HARDING IS SURE
U. S. CAN'T IGNORE
REST OF WORLD

Would Not Choose to Escape Responsibility to Other Nations, Says the President.

Washington, May 4.—President Harding's unwillingness to make a personal issue of the world court proposal was reiterated at the White House today, but it was added that Mr. Harding was firmly convinced no president could leave the White House with a belief that the United States can or should remain aloof from the rest of the world.

The president was represented as holding that phases of international relations arising daily bring realization that there is no escape from intercourse with the rest of the world. The president, it was added, would not choose to escape the responsibility America owes to other nations of the world if he could.

It was made plain in this connection that the statement of the president's views should not be taken as an argument for American entrance into the league of nations.

As for the world court issue, the president was described as feeling that it would not be compatible with presidential dignity to conduct from the White House a campaign designed to stir up sentiment in behalf of the proposal. Mr. Harding feels, it was added, that inasmuch as the senate does not meet until December there will be plenty of time for a discussion of the matter and numerous opportunities during the executive's proposed western trip for presentation of the proposal to the people in an explanatory way.

The present position of the president was said to be that there was no need for elucidation of his position as enunciated in his recent New York address, the statement being made that Mr. Harding regards that address as having made his attitude as clear as possible.

DEPARTS FOR THE WEST

From Saturday's Daily
Walter Tower, the well known auto mechanic, who has been employed at the Bauer garage for the past few years, departed today for the west, where he will make an indefinite visit and may locate permanently if the conditions there are pleasing. Wait is making the trip by auto and will enjoy himself, making stops at the points of interest as he goes. He will take in the oil country of the northwest and probably go to the Pacific coast through the states of Washington and Oregon and later go on to Los Angeles and the southwest.

GOLF COURSE FOR CITY ASSURED AS RE-SULT OF MEETING

Sixty-Eight Acres on Luke Wiles Farm Will be Devoted to the Making of a Course.

From Saturday's Daily.
The gentle-eyed bovines that graze on the pasture lands at the farm of Luke L. Wiles just at the edge of the city limits will have the surprise of their lives in the next few weeks and the cries of "Fore," uttered by strange appearing men will startle the dwellers of the peaceful countryside, is the plans of the Plattsmouth golfing club materialize, and there is little reason to doubt but what they will as there is a bunch of hard-working and enthusiastic boosters taking up the proposition.

That this city should have a golf course has long been pointed out and many of the residents here have enjoyed the sport on the links of the Omaha clubs and other neighboring cities, but have felt that in a community of this size with its unusual good locations there should be one here and from their efforts has sprung the latest in the sporting line in the community.

Last evening those interested met at the office of Dr. R. P. Westover and started the ball rolling for the new club and the course decided upon is the sixty-eight acre tract of pasture land of Luke L. Wiles, which is right at the outskirts of the city and easy of access to the residents of the town and the countryside as well as the club will include many of the residents of the country districts near Plattsmouth.

The officers of the club selected were: Searl S. Davis, president; Luke L. Wiles, vice president; Edwin Fricke, secretary-treasurer, and T. H. Pollock and George S. DeWolf as members of the executive committee.

The new club will not be exclusive in the least and everyone interested is invited to get in the new organization and be prepared to enjoy the delights of golfing this summer on the new course.

A professional groundkeeper from one of the Omaha clubs will be brought here to look over the course and lay it out and make what suggestions necessary for the upkeep and care of the course and with good luck it is hoped to have the course ready in a very short time.

A REAL FREAK

A freak in the nature of a two-legged colt was born at the Walter Collins farm north of town this week. It appears to be normal in every other way and shows no symptoms or intentions of voluntarily quitting this new life. As it has to be fed by hand, Mr. Collins thinks that unless he can find a buyer of freaks who wants it he will assist in its early departure.

NEBRASKA PIONEER
PASSES 90TH BIRTH-
DAY IN THE WEST

William Bridge Observes Event at Home in Canby, Oregon, on First Day of January.

The following account of the 90th birthday anniversary of one of the early residents of this locality has been received here by Mrs. H. Adams and Mrs. W. F. Gillespie, who are nieces of this venerable pioneer, William Bridge. He is also the father of Joe Bridge, who formerly resided here and who was very active in the affairs of the city in the early nineties, having been a councilman here for a number of years and also an employe of the Burlington shops.

