WOMAN NAMED U. S. SENATOR FROM GEORGIA

"Grand Old Woman" of State Tendered Appointment—Watson's Widow Refuses Place.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—A woman of Georgia today won the distinction of being the first of her sex to obtain appointment to the United States senate...

Mrs. Felton has accepted the office and in expressing her gratitude for the honor stated that it was going to thrill the nation when the news is conveyed from the lakes to the gulf that a woman has been chosen to become a member of the United States senate.

born woman," said Mrs. Felton, "to accept a seat in the British parliament, but noble old Georgia expected no need to borrow, and she alone of the 48 states in the United States had a governor with courage to say so, and to confirm the saying by an executive proclamation."

Washington, Oct. 3.—The appointment of Mrs. W. H. Felton of Georgia as the first woman senator in the United States was hailed by Alice Paul, vice president of the National Woman's party, as a recognition of the new position of women and of the new political importance of women as voters...

John Richardson, the Missouri river ferryman, who has heretofore been paying the sum of $3 for a license to operate the ferry, has received a boost as the board of county commissioners has set the fee at the sum of $15 for the year instead of the lower figure.

YOUNG PEOPLE WEDDED AT PRESBYTERIAN MANSE

Miss Almada Haddon of Louisville and Mr. Arthur G. Meisinger Joined in Holy Wedlock.

From Wednesday's Daily This morning at the Presbyterian manse occurred the marriage of two of the popular young people of the vicinity of Cedar Creek...

The wedding was a very quiet one, the young people being accompanied to the city by Mr. and Mrs. Adam Meisinger, parents of the groom, and Mrs. Martha Haddon, mother of the bride.

Rev. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, read the impressive marriage service, the ring service being used in uniting the lives of the two young people.

Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Meisinger motored to Valley, Nebraska, where they visited for the day at the home of an aunt of the bride and this evening returned to the Meisinger home near Cedar Creek where a reception and wedding supper was tendered the newly weds and their friends by the parents of the groom.

The bride is one of the very popular young ladies of the vicinity of Louisville and Cedar Creek and has a host of warm friends who have known her since childhood days, as she together with the groom, is a product of Cass county.

The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Meisinger, and one of the progressive young farmers of Cass county and very popular with the large circle of friends in the vicinity where he has made his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Meisinger will make their home on the Meisinger farm where they will be at home to their host of friends and will start house-keeping at once.

The Journal joins with the many friends in wishing the newly weds a long and very happy life in the years to come.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF GEORGE WHITEHEAD HELD

Body of Aged Man Brought From Conway Springs, Kansas, and Laid to Rest Here.

From Wednesday's Daily Last evening at Oak Hill cemetery was held the funeral of the late George Whitehead, former resident of this city, who passed away Sunday at his home in Conway Springs, Kansas, at the age of eighty-seven years, seven months and eight days.

It had been planned to hold the services at the First Methodist church of which the deceased was a member while living here, but owing to the fact that the body was delayed in reaching here until nearly 6 o'clock made necessary the holding of a short burial service at the grave, the Rev. John Calvert, pastor of the church, holding the service. The relatives from this city met the members of the family of the deceased and accompanied the body to the grave for the service.

George Whitehead was born in Stone, Kent, England, March 19, 1835, and was married in his native land on November 16, 1856, to June Wynn, and nine years later in 1865, the family came to America to make their home in the future and to rear their family in the new world, filled with the greatest opportunity. To this union there were born nine children, one child dying in infancy and one in mature years, leaving two sons and five daughters to mark the death of the father together with twenty-three grandchildren and eight great grandchildren. Mrs. Whitehead passed away in Plattsmouth twenty years ago and the aged husband now rests by her side in the beautiful city of the silent here. The deceased was united with the Methodist church forty-one years ago and has since been a most devout member of this faith.

