Pm. Meyers and mother, Mrs. August Panska and sister, Wilma, were visiting in Lincoln last Thursday making the trip in the morning in their auto.

L. Neitzel gave a 30 minute talk on "The Reward of Labor" at the Y. P. A. meeting Sunday evening which was much appreciated by those who were present.

Harry V. McDonald and family were taking an outing last Thursday at Meadow, where they spent the time in fishing. Miss Mary Tool accompanied them.

Mr. Max Dusterhoff is now ready for the rain, as he has the roof placed on his building and does not fear the water coming through. Mr. Matt Thimgan did the work.

Mrs. J. E. McHugh and the children were visiting in Lincoln for a few days, guests at the home of her parents while there. The boys say they had a most excellent time.

Dr. S. B. MacDiarmid and family and O. J. Hitchcock and family were at the home of L. Neitzel last Sunday celebrating the eighth anniversary of the doctor's wedding to Miss Meta Neitzel.

Mrs. M. Inhelder and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Halburst and son Frank are visiting at the home of Mrs. M. Inhelder's sister, Mrs. Chris Miller, coming down in Mr. Halburst's car.

Messrs. E. M. Shatto and Diller left for South Dakota, where they will expect to work in the harvest and threshing which is in full blast there at this time.

W. O. Gillespie and A. J. Bauer were putting up hay for the most part of last week and storing it in the livery stable against the winter which is just now looking over the northwest horizon.

Mr. H. A. Guthman of the Bank of Murdock was looking after some business matters in Lincoln last Thursday, driving over in his automobile and was accompanied by the family on the trip.

Fred Klemme and family were visiting in Lincoln and also looking after some business matters and were accompanied by Miss Anna Dornmeier, they making the trip in the auto of Mr. Klemme.

Herry Davie is painting the interior and exterior of the Modern Washmen hall, and which was in need of the touch of the painter, as time had taken into the wood of the building rather shabby.

Mr. J. E. McHugh was called to Omaha last Wednesday to look after some business and returned via Thursday, returning home via Ashland and was met there by Mrs. McHugh and family.

Mrs. Fred Inhelder and daughter, Mrs. Ruth Hobart, of Pierce, have been visiting at the homes of H. R. Schmidt and wife and L. C. Miller and wife, Mrs. Inhelder being a sister of Mr. Schmidt and Mrs. Miller.

The Y. P. A. program held last Sunday was very successful. Miss Bertha Merkle was the leader and she handled the subject in a most capable manner. It would be well for others to aspire to the same position.

Mrs. E. R. Norton, who has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Wiseman, near Avoca for a number of days past, returned home last Thursday evening. Mr. Norton driving over after her in the afternoon.

A. A. Lindell and family departed last week for the west in auto and will spend some three weeks in Colorado and the mountains, and have an excellent time. While they are away, Mr. George Utt is assisting in the work and care of the farm.

Chester Stone of Nelawha was in Murdock last Thursday evening for a short time while returning from near Ashland, where he had been to bring home his two little sisters, Misses Mearie and Catharine Stone, who had been up spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Day Churchill.

Mr. A. H. Ward, the excellent and genial mechanic at the garage of Mr. E. W. Thimgan, has purchased the property known as the Isenbut place from Mr. E. M. Shatto and is having the building painted inside by Mr. H. H. Lawton for use for the present and will have the new house built this spring.

Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Hornbeck have departed for a number of points in Texas, where they will spend two weeks visiting with friends and taking an outing, after which they will be at home again to look after the business here. Mrs. Hornbeck has relatives in the south and they will visit with them while away.

H. R. Schmidt and family were visiting in Ithaca last Sunday, going to see Mr. Herman Kraft, who is very poorly and who has been for some time. It is feared that Mr. Kraft will not recover very rapidly. Everything is being done for his comfort and to hasten his convalescence, but his improvement is very slow.

J. W. Kruger, who has been assisting with the work at the E. W. Thimgan garage, accompanied by Mrs. Kruger, have been visiting in the northwest portion of the state for several days past, visiting at Oakland, Beemer and Wisner, where they have relatives. They were guests at the home of Albert Kruger while at Wisner.

I. G. Hornbeck, H. W. Tool, Lacey McDonald and Kenneth Tool were visitors at Weeping Water on last Thursday afternoon, where they went to see the game played between Weeping Water and the Merchants team of Plattsmouth, in which the former won over the aggregation from the county sent by a score of 14 to nothing for the visitors.

The Rock Island railway does not seem to get the grain which is billed for shipment away from the local station very rapidly. Last Saturday nine cars had accumulated before they were taken away and up until Thursday eight more were loaded and standing on track awaiting the time when they could be handled. The regular traffic under existing circumstances is about all the road can well look after.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Brown, of Cleveland, Ohio, who are visiting at the home of Mrs. Brown's parents, O. C. Dovey and wife, of Plattsmouth, and Henry F. Goos and wife of Plattsmouth were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Guthman and they were Tuesday for the afternoon talking dinner at the Guthman home and driving home in the evening. The visit was one of much pleasure to the family of the host and the guests. They were also accompanied by Miss Minnie Guthman, sister of Mr. Guthman.

