HARD COAL MINERS MAKE NEW DEMANDS

Insistence on Wage Increase to be Presented to Operators when Negotiations Open Soon.

Scranton, Pa., June 29.—Anthracite mine workers tonight unanimously adopted a set of demands to be presented to the coal operators in the coming negotiation for a new wage contract. They followed generally those adopted at the convention in Shamokin, Pa., in January, 1922, and for which the miners fought for five and a half months, the men finally returning to work without an increase in wage, but maintaining the scale under which they had quit.

The convention took no action on a question of suspension in the event the negotiations run beyond August 31. John L. Lewis, international president of the mine-workers, who presided, told the delegates that it was a matter that could be left to the sagacity and good judgment of the officers. The morning session was marked by a disturbance due to the presence in the balcony of the hall of Joseph Manley, son-in-law of William Z. Foster, identified with the trades union educational league, and J. H. McCarthy representing the labor defense council who were bitterly denounced as enemies of the united mine workers and other trades unions and ordered to "remove their carcasses from the hall." McCarthy was accompanied by his wife.

Amid wild jeers and boos, the three left the place, while a number of delegates held back angry men in the rear of the hall. A half block from the hall Manley and McCarthy were attacked by a number of men and in the melee McCarthy was badly used up. Mrs. McCarthy was not assailed, although for a time she pitched in and helped her husband with an umbrella.

The men were accused of being back of a plot of the communist party in the United States to set up a dual organization in the coal fields of the country for the purpose of wrecking the mine workers' union and virtually breaking up other trades and virtually breaking up other trades union organizations.

ONLY ONE BAND FOR HARDING

Portland, Ore., June 28.—There probably will be only one band in the procession through the streets here July 4, of which President Harding, on his visit to this city, will be the principal figure. The musicians' union advised the committee in charge of arrangements for the president's visit yesterday that no union musicians would be permitted to appear in the parade if the band of the Portland Elks lodge participated in it. The committee advised the union the Elks band would participate, and negotiations were broken off.

MARRIAGES PICKING UP

The records in the marriage license department of the office of County Judge Allen J. Beeson show that a total of twenty-three licenses were issued this month and which doubles the record of June, 1922, when only thirteen were sold. This indicates a return to prosperity on the part of this section of the west that permits the establishing of new homes.

TWO CALIFORNIA TOWNS SHAKEN BY EARTH SHOCKS

Los Angeles, June 29.—The city of San Bernardino was shaken by a severe earthquake shock late today, according to telephone messages to the Los Angeles Times. No serious damage was reported. Riverside, Cal., June 29.—Three sharp earth shocks were felt here at 4:45 this afternoon. No damage was reported.

FROM OUT OF THE ETHER

Radio News Broadcast each Saturday by Station ETAO.

Well, we're moved!

Broadcasting from our new location on the ground floor.

The sound proof floor (a la Jas. Burnie style) in our broadcasting room should increase the M's output of our equipment daily.

The Eagles band will give Plattsmouth some fine publicity with their splendid concert a week from Monday night. Tell your friends.

Wednesday was quiet night for WOAW, but not for King Statie. We searched the ether for some familiar voice of the old days, but were wholly unsuccessful. DX stuff is hard to find these days.

The fact that WOAW is reaching out so well under the handicap of atmospheric conditions, demonstrates that it is one of the powerful radio stations in the country and by comparison we can gain some idea of what it will do next winter.

We will "tell the world" the Eagles band is playing a high class of music and will give the radio fans a real treat a week from Monday night. If your old battery is down, get it charged up and be ready to tune in promptly at 9 p. m.

Thursday night at the Radiowave concert hour, WSB, Atlanta, will feature "Announcers' Night," in which everybody who has appeared in the role of announcer at the station, will take part, from Lambdin Kay, the big who-who down to "Old King Tut, the Radio Nut."

The Eagles band boys are donating their services on the radio program to help advertise Plattsmouth to the world, while the Legion post, which is sponsoring the program, will provide rail transportation in case of rain or autos for the trip if the roads are good, which we trust they will be.

Many Find It So

Little Joe had completed his crystal receiving set and had made it "work." His astonished and proud mother said to him: "Wasn't it very hard to do all this?" "Naw," said Joe; "most of it was easy as anything."

"What was the hardest part of it?" she asked. "Gettin' eight plunks out of pa," said Joe.

Sandman's visit every week night except Tuesday, 6:30 to 6:50.

Poor Locations for Reception

It is a well-known fact that some locations are very satisfactory for radio transmission and reception. The range of a broadcasting station may be heard hundreds of miles, yet within fifty miles are localities over which the radiated electro-magnetic waves seem literally to be coming down again at points farther along.