MARRIED AT M. E. PARSONAGE

From Wednesday's Daily Yesterday at 2:30 at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. John Calvert occurred the marriage of Miss Dorothy E. Davis and Mr. Paul E. Gerard, both of Weeping Water. The attendants at the wedding were Mr. John W. Laughlin and Miss Mable E. Davis, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Davis, mother of the bride, was also in attendance at the ceremony. The marriage lines were read by Rev. Calvert and at the conclusion of the marriage the bridal party returned to their home.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

A very delightful 6 o'clock dinner party was held Monday at the home of Miss Clara Mumm south of the city, in honor of the birthday anniversary of the hostess. The dinner was served in two courses and was one that was most thoroughly appreciated by all of the members of the party. Covers were laid for eight. Those attending were: Mesdames Arthur Sullivan, Fred Nolting, John Fulton, Fred Spangler, Andy Snyder, Fred Mumm, Misses Ellen Nolting, Olive Fulton and the hostess, Miss Clara Mumm. The guests enjoyed themselves until a late hour and in departing wished Miss Mumm many more such pleasant events in the future.

Professor H. B. Wilson of Berkeley will address the convention on the subject "Checking up on Ourselves" and Dr. Edward S. Evenden of Columbia university, will present the subject, "The State and an Educational Program." Dr. William Russell, dean of the college of education, University of Iowa, is booked to speak on "The Educational Opportunities in China." Other headliners on the program are Frank L. Smart, superintendent of schools at Davenport, Ia.; Miss Alice M. Cusack, primary supervisor, Kansas City public school; Miss Agnes Samuelson, county superintendent, Page county, Ia.; Miss Kate McHugh, president Omaha Drake League.

The district includes the following counties: Butler, Cass, Colfax, Dodge, Douglas, Nance, Nemaha, Otoe, Platte, Polk, Richardson, Sarpy, Saunders and Washington. The convention will open with an organ recital at the First Methodist church, followed by Professor Wilson's address on the evening of October 12. General sessions will be held the following morning at the World theatre, the afternoon being devoted to sectional meetings. The evening of October 13 is reserved for a musical entertainment and address by Professor Evenden.

Following an informal address on "Novel Reading" by Miss Kate McHugh, the morning of October 14, the teachers will be entertained as guests of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce, a musical program being presented by Henry J. Williams, harpist, and William Keller, violinist, of the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra.

A reduced railroad rate of one and a half fare on certificate plan has been allowed. Officers of district No. 2 are: George DeWolfe, Plattsmouth, president; Bertha Bishop, Papillion, vice president; O. L. Webb, David City, secretary-treasurer; Boris M. Ryan, Omaha, member state executive committee. Members of the local committee on arrangements are J. H. Beveridge, superintendent of schools, Omaha, general chairman; Marion Reed, Mabel Walker, Fred Hill, E. E. McMillan.

A VERY PLEASANT GATHERING

There was a change in policy at the Gracie camp at the Burlington shops relative to the handling of the feeding service to the men employed in the shops. Since the commencement of the strike of the shopcrafts on July 1st the company has given free meals to the men who have been working there and who desired to remain in the shops and a very excellent cuisine has been provided the men. As the situation has run in this manner for several months the railroad has decided on a change and will hereafter make a charge of $1 per day for the meals that are served to the employees. Those who are rooming over the city at various places will now, where it is possible, take their meals where they stay as a matter of convenience.

WOMAN'S MISSION SOCIETY

From Wednesday's Daily The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. John Bauer, Jr., the attendance being quite large. There was a great deal of business to come before the society and a very interesting program was given with Mrs. F. B. Shopp, Mrs. S. S. Chase and Mrs. G. L. Farley in charge. There was a discussion of the plans for the annual praise service in November. Mrs. Henry Schneider was elected as delegate to the synodical state missionary meeting to be held at Hastings on October 21 to 26. By the large attendance and the spirit of interest the society felt that they had a splendid start on the new year's work.

CHANGE IN TAXI LINE

From Wednesday's Daily Charles Tilton, who has been operating the taxi line in this city for the greater part of the last few years, is again a gentleman of leisure, having decided that he had a rest coming and to enjoy it more fully he has disposed of his cars which he used in this service. The taxi business will hereafter be handled by Clarence Cotner, who starts today as the boss of the taxi business of the city and will continue the same efficient service that was maintained by Mr. Tilton. Mr. Cotner will continue his headquarters at the Hotel Wagner and be ready to answer any and all calls.

