MONDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1922.

HOLD A PARADE TODAY

Tendency of People Toward

Direct Action. He Says.

PAGE THREE

ARBUCKLE TO RETURN TO THE MOVIES JAN. 1

1

BY ARBITER OF FILMS TO REGAIN OLD PLACE.

Los Angeles, Dec. 20 .- Roscoe Arbuckle, rotund comedian, barred from the screen since last April because of his encounter with the law. was today restored to the privilege of coming back to the place he once occupied in his industry, if he can. Will H. Hays, head of the picture in-dustry, announced that all restric- MISSING AIRMEN tions against the actor were to end January 1.

The Famous Players-Lasky corporation, which distributed Arbuckle's pictures, announced that no effort would be made at present to market some films that were shown or others that weer never released. Joseph Schenck, producer, said he would employ Arbuckle and the latter said he was thankful for the chance to work and would strive to make good.

but it wanted to live and help live. reservation, about seventy-five miles ing governor.

right and at the proper time is entitled to his chance to make good. It conduct since his trouble merits that chance. So far as 1 am concerned there will be no suggestion now that to go to work in his profession.

I hope we can start the new year with no yesterdays. Live and let live is not enough; we will try to live and help live.

brief formal utterances that certain finding of the wrecked airplane and courts. definite features figured in the action charred remains of one of the misthat will allow Arbuckle another op- sing officers, either Colonel Marshall or Lieutenant Webber. Report was portunity to make good. brought here by an Indian late last

"Completely Chastened" "First, perhaps, was the fact that night that the smashed plane had he seems completed chastened and been found. Investigating parties were desthat his conduct since he was barred from the screen last April apparent- patched to the point where the Indian reported he had found the plane ly has been excellent. Then, too, the action was taken practically consumed by flames and in the spirit of Christmas and it was with the charred remains of one of believed that fullest co-operation in all branches of the motion picture industry would be best advanced by clearing the slate as far as possible.

RUSSIANS THIS WINTER BARROWS PLANS MUST FEED 8,000,0000 TO PUT ONE OVER Geneva, Dec. 21.-Russia will have a shortage of at least 1,000,-000 tons of cereals this winter, ac ON GOV. M'KELVIE out past the Burlington shops where they were formerly employed and on cording to the international committee of Russian relief, headed by Dr.

Fridtjof Nansen. Reports to the committee from Russian sources declare Says He Will File Claim for Salary the parade was dismissed. that, as a result of this shortage. FILM COMEDIAN GIVEN CHANCE food relief will be required for 8,-000,000 people, while the soviets themselves cannot support more than 2.250.000.

REPORTED DEAD;

Bodies of Army Flyers Found

75 Miles from Tucson.

REPEAL OF CODE

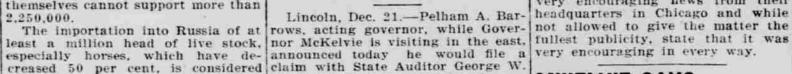

Former Republican State Chairman

Declares People's Mandate

Must Be Obeyed.

FATAL, HE SAYS

nomic situation.

as Acting Executive Ahead of Governor's Claim.

or more days the governor will be M'KELVIE SAYS necessary to reconstitute the eco- Marsh for $23.99 a day for the ten absent. "This claim will be filed before the governor draws his salary for the period, so that the auditor will have to decide whether my priority will entitle me to draw on the governor's appropriation,' Barrows said. "I will not allow the claim, be-

BURNED IN CRASH "I will not allow the claim, be-cause if I do, the governor will make me pay his salary out of my own pocket," Marsh said. Barrows this week lost a suit in Unconfirmed Story Says that Charred the district court to compel Marsh to pay him $935 salary he claimed gets, $23.99 a day. One of the argu- and patronage must be displaced by southwest of Tuscon, Arizona, the dispatches from Tuscon. A cowboy, the advices stated, came going to try again and see if the the society constitution means what it says." the wreckage of the flyers' airplane. there will be no suggestion now that he should not have his opportunity to go to work in his profession Marshall and Lieutenant Webber nor's appropriation to "beat the gov-Pilgrims. "In our efforts to develop a com-

Reported by Indian

Tuscon, Ariz., Dec. 21 .- Up to a ernor.

Police Believe Band Divided After Hiding Place was Discovered

-Scores of Men in Chase

County, is Buried Tuesday at their meeting this morning received Weeping Water. very encouraging news from their headquarters in Chicago and while

The body of Edward E. Williams was brought to Weeping Water, Tuesday morning for burial in Oakwood cemetery geside his wife and two sons in the family burial lot. Mr. Williams was a pioneer of Cass county, having homesteaded a farm four miles west and one mile NATION IS IN DIRE south of this city and now occupied by E. M. Jumper, in the spring of 1869. He was well known and highly NEED OF LEADERS respected by many of the old time esidents-some of whom still reside n this locality. Edward E. Williams was born in Nebraska Governor Would Check Canton, Ohio, August 5, 1839, and died in Waverly, Kansas, December 14, 1922.

