquet to Miss Bl. the Hindoo girl, who spoke here last Sunday in the afternoon at the basement of the church building and all enjoyed the occasion very much.

Many of the farmers are picking corn and more will soon be at it. It is the intention of the farmers to get their corn in the crib as soon as they can, and thus avoid the bad weather should it set in early.

Jedites C. Roddy and son are visiting in Nebraska City last Saturday, where they drove to look after some trading for the day. They were accompanied by Miss Virginia Hunnicutt, teacher of the Sciota school.

George W. Saxton and wife, of Lincoln, arrived in Union a few days since and will make their home here for the winter, and will stay at the home of their son, Floyd Saxton and wife, assisting in the work on the farm.

Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Barritt departed last Tuesday for Independence, Mo., where they visited for a few days at the home of a sister of Dr. Barritt, returning after having had a very enjoyable time last Saturday evening.

Last Monday Paul Swan took a load of hogs to the Nebraska City market for Harry Gobelman and John Clarence and on their return brought back some merchandise for the Farmers Co-operative store and Ira Clark.

The pupils of the school have successfully put across a play which was produced by a traveling company, the school receiving 25 per cent of the proceeds. The play being known as "Under the Cross," and was one well worth while.

The Union schools were dismissed last Friday in order that the children could attend the Cass county fair, much good school work being on exhibition and which would be an education to the scholars as much as the day in school.

Mrs. Mont Robb and daughter, who have been at Plattsmouth for several weeks past, where Mrs. Robb has been taking treatment for her health from the celebrated Dr. H. C. Leopold, returned to their home in Union. Mrs. Robb feeling much improved.

George Eaton and wife who have been visiting for some time at Arriba, Colorado, at the home of their son, D. A. Eaton, returned home last Monday afternoon and were met in Lincoln by Charles Eaton their son, and his family with the auto. They enjoyed a very good time while away.

Delbert Caldwell and family, who have made their home in the north for a number of years, but who formerly lived in Union, arrived here a few days since and will make their home here in the future. They are at present visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Taylor, of Nehawka.

Miss Nellie Bramblet, who has been in Omaha for something over two weeks, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis, and has so far recovered that she could be out, arrived home last Sunday, being accompanied by her father, Mr. J. D. Bramblet, who went to assist in bringing her home.

D. B. Porter hauled two loads of hogs to the Nebraska City market last Monday, driving the truck of Mr. A. R. Dowler, the enterprising garage man. In the morning Mr. Porter took a load of porkers to the market for Mr. J. T. Reynolds, and in the afternoon another load for Harry Frans and Dean Austin.

Miss Mary Foster upon the receipt of a message calling her to the hospital at Rochester, Minn., departed last Sunday, where Mrs. Nettie Stanton, who has been making very satisfactory progress since her first operation, is to have the second during the week. It is hoped that she will be restored to health after this second operation.

Last week while looking after some business matters, Mont Robb met at Oxford John Mackay, who formerly lived in Plattsmouth and worked for a number of years in the Burlington shops, but who has for the past fifteen years been at Oxford, where he has charge of an ele-

Col. Chase Dies in Denver
Columbine Chase, known as Col. Chase, and a brother of Mrs. W. A. Taylor, making his home in Denver, died at his home in Denver last Saturday evening from blood poisoning produced by a scratch of a nail which he received at his work which is that of roofing. Mr. Chase and family stopped here for a short time last summer while touring the east, accompanied by his wife and child, which he leaves to mourn his departure. The funeral was held in Denver and interment was there.

Joe Lidgett Sweeps the Plate
Joe Lidgett with his excellent Chester White hogs at the Cass county fair last week at Weeping Water, took so many ribbons that he seemed a bunch of fluttering silk. On seven hogs he was able to win twelve premiums. His winnings were four champions, five first premiums, and three second prizes. This looks pretty good, but one does not realize the worth of this drove of hogs until he has seen them. Better take a day off and go see them at the home if you are not able to see them at the fair.

Furniture Much Cheaper
Joe Banning has just sold to J. W. Simmons the operator, a new Great Western stove, which will take either wood or coal. This is a wonderful stove and is the kind which Mr. Banning is selling. See his ad in this issue and note the substantial reduction in prices of furniture. You with these prices cannot afford to go elsewhere to trade. Step in and see the bargains which he is offering not alone in the line advertised but all others.

Giving Some Good Shows
Ray Beier, who has been furnishing the people of Union with some good shows during the past month, has graciously concluded to have no show the Saturday of this week, on account of the same date being occupied by the first number of the lecture course, which some of the enterprising citizens of Union are putting on. This is a very considerate policy of Mr. Becker who will come in again with an excellent show, which will be announced in next week's paper.

Ducks We Should Say So.
Last Saturday night D. B. Porter, Fred Clark, Earl Merritt and Sherman Austin, taking their camping outfit with them, went to the Missouri river and there camped for the night. Arising early Sunday morning they took advantage of the excellent shooting as the dawn appeared, and before the best of the morning was past had bagged 38 ducks, besides the ones which got away. They used the new boat which Ira Clark built during the summer and found it a good help.

Picnicked at Larsh Farm
A merry crowd of picnickers composed of Edwin Duff, Ralph Duff and Paul Kellogg and their families, came to the farm of John N. Larsh, where they spent the day picnicking and enjoying the outing to the utmost. The home of Mr. Larsh and wife is a place where one can enjoy themselves, there being an elegant spring of pure water bubbling out of the hill side and running in a babbling stream away to the river.