GIANTS WIN OPENING GAME OF SERIES

BUSH BLOWS UP AND ALLOWS GIANTS TO GATHER THREE SCORES IN 1 INNING.

COME FROM BEHIND IN EIGHTH

Journal Gets Reports of Series thru W. R. Holly Radio Set—Others Also Hear Results.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Joe Bush, veteran slab artist of the Yankees, blew up in the eighth inning of the world series in New York this afternoon and allowed the Giants to catch the first game by a score of 3 to 2. Neph of the Giants was also forced from the box in the opening of the eighth.

The reports of the game were received by many of the radio fans and the Journal is indebted to W. R. Holly for the use of his machine in staying the return of the reports.

The first score of the world series was made by the Yanks in the sixth inning when Ruth singled, scoring Dugan from third base. In the Giants' half of the inning the hit and run game was tried with no results as Bush broke up the efforts of the Giants.

In the seventh inning Bob Meusel for the Yanks singled to left, Schang bunted to Nelt, who threw wild to second to catch Meusel; two men on. Ball rolled to center field and Meusel took third, Ward's sacrifice fly to center scored Meusel. Scott out on fly to Stengel. Bush hit to Groh, Schang caught at third.

In the seventh the Giants came up with Young at bat, who flew out to Ruth, the first effort that Bambino had to make in the game. Kelly hit to Bush, who fell down and allowed the runner to reach first base. Stengel singled, Kelly taking second, Snyder hit to Scott, who fumbled the ball, filling the bases. Excitement grew intense and the crowd rose to their feet as Smith advanced to bat for Nelt, who hit into a double play and retired the side.

In the opening of the eighth, Ryan was sent to the mound for the Giants and held the Yanks powerless as Witt and Ruth were struck out and Dugan flew out to Stengel.

The Giants in the last of the eighth drove Bush to the bushes and capped the opener of the series by a hit of hitting Baneroff singled to right, Groh singled to right for his third hit of the game and Frisch singled to right, but the ball was returned quickly and Baneroff was held at third and the bases were filled. Emil Meusel then broke up the game with a blow to left that scored Baneroff and Groh. Bush was pulled at this stage of the game and Hoyt sent in to stem the tide of hits that were slowly bearing down the lead of the Yanks. Young retired on a fly to Witt, Frisch scoring on the play and giving the Giants the lead. Kelly and Stengel were both struck out.

The Yanks in the eighth secured a man on bases but when Bob Meusel hit both players were retired, Schang was out on a grounder to Kelly at first base. The Yanks made seven hits and no errors and the Giants 11 hits and three errors.

CHARGE FOR MEALS NOW

From Wednesday's Daily. Commencing with this morning, there was a change in policy at the Gracie camp at the Burlington shops relative to the handling of the feeding service to the men employed in the shops. SHALLENBERGER STATES POSITION ON DRY STATUTE

Answers Statement of Republican Papers by Citing His Acts—Fought the Saloons.

Hastings, Neb., Oct. 3.—Answering the accusations and insinuations of several republican newspapers of the state, former Governor Ashton C. Shallenberger tonight made public the following statement relative to his record on prohibition:

"I will say in regard to this, that I have had inquiries from time to time from republican political sources asking me how I stood upon prohibition and the Volstead act. I have not always answered them because I don't have to tell the newspapers or republican politicians my position on these two measures. My position is a matter of record in the United States congress. I voted to put the prohibition amendment into the constitution of the United States and the Volstead act in the federal statutes. "Some of those who question me had better get a reputation themselves. While they were talking about prohibition and enforcement I was voting it into the constitution and helping make the laws to enforce it. "Why don't they charge me as being against the bank guaranty act, or ask me what I did with the 8 o'clock closing law. "I have at least as many scars of battle from fighting the saloon interests of Nebraska as any of those who would defeat me by fair means or foul if they could."