At the same spot, however, over which waves from one station skip, waves from more distant stations may readily be picked up.

This was well illustrated here in the early days of radio when KYN, Chicago, was seldom received in this vicinity or around Omaha, while KDKA, at East Pittsburg came in very satisfactorily.

These conditions give rise to much speculation in regard to the cause. The characteristics of the land, whether hilly or flat, wooded or cleared, moist or dry, over which these waves have passed are thought by many radio fans to be conditions which contribute to these freak effects, says a current bulletin received from Station WOC, Davenport.

Baseball by Radio Daily

Down at Atlanta, Georgia, the followers of the national pastime do not have to expose themselves to the rays of the heated sun in bleacher seats to keep in touch with the daily doings of the home team, for the Atlanta Journal, first with many broadcasting innovations in the past year, has instituted a daily baseball service direct from the grounds. WSB's microphone installed in the grandstand, absorbs every detail of the Southern league contest, including the crack of bat and ball, the cheering of the spectators and the solicitations of the peanut and soda pop vendors. Although thousands of listeners throughout that section get their news of the game free, the management of the baseball team has found it boosts rather than cuts down his attendance, for when out-of-town fans come to Atlanta, they invariably head for the baseball grounds where they can see as well as hear of the action taking place on the diamond. It was the same way with grand opera in New York. After refusing persistently to permit broadcasting of the opera, a trial was conducted here, and the heretofore vacant seats at the Metropolitan were filled with interested patrons, many of whom had heard the broadcast and wished to see firsthand the presentation.

In the same way, radio could boom the sales of sheet music, and we believe the Music Publishers' association is assuming an unwarranted position in their royalty demands.

Mr. Goodman was born in this country and enjoyed the honor and respect of all who knew him. He was quiet in his demeanor and pleasant and genial to all he met. He during the past few years has not been blessed with very good health but with Christian fortitude has kept at his work with a persistence which would win in all cases. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. Ray Bradley, pastor of the Christian church of Weeping Water, of which Mr. Goodman was a member. The interment was made at the Glendale cemetery east of Manley, near where he lived many years of his life.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our thanks to the business men of Manley and to all who in any way contributed to the comfort of our brother and son, Samuel Goodman, during his late illness.

GOVERNOR AGAINST COSTLY RECEIVERSHIPS FOR BANKS

Appoints New Bank Commission with View of Cutting State Expense—Gives One Example.

Lincoln, June 27.—With the appointment of the new bank guaranty commission today Governor Bryan declared explicit war against "the expensive receiverships and the investment bank which has been eating up the assets of failed banks and leaving all the banks which are members of the fund holding the sack for these exorbitant expenses." The governor declared that he had selected the new and permanent commission especially with a view to rooting out this evil.

WOULD MAKE CHICAGO WORLD WHEAT MARKET

National Wheat Council Plans to Remove Center of Control From Liverpool.

Chicago, June 28.—King wheat's throne, which now stands in the center of Liverpool, is to be torn up and transplanted in Chicago, according to plans outlined today by the National Wheat council, in session here. It is claimed the American wheat grower would fare much better at the hands of this world-wide ruler if the royal seat is moved to the producing district.

At the close of today's session, announcement was made by the committee on permanent organization that permanent organization, with executive offices in Chicago, had been decided upon. The new organization will be incorporated and will engage in all forms of activity that may promote the welfare of wheat farmers in the United States.

"The council will especially try to make America the market center for American wheat, instead of Liverpool, where the price of wheat now is fixed," says a statement by the committee. Application for a charter was signed by a number of men prominent in the railroad and farm implement manufacturing line, the packing industry and representatives of the great farm organizations.

GREAT NORTHERN REFUSES TO GIVE FINANCIAL AID

And Promoters Still Looking for a Financial "Angel" to Save the Dempsey-Gibbons Fight.

St. Paul, Minn., June 28.—The Great Northern railroad will not come to the financial rescue of the Dempsey-Gibbons fight at Shelby, Mont., Ralph Budd, president of the road, declared today.

Budd issued a statement saying the "Great Northern has no thought of doing anything outside the province of railroad operation."

Reports reach here from Shelby that the railroad might aid in raising the third $100,000 payment to Jack Dempsey to save the fight.

"The Great Northern's only interest in the Shelby fight has been to provide railroad service to accommodate the crowd attending the fight and the extra tourist travel incident thereto," said Mr. Budd.

