

Nehawka Department!

Prepared in the interests of the People of Nehawka and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers.

Get the News at Home!

And as to that matter have the the enjoyment of hearing the best plays, concerts and hearing the sermons, and lectures over the entire country, by Radio. We are ready to place a receiving set in your home, that will put you in touch with the whole of America.

See us for specifications.

Boedeker & Lundberg,

Nehawka,

Nebraska

James Blake and John Griffin have been cutting wood south of town during the past few days.

Robert Troop purchased a span of mules at the Charles Osborne sale, north of Union last week.

Joseph Felthouser of Nebraska City was looking after some business in Nehawka last Monday morning.

W. O. Troop has been sick with a slight attack of the gripe and was laid up for a few days with the malady.

Mrs. L. H. Young who has been feeling quite poorly for some time past, is reported as being considerable better.

C. M. Christwiser and wife were reading last Sunday at the home of John Campbell, Jr., driving up in their auto.

Mr. R. M. Prince will move to the farm which is to be vacated by J. Crum, where he will make his home for the coming year.

R. M. Price and wife were looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Tuesday, making the trip in their auto.

Little Junior Geck has been down with a case of the gripe for the past few days but is reported as getting very nicely now.

The new books for the school library which had been purchased recently are now arriving and are being placed in the school library.

Dr. Tuck the veterinarian of Weeping Water was a visitor in the neighborhood north of Nehawka, he called to treat a cow for Mr. W. Lewis.

Grover Hopkins who has been lying some five miles north of Nehawka moved last week to Plattsmouth where he will make his home in the future.

The senior class has been planning a movie show in the near future the proceeds from which will go to the class fund which is now in need of the benefit.

H. H. Stoll has been looking after the work at the auditorium taking the place of the janitor, Mr. B. O. Tucker who has been feeling very badly for some time past.

A. F. Sturm the grain and lumberman who has been down with the gripe for some time is able to be up and about again and is looking after the business at the office.

R. H. Ingwerson who has been suffering from an attack of the influenza for more than the past week is reported as being much improved and is now able to be out again.

The Rev. John Simpkins pastor of the church in Nehawka and the one at Otterbein, north of town for the United Brethren, began a series of meetings at the Otterbein church last Monday evening.

The Girls and Boys teams of the Nehawka schools played each a game with the like teams of the Louisville teams yesterday and will play another game with the Louisville team at Nehawka on Friday.

L. R. Snipes the county agent was in the neighborhood north of Nehawka one day last week culling chickens in an endeavor to have those which do not lay go to market and the workers stay on the farm.

J. Crum who has lived a little south of Nehawka on one of the Sheldon farms is moving this week to what is known as the Late Nelson farm south of Plattsmouth and which is owned by Mr. Frank Valery.

Misses Hilda Owens and Leona Neumann, both teachers at the Nehawka schools, spent last Saturday and Sunday at their respective homes in Lincoln and returned in time to take up their work here Monday morning.

J. W. Magney and H. M. Pollard both teachers at the school here from Plattsmouth announcing that they were wanted to serve on the jury in the district court and hastened to the county seat to respond to the call of duty.

Thomas E. Fulton the "Village Blacksmith" who has been suffering from the flu has not made the recovery which he has desired and has been compelled to keep his business place closed on account of his not getting strong again.

Mrs. Parr Young who has been at the sanitarium for several weeks, when she has been receiving treatment, has so far improved as to be able to return home and is feeling much the better from the treatment which she has been receiving.

The Merry-Go-Round, the ladies society north of Nehawka, and a very jolly bunch of workers at that, held their meeting this week on last Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stoll where they all enjoyed the most delightful afternoon.

Mrs. Leo Switzer who has been suffering from a spell with the gripe has much to be glad of as she would have liked to and accompanied by Mr. Switzer was in Omaha last Monday to consult a specialist in this kind of illness in the hopes of getting rid of the after affects of the disease.

James Stoner, who has been living on the Countryman place for the past few months, has moved to the Troy

Shrader place and will work for Mr. Shrader the coming season. M. R. Burrow who has been working there will move to the Ingwerson place and work for Alba Ingwerson the coming summer.

Last Thursday J. J. Lohnes departed via his auto for Grant where he will make his home in the future, driving the car out in order to take advantage of the good roads at this time. After arriving there Mr. Lohnes concluded that he would return and move the other goods and the family as he is wanting to begin farming in the near future.

