Don't Forget Our Dance

AND MEET US THERE

AT MURRAY, NEB.

Saturday Night, March 24th

Under Management the Home Dance.

Mrs. H. M. Shumaker, who has been very sick is reported as being much improved during the past few days.

Fred Borne, who has been working in Nebraska City, was a visitor in Union for a few days and over Sunday.

E. S. Puray was a visitor in Omaha last Sunday, remaining for a day or so on account of the severe storm.

Len J. Austin has moved to the next house north of the Mrs. Clara Davis place, where he will live this summer.

Riley Hill was a visitor in Union for a short time while on his way from Nebraska to Omaha last Monday afternoon.

Joseph Fetzer was a visitor in Union for the day last Monday and was a guest of his daughter, Mrs. J. M. Patterson while here.

J. H. Frans had the misfortune to lose some thirty young pigs on account of the severe storm of last Saturday night and Sunday.

C. W. Clark, proprietor of the Union hotel was a visitor in Nebraska City last Monday, where he was looking after some business matters.

Henry H. Becker was a visitor in Omaha last Sunday, going to see Mrs. Becker, who is receiving treatment at one of the hospitals in that city and is progressing nicely.

Miss Fannie McCarroll was a visitor in Nebraska City on Tuesday of this week, where she transacted some business and visited with friends.

W. H. Porter and wife were visiting with the family of W. L. Taylor in Omaha on Tuesday of this week, and also looking after some business matters as well.

Mrs. J. M. Patterson was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Saturday and was accompanied by their little son, Thomas, visiting with friends and relatives for the day.

Miss Gladys Hall teacher in the Union schools, was a visitor at her home in Plattsmouth for over the week end, going to that place on the early train last Saturday.

Mrs. John Becker, who has been ill with the flu for some time, is reported as being much improved. It is hoped that ere long she will be in her accustomed health again.

The severe storm found many in the neighborhood out of fuel and while no one suffered very greatly, T. W. Swan had to get out in the storm for fuel to keep the home warm.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dukas was taken to the hospital at Nebraska City last Saturday, where she is being given treatment at the hospital there for Brights disease.

Mrs. John Lloyd was a visitor in Nebraska for a number of days last week, remaining over Sunday and was unable to get home on the train. Mr. Lloyd going over in their buggy for her.

Mrs. Planck, who has been visiting at the home of her parents at Syracuse, returned home via Lincoln and was accompanied by the Rev. Planck, who returned to his studies last Monday morning.

Walter L. Havenrige was a visitor for a few days at the home of A. L. Becker, arriving last Friday morning.

ing and departing for North Platte on Monday afternoon to take up his work for the Hudson company.

On account of the very severe storm which visited this section of the country last Sunday, filling the roads with snow drifts, the rural carriers could not get around on their routes, and the farming community was without mail for the time.

A. L. Becker has been trying to get his wheat shipped to market for some time, and was not able to get a car until last Saturday, when he loaded a portion of the grain, and on Monday completed the loading, shipping the car of wheat to St. Louis.

John Frans of Nebraska was a visitor at the home of his brother, Exa Frans for the past week, caring for the stock and doing the chores while the brother was sick with the flu. Exa, however, is getting along nicely at this time and is able to be out again.

C. E. Severyn, superintendent of the Union schools, was a visitor at his home at Schuyler last Sunday, that is going on Friday evening and on account of the severe storm of Sunday was not able to get home until Monday morning to take up his school work again.

Moss McCarroll, Sherman Austin and Ellis L. Run, who are employed in the Burlington shops at Plattsmouth, were all visiting at home over Sunday and were compelled to remain until Monday evening in order to get back to their work again.

Mr. McCarroll however remained a few days longer as he has some work to do on the farm.

During the blizzard last Sunday the stork was very busy and among the other calls which this famous bird made was one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Woods east of Union, leaving there a bouncing big baby boy which has brought great pleasure to the happy parents. Reports are that everyone is doing nicely, including the father.

Otto Carroll and Mrs. George S. Holmes were in Union for a short time last Monday while en route for Nebraska where they were going, called there on account of the death of the mother of the latter and mother also of Mrs. Otto Carroll. Mrs. Carroll has been at Nebraska, where she has been assisting in the care of the mother, Mrs. Samuel Humphrey, who passed away on last Saturday morning.

Escaped by a Miracle

Last Sunday night, after having put in a hard day trying to keep the house warm, it is feared that the retired, leaving a good fire and placing a large stick of wood in the coal fire and in some way the stove door came open after they had all gone to sleep, letting the live coals fall out onto the floor. A hole one by one in size was made thru the floor, when by some miracle the blaze simply went out, and no one knew anything about the threatened fire until they arose Monday morning and discovered the unmistakable evidence of what had taken place. The damage was rather light, but their fright was considerable when they found the hole had been in such danger of being burned to death.

A Fine Young Man

It is told of one of the gallant young men living northeast of Union that he takes his horse and the school teacher, and notwithstanding the deep drifts, is able to deposit the full one at her school, and then in the evening takes her home as well. This is doubly nice considering the difficult traveling.

