Pennsylvania has nearly 7,000 tractors on its farms.

A uniform law for motor tracks is proposed for all states.

A $1,500 American truck costs 21,000 francs in Belgium.

Invisible government wouldn't be so fearful if it included invisible taxes.

Oregon says he will reduce the Mexican army by half. Why not do it twice?

Some go to the movies to rest their feet; others to practice reading aloud.

Herriek's being bombed ought not to worry a man who has to kiss Frenchmen.

Now that perfume is being made from poison war gasses, we may use the old masks again.

This foreign paper money would be worth more if they printed a comic strip on one side.

China is experimenting with growing cane and may raise a little at the disarmament party.

The French aviator who traveled 206 miles an hour probably got there before the bank closed.

One advantage about smoking a pipe is that your wife doesn't complain quite so often about ashes on the floor.

It is evident that Fatty Arbuckle will come clear of the crime of killing Virginia Rappe. Whether he ought to or not.

Wonder if one of the functions of the disarmament conference will be to pull the infant republics' teeth before they grow out?

The Scriptures give the idea that Adam and Eve were driven out of Eden, but there is a possibility that Eve felt she had lived in one place about long enough, anyway.

Never put off today what will have to be done tomorrow, but on the other hand some things, if put off today, will not have to be done tomorrow or at any other time.

The pop corn season approaches. City folks, when your children weary of their toy airplanes and mechanical dolls, buy them a corn popper. The child that has never shaken the popper and watched yellow kernels explode into fluffy white pop corn, has missed one of the real joys of life. Hot and buttered, or candied into balls, it is as vital, for a complete childhood, as Santa or Charlie Chaplin.

George E. Bider, 44 years old, is trying to figure it out in his home at Cedar Rapids, Iowa. George is the step-father of his former wife and the grandfather of six of his own children. That is the result of his marrying his mother-in-law, after getting a divorce from her daughter, who is mother of his six children. Remember Bider when your brows are knit solemnly, trying to figure out what relation you are to some one.

The end of a perfect day is when supper burns.

Misery doesn't love company that stays for dinner.

There is always room for one more oyster in the soup.

Poland is about one-tenth the size of the United States.

Movie people seem to spend honeymoons in divorce courts.

If might doesn't always make right, it seldom gets left.

Wealth may not bring happiness but then, neither does poverty.

All the average man has against tainted money is that 'taint his.

The most permanent, and costly wave seems to be the crime wave.

Down in North Carolina they are feeding the surplus apple crop to the hogs. And apples are not fattening, either. And here we are paying $2.50 and $3.00 per bushel.

Two famous pictures were sold for a million dollars each recently, but something seem to tell us they will never pay dividends on the investments. Which recalls the story of the Chicago millionaire who upbraided his son for paying $3,000 for a picture of three sheep. "Young man," he said, "I could buy several car loads of real sheep for the money."

Aesop's fables, now being cartooned in the movies, appeal to audiences as sound common sense, the same as they appealed to the Greeks 2450 years ago. The fundamental truths of life never change. We are always looking for "the truth," yet usually the search takes us back to old ideas, tried out through the centuries. The search is not futile. It unveils new truths. That is progress.

Mrs. Patrick Kelley is granted a divorce in Boston. This was her thirty-fourth appearance in court, owing to the peculiarities of her husband, and she hopes it will be the last. Strange doings, under some roofs. If you could be a mouse and spend a day in each home in Plattsmouth you would lose all interest in novels and movies, branding them as same. Also, you'd thank your lucky stars for your lot in life.

Ice cream manufacturers hold a national convention in Minneapolis. They say that ice cream consumed by Americans has increased 100,000,000 gallons a year since prohibition went into effect. That's nearly a gallon for every man, woman and child. But is prohibition really responsible? Imagination has to work overtime to picture an old-time bar fly finding, in ice cream, a substitute for fire water.

The more a man groans around in the world the less cranky he becomes.

After the trip is over a man realizes those, "No hunting" signs were correct.

A man wants a divorce because his wife is a palmist. An itching palmist, perhaps.

Girls looking for a husband had better be careful about whose husband they get.

