

Union Department

A. W. Propst was looking after some business matters in Nehawka last Monday, driving over in his auto.

Robert James of Otoe county was a visitor last Monday in Union, coming up to look after some matters of business.

Miss Hope Kingsley, of Downers Grove, Ill., has been visiting for some time at the home of her friend, Miss Jessie Todd.

Miss Naomi Matney departed last Sunday evening for Lincoln and on Monday took up her studies in the state university again.

The Rev. H. H. Planck, pastor of the Baptist church, was looking after some business matters in Weeping Water last Wednesday.

Walter Havenridge a friend of the Becker family, made a visit over Saturday night and Sunday at their country home east of Union.

Mr. Lem Barrett, who is attending school at Omaha, was a visitor at home for over the week end and a guest at the home of his parents, E. A. Rider and wife of Chicago, visited the state fair at Lincoln and on their return trip home stopped off in Union two days to visit friends.

Miss Hazel Carper of Nehawka was a visitor in Union last Friday and Saturday and was a guest while here with her friend, Miss Letitia Porter.

Rev. H. H. Planck and Rev. W. A. Taylor are thanking Mr. H. E. Warden for very generous gifts of watermelons and grapes which he left at their place last week.

Uncle B. F. Hobsack from southwest of Union was a visitor in Union last Monday looking after some business matters and was meeting his many friends as well.

A. L. Becker and the "boys" are painting up everything in the line of buildings at the farm and are to have everything in exact ship shape when they have concluded.

W. L. Taylor and sons, William, Wilson and Garrett, of Omaha, were spending some few hours in Union last Sunday and also looking after things on the farm as well.

Mr. D. C. Rhoder of Murray was a visitor in Union last Monday afternoon, driving down to look after some business matters and also to take home some grapes, as those near Murray were destroyed by hail.

The Rev. W. A. Taylor and wife spent last Sunday at Omaha, where they drove in their car and spent the day at the home of Morton H. Chase, a brother of Mrs. Taylor, and where they had an excellent time.

Besides looking after the business of the mail route, D. B. Lynde is also able to assist in the new garage of A. W. Propst, where he was last Monday assembling a car load of Fords which had just been received.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor are thanking Uncle Ed and Mrs. Lynde for some magnificent peaches and also an abundance of grapes, tomatoes and apples which these gentlemen and their families gave last Monday.

Mont Robb and son, Fleming Robb were looking after some business matters in Union, Murray and Plattsmouth last Monday, driving over to the hustling town north of us and to the county seat in Mr. Fleming Robb's auto.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Lynde and little one were in attendance at the Hall family reunion, which was being held at the home of one of the family at Douglas last Sunday. A large crowd were present and a most excellent time was had.

Mrs. Minnie Stanford and son, Herbert, of Nebraska City and her daughter, Mrs. Emma Robb, of Wyoming, and Mrs. Mont Robb of this place were visiting last Monday in Omaha, all going up in the auto of Mr. Herbert Stanford.

The Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Planck were honored last week by a visit from Tuesday until Thursday from County Commissioner J. E. Wallen and wife, of Syracuse, and who on their departure were accompanied by Mrs. Planck, who visited until the first of this week.

Misses Angie and Nettie McCarrroll departed last Monday for Lincoln, where Miss Nettie will teach during the coming year, while Miss Angie will attend school at the Wesleyan university. There she will take some special work for a portion of the year anyway.

Henry H. Becker was a business visitor in Council Bluffs last Monday and was accompanied by Mrs. Becker and their little daughter and while there Mr. Becker made the purchase of a No. 5 Sandwich corn sheller which he will use in his custom shelling the coming winter.

His Excellency the Hon. F. H. McCarthy, mayor of Union, visited in Nebraska City last Monday, interviewing the dentist of that place. By the way, "Plossie" has been having some grief with his teeth and also one of his knees is on the bum, which is causing him no end of trouble.

The Epworth League had a most delightful time last week when they met at the lawn of Mr. W. H. Porter and guests of Miss Letitia Porter for an evening and a picnic supper. The young folks surely had an excellent time, and feel very grateful for the use of the lawn, and for the hospitality of the Porters at the occasion.

County Commissioner C. F. Harris and wife have been enjoying during the past week a visit from a sister of Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Alice Daniels of Beatrice, who has been spending a number of weeks in Iowa and visited with friends at Shenandoah, Clarinda, Des Moines, Fort Dodge and Sioux City while away.