No Services Sunday

On account of the excessive severity of the storm on last Sunday, there were no services at either of the churches in Union, and as well the stormy weather prevented the series of meetings which the Methodist church was to have had last week.

Card of Thanks

We desire to extend our heartfelt thanks to our many neighbors and friends who were so kind in their ministrations and who furnished the beautiful flowers at the funeral of our beloved wife and mother and to those who sang, and especially do we feel grateful to those who so kindly shoveled a roadway for the funeral cortege to get to the cemetery.—John M. Fitch and Family.

Death Claims a Noble Woman

Miss Nettie Campbell was born December 13th, 1872, and was united in marriage with Mr. John Fitch on March 14, 1893, and on the thirtieth anniversary of her marriage died at the hospital in Omaha, March 14th, 1923.

Mrs. Fitch was a most excellent woman and had lived in this country all the fifty years of her life, being quick to make friends through the kindly deeds which characterized her life.

She had been a victim of the flu some time ago, and was left in a serious condition, having a complication of gall stones and other ailments. She was taken to the hospital in the hope that she might find relief, but her condition was so serious that not even an operation was advised by the specialists, and she passed away on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Fitch leaves to mourn her departure besides her immediate family, the husband and one son Elmer Eugene, six brothers and one sister, the brothers being Peter Campbell, John Campbell, Franklin Campbell, Joseph Campbell and Andrew Campbell, all of Murray; and George H. Campbell of Belgrade and Mrs. Elizabeth Connelly; also Mrs. Eugene Fitch and two grandchildren, Elmer Rey and Lottie Gertrude Fitch, also a number of nephews and nieces. Mrs. Fitch united with the Christian church when twenty-five years of age, and has lived a faithful life ever claiming the promises of the Master.

The funeral was conducted by the Rev. W. A. Tabor and the music provided by the chorus from Nebraska. The pall bearers who so kindly placed the earthly remains of this excellent woman in her final resting place were Henry Theile, Troy Shrader, Lester Shrader, Ray Christweisser, Lee Brown and Gus Hanson.

WELL KNOWN LADY DIES AT WYOMING

Mrs. E. E. Miller Passed Away at Midnight March 18, From Complication of Trouble.

The community of Wyoming was called upon to part with one of its highly esteemed members on Sunday when Mrs. E. E. Miller passed away from an illness due to a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Miller was taken a short time ago with the flu that developed into pneumonia and later Bright's disease was added to her sufferings and she was relieved by death.

The deceased lady was forty-two years of age and was formerly Miss Martha Vantine, a daughter of one of the old families of the vicinity of Union and Wyoming and was a sister of John Vantine of near Nebraska.

Mrs. Miller had resided on the farm in 1896 the deceased lady was married to E. E. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Miller of near Union and to this union two children were born, one daughter, dying when a babe, and the only surviving child is Earl, aged 7. Since their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Miller have had a very happy home until the shadow of sickness and sorrow came to mar the beauty of the home.

At this time the funeral arrangements have not been completed owing to the fact that the storm of Sunday had blocked the roads near the Miller home so badly that the undertaker from Nebraska City could not reach the farm and it will be necessary to delay the funeral until the highways can be traveled.

W. C. T. U. SOCIETY HAS A FINE MEETING

Mrs. J. H. Hallstrom and Mrs. J. G. Mauzy Entertain Ladies at Enjoyable Gathering.

From Wednesday's Daily.

On Monday afternoon the ladies of the W. C. T. U. society were very delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. J. H. Hallstrom with Mrs. J. G. Mauzy as hostess and the occasion was one of the rarest enjoyment to all of the party.

Mrs. H. W. Black of Minden presided at the piano while the ladies opened the program by singing and this feature was followed by a number of very interesting features.

As the occasion was the birthday anniversary of Neal Dow of Maine, the father of prohibition, a number of papers were given on the subject of his life. Mrs. S. A. Wiles gave a review of his temperance work, Mrs. George A. Dodge a historical sketch of his life and Mrs. J. E. Wiles a character sketch and review of his life.

Miss Elizabeth Spangler gave a paper, "Wear Your White Ribbon," which was very interesting.

The devotions of the afternoon were led by Mrs. C. C. Wescott with Mrs. F. E. Ploutz offering the prayer. Mrs. Hallstrom and Mrs. Mauzy proved themselves royal hostesses and very dainty and delicious refreshments were served at an appropriate hour.

SNOW IN THE WEST

From Wednesday's Daily.

While today is the first day of the glad springtime, according to the calendar, it is far from springlike in the western portion of the state, according to reports received by the Burlington in this city. A very heavy snow was falling at McCook this morning altho not accompanied by the high wind of last Sunday and on the O'Neill line of the railroad the snow was reported as traveling eastward.