The seven weeks old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gies Whitman died at the home of Mrs. Whitman's mother in Nebraska City last Sunday evening with pneumonia and was buried from the undertaker's chapel on Tuesday of this week. The mother being also sick and not able to attend or have the funeral from the home. Mrs. Whitman is still very poorly.

Word was received here last Monday morning to effect that Mrs. Elizabeth Connow, age between ninety-one and ninety-two, of Cole Valley, Ill., and an aunt of W. O. Troop, being a sister of Mr. Robert Troop of Plattsmouth passed away at her home on Sunday evening. Mrs. Connow was buried there, it being the place where she has lived for over sixty years.

Lost
Cameo brooch, between Dr. Thomas office and P. Sheldon store. Notify Mrs. Robert James.

Undergoes Operation Tuesday
Henry Thiele and wife were in Omaha last Tuesday, called there by the illness of Mrs. Leo Switzer, who has had the flu and was taken to the hospital, where it was found necessary to perform an operation to relieve the lady and to hasten her recovery.

For Sale
Black Poland China registered 11 months old. Black Poland China boar for sale.—M. S. Briggs, Plattsmouth phone 2104.

Entertained On Wednesday
The committee of the Bur Workers whose lot it was to entertain, selected the auditorium for the purpose as the home of any one would not be large enough for all who desired to attend. The committee being Messrs. W. Burkes, M. Palmer, B. O. Tucker, A. E. Essenswein. Much good work was done while the ladies also enjoyed their friends' society and all went as merry as a "marriage bell."

Girls Win; Boys Lose
On the games of the basketball which were played in Nehawka last Friday, the girls pitted against the girls team of Weeping Water won by a score of 29 to 28 while the Nehawka boys lost to the Weeping Water chaps to the tune of Weeping Water 18, Nehawka boys 14. Earl Troop was referee and a good game was played.

Two Happy Families
Just like meeting a glaring auto light after night to meet John Steffans or Fred Linville, simply blinding, that iridescent smile which lighted up both their countenances. It was a boy at the home of Fred Linville who came last Friday and a pretty, blue-eyed little miss who announced she would make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Steffans. By the way, all are doing well except the papas and it is thought that they will pull through with proper care.

FINE HOG SALE HELD AT NEHAWKA SATURDAY
This is literally true and as well it was a sale of very fine hogs. Harry Knabe, who some five years ago this summer started a herd as a member of the pig club, and who won signal honors, including trips into other exhibitions, has developed his herd to the extent of being able to hold a sale of some of his fine hogs as were ever grown in Nebraska. The thirty-seven head which he sold brought on an average of $64.50 each. Some brought as high as $135 and several near the $100 mark.

Five litter mates brought respectively: Miss Best 2nd, $53; Miss Best 1st, $60; Miss Best 3rd, $53; Miss Best 4th, $60, or a total of $276 for the five.

Col. W. R. Young, better known as Rex, who is one of the best auctioneers in Nebraska, and who is making a specialty of pure breeds did the selling and brought in an average of from $15 to $20 per head more than was expected before the sale. Mr. Young departed the same evening for the western portion of the state, where he is conducting some pure bred sales and will make some money for the people who have secured him.

Both Messrs. Knabe and Col. Young are to be congratulated on the success of raising and marketing some very fine pigs.

FOR SALE
Two houses and eleven lots on West Oak street, or will sell one bungalow and seven lots if preferred by purchaser. For particulars call 136-J.—Mrs. Andrew Sybert. 18-61d.2w

FOR SALE
For scurvy, toothache, pains, burns, scalds, sore throat, try Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil, a splendid remedy for emergencies.

After Every Meal

WRIGLEYS

Top off each meal with a bit of sweet in the form of WRIGLEYS. It satisfies the sweet tooth and aids digestion. Pleasure and benefit combined.

FOR THE CHILDREN

HIGH SPOTS IN THE LIFE OF GEORGE WASHINGTON

Feb. 22, 1732, born in Westmoreland county, Virginia, near shore of Potomac river.

Left fatherless when eleven. Studied surveying and made first trip when sixteen. Efficiency drew him appointment as public surveyor from governor.

Became executor of brother's estate at Mount Vernon when twenty. Little knowing home would be recovered through centuries.

Married Mrs. Martha Custis in 1759. Delegate from Virginia to first continental congress at Philadelphia in 1774.

Named commander-in-chief of the American army in June 1775. Defeated at battle of Long Island August 27, 1776, and at White Plains later.

Dec. 26, 1776, won battle of Trenton. Jan. 3, 1777, won battle of Princeton. Sept. 11, 1777, lost battle of Brandywine.