Herman F. Comer and wife, Mrs. Lovina Comer and Mrs. Tabitha L. Smith, who have been visiting at a number of places in Missouri, returned home last Friday evening and report having had an excellent time notwithstanding the fact that the weather was extremely warm. However, with the good time which they had, they were real glad to get back to Union and the home friends.

Judge L. G. Todd, accompanied by Rev. Warren, who just closed his year of ministry to the Methodist church of Union and Miss Alice Todd, who is returning to Lincoln to take up her studies at the state university, made the trip in Mr. Todd's car, after which Mr. Todd returned to his home and business. While he was away, Mr. J. E. Wilson looked after the business at the elevator here.

The W. C. T. U. met last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Ivan Balfour, where they had a most enjoyable time and looked after the business on hands and had a most worthwhile program, which was led by Miss Gussie Robb. The plan of the meeting was for each guest to tell where and how she had spent her vacation. They were also served by the genial hostess by some very dainty refreshments.

At the session of the Bible school at the Baptist church last Sunday, and also at the morning preaching service, the school and church were pleased with a visit from Rev. Bishop of the First Baptist church of Lincoln and Rev. Turner of the Second Baptist church of the same city, who were traveling in behalf of the Baptist association, which is to be held at Friend during the present month, commencing on September 24th.

This is a Snake Story
Last week while Mr. W. L. Stine was cleaning out a well for a customer and had been lowered down in the well, as he approached the bottom, he was confronted by a cherry "Good Morning," and looking up he found a snake darting its head and thrusting out its tongue at the well digger, who immediately sent a radio to the men at the windlass who heaved to and soon had Will at the top. Supplying himself with fighting utensils he was again lowered, but the snakes had taken the rocks of the wall and were having cleaned out the well, and was being elevated to the surface again. He found the snake had crawled to near the top of the well, when a well directed blow from a shovel severed the critter's head and thus relieved Mr. Stine's feelings.

He Sure is a Good One
The board of education of the Union schools with the securing of an excellent complement of teachers, has also secured for another year their former janitor and with the years has proven himself the most capable man for the position which would have been possible to secure. Not only does he look after the building and grounds in the best manner, but is the friend of every pupil and teacher in the school.

Preached Farewell Sermon
Last Sunday evening was the last of the year's service for the Rev. George E. Warren, who has been in Union just twelve months and has during the time endeared himself to the people here in a way which makes it hard for them to part with him. Rev. Warren has been handicapped by having resided in Lincoln and not being able to be on the field here the entire time. He has been transferred to the Beatrice circuit, but at this time it is not known where he will minister. He of course knew, but considered it not courteous to divulge the place in advance of the announcement by the conference.

Had Pleasant Evening
Last Tuesday the members of the Young People's society of the Baptist church spent a most enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Frans east of town, which was known as a "Pirate Party" and was of such a nature that all enjoyed the occasion to the limit. They are now studying up a plan which will beat it for amusement.

Young Man Arrives Home
Master John Larson Foster and his mother, who have been spending some time in Omaha, arrived home last Sunday and were greeted by the other members of the family with much pleasure. R. E. Foster, father and husband, went up to Omaha in his auto and brought the folks home. The young man says we are both me and mama getting along as good as could be expected, but you better look out for father, he is acting kinda queer, but if he whistles enuf he will come out all right.

Makes Address at Nehawka
Last Sunday in the absence of the regular pastor, the Rev. E. O. Johnson who has been the regular resident pastor at the Methodist church at Nehawka and who was attending conference, Mr. W. H. Porter of the Methodist Sunday school at Union, addressed the Bible school and the members of the church also at the morning session of the national Sunday school convention which was held at Kansas City some weeks ago and which he attended. Mr. Porter was well received and gave a very lucid description of the working of the national convention.

Announcement Coming Wedding
Last Sunday at a dinner which was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Todd at which there were present Miss Hope Kingsley of Downers Grove, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Stephens and their son Herbert and wife of Alma, Miss Jessie Todd and Mr. M. L. McCleave of Omaha, a most pleasant time was had and the banquets were also much pleased by the announcement of the engagement of Miss Jessie Todd and Mr. McCleave, who are to marry in the near future. The parties to the engagement are well and favorably known to the people of Union and are indeed very excellent people.

The Union Schools Open
On Monday of this week the schools of Union opened for study and the year's work. In the high school there was an increase of about 17, making the number about sixty. In the grades there were some ninety. The feeling was very agreeable between the teachers of whom all taught here last year with the single exception of Mr. Conley O'Neill, who comes from Auburn and is teaching in the grammar grades. All the students evince a determination to do the best of work the coming year and the teachers are just as anxious they should and will lend all possible efforts to that end.