SENATE BALKS ON PASSING CROW BILL

Lincoln, March 20.—The storm-tossed crow bill, senate file 14, hit another rock Tuesday when the senate sent it back to conference committee, the members of the upper house refusing to agree with the house of representative that a 10-cent bounty for crows heads should be mandatory on all counties. Sentiment in the senate favors leaving the matter optional. The provision by which crow eggs shall be worth 50 cents a dozen was killed.

The town caucus was held Monday night in Stewart's hall, where several candidates were nominated, two of whom are to be elected April 2nd to fill three year terms on the village board. Those whose terms expire this spring are John B. Skinner and Carl D. Ganz.

Last Saturday about thirty ladies of the M. E. church surprised Rev. and Mrs. Ahrendt at their home with a shower. After they had recovered from their surprise they enjoyed the fun with the rest. The last feature of the afternoon was a dainty lunch, which the ladies brot with them.

M. E. Church Notes

Some one said we had a bad storm and others said it was a blizzard. Under a different caption you may read the cause of it. On Saturday afternoon about three o'clock it started to shower at the parsonage and about thirty ladies were sheltered there till some one reported a storm was coming and at 4 o'clock it was then changed from a shower to a blizzard. Of course the blizzard lasted longer than the shower and even over Sunday. We sincerely hope that next Sunday will be a fine day when we may meet at the church for services. The day is too long without church, but the good Lord makes the weather and we abide.

Hope the choir can find time and opportunity to practice that Easter music.

Next Sunday the morning topic will be "Judas" and the audience will be the jury. Don't miss this service. The evening topic, "The Good Samaritan."

Prayer meeting topic is 3rd chapter of 1st Thes.

We are on the verge of our revival meeting under the lady evangelist Miss Clara A. Meeker of Oklahoma. We are sure looking forward to this date of April 17th. Brothers and Sisters, this is the most important work of our lives. Shall we continue as "labourers together with God" or just say, "Reveries are a thing of the past" and act like it is so? Let's do our best for God in every heart in Alvo during this revival of 1st Thes.

Alvo News

Grandma Parsell is able to sit up some now.

Samuel Cashner has been sick for the past few days.

Fred Hoffman was a passenger to Lincoln Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Joe Armstrong is having a hard siege of the flu the past few days.

I. D. Wiles went to Lincoln Tuesday on business, returning home on Wednesday.

Chester Ough went to Lincoln Tuesday evening to spend several days with relatives.

Mrs. Edwards' Sunday school class braved the bad roads Friday evening and bobsided to the Edwards home where they spent a very pleasant evening.

Mrs. Ahrendt entertained the Mothers Council Friday afternoon. Several candidates were nominated in shamrocks to accord with the Irish program. She served a very nice lunch, carrying out the green and white color scheme in her cakes and loes.

The Ta-Ta-Pochen Campfire girls entertained at a birthday party on Saturday afternoon at the church basement in honor of the eleventh birthday of the Campfire organization. They had a cake with eleven candles and spent a very pleasant afternoon.

The town caucus was held Monday night in Stewart's hall, where several candidates were nominated, two of whom are to be elected April 2nd to fill three year terms on the village board. Those whose terms expire this spring are John B. Skinner and Carl D. Ganz.

The editor of the Central Christian Advocate says: "In checking up the day it is noticed that we have not received as many names from your charge as might be reasonably expected. Surely the Advocate is not to default entirely in your good charge." Friends, we ought to have at least fifty in a church membership of 160. Many other churches have one Advocate to a family and it is paid out of the budget fund. Last September Alvo had barely one. Now we have six. Let us boost for fifty. This is a splendid good church paper and as to the price it should be in every home of the church. Only $2 per year and 24 pages of good reading every week.

BIG COMMUNITY SALE

PAROLE APPLICANTS BESIEGING ONE JUDGE

O'Neill, Neb., March 20.—With the twitter of the early robins and the other harbingers of spring, inmates of the penitentiary and Hawthorne apartments are beginning to hear the call of the wild and district judges of the state are being besieged with letters from those irked by the close confinement of prison walls. Almost every one of the quota favorably written and judicial dictum seems to feel that way and has written a letter to Judge Robert R. Dickson of O'Neill, presiding judge, informing him that a parole either already has been applied for or is about to be.

Each asks that the judge intercede favorably with the pardon board and each applicant is of the impression that he will be of more use to society out than in.

Among the applicants for judicial intercession are Frank and Harry Brown, convicted in Rock county of breaking and entering, and of grand larceny for breaking into a store at Newport. The two Browns are no relation, but were arrested May 31 of the same year. But few of the many applications are receiving favorable consideration from Judge Dickson.

WILD WEST SHOW

The wild west show and exhibition that was scheduled to be given at the baseball park in Plattsmouth, has been postponed until Saturday and Sunday, March 31st and April 1st. There will be bucking horses rode with saddle and bareback, also wild steers which will be rode and the main event will be a great exhibition of bulldogging and also standard Roman riding. This will be a great treat of its kind and the first ever shown in Plattsmouth and one well worth seeing by everyone.
