Mr. R. S. McCleery of Weeping Water was a visitor in Union for a few days last week looking after some business matters.

Miss Elsie Taylor departed last Saturday for Omaha where she is visiting to a while at the home of her brother and family, C. H. Taylor. The children of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Swanson who have been having the scarlet fever are getting along nice at this time and are about well.

Charles Renner and family of Eagle were visiting for over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Swanson, Mrs. Swanson being their daughter.

Mr. C. W. Clark landlord of the Clark hotel was a visitor in Nebraska City last Monday morning looking after some business of business for a few hours.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cross were out at their farm last Friday and stayed for the night also on Saturday having a good time getting home as they were caught in the rain.

Miss Gladys Hall who has been off from her work for some time on account of sickness has been back at her work for some time and is feeling very much improved.

R. E. Foster has been doing some concrete work at his home at the farm which is for the betterment of the working conditions there and is adding much to the farm's value.

Master Bernard Eaton who has been so sick at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hathaway is reported as being very much better and hopes are entertained of his continued progress.

Mr. J. H. Osborne who departed for Boonville, Mo., some time since, where he went for a short visit, finds things so pleasant there that he has continued his visit for a much longer period than he had contemplated.

Carl Grauf who formerly lived here but who is making his home at Falls City and who is at this time employed in the traffic department of the Missouri Pacific road was a visitor in Union for a short time last Sunday.

Harry Leech was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lidgett, where he visited with his son who is making his home with Mr. and Mrs. Lidgett. Harry was able to make the trip afoot and is getting stronger every day.

Mrs. Charles Van Doren of Forest Grove, Oregon, who has been visiting here a guest of her nephew, Mr. E. Leach some time past, departed last Friday for Elmwood where she will visit for some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peck.

Mr. Roy Woods living northeast of Union for a number of years, moved to town a short time since and has accepted a position with the Missouri Pacific on their track work being with the crew over which Mr. Geo. Wray has charge and is now a regular employe of the road.

Mr. V. P. Sheldon of Nehawka was a visitor in Union for a short time last Monday while on his way to Omaha where he goes to visit with his son, Merrill, who is receiving treatment at the Wise Memorial hospital after having undergone an operation for the removing of a tumor in his neck.

Martin Nelson, who formerly was engaged in business at Union, but who has been making his home in Lincoln for the past number of months, was a visitor in Union for a few hours between trains last Sunday, and visited with his numerous friends here for the time. Mr. Martin is looking well and says he is feeling the same.

Mrs. John Campbell of Murray and Mrs. Peter Clarence of Hartington, sisters, the latter having been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Campbell, arrived in Union last Monday and visited for the day and in the evening departed for Weeping Water, where they visited another sister, Mrs. A. A. Johnson, for a few days after which they both departed for their homes.

G. M. Sherwood who has been staying for the winter at the home of Mr. Geo. A. Stites while he was at the hospital, departed last Monday for Chappell, where he will make his home again and feeling much better but had a time with the grappling of the disease which required the operation. His many friends are pleased to know of his progress towards complete recovery.

Miss Lelia Hoback who has been in Omaha for some time caring for the little niece, Mary Hoback, who has been in the Lord Lister hospital for some time, returned home last Friday and was for the two days following the guest at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor. Miss Lelia reports the little patient as getting along nicely and making very satisfactory progress towards recovery.

A. R. Dowler the automobile man, has rearranged his office and has placed the desks and showcases across the room so as to divide the room and allow sufficient space behind the desks and showcases for his office work, and has placed signs commanding the public to keep out but allowing sufficient space for the clients outside. The arrangement is nicely made and allows sufficient room on the outer side for the customers and permits better service from the inside.

Met All the Family
The Rev. S. Miller and wife, who have been away for some time, returned home last Friday from their stay at Grand Island where they attended the state convention of the Baptist church, and also visited with their children. Last Sunday they were present at the home of the children at Glenville, where all the family were present at dinner and all enjoyed the occasion very much. The entire family attended the meeting at Grand Island all occupying the same pew.

Red Polled Bull For Sale
I have an excellent Red Polled bull for sale.
THOMAS McQUINN.

Fans Warming Up
The baseball fans are getting somewhat interested in the national game and last Sunday they got out and limbered up some in a choose-up game which they spread over the diamond. They generated considerable speed and showed they had not forgotten the game.

Arrives From California
Last Friday L. G. Todd, who has been driving from Los Angeles to this place, arrived at Nehawka and the following day in Union where he visited at the home of his brother, Mr. L. G. Todd, and family. Mr. L. G. Todd found some very bad roads between here and the city on the Pacific and also some that were excellent. Mr. Todd will visit here for some time and with friends in town near here.

At a recent meeting of the Bible school of the Baptist church there were elected officers for the coming year. Those elected were: Superintendent, Rue Frans; Assistant, Rev. S. Miller; Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Laura Upton; Chorister, Miss Besse LaRue; Pianist, Mrs. Roy Gerking; Assistant, Miss Vera Upton; Librarian, Miss Sarah Upton; Assistant, Miss Ruth Warden; Superintendent of cradle roll, Miss Mildred Clark; Assistant Miss Ina LaRue.

Will Hold Easter Services
Both the Methodist and Baptist churches of Union are preparing for some special music and will hold some very interesting services on the coming Sunday. Better make arrangements to attend either the one or the other of these churches, you will enjoy it.

Little Child Dies
Little Verle, the year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Del Cadwell who was so ill for a number of days notwithstanding that everything was done for her, passed away at the home last Wednesday and was buried on Thursday at the home of her parents, the Rev. W. A. Taylor conducting the services. A large number of friends and neighbors were present to pay their respects to the little one and to offer sympathy and consolation to the sorrowing parents. Verle was born February 20, 1921, and died on April 13, 1922, age, one year, one month and fifteen days.

Progressing in the West
A recent letter from Messrs. Carl and Ray Cross who are located at Arriba, Colo., tells of their making much progress in the west where they are farming. They have just completed the seeding of 120 acres of wheat and have already in 90 acres of rye, and in winter wheat, 170, making in small grain in all 380 acres, and will put to corn as soon as the season is ready, 80 acres and this looks like they are keeping somewhat busy.