MARRIED AT CLEARWATER
The marriage of Miss Tressie L. Dodson of Lincoln and Mr. Paul W. Murdoch of Nehawka, was solemnized on Tuesday morning, September 12th at 9 o'clock at the Christian church at Clearwater, Neb.

Proceeding and during the wedding service, Miss Narka Babcock played very softly the wedding march and the marriage lines were read by Rev. Clifton, pastor of the church.

The young people were attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Simkins, the bride being an old and close friend of Mrs. Simkins.

Following a short honeymoon in South Dakota and western Nebraska, the young people will return to Nehawka where they expect to make their home in the future.

The groom is well known over the southern portion of Cass county, being a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Murdoch and a young man of the very highest standing in the community where he lives.

DEPUTY OVERSTEPPED AUTHORITY REMOVING POSTERS
A battle of letters is on between Harvey Thomas, deputy United States marshal in Omaha, and strike leaders in Long Pine, Nebraska, aent the return of some window cards, confiscated by Jerry O'Connor, special deputy on strike duty.

After O'Connor removes the strike placards from Long Pine windows and sent them on to Omaha he was instructed that he overstepped his authority. Strike leaders demanded the return of the posters or $10 in cash.

Uncle Sam has no fund for the return of the $10. And no one knows where the posters are. Hence the avalanche of correspondence, according to Thomas.—Omaha Bee.

Rev. W. L. Crom of the Mynard U. B. church and Will S. Wetenkamp departed this morning for Hastings, where they go to attend the United Brethren conference now being held there.

CELEBRATED THEIR 58TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Foster of Union Have Very Pleasant Time at Their Home Last Monday

At the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Foster at Union on Sunday occurred the observance of the fifty-eighth wedding anniversary of this estimable couple and the members of the family gathered with the aged parents to enjoy the hours that they might in the home gathering.

The wedding of Mr. Daniel W. Foster and Miss Letitia McKinley occurred in Pickaway county, Ohio, in September, 1864, following the discharge of the groom from the Union army on August 17, 1864.

Mr. Foster is a native son of Illinois, having been born in Washington county on January 11, 1834. In the year 1856 he removed to Ohio and took a mechanical course in a Cincinnati college and later completed his trade of carpenter in Fayette county. On July 20, 1861, Mr. Foster answered the call of his country and enlisted as a member of Co. A, 27th Ohio Infantry, and served throughout the war, participating in the battles of Corinth and also at Atlanta, with the army of General Sherman on his march to the sea. After his discharge from the army he returned to Ohio and was married there. Mrs. Foster is a native of Ireland, coming from the northern portion of that country, and was born August 4, 1842, and was brought to this country when a child of two years by her parents. The family located in Pickaway county, Ohio, and after marriage located in Fayette county. To their union there were born seven children, four of whom died in early life and the surviving ones are: Mrs. Nettie Stanton, Miss Mary E. Foster, former county superintendent, and R. E. Foster, all of whom reside at and near Union.

The family has resided in Cass county for the past fifty years and are numbered among the highly respected residents of the community.

One of the features of the wedding anniversary was the advent of the infant grandson, John Edward Foster, who was born two weeks ago at Omaha and who with the parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Foster, arrived home to join in the family reunion.

WILL MAKE CHANGE

From Wednesday's Daily.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rice here will regret very much to learn that they are planning to remove from this city and to locate in our neighboring town of Glenwood, Iowa. Mr. Rice has just completed the deal whereby in connection with his brother-in-law, Dick Edwards of Glenwood, he has secured control of one of the leading business houses of that place, the restaurant that was for a number of years owned by Mr. Edwards, but which was sold by him a few years ago. The people of Glenwood can feel well pleased with the coming of Mr. and Mrs. Rice who will make a valuable addition to that city and while the old friends here will regret very much to lose them they wish the Rice family the greatest of success.

CHANGE FLAPPER TO QUAKER

Chicago, Sept. 12.—New styles change the flapper to a Quaker. Gowns on exhibition at the opening of the fashion art league displaying here today cover the flapper from ears to ankles. Sleeves are long, necks are high and skirts are in three lengths—for street wear, six to eight inches from the floor; afternoon gowns below the ankle, and evening gowns just escaping the floor.

"The various frocks are stunning for the tall woman," said Madame Alin Ripley, president of the league. "But one must be at least five feet six or seven to look well. The young girls who are not tall must not necessarily adopt the extreme styles. They are wise if they accept a becoming compromise half way between knee and ankle." "The smartest thing in street costumes is the three piece suit. Coats are prone to flare and are hip length.
