HAVE MERCY, O LORD

Have mercy upon me, O Lord; consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death: I will rejoice in thy salvation.—Psalms ix, 13 and 14.

Don't judge a woman by her husband.

No exercise is as healthy as exercising discretion.

It isn't the cost of white trousers, "It's the upkeep."

It's about time to mobilize your hay fever remedies.

Health hint: Never make a girl mad enough to tell the truth.

A speeder doesn't break any records getting out of the hospital.

Mexican caught one American for ransom, but he ran some himself.

Any fool can recognize a good thing when the other fellow has it.

Radium is down to $13,125,000 an ounce. Look out for profiteers.

A crazy man attacked a policeman in Boston. He sure was crazy.

A transparent Palm Beach suit shows you what kind of a man he is.

The man always turning up his nose might as well turn up his toes.

The easter man's job is the more time he has to get disgusted with it.

What's worse than changing your mind after having your hair bobbed?

When an office starts out to seek a man it usually finds him coming to.

Tell your troubles to your unwelcome guest and he will soon depart.

Now that booze is being sold on the high seas: "Don't give up the ship."

It's getting so that when a man doesn't do wrong we don't hear about it.

The bore could teach the long distance runner something about staying qualities.

A Detroit man wooed and won a girl in 24 hours; but it took a lot of co-operation.

Jud Tunkins says there aren't as many farmers in politics as there are politicians in agriculture.

Very few people have ever gotten on their feet by constantly going round stepping on the other fellows' toes.

The only reliable substitute for brains is silence.

After all, all the early bird gets some times is up.

Lots of men with good eyes can't see you when you are broke.

Suzanne, it seems, took the "j" out of Mrs. Bjursted Mallory.

Watching the sunset is fine; but watching the sunrise is better.

Half way to anywhere is better than not to have made a start.

If their dresses are getting longer their legs are doing the same.

When two fishermen meet the recording angel writes shorthand.

Roasting ears are ripe, but don't gorge yourself at the first eating.

All a flea has to do to get his back scratched is to bite a dog.

A man who marries for money can't get along with or without his wife.

The bobbed hair craze is creating a demand for switches. Hair, not hickory.

A rolling stone gathers no moss. Also a diamond is no good until it has been polished.

"Face Odds to Run Trains." Well, that isn't quite so bad as having to face odds to ride on them.

Human beings are so much alike that everyone of them thinks he is different from the others.

An Oregon candidate spent one cent for campaign expenses, but what he got wasn't worth it.

Parents of small children understand the real significance of the expression "hand to mouth."

One reason why so many poor people remain poor: Is because people persist in continuing to learn to run country newspapers.

This Massachusetts man who gave a million dollars to a society of "liberal thinkers" probably will find that they are liberal spenders, too.

Medical science is greatly decreasing the number of deaf in this country, while industrial science increases day by day the number who wish they were deaf.

Canada has a larger percentage of home owners than any other nation. We are bordering on prosperity anyway.

One of the strangest things is how squarely a woman can hit another woman with a hammer, compared to the way she strikes at a nail with the same hammer.

If it was the Russians who broke up The Hague conference it must be said they have a strange way of treating people they are trying to borrow money from.

Russia now reports that with good luck it may be able to almost feed itself next winter which is perhaps the most remarkable testimonial bolshevism has yet received.

Maybe another reason we poke fun at the British practice of selling knighthoods and baronetcies is that we haven't any of those things for sale over here and have to pay taxes when somebody at Washington needs money.

We saw a moving picture the other night based upon the action of an old skinflint who tried to beat a widow out of her little property. But in real life, the skinflints don't bother the widows anymore, there being so many shrewd business men waiting around to be plucked.

Nine million Russians now are being kept alive on American food. This will show sentimental people who believe that society is cruel when it kills those who do murder. We dislike to see the sentimental shocked, but find comfort in the thought that the episode in question may also shock other persons in Louisiana who may be contemplating a butchery of their fellow citizens.

