FAMOUS TRIO ON VACATION

Lshpeming, Mich., Aug. 23.—Thomas A. Edison, vacationing with Henry Ford and Harvey Firestone, has completely recovered from a slight cold he contracted a day or so ago, members of the party said.

Edison's sore finger is also better. Lshpeming, Mich., Aug. 23.—The vacation tour of Thomas A. Edison, Henry Ford and Harvey Firestone went ahead in upper Michigan today, the trio invading L'Anse, site of the Ford model timber mills.

Edison's slight cold and sore finger were declared only "incidental" to such a vacation trip, and the "electrical wizard" was declared in the best physical condition. Members of the party denied rumors he was "ill" and assert that he is absolutely o. k. After camping at L'Anse for a day or two, the party will probably board Ford's new 300 foot yacht, which arrived at L'Anse Monday. A trip on the boat thru the copper country is contemplated.

Cause of Appendicitis

When the bowels are constipated, the lower bowels or large intestines become packed with refuse matter that is made up largely of germs. These germs enter the vermiform appendix and set up inflammation which is commonly known as appendicitis. Take Chamberlain's Tablets when needed and keep your bowels regular and you have little to fear from appendicitis. Weyrich & Hadraba.

VISITING OLD FRIENDS

This morning the Wescott family here was very much pleased to have with them one of their old friends, Fred Gallagher, who was formerly a resident of Plattsmouth and left here in the year 1890 and has since made his home in the east and is engaged in railroad work. Mr. Gallagher is now in charge of the rolling stock of the New York Central, one of the most active positions in the line of the officials and who has charge of a great deal of the important work of the railroad.

- Some Domesticity Exposed! -

"My dear," a wife said to her spouse, "I think that we should build a house; Of funds, I'm sure there is no lack— We've lived too long in this old shack. So let us plan what we shall do To doff the old and done the new."

No time, to figure, then they lost; They estimated close the cost— The kind of windows and the doors, The shingles, scantling and the floors, And then they counted up their "fin" And found that they could make her "skin."

When everything was settled pat, They both arose from where they sat— Her smiling "hub" she then embraced, And kiss on kiss were rightly placed. She whispered soft, he answered hard— "You bet your life, at TIDBALