A. H. Ward has moved into town and is occupying the residence which he purchased from Mr. E. M. Shatto. He is having the home wired for electric lights.

The new home which is being constructed by Matt Thimgan and son Victor is ready for the superstructure, as the foundation has been completed.

Leslie Bauton was attending the ball game at Weeping Water last Thursday, which was between Tecumseh and Weeping Water, the score being 2 to 3.

Charles Schafer was a visitor at Manley last Thursday, looking after business and also visiting at the home of his father, Mr. Charles Schafer, for a short time.

Wm. Buch of Greenwood has been here for a number of days assisting in the work at the blacksmith shop of his brother, Mr. J. H. Buch, who has a very large run of work at this time.

Ed Guilstorff believes in his own goods, and has just begun breaking 270 acres of land at his farm with the Rumley tractor, which he sells, knowing full well that it is the best for the purpose.

Miss Leah Schmidt, who is managing the mercantile house of the late Herman Kraft, at Ithica, was a visitor at home for over Sunday and returned to her work at Ithica last Monday morning.

Don't forget the candy sales every Saturday night. Home made candy will be on sale, also iced lemonade. Don't fail to come and bring the whole family, and all your friends—also your pocketbook.

Miss Minnie Rueter, who has been making her home in St. Paul, Minn., for some time past, arrived at home last week for a two weeks' visit which will be spent visiting relatives and friends.

Professor W. W. Way, who has been at Arriba, Colo., for some time, returned to Plattsmouth last week and is making preparations to remove to Sciota, where he will teach the coming year in the schools there.

John Meyer of Nebraska City is putting in the plumbing at the new home which is being built for Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McHugh. The wiring is being done by Wm. Meyer, who is one of the best in his line at this work.

The Camp Fire girls had their regular weekly meeting on Tuesday, posters advertising clean-up week were made, and also some steps were taken for the candy sales on Saturday nights when home made candy will be sold.

The ball team of Wabash in which Lacey McDonald and Eddie Craig were a portion of the equipment put the cabosh on Sunnyside school vicinity last Sunday at the latter place, by a score of 15 for Wabash to 3 for Sunnyside.

August 17th, 1922, a flock of wild geese were seen by the citizens going south, and many queries were made as to what it meant for weather in the near future, as the migratory birds do not move except when the weather is to change.