"Wm. Bridge of Canby, Oregon, celebrated his 90th birthday at his Riverside home January 1st, with a house party consisting of children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

"He was born in Indiana near Logansport, January 1, 1833, where he grew to manhood and was educated there by teachers such as David Jenkins, who in after years came to Spokane, Washington, and was one of the promoters of that city.

"In 1867 he came to Plattsmouth, Nebraska, and afterwards purchased a farm in Nemaha county, Nebraska, near the town of Peru, where the Nebraska State Normal school is located.

"In the spring of 1902 he came to Oregon, as several of his children were also here. He purchased a farm in the Pleasant Home section eight miles east of Gresham.

"In 1910 he came to Canby, where he has since resided. For the first few years he exhibited produce that he had grown on his land and was proud of the premiums given him. He was able to accomplish a great deal though hindered by poor eyesight. In appearance he is younger than many a man 75 years of age.

Lineage is Old
"By authenticated records he has traced his ancestry to England, they coming to America in 1632 and settling in Massachusetts. Afterwards members of the family went to Connecticut and founded the town of Bridgeport. Later other members went to Monmouth, N. J., where his grandfather, Benjamin Bridge, was born. The latter had six sons, Wm. Bridge's father being the second youngest of the six children.

"His grandfather, Benjamin Bridge, who was 14 years older than he, lost his life in the Mexican war and is buried near Vera Cruz.

"He is eligible to the most exclusive club in America—"Sons of American Revolution." In the Mount Hope cemetery near Logansport six or more names of those in his ancestral line appear on a shaft which is erected in honor of heroes of the Revolution. His grandfather served seven years under Washington and his father served three years under Wm. H. Harrison in Indiana, Ohio and Michigan.

"His eldest and youngest sisters died years ago and his only remaining sister, Mrs. Caroline Henton, died a few years ago in her 90th year, at Mynard, Nebraska.

35 Attend Dinner

"The birthday dinner was enjoyed by 35 people. The compound cake with its candles, which lighted, was a most beautiful centerpiece. If each candle could have told of the year it represented, what an interesting history it would have made!

"Those present were Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Bridge and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bridge and children, Elizabeth, Cecel and Richard; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bridge and little daughters, Marjory and Stella; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Harris and daughter, Frances; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Liebman, granddaughter of S. F. B., and little son, Marion; Albert Liebman, Jr., who represents the fifth generation, all of Battleground, Washington; Mrs. Jennie Bailey of Canby and her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Oleson, of Oregon City, and children, Virginia and Robert; Mrs. C. Christensen of Troutdale and son, Ralph Christensen; Ernest J. Swank, of Heaver Creek and children; Mrs. Earl Boyer of Oregon City and little daughters, Amy Elizabeth, Dorothy Jean and Margaret Irene; also Blanche and Willis Swank; Mr. and Mrs. Boyer and Edna Boyer of Clackamas and Loretta Bridge of Canby.

Some Relatives Missing
"Those who were unable to attend were J. W. Bridge and wife of Decatur, Ill., and their sons, Ray and family of California and Harry and wife of St. Louis; Ernest Lancaster and Rita Tomay of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Patch, youngest daughter of S. F. Bridge, who are visiting in Ohio; C. Christensen of Troutdale and son, Maurice Christensen, who is attending Columbia college, Battleground, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. John Hix, Jr., of Dufur, Oregon; Mrs. Hix (Glady's Swank) who is teaching in Wasco county; H. C. Oleson, of Oregon City, and children, Grace, Alice and Frances; Charles Bailey and children, Maudie, Fred and Alice, of Bull Run, Oregon.

"The circle was not complete without thought of the wife and mother and the youngest two sisters, Mrs. Amy Swank and Mrs. Jessie F. Lancaster, who were buried at Canby; also Brother Willie and Sister Alice, who are buried near Peru, Nebr."

"New Way" Dance Hall Given Initiation by Members of Mechanical Dept. Association

From Saturday's Daily.
Last evening the "New Way" dance hall in the old roller skating rink building was given its formal initiation by a fine social gathering of the employes of the Burlington shops and their families and friends. The floor of the hall was completed yesterday afternoon and the condition is fine for dancing and will be waxed and finished and made one of the best in the state.