Is Building a Good Crib
C. H. Taylor of Omaha is having an excellent crib constructed on his place southeast of Union for the reception of the large corn crop which his rented Mr. Nottingham raised there this summer. Mr. W. L. Crawford will build the crib.

School Notes
High school classes have organized and the Seniors have as presiding officer, Sarah Johnson; secretary and treasurer, Pearl Eaton; class sponsor, Mr. Severn; Juniors, La Von Frans, president; Cordelia Roddy, secretary; Virginia Harris, secretary-treasurer; Miss Neumann sponsor; Sophomores, Harold James president; Mildred Clark, vice president; Vera Upton secretary-treasurer; Miss Tobin, sponsor. Freshmen, Cleoma Farris, president; Herbert Roddy, vice president; Doris Frans, secretary; Hubert Roddy, treasurer; Miss Tobin sponsor.

School was dismissed last Friday so those wishing to attend the fair at Weeping Water might do so.

The first fire drill was given on Thursday when all the school marched out very quickly.

Elza Taylor played his accordion for opening exercises one morning at school last week.

Spelling matches are held in the grades every other Friday; to spell correctly cannot be overemphasized, neither can writing, reading and arithmetic.

Visitors in the intermediate grades last week were Mrs. R. Foster and Mrs. Ryan.

Lost—Tire and Rim
Lost, between Union and my home a tire and rim to Ford car. Finder please notify J. E. McCarroll.

Henry C. Creamer came up this afternoon from his home near Murray and departed on the afternoon train for Omaha where he was called to attend to some matters at the live stock market.

and with an abundance of cool shade on the elegant lawn, besides the best of all the splendid hospitality of Mr. Larsh and wife, whose home is known for the fine reception which they give their friends.

The New Methodist Pastor
Fortunate indeed is the Methodist church of Union in the fact that the conference which has just dissolved, Lincoln is sending them for their pastor for the coming year the Rev. George B. Warren, who has for the past year been pastor of one of the churches of Omaha. The Rev. Warren, while preaching at Omaha, was also principal of the consolidated school at Murdock, where he gave excellent satisfaction. During the closing of the school years last summer, he has requests to deliver the address at more than a score of schools, some of which he filled and others which he could not, on account of conflicting dates.

Rev. Warren is very studious, very eloquent and with a good education is well qualified to either fill the pulpit or the chair of an instructor in an institution of learning.

Selling Many Tickets
Those in charge of the Lyceum course have been busy selling tickets and have disposed of a large number and at the prices at which they are being sold, there will have to be a large number more disposed of to make the enterprise a success. The tickets for the entire season are for adults $1.35 and for scholars, $1.00. Those who have not yet purchased, had better get in line and secure a ticket for surely this is a very low price for such an excellent entertainment. The first number will be given on this Saturday night, and is an excellent number, it being the Chicago Concert Duo.

Have Began Revival Meetings
The Rev. S. Miller pastor of the Baptist church with the assistance of the Rev. T. H. Dabney of New Market, Ia., who is an evangelist, have begun a series of revival meetings at the Baptist church and to which they cordially invite every one to attend. There will be good music and singing and the word will be preached straight from the shoulder, come and hear.

Miss Rei Makes Address
Miss Rei the high cast Hindoo, who is taking a course in the state university, was a visitor in Union last Sunday accompanied by a number of the ladies from the Baptists church in Lincoln and made an address at the morning hour at the Baptist church here, which was enjoyed by a large crowd.

Regular Services Next Sunday
There will be regular services of both the Methodist and Baptist churches with their auxiliaries the coming Sunday and all are cordially invited to attend.

Will Enjoy the Day
The ladies of the Methodist Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. J. S. Hansen on Thursday of this week and besides looking after the business of the order will enjoy a picnic dinner.

Using Their Talent (Nickel)
The Intermediate class of the Baptist Sunday school, which had 20 members last April, were given a nickel each to use for six months and then at a meeting report what it has earned. At the meeting last Thursday the reports were made as follows: Earl Niday had a winning of 2500 per cent, his nickel winning him $2.55 or rather $2.50, as he returned the nickel intrusted to him. This report thus far aggregated $185 which is a very creditable showing. The class grew from 20 to 24 and two moved away leaving only 22.

National Headquarters Notify Local Lodge of Assessment of $1.50 on Each Member

The local officers of the Elks' lodge have been notified of the fact that there has been levied a special assessment of $1.50 per member for the purpose of assisting in the work of constructing the new headquarters in Chicago and also the establishing of the Elks' magazine which will be sent to each member of the order in the nation. The last grand lodge at Los Angeles voted to locate the headquarters at Chicago and the building that is planned will cost the sum of $2,500,000 and it will stand as a memorial to the Elks serving in the World War. The building fund will take up $1 of the special assessment while the 50c per member will go toward the starting of the Elks magazine which was decided upon at the last grand lodge and which will be sent to each member of the order in the country. Secretary J. W. Holmes is preparing the announcements of the assessment to be sent out to the membership of the order here. The local lodge has also decided to renew the dances this winter and the committee in charge this year will be Guy Morgan, R. W. Knorr and Robert Walling, and it is expected that they will be ready shortly to announce the opening dance of the season. The lodge here will hold a class initiation on November 1st when a number of the residents of the community will be duly inducted into the mysteries of the order.