In the year 1850 he with his parents moved to Eastern, Iowa. After

New York, Dec. 22 .- The nation due at the rate of pay the governor needs leaders, not followers; cajolery a short residence there they moved to southwestern Iowa, where he was San Francisco, Dec. 21 .- The char- ments of the attorney general's of- words of wisdom and deeds of pa- united in marriage to Mary L. West, Mr. Hays issued a brief statement, red bodies of the missing aviators, fice against the claim was that the triotism and the shift from represen- February 13, 1864. To this union saying he felt every man was entitled Colonel Francis C. Marshall and governor had already drawn his full tative government to direct action were born eight children, five of to his chance and the film industry Lieutenant Charles Webber, have salary for the same time, leaving no by the people must be checked, de- whom are still living, the three sons not only wanted to live and let live, been found on the Papago Indian appropriation available for the act- clared Governor S. R. McKelvie of being present at the burial of their

Nebraska, speaking here today at the father. "The constitution since 1875 has annual meeting of the New England In the spring of 1869 Mr. Williams Mr. Hays said: "Every man in the Southern Pacific railroad officials said that the acting governor shall Society of New York. Governor Mc- located on a farm four miles west here were advised this afternoon in have all the responsibilities and Kelvie, who talked on "Landmarks and one mile south of Weeping Waemoluments of office while in the ex- of Progress," is the first person living ter, where he resided for more than ecutive chair," Barrows said. "I am west of the Mississippi to address thirty years. On January 12, 1896, Mrs. Williams died. Twenty-one The granting of human liberty years ago he went to Waverly, Kansas, where he resided until his death. Barrow's said he was filing the was pointed to by Governor McKelclaim specifically against the gover- vie as the lasting monument of the His brother, George, with whom he lived part of the time, died very sud-"It was the Pilgrims who pro-denly some four weeks ago and Mr. plete co-operation with the industry. earth, or burned to death afterward. would not be at the same legal dis- claimed equality among men." he Williams did not seem to fully readvantage as in his other suit, with said. "It was their ancestors who cover from the shock of his brother's the money already drawn by the gov- formed and adopted the constitution, death

While in Nebraska, Mr. Williams willing to forgo selfish interest in Barrows said he would probably the cause of the common welfare, be- was a member of the Free Will Bap-"It became known apart from the no confirmation of the report of the tected in their inalienable right of united with the Methodist church, life, liberty and the pursuit of hap- and was a member up to the time of piness, the natural resources of the his death.

Rev. C. I. Rose, pastor of the land would be developed and the na-Weeping Water Methodist church, tion made secure. "We, today, have been gradually conducted the funeral services.

departing from these well estab-The following relatives were pres ent at the funeral: Ed Williams, lished landmarks of the fathers, FLEE FROM RANCH claiming to be more progressive than they. Serious problems confront us. claiming to be more progressive than Bozeman, Mont.; Will Williams, Guide Rock, Neb.; Wesley Williams,

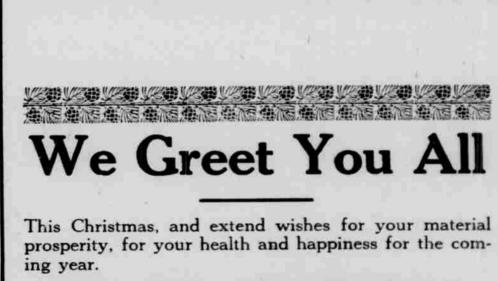

We have launched into numerous Waverly, Kan., sons; Dan Graham, new fields of law making, enforc-Percival, Iowa; Charley West and ment and state activity. The theory wife, Elmwood; J. A. Williams, Linseems to be that more laws make for coln; M. Shirley, Lincoln; Alf Shirmore human equality, but the state ley, Waverly, Kan .-- Weeping Water cannot enforce equality of result, it Republican. can only insure equality of oppor-

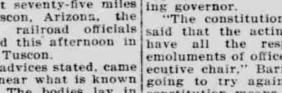

Terms will be made known on sale day.

In this sale there will be a dwelling house sold at auction.

> REX YOUNG, AUCTIONEER

Made Clean Pictures

"Again it is known that Arbuckle is said to have apparently fallen afnever made a picture to which any ter a nose dive, the nose of the plane exception could possibly be taken, being stuck straight into the ground, and he never will. His pictures were with such framework as remained not high art, of course, but they were unburned standing straight in the always clean and they brought air. The partially burned body of laughs to millions.

one of the fliers was located under Greeley, Colo. "Still again ift was felt that inas- the wreckage, but no attempt was much that a jury acquitted him from made by the Indian to identify it as the charges upon which he was tried, either one of the aviators.

he is constitutionally entitled to the right of any citizen-especially to the right of working at anything he EFFORT TO BLOCK knows how to work at.