Followed the terrible winter at Valley Forge. Oct. 19, 1781, besieged Cornwallis at Yorktown, Virginia, and compelled British general to surrender whole army.

Made president of constitutional convention in 1788. Elected president of U. S. and inaugurated April 30, 1789. Served two terms.

Dec. 14, 1799, died at his home from pneumonia, contracted during ride about plantation.

FOR SALE.
Six room modern house, cellar, basement and cave. One acre. Furnace, well, cistern, plenty of fruit trees and small fruit. Good outbuildings, hay and chicken house. Phone 67-W.

FOR RENT
80 acres, small improvements, five miles northeast of Union, known as Ben Raymond place. Telephone Atlantic 3147.

HANEY REALTY CO.
501 World Herald Bldg.

Secure your valentine decorations and supplies at the Journal. Largest line in the city.

PUBLIC SALE!

I will sell at Public Auction at my home on the Charley Christwiser farm, five miles north of Nehawka, and two and one-half miles west and one and one-quarter miles south of Murray, on—

Tuesday, February 27
commencing at 10 o'clock a. m., with lunch served on the premises at noon by Oscar Natlor, the following described property, to-wit:

Live Stock
One brown mare, six years old, wt. 1,300; one bay mare, eight years old, wt. 1,500; one bay mare, nine years old, wt. 1,400; one bay mare, eight years old, wt. 1,400; one bay mare, ten years old, wt. 1,500; one saddle mare, five years old, wt. 800.

Farm Machinery
One truck wagon and rack; one farm wagon with box; one single buggy; two sets 1 1/2-inch harness; one new saddle; one riding bridle; one John Deere binder; one King press drill; one Deering mower; one clover seed buncher; one sled listed corn cultivator; one disk; one two-wheeled lister; one forty Lind corn cultivator; one tongueless corn cultivator; one 16-inch walking plow; one 3-section harrow; two corn boxes; scoop end gates; one wagon box; ten rods garden fence; about thirty rods of hog fence; one Economy King cream separator; one National 150-egg incubator and numerous other articles.

Terms of Sale
All sums of $10 and under, cash. On sums over $10 a credit of six months will be given, purchaser giving bankable note bearing eight percent interest from date. No property to be removed from the premises until settled for.

WORTH CLICK.
Owner.
Mixed hard wood for sale. $2.50 per load on place.—Sam Gilmour. 119-tfw

LOCAL NEWS

From Monday's Daily.
O. A. Coon of Manly was here today for duty as a member of the jury panel in the district court.

Attorney C. E. Tefft of Weeping Water was here today attending to some matters in the district court.

Joseph Banning of Union was here today to look after some matters in the district court in which he is interested.

L. F. Wunderlich of Villisca, Ia., will be here today for a few hours looking after some matters of business and visiting with his relatives and friends.

John Livingston and J. C. Lemon of Greenwood came in this morning to attend the opening session of the district court as members of the jury panel.

A. H. Bushnell and family are all confined to their home as the result of the attacks of the flu and are quite sick at their home in the west part of the city.

Charles E. Heebner, former county commissioner, was here from Nehawka today to attend the session of the district court as a member of the petit jury panel.

George Wallinger of South Bend and John Busche of Louisville were among the members of the jury panel to arrive early this morning to enter on their term of service.

Charles A. Miller of Brunswick, Nebraska, who has been here visiting with his many old time friends in this locality, returned this afternoon to his home in the northern part of the state.

William P. Sitzman, wife and daughters, motored down to Weeping Water Sunday where they spent the day visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cappon and family and other old friends there.

J. E. Wheeler and wife of Lincoln and Mrs. H. A. Fitzgerald and daughter, Miss Dorothy of Omaha, were here yesterday for a few hours motoring down in the new Olds of Mr. Wheeler to spend the day here.

Judge Earl Towle, former Justice E. P. Buck, James M. Tegarden, H. A. Crozier and A. E. Jameson of Weeping Water were all in the city today attending the hearing in the district court in which Mr. Jameson is a party.

Benjamin Gibson, O. V. Boone, Sam Compton and Wilson Gilmore came over this morning from their home in and near Weeping Water to be present at the opening of the district court being members of the jury panel for the term.

Grover Roffner departed this morning for Omaha to have his injured right arm looked after by the specialists who have been attending to the matter. Grover is now feeling much improved and suffering but little inconvenience from the injured arm.