Mr. Herman Dall of the Manley Implement company sold and delivered to Herman Wendt and Carl Schliefert a gang plow, each of which was delivered by Herold Krecklow last Thursday.

Mr. James Owen who has been at the hospital in Omaha to resume time when he underwent an operation for appendicitis and whose recovery is assured by his physicians, that he will be able to return home within a few days.

Mr. Wesley Lane the garage man here, has just installed a new and ready for business. He has also gotten his garage in running order with his stock of accessories and is ready to serve the public. This is an accommodation for the people of Plattsmouth and community.

Miss Jennie Vincent who has been in the hospital in Omaha for some time on account of a broken hip, is reported as making very satisfactory progress and it is hoped that in the near future that he may be able to return home. The community surely misses this gentleman with his spirit of optimism and his hoping that he may soon be home again.

John Fleischman and family have moved to Louisville where they will make their home in the future. Not that they don't like Manley very well and have found it profitable to live here, but that they find it necessary to make their home in some place where they can have such school facilities as will meet the needs of their children. They would either have to send their children to Louisville or move there and they thought the latter the better.

The many friends of Mrs. Alice Jenkins who formerly lived in Manley but who has made her home in Weeping Water for some time, were given a surprise by her numerous friends last Wednesday at which time a very pleasant time was had. A number of people, friends of this very popular lady from Manley attended the event. Among them were Mrs. Cox, Doni Fleischman, David Braun and wife, Geo. Coon and family, Grover Laursen and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Laursen.

Making Good Record
Eddie Craig, the new barber, is proving to be one of the most successful ball pitchers that has been discovered in Murdock for some time. He has pitched games three successive times for the school of Plattsmouth. Last Sunday he pitched a game for that team who were pitted against Cedar Creek, who have lost but a very few games during the season and won over that team by a score of two to one. This game, it is said, was played without a single error and was surely a good game. The Cedar Creek team boys made a very good record this season.

Visited Home Folks Sunday
Mr. and Mrs. George Utt were greatly surprised last Saturday when an airplane alighted just west of town and that stepped their daughter Mrs. J. E. McHugh and her husband, Mr. J. E. McHugh, who had been in Omaha and stopped for a night with the folks here. The pilot who was a friend and was going from Omaha to their home at Kansas City, flew this way and after having allowed his passengers to alight, continued on to Kansas City. Mr. and Mrs. McHugh were met and visited with the folks over Sunday and departed on the train Monday for their home in Kansas City. Mr. and Mrs. Utt were pleased as well as surprised at the visit of their daughter.

Oh You Girls
Last Saturday evening the second annual dance of the Captains took place on the school grounds. And the big event was celebrated with ice cream, which was very delicious as the girls froze it themselves. Cake was also included in generous proportions. After the ceremony the members played "Captain Ball," the score being 2 to 1.

DEATH CLAIMS E. E. MARSHALL
Mr. E. E. Marshall was born on April 29th, 1867, in Maryland and was married in 1898 and had lived in the vicinity of Murdock for the past thirty years, having lived southeast of town until last spring when the family moved to the place where they now reside, northwest of Murdock. For a time past Mr. Marshall has been in poor health on account of a dropsical condition and which ultimately caused his death last Thursday morning. Mr. Marshall has been feeling poorly and has been kept to his bed by reason of the morning of his death had remarked to his wife he was feeling much better and had eaten a very hearty breakfast sitting up to do so, and said that he had enjoyed the meal. He had arisen to walk to the bed, which had been prepared, when he fell and died of a heart attack, which expired immediately.

The funeral was held at three in the afternoon of last Thursday, Aug. 10, and the interment made at the cemetery at Ashland. Mr. Marshall leaves three sisters and one brother, the wife and companion of his married life and six boys, they being, Charles, Harry, Raymond, William, Omar and Joseph. Mr. Marshall was an excellent man, well beloved by all who knew him and a true friend to all. He holds the honor and respect of a large circle of admiring friends who mourn his departure.

MARRIED AT LINCOLN
Last Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at Lincoln occurred the marriage of Miss Leona Rush and Mr. John Burley, they coming to Murdock where they visited for over Sunday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rush. On Monday they departed for Alliance, where they are spending a few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Brittain and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Westlake, the ladies being sisters of Mrs. Burley. The newly married couple will be at home to their friends at Danbury after the 15th of September. Mr. Burley is superintendent of the consolidated schools at Danbury, Neb., where he has held the position for the past two years. The bride is well known by a host of friends in Murdock and also at the capital city of all of whom with the Journal extend to the couple their best wishes for happy life filled with prosperity and good service.