"No plans are in contemplation for the release of the three comedies in which Arbuckle appeared before his trial and which have since been held up, and the action now taken does not in any way concern the release of the films."

HAS NARROW ESCAPE

From Saturday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon while Riley

"If the republican legislature county sheriffs and their deputies, in McFarland was walking from the Plattsmouth Water company pump should block the repeal of the code house on into the city he had a close and thus defeat the will of the peo- automobiles and one armored riot call from a perhaps fatal accident ple of Nebraska, as shown in the car loaded with Denver detectives as the result of a rear end collision late election, it will be playing right and policemen scoured northern Colwith the locomotive on Burlington into the hands of the democratic." freight train No. 75. Riley was walk- declares Ed D. Beach of Omaha, Morgan, Fort Collins and Roggen, ing along the right of way and while chairman of the republican state all of Thursday evening, without seeing the train coming thought that committee in the 1918 campaign catching the quartet. he had given enough clearance for when Governor McKelvie won his the passage of the train but missed first election.

his guess by a couple of inches and the result was that the bar on the kind of damphool politics, instead of iff Frank Hall of Greeley that he had Lindeman, where the body will lay pilot of the locomotive struck him the 50,000 majority which Bryan seen four heavily armed men to the in state until the funeral, which will and hurled him some distance, but had this year there will be a 100,- outskirts of Greeley, and, later in be held Sunday morning at 10:30 fortunately did not result in very 600 democratic majority in Nebras- the evening, southeastward to Rog- from the St. John's Catholic church. serious injury, altho Riley could for ka two years from now, and the dem- gen, and Hudson. Colo., about 30 Monsigneur McManus of Council a few moments almost hear the ocrats will elect not only the gov- miles away, where the trail vanished Bluffs, a nephew of Mrs. Lindeman, voices of the celestial choir singing ernor but also the legislature and a and part of Denver's detective squad will celebrate the mass. and was badly bruised up. The full set of state officers.

switch engine was dispatched out to "The people are not going to stand the scene of the accident and brought for any monkey business. It is up to nitely that the bandits were in the the home up to 10 o'clock Sunday in the injured man who was able to this legislature either to carry out get around all right, but was slight- the people's wishes, or to wreck the pace to escape the cordon of armed ly dazed from the effects of the mix- republican party's chances of victory peace officers seemingly closing in on caused from acute dilation of the years old, weight 1,000. up, However, Riley says it takes in 1924. The party will have no them, were uncovered yesterday and more than a mere locomotive to put chance of success until it rids itself last night. a good man down and out. of McKelvism.

is asking for a new trial because the by turning in and helping Governor in which a number of men had stop- arrival of the family there. Mrs. Bryan to carry out his program, if jury decided his case and gave him it turns out well they can then clain two years in the penitentiary by cut- half the credit. If it fails, they can ting the cards. He is no good sport. blame Bryan for it. But if they ho 1 It would seem that a dice box would out and block the game, they will be a great improvement over most of selves and their party in the next the juries we are having. election.

Wishing All Merry Christmas!

We are appreciative of the kindness of our friends, which has contributed much to our business success, and wish to extend congratulations to all, with best wishes for a happy holiday season, and prosperity for the coming year.

Coatman Hardware Co. Nebraska Alvo,

Denver and northern Colorado were prepared to push vigorously today evils are work, adjustment of trade their hunt for Denver's bank truck relations to meet the demands of bandits whose trail they believed had world-wide humanity and extension been picked up yesterday at an aban- of credit to any nation having a form doned ranch house 20 miles east of of government worthy of recognition.

those who Monday shot and killed that some of the more serious eco-Charles T. Linton, federal reserve bank truck guard, and escaped with fronting us are the direct outgrowth $200,000 in currency after a spectacular gun battle with guards of the United States mint here, had left the foreigners who come to our shores. farm house before officers arrived there.

Police believed that the band had divided after the chase following the discovery of their alleged hiding place in the abandoned ranch house and that one car containing two men was headed east and the other automobile with two or more men in it. was speeding west. They based this belief on reports received during the night of speeding cars. Scores of armed men, including hastily organized posses, and three orado in the vicinity of Greeley, Fort , From Saturday's Daily.

The chase led from the ranch very suddenly Thursday morning house, in which Henry Fuqua, a and was taken from the Burlington "Should the legislature play that farmer, early Thursday notified Sher- station to the home of her son, Fred abandoned the hunt for the night. vicinity and fleeing at a desperate morning.

