DEATH CLAIMS MRS. O. VIRGIN

The news of the death of Mrs. O. Virgin, who died at her home near Dunbar on Sunday February 12th, came as a shock to her many friends in and near here. Mrs. Virgin, nee Miss Mary Hunter, was well known here and lived in Murray the greater portion of her life, coming here when a very small child, and growing to womanhood here where she formed many and lasting friendships. Here she was nearly twenty years ago united in marriage to Mr. Ozro Virgin, they living near Murray until a few years since when they removed to Otoe county and have lived between Dunbar and Syracuse where they have engaged in farming. There were born to this couple one son now eighteen years of age, Mr. Buhl Virgin, who with the husband mourns the loss of the mother. The funeral was held at Dunbar and the burial made at Nebraska City last Tuesday morning. Mrs. Virgin was 46 years of age and early united with the Presbyterian church and was a member of the Missionary society assisting in its organization and was also a member of the Royal and Neighbors of America, and was, indeed, a royal neighbor to all who needed a friend. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holmes make their home at Nebraska City where the interment of this excellent lady was made. Many of the relatives and friends from Murray and here were present at the funeral which occurred on Tuesday at Dunbar. Not alone will the family and immediate relatives miss this excellent woman but no one who has lived neighbor to her can say but what her excellent life made the neighborhood better.

DEATH CALLS WELL BELOVED LADY OF THE CITY TODAY

Mrs. William McCauley Passes Away This Afternoon Following an Illness of a Short Time.

From Wednesday's Daily. Today shortly after the passing of the noon hour the spirit of Mrs. William McCauley was called to its final reward, the death coming at the close of a sickness that has covered the past two weeks and during which the patient had gradually succumbed to the encroachments of her sufferings until the messenger of death brought to her rest and peace.

The death comes as a severe blow to the old friends who have known and loved this estimable lady during her years of life here and to whom the departed lady had proven a friend, indeed. In her daily life and association with those whom she came in touch, Mrs. McCauley was a kind and thoughtful friend and neighbor and her loss will be keenly felt by those who were near and dear to her.

The deceased lady was born December 20, 1850, in the state of Ohio, and spent her girlhood in that state, later removing to Illinois where at Macomb, June 14, 1870, she was united in marriage to William McCauley. The family came to Plattsmouth in 1887, where Mr. McCauley entered the employe of the Burlington and continued here until a few years before his death which occurred on February 14, 1921, just a year and a day before that of the wife. Since the death of the husband, Mrs. McCauley has awaited with Christian patience the day when the gates of death might open to the reuniting of the ties of love that had been severed on this earth and to join the husband in the life beyond the vision of mortal eyes.

There remain to mourn the passing of this good woman, two children, Fred and Charles McCauley, both of this city, as well as three grand children, Mrs. Doris Patterson Pullisalo, of Rockford, Illinois, James Patterson of Denver and Donald Patterson of Arapahoe, Nebraska. One sister, Mrs. Joel Messersmith of Lincoln and one brother, Print Latham of Harelock, are also left to mourn her passing. One daughter, Mrs. Samuel Patterson and an infant son, have preceded Mrs. McCauley in death.

The funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the First Presbyterian church of which the deceased has long been a member and the interment made at Oak Hill cemetery.

DE MOLAY CHAPTER HAS BIG MEETING LAST NIGHT

From Wednesday's Daily. One of the most largely attended meetings of the season was held by Case Chapter, Order of De Molay, last evening and the session was attended by large delegations of the Masons of this city as well as Nebraska City. The Royal Arch Masons of the Otoe county city are preparing to sponsor a chapter of the De Molay in their city, which is hoped to have going in a short time and after witnessing the work here last evening the decision was that Case chapter should have the honor of instituting the new chapter when the membership is recruited.

The officers of the local chapter carried out in the most impressive manner the initiatory degree and the De Molay degree on the class of four candidates, Raymond Scott, Theodore Johnson, Harry Newman of this city and "Buck" Bremer of Elmwood, being the candidates to receive the work.

At the close of the lodge work Attorney A. L. Tidd gave the young men a very inspirational address on the teachings of De Molay and congratulated the order on the stand for the advancement of education and for the upholding of the public school system of America, as well as reviewing in brief the life of De Molay and the incidents of his time. Prof. W. G. Brooks, former superintendent of the city schools here, and one of the leaders of the visiting Nebraska City Masons, also gave a most pleasing talk along the lines of the wonderful benefits of the order. Brief addresses were also made by Attorney W. A. Robertson, H. A. Schneider of this city and Attorney J. A. Capwell of Elmwood, as well as Mr. Dreamer of the initiated class.

And Now Let's All Pull Together For a Bigger and Better Nebraska

Sensing a NEW NOTE in the air of Nebraska, The Omaha Bee about two weeks ago sent Paul Greer, The Bee expert in farm economics, to cover the state and report his findings through staff articles in The Omaha Bee.

The Greer series constituted perhaps the greatest newspaper series in the history of the state. Greer found conditions better than even the most optimistic had thought them to be. The Nebraska farmer with characteristic courage and industry had already hewed his way to better times, UNTIL ONLY THE SHELL REMAINED TO BE BROKEN THROUGH. Greer, through The Bee series—cracked the shell and awoke Nebraska to a realization of the prosperity that is at hand.

Such great newspapers as The Chicago Tribune, New York Times and Boston Transcript reproduced many of the Greer Series simultaneously with The Omaha Bee, and did much to set Nebraska right with the world.

Only the Calamity Propagandist remains now to be overcome—he who for political or other purposes is willing to depress business, the prices of farm products, and even land values themselves. But even the Calamity Propagandist cannot long survive returning prosperity in Nebraska.

For Nebraskans—it's just a question of "pulling together." Let each employer pull with his employes and each employe with his employer. Let the seller keep faith with the buyer, and let the buyer not "lay down" on the seller. Let each member pull with his organization and each organization with its rival organizations.

Let's do all of this "with malice toward none and charity for all"—FOR A BIGGER AND BETTER NEBRASKA AND for an ARMISTICE OF THE CONSEQUENCES of the World War.

PLANS FURTHER MOVE TO OBTAIN RELEASE

Evelyn Priess, McElhaney Not Going to Stop Effort to Release Her From Penitentiary.

Mrs. Evelyn Priess McElhaney, young Alliance woman serving a thirty year sentence in the state penitentiary for a murder which she claims she did not commit, insists that the evidence she has, to substantiate her claim, will be presented to some authorities in some way that will eventually bring her case up for another hearing.

Mrs. McElhaney expressed surprise at the statement of County Attorney Lee Basey of Box Butte county that sufficient evidence was not presented to him to influence him to reopen the case. She claims that when she left for the penitentiary a year ago that she told Basey that she did not kill Earl Anderson and that she further told him who did the killing. She says she also gave the names of witnesses who would substantiate her claims.

State Probation officer N. T. Harmon of the state board of pardons, gratulated the order on the stand for the advancement of education and for the upholding of the public school system of America, as well as reviewing in brief the life of De Molay and the incidents of his time.

She says she expects Mr. Brush to visit her in a few days and in the meantime she does not desire to give out any statements that will interfere with his plan other than to say that every effort will be made to bring her entire case in its new phase before the authorities.