After all, bobbed hair has great future possibilities. It is the only feasible home hair cut.

These tourists going overseas to see war ruins had better stay at home and give our war ruins jobs.

Looking up the address of the state penitentiary is a task the sophisticated usually leave to the sheriff.

That Washington chafeur who was stung for $250 by a man in naval uniform probably favors complete disarmament.

Of course, the moths did some damage to our winter B. V. D.s but they are suffering mostly from the tooth of time.

A contemporary advises us that business depression has cost the farmers $7,000,000,000. Somebody has to foot the bill.

One of the things we refuse to get excited about is the government report showing the parsnip crop to be a total failure in several states.

It is now generally recognized that the railroad brotherhoods were mere bluffing, but they quickly found out that the public wasn't.

Remember, a heated argument accomplishes no purpose whatever save to increase your blood pressure—and it is probably high enough, anyway.

It would probably be hard to convince the proprietors of Washington hotels that no direct benefits will come from the disarmament conference.

Sheep glands to make brains reminds us—what became of the old fellow who used to carry a buckeye in his pocket to ward off rheumatism?

Frank Simonds, the war critic, says we will be fighting with Japan in less than five years. All right, Frank. Maybe we can save enough to buy a Sam Browne belt by that time.

How Gasoline Uniformity Affects Motor Operation

Instant ignition, quick starts and steady power depend on the mixture of air and gasoline vapor in the cylinders. If you use gasoline of dependable uniformity, it is not difficult to adjust your carburetor so that you get uniform results. How satisfactory these results are depends, in turn, on the quality and nature of the gasoline. If it is straight distilled gasoline, with a proper proportion of low, intermediate and higher boiling point fractions, you get instant ignition and lots of power from a lean, clean-burning, economical mixture.

Red Crown Gasoline is straight distilled gasoline that meets all the specifications of the U. S. Government for motor gasoline. YOU CAN'T IMPROVE ON IT FOR WINTER USE.

KANSAS CITY'S PRAYER TO THE PRESIDENT FOR PEACE

Immediately after the morning session of the legion convention the delegates and visitors went to the Union station plaza, where the memorial of Kansas City for the war was dedicated.
While the memorial was being dedicated, Kansas City sent to President Harding and to the nation as a whole, a message of peace. The message, prepared by R. A. Long, president of the Liberty Memorial association, in the name of Kansas City, will be carried by a dove, the emblem of peace and good will. The message said:
"Greetings, Mr. President, greetings of peace and good will from Kansas City.
"We are assembled in one place and with one accord, consecrating Memorial Hill to the glory of God and the honor of those who won the world war. Foch, the marshal of France and conqueror of Germany, is here; Diaz, the defender of Italy, is here; Jacques, the redeemer of Belgium; Pershing, the American 'God keep' is here; 80,000 legionnaires, mighty men of valor, are here; fathers and mothers of the glorious fallen, are here; wounded and groping heroes are here; the mighty souls of the multitudinous dead are here; the quickened spirit of liberty is here—all in one accord—peace.

"In the coming peace council may our glorious country win more glory still by leading the war-weary nations of the earth out of the wilderness of discord and dismay into the Canaan of peace and prosperity."

The men disappeared between 8:30 and 9 o'clock Sunday evening. The report received by Superintendent Miller concerning their capture said the men were caught in the act of breaking into a store. ## Makes Motoring Economies Not Only Possible But Certain

With carbon cleaned out and a supply of fresh, clean Polarine, you go faster and further on a gallon of gasoline. But that is not the greatest economy of a clean, properly lubricated motor. Freedom from wear on bearings and moving parts saves much more money. According to leading automotive engineers 90% of the total expense for motor repairs is caused by using lubricating oils of inferior quality or wrong body.

Polarine is made by special processes which render it free from excess carbon. It maintains a protecting oil cushion in the bearings and between moving parts, and a gas-tight and fuel-tight seal between piston rings and cylinders. Polarine is made in four grades—light, medium heavy, heavy and extra heavy—but only one quality. Get the proper grade for your car next time by referring to Polarine chart at our Service Stations or dealers, and you will start cutting down motoring costs.