The event last night was given under the auspices of the Mechanical & Q. R. R. the organization of the employes, and a very pleasing crowd was in attendance at the event. The foremen of the shops and their families were also invited to be in attendance.

The box social which was the feature of the evening, was very much enjoyed and the ladies present had come provided with loads of the good things to eat and some keen competition was shown in the bidding on the part of the gentlemen. The proceeds of the sale goes to a fund that will be used in the establishment of an auxiliary to the M. D. A. The members of the party, on their arrival were tagged and which assisted in everyone getting acquainted without the formal introductions.

The "New Way" orchestra furnished the music for dancing as a special treat for the crowd and which was enjoyed by everyone, and special features were made of the older style of dances, which the members of the party enjoyed very much and which were vigorously encouraged.

While the older folks were enjoying the box supper, the children were entertained at games of various kinds on the dance floor and young and old alike enjoyed the ice cream and refreshments provided by the committee in charge. The potato race for the children attracted a great deal of attention and Willard Brink won the prize for the boys, while Helen Bailey was successful among the girls. The men and women present then decided to hold races of this kind and A. Price was the winner in the men's race while Mrs. Frank Marshall won the prize for the ladies.

The entertainment committee of the M. D. A. had full charge of the program and its success has encouraged them to plan another of these gatherings in the future.

YOUNG LADY LAW STUDENT

Among the members of the Freshman class of the night law school of the University of Omaha, is a young lady who acknowledges Plattsmouth as the place of her nativity, and this is Miss Frances Wiles, daughter of Attorney T. F. Wiles and wife, 1114 South 22nd street, Omaha.

Miss Wiles is a graduate of the mid-year class of the Omaha Central high and has since been assisting her father in his law offices in Omaha and becoming interested in the practice of the legal profession, has decided to continue her work further and enrolled as a student in the U. of O. law school. Miss Wiles is the only lady member of the class and is slated for the honor of class president.

The young lady is a granddaughter of the late Captain Isaac Wiles of this city, one of the pioneers of the state and also a niece of Luke H. Wiles and Mrs. J. H. Hall of this city.

RECEIVES A RECOGNITION

Henry Lamphere of this city has received a very pleasant reminder in the last few days of the fact that in some localities at least the war services of the days of 1917-18 have not been entirely forgotten, and incidentally a check for $202.50. This is the state compensation voted by the state of South Dakota to the men who served from that state in the world war.

Henry was at the time of his induction into service residing in South Dakota and therefore was honored as one of the soldiers of that commonwealth. It is needless to say that the remembrance will be much appreciated.

The states of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Minnesota and both North and South Dakota have voted the compensation measures for their former soldiers, but in Nebraska the measure was gently lulled to its long rest by the legislature.

RECEIVES WORD OF DEATH OF MRS. HARRY L. KING

The announcement has been received here of the death of Mrs. Harry L. King at the old home in Ohio. Mrs. King has been suffering from tuberculosis for the past few months and has been in the hospital for several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. King removed from this city the early part of the winter and have been living in and near Marietta, Ohio, where Mr. King was engaged in the coal mining work. The deceased lady has been married only about a year and her death comes as a severe blow to the young husband and the other relatives. The announcement was received here by Mrs. A. H. Shindlbower, sister of Mr. King.

Board of Bishops Repudiates Remarks of Bishop Edgar Blake in Moscow Speech.

Wichita, Kan., May 4.—A resolution recalling the Methodist Episcopal delegation to Russia and refusing to accept responsibility for any of the purported remarks of Bishop Edgar Blake at Moscow, was adopted by the board of bishops, of which Bishop Blake is a member, here late today.

The Methodist Episcopal church of the United States neither supports nor defends the soviet of Russia, as Bishop Blake of Paris is reported personally to have assured the all-Russian ecclesiastical council of the living Church at Moscow yesterday, the resolution declares.

Bishop Blake, in dispatches reporting his address before the all-Russian church convocation Thursday, is quoted as saying that the church in general "cannot stand aside, but must follow revolutionary upheavals and accept every movement looking toward greater brotherhood."

W. H. Wiles, wife and children were here Saturday from the vicinity of Cedar Creek to spend a few hours and they report that the farm work is on now in great shape and that they had been busy Saturday morning planting the early corn.

Business forms of all kinds printed at the Journal office.