Mrs. Gus Downer, residing just brought to a crisis by the high alti-"Republican members of the leg- outside the northwest city limits of tude of the Colorado city and result-A defendant in an eastern court islature will show good judgment Greeley, reported that an automobile ed in death a few hours after the ped at her home and one of the men Lindeman accompanied by her husobtained a pan of warm water and some cotton guaze, after which the rived in Denver at 7 o'clock Thurscar left in great haste. It is known da ymorning and on leaving the train that at least one of the bandits was Mrs. Lindeman was stricken with a simply be digging a grave for theri- wounded in the battle with the mint fainting spell and medical assistance guards. The man who requested the water and guaze from Mrs. Downer lady was then taken to the home of told her he wanted it for a man who her daughter, Mrs. Will Daugherty, had been hurt, she said.

DRAWS DOWN FINE

From Saturday's L'ally. Wilber Sojourner, who has been residing at the Greer camp here for some time, appears to have sojourned too long, as yesterday he was a caller at the office of County Attorney A. G. Cole where he received a fine of $50 and costs from the hands of Justice William Weber. The gentleman was arrested by Sheriff Quinton on the charge of intoxication and to the complaint entered a plea of guilty and for which he received justice in full measure.

What is nicer for the bock lover venience the railroad company he than a choice volume of some of the held their pay day earlier this month to enable their on posses to for the to enable leading authors that are carried at observe the day. the Journal or an artistic and beautiful set of book ends?

ST. LUKE'S CHILDREN'S PART "Our remedies for the present day The children's Christmas party of St. Luke's parish will be held on Thursday evening, December 28 at the public library auditorium. The Little Helpers font roll offering America has been called the 'melting will be presented at this time. There The four men suspected of being pot.' It is a well established fact will be the Christmas tree and Santa Claus for the children of the church nomic and political problems conschool, as well as a program for the little folks. On Friday afternoon the of failure to assimilate into a genuprogram will be repeated at the liine Americanism a large number of brary for the benefit of the children of the city and the Christmas tree ar-We must have a revival of patrioranged for the little folks of the city. tism, love of country and unselfish service to the country, that we may Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wendell de carry on functions of government parted this morning for Red Oak that our forefathers, so wisely Iowa, where they will enjoy a visit over the Christmas holidays with chose.

Funeral Services Will be Sunday Morning at 10:30 From the St. John's Catholic Church.

As I have bought the Robert Shrafrom Denver where she passed away der farm, stock and machinery, located five and one-half miles southeast of Murray and one-half mile south of the George Shrader homestead and have decided to sell at auction on > Thursday, December 28 the following described property: Horses relatives and friends in that city.

L. H. Daft, formerly of Greenwood, and now a prominent resident of Lancaster county, was here today for a few hours looking after some Blank books at the Journal Office.

matters in the county court.

One black mare, ten years old, . The friends who desire to take a weight 1,300; one black mare, ten Clews, apparently indicating defi- last farewell may do so by calling at years old, weight 1,200; one bay mare, eight years old, weight 1,300 one sorrell mare, eight years old The death of Mrs. Lindeman was weight 1.300; one brown mare, five > heart and while she has had several Four of these mares are in foal attacks of this malady here it was Service fee to follow.

> > Cattle

One milk cow, 5 years old; two spring calves, fourteen shoats.

Farm Implements

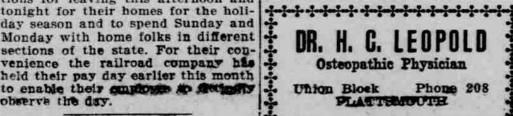

One two-section harrow, one Westband and son. Fred Lindeman, arern Bell riding lister, one Jenny Lind cultivator, one New Century cultivator, one bob sled, one Newton wagon, one Moline wagon, one top buggy, one stirring plow, one was called to give her relief and the 11/2-inch work harness, one 11/2-inch harness, and many other articles too numerous to mention. where at 9:45 a. m. passed away,

This stock and machinery will positively be sold to the highest bidder. Mr. Lindeman and son, Fred, and Terms of Sale Mrs. Daugherty accompanied the

All sums under $10, cash, all sums over $10, six months' time will be given, purchaser giving good bankable note bearing eight per cent interest. All property to be settled for before being remove

FRANK VALLERY, Owner

This to all our friends and patrons. We enjoy it most when our friends prosper and are blessed with health and happiness. And friendship, what money cannot buy.

The Mauzy Drug Co.

We Extend to All Heartiest Greetings for a

Merry Christmas AND A

Happy New Year

Popular Variety Store

Daily Journal, 150 a week

death coming very suddenly.

LEAVE FOR HOLIDAYS

The employes of the Burlington shops or at least the greater part of day season and to spend Sunday and body from Denver.

From Saturday's Daily.