"It has been difficult to get any line on the anticipated crowd so the railroad's plans have necessarily been elastic. As the road is double tracked at that point and the large terminal at Cut Bank only twenty miles away, there is trackage available for storing cars and there has been no necessity for building large additional trackage."

Ask Postponement

Shelby, Mont., June 28.—Gibbons and Dempsey may not fight here July 4 after all.

Promoters, unable to find an "angel" to assist them in raising the final $100,000 installment guaranteed to Champion Dempsey, have asked for a ten-day postponement of the battle.

Consent of both battlers will have to be obtained first.

BRYAN IS SPEAKER AT RAIL WORKERS PICNIC

Seward, Neb., June 28.—Governor Charles Bryan was the principal speaker at the first annual picnic of the Big Four railroad brotherhood of Lincoln at Seward's fairground park today.

There were 500 railroad men and their families attending. The majority came on a special train from Lincoln this morning and the others in automobiles. The Nebraska state band of Lincoln gave three concerts.

Governor Bryan declared that the last session of the legislature was so oppressed by lobbyists that only minor bills got attention at the expense of the more important measures.

The short ballot, he said, is wrong in principle as it gives too much power to the individual. Though the repeal of the code law was defeated in the last legislature, he promised that he will still work to that end. The amusement features of the picnic were all kinds of foot races, swimming and dancing.

A Well Balanced Body

"So that the bank depositors of the state would be given full protection, I have given no thought to political affiliation in the selection of the commission, but have had only in mind a commission well balanced, which will be free from all 'entangling alliances' and who are not under obligations to maintain the present extravagant receiverships and the other expensive adjuncts which have been a burden on the failed banks' affairs and worked an imposition on the contributors to the guaranty fund of the state, as well as to the stockholders of the unfortunate banks."

"I desire to commend the members of the various thinking groups of the state for the high character and business ability of the three men in each group that they have selected, from which the new commission has been selected by me."

ALLOW IMMIGRATION CHANGES

Only Slight Differences Noted from Last Year's Quotas—Egypt is Allotted Eighteen.

Washington, June 27.—Only a few slight changes from the allotments of the past year are shown in regulations promulgated today by the labor department fixing the number of immigrants of the various nationalities who will be admitted to the United States under the "quota" law during the fiscal year beginning on July 1. Allotments unchanged include: United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland at 77,342; Germany, 67,607 and Italy, 42,057.

The changes made for the smaller countries resulted mainly from territorial readjustments in Europe. Austria loses 109, its quota being reduced from 7,451 to 7,342, while Hungary's quota is increased 109 from the 5,638 fixed for the present year. Turkey shows the greatest gain as a result of the Turco-Greek war. She is given 266 more than the 2,358 allotted this year and 2,625 less 231, making her total for the coming year, 3,063. Poland's quota is increased to 29,977 from 21,076. The Russian quota is increased to 24,405 to 21,613, Bessarabia now being merged in the total.

The French quota also remains unchanged.

Egypt, for the first time, represented as a separate country, is given a quota of eighteen.

The end of the present fiscal year on June 30 is expected by officials here to see every quota exhausted except those of Germany and Estonia. Germany will have approximately 20,000 left, and Estonia, 1,000.

SAYS OFFER MADE TO BUY SUPPORT OF THE VETERANS

Minneapolis, June 28.—A declaration that "one of the great political parties" would advance funds to the disabled American veterans of the world war in return for the organization's support, was made by the annual convention of the veterans here by Judge Robert Marz, of the superior court of Ohio, former national commander and chairman of the finance committee. Judge Marz later declined to say which party had made the offer.

F. G. Egenberger will write you a policy in the New York Life Insurance Co., and look after your New York Life business. j2-?

DIES IN OREGON

From Saturday's Daily. A message was received here yesterday announcing the death at Eugene, Oregon, of Mrs. Ed Button, a former resident of this city and mother of Mrs. Claus Speck of this city and Low Russell of Omaha. The message did not state the cause of death but it is thought here to have been caused by complications following an attack of pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Button resided here for a short time, making their home with the children and about a year and a half ago removed to Oregon where they have since resided. Mrs. Speck has departed for Eugene to attend the funeral services.

IT'S A GIRL

Wm. Kruger came to town early Thursday (this morning) stepping rather high, a broad smile was prominent and smoke falling from a cigar of the Havana brand. He informed us that a baby daughter arrived at their home during the night and that his wife and the youngster were doing fine. After learning the facts everyone was certain Mr. Kruger was justified in his actions and congratulations were in order wherever the facts were known. The little miss balanced the scales on the 10 1/2 pound mark.—Nehawka Enterprise.