W. A. Steele was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Saturday and making the trip in his auto.

C. E. Hitt of Plattsmouth has been busy working at the Sheldon farm which is managed by Mr. L. M. McVey, east of town.

C. D. St. John and family were at the celebration of the birthday of Mr. Henry Ross, who was passing his 40th birthday anniversary last Tuesday.

Edgar Glaze, of Plattsmouth, is assisting in the threshing at the home of J. F. Behrens the first of the week, assisting W. L. Doughty with his machine.

The people of Nehawka are pleased with the nomination of Mr. A. F. Sturm, who was selected as the standard bearer of the republicans for the position of state senator.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Bartholomew and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Schroeder, all of Rock Port, Mo., were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Kime for the day last Wednesday.

Herman Beck, Alda Ingwerson and Z. W. Shrader north of town threshed during the fore part of the week and found that they received an excellent quality and a good yield.

Miss Frona Kime, who has been visiting for some time at the home of relatives at Rock Port, Mo., and where she had a most excellent time, returned home last Saturday evening.

The U. B. church has arranged to give a church picnic south of the Nehawka school building on Saturday, July 29th, at which time they are expected to have a most enjoyable time.

Warren Munn and W. O. Troop are making a good combination, the one furnishing the threshing outfit and the other the power plant, and are doing some excellent work north of town.

Ollie Allis, the capable mechanic at the Lundberg garage, was a visitor at his home in Wabash on last Saturday, enjoying the company of the family, and returned to his work here on Monday.

Mrs. Lucile Davis, manager of the Nehawka telephone exchange, was a visitor in Omaha, and also Lincoln during the past week and while there was looking after some business for the company.

Messrs Lester Wunderlich and Clyde Switzer, who are associated in the Berry Station business at Villisca, Iowa, were spending a short time in Nehawka last Sunday, making the trip in their auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cooney, of Nebraska City were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Burton last Sunday, they having an excellent time. Mr. and Mrs. Cooney being parents of Mrs. Burton.

Miss Ruth Hinton, who has been with the Sheldon Manufacturing company for a long time in the capacity of bookkeeper, is at this time taking her vacation which will extend for two weeks and is spending the same at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fahrlander, who make their home near Brule. The spending of the vacation at this hospitable home will be an added pleasure, as Miss Hinton and Mrs. Fahrlander were work mates when Mrs. Fahrlander was an employee of the Sheldon company as Miss Edith Frans.

Thanks Canada a Great Place Mr. R. M. Christwiser, who has been during the past summer making his home in Alberta, Canada, returned a short time since and has many good words to say for the great northwest where he and Roy Shrader and family spent the summer. Mr. Christwiser will arrange to return to Canada in the near future to make his home there.

Now Has a Jewelry Store Nehawka is indeed fortunate in that Mr. E. R. Kendle, formerly of Syracuse has come to town and made his home here. Mr. Kendle and family have come to Nehawka and are making this their home and will be influential in the making of a better Nehawka. Mr. Kendle is an accomplished jeweler and watchmaker and has instituted an excellent store here, which will supply a long felt demand in this line. Mr. Kendle opened the room, but not having time to display the goods, he received the people who came with words of encouragement and appreciation for the fact of the establishment of this new industry, assuring him an excellent business.

On Monday morning Mr. Kendle got the goods arranged and has a most presentable and neatly arranged stock of watches, clocks, jewelry and silverware which he is offering at very moderate prices. The first day saw a good business done and we are sure that there is opportunity for a much better business in the days that are to come.

Dry Cleaning makes fine suits, sport and according to Dainty Dorothy

"It don't take a man long to bag his pants at the knees, and to make a finely tailored suit look thoroughly disreputable—that's the man of it," avers Dainty Dorothy.

But she goes on to explain that the man who is making use of our cleaning, steaming and pressing services is keeping his clothes in much more presentable condition than when he got acquainted with us. And it doesn't cost much, either.