Mrs. Phillip T. Campbell returned last evening to Omaha after a few days' visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Sayles, Dr. Campbell who has been at New York looking after some matters of importance, is expected to return to Omaha today.

Rex Young, the boss auctioneer of Cass county, departed Saturday night for Grant, Nebraska, where he holds a thoroughbred stock sale today. Mr. Young was at the Harry Knabe sale at Nehawka on Saturday and had a great deal of success in the disposal of the stock.

From Tuesday's Daily.
Sheriff C. D. Quinlan was out in the vicinity of Alvo today looking after some matters of importance in connection with his office.

George W. Snyder departed this afternoon for Omaha where he will spend a few hours attending to some matters at the stock market.

E. O. Jones of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, was here Sunday a guest of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Robertson, being a brother-in-law of Mrs. Robertson.

A. F. Seybert departed this afternoon for Omaha in company with John McElrin, who is to enter the hospital to undergo an operation on one of his eyes.

R. M. Werner departed this morning for Hebron, Nebraska, where he was called by the illness of his mother, Mrs. J. J. Werner, who has been in very poor health for some time.

Mrs. Evi Spier of Alliance, who is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Straight, departed this morning for Omaha accompanied by Mrs. Straight to spend the day.

SAY! DOES A TEN DOLLAR BILL LOOK GOOD TO YOU?
I am selling harness made from No. 1 stock and will guarantee every part of it.

Steel hames, 1 1/2 truck traces with heel chain; wide, flat pads; 1 3/4 x 20 foot lines. The best wearing bridle you ever saw. Kay winker brace, round side checks with hitch reins. 1 3/4 double back straps; 1 3/4 hip straps and 1-inch check-up straps. I make this harness myself and sell it for $60.

I guarantee this harness to be $10 cheaper than anything of the same quality on the market, obligating myself to eat a set, hames and all, if all this is not true.

Plenty of Use Yet for a

-Sweater!

Still lots of cold weather ahead and then Spring—and many days and evenings after that you will find use for a good Sweater Coat.

The Keller Coat is scientifically built, it's shaped by hand and hand finished, it won't sag and stretch and looks the part of a thoroughbred, for that's what it is. All wool and made to wear.

Philip Thierolf

Ask to see the Keller Sport Coat!

MISSION IS BUSY DISTRIBUTING RUBBERS TO KIDDIES

Generous Donation from Sixth Street Dealer is Passed Along to the Needy of the City.

Yesterday the Sunday school at the mission was largely attended and the children all enjoyed themselves, as they were made to feel at home and their clothing was not noticed.

The Sunday school at the Holiness church took up a collection and sent it down to help the mission work. God bless you. We thank you.

The subject of the evening meeting, "All of Self and None of Thee," was enjoyed by quite a number of people and handled in a masterful manner by General Happy.

The owner of the bankrupt shoe stock on Sixth street has donated to the mission about 200 pairs of new rubbers and Gen. Happy and son are very busy fitting out the poor kiddies who are sure glad of this gift to the mission, and which makes it possible to help so many. All children who can wear them (Sizes 2 to 8) and need them are sure welcome to them FREE. Call at the mission after 4 p. m.

GEN. MEIKEL & SON.
Popular copyrights, Journal office.

-Single Comb White Leghorns!

Hatching eggs... $ 6.00 per 100
Baby chicks..... 13.50 per 100
Custom Hatching!

Our mammoth incubator is ready to hatch your eggs. A charge of 3 cents per egg will be made. After March 5th, 3 1/2 cents. Only the following denominations can be accepted: 150, 300, 450, etc.

Make Reservation for Egg Space Early
W. F. NOLTE
MYNARD NEBRASKA

SCHAFER BROS.' Pure Bred Sow Sale!

To be held at Weeping Water, Neb.,
Saturday, February 24th, 1923,
at Dunn's Pavilion.

50 HEAD OF DUROC-JERSEY SOWS and GILTS
Bred to Smooth Orion-Sensation.
ALL IMMUNED!
Write for Catalog.

SCHAFER BROS.,
Nehawka, Nebraska

YOU know what you like in clothes; we know how to give you just what you want.

Here you may easily find the right combination of fabric and fashion; you may make sure of the smart touch of style, the good fit, the long wear you desire, in a suit "Tailored to Measure by Born."

And you will find the price no higher than the figures asked for clothes of doubtful value.

The New Spring and Summer Style Books Are Here

F. P. SHELDON

Established 1888
PHONE NO. 14 NEHAWKA, NEB.