LADIES HAVE AN EXCITING EXPERIENCE WITH ETHER

Some Person Attempts to Overcome Residents at Mary Burnett Home With Fumes.

From Saturday's Daily. A few nights ago an attempt was made at the home of Mrs. Mary Burnett on Lincoln avenue to inflict serious injury on Mrs. Burnett and a neighboring lady who was spending the night there.

Mrs. Burnett, who is employed at the Atlantic House during the day, had gone home and had been accompanied by a neighboring lady for company and reached home just shortly before dusk.

Later as the evening progressed more this strange smell was noticed and passers by in the street also remarked that the odor was that of ether and very strong at that.

The next day when a more thorough investigation could be made it was found that a good sized hole had been drilled through the wall of the house just below one of the windows on the south side of the building.

WILL OPEN MISSION

The Salvation Army will open a mission in this city in the near future according to announcement made by the representative of the Army now here to look over the organization.

There is probably no organization in the world that reaches more of the needy in physical as well as spiritual want than does the Salvation Army and in coming here to this city they will find a good field for their labors.

BOX SUPPER SUCCESS

The box supper given at the Methodist church Thursday evening by the Epworth League society was a great success in every way and as a result of the pleasant event the society realized a neat sum for their work.

During the evening a very interesting program was given, consisting of music and recitations. Miss Mable Lee Copenhagen and Mr. C. H. Peden gave a very much enjoyed vocal duet and Miss Clara Johnson a reading while Miss Marvel Whitaker favored the gathering with one of her enjoyable piano numbers.

PLATTSMOUTH HIGH WINS VERY CLOSE GAME

By Score of 12 to 11 Peru Training School Goes to Defeat in a Loosely Played Game.

From Saturday's Daily. Last evening one of the largest crowds of the season was present at the high school gym to witness the basketball games staged between the Platts-mouth high school and Peru Training school teams as well as a preliminary between the Seventh and Eighth graders.

The youngsters of the school mixed things up in the opener and the Eighth grade team showed some real playing and won by the score of 22 to 6. The Seventh grade boys were handicapped by size but showed some promising material when the game had added a few inches to their stature.

The matter was reported to the authorities and is being investigated although no charges have been filed in the case or the party who was responsible for the alleged attack rounded up.

GOVERNOR FAVORS IMMEDIATE REMOVAL

Of County Sheriffs Who Do Not Enforce the Laws—To Ask for the Power of Removal.

Lincoln, Jan. 12.—Governor Chas. W. Bryan will ask the present legislature to amend the Sackett bill, so that county sheriffs guilty of laxity in allowing law violations can be immediately removed.

Under the present measure a sheriff can go into court and fight removal long enough perhaps until the governor is out of office, he remains in office himself.

"I'm in favor of removing a sheriff who is guilty of law enforcement laxity, and naming a substitute at once," said Governor Bryan today.

Will Compel Law Enforcement. "I have been empowered to enforce the laws of the state and I'm in favor of seeing that sheriffs perform their duties first—if not, then I'll send Tom Carroll, new state enforcement officer, there to take charge, in the meanwhile installing a new sheriff."

Governor Bryan said that Governor McKelvie has turned the whole work over to Gus Hyers, who at one time had forty-eight deputies under his charge.

Most of these men were working in and around Lincoln, where they were the least needed. None were sent to Omaha to investigate reports of wholesale liquor violations.

Governor Bryan believes that the plan of placing the responsibility in the hands of the various county sheriffs will result in better law enforcement and also save the large sums that were paid out under the Hyers regime for deputies and assistants.

It is thought that the state legislature will look favorably on the proposition as the matter of the state law enforcement department was one of the big issues of the late campaign.

MEETING BIG SUCCESS

The meeting of the Methodist aid society Thursday afternoon was very largely attended and in fact was one of the largest that the society has ever held. The hostesses were Mesdames A. R. Noble, Clarence Beal, F. R. Gobelman, Charles Carlson, E. G. Shallenberger and G. B. Mann.

The meeting was a very interesting and popular work. A number of the high school students were present to enjoy this unusual opportunity.

FEW NAMES ON THE LOBBY ROSTER

Only Twelve Registered So Far—A Bare Fraction of Those on the Grand Two Years Ago.

There are few signatures above the dotted lines of the register book used by the lobbyists. An even dozen have taken the proper registration oath and are now permitted to practice the profession in house and senate.

Tom Hollister and E. G. Clemen-son are registered as representatives of the Nebraska Power company of Omaha. Tremmore Cone of Waterloo, Neb., represents the taxpayers league and will interest himself in legislation which pertains to taxation.

Three Lincoln women are registered to date as lobbyists. Mrs. Clara C. Clayton, vice president and legislative superintendent of the W. C. T. U. will give her attention to child welfare legislation. Freda M. Davis, legislative chairman of the Nebraska league of women voters, is particularly interested in legislation to remove the party circle and in better marriage laws.

Jack Dempsey Denies He Is Champion Prize Fighter

Los Angeles, Jan. 12.—Jack Dempsey, in his answer to the $25,000 damage suit of Owen Bartlett, house painter, which went on trial in superior court here today, declared he was not the "champion prize fighter of the world," but the "champion boxer of the world."

LATEST DEVELOPMENTS IN FRENCH INVASION

French troops encircled the entire valley of the Ruhr, with bayonets bristling, but they met with no resistance. There was lamentation among the wives of American soldiers on the Rhine when news was received that the occupation force had been called home.

Germany is expected to declare the peace treaty broken and announce a decision to no longer negotiate with the reparations commission unless the injustice is removed. A dispatch from Essen says martial law is to be proclaimed in the district.

The German ambassadors at Paris and Brussels, Belgium, deserted their posts and left for Berlin.

The proclamation issued by President Ebert and the cabinet in the decision of France and her associates to invade the Ruhr declares his ministers have done what they could to avoid the disastrous action of the French and would do what they could to mitigate its effects.

French airplanes dropped leaflets over Essen, calling upon the population to remain quiet. The leaflets asserted that persons who stopped work would be deported, and that those who prevented or interfered with the normal course of the city's activities would be subject to the death penalty.

MOON ECLIPSES PLANET VENUS AFTER 40 YEARS

Platts-mouth Early Risers Have a Chance to View Most Unusual Sight This Morning.

For the first time in a period of forty years the residents of this section of the United States had the opportunity of viewing the eclipse of the planet Venus by the moon and the sight was one of beauty as the moon and the planet were clear and blazing with light at the time of the eclipse.

The eclipse started at 5:08 and the moon slowly crept across the face of the planet and hid from sight for almost an hour the bright and glittering planetary neighbor of the old earth. The moon visible as a crescent rose at 4:19 a. m. and at 5:08 appeared to pass over Venus, the star at that time being at the outer edge of the crescent.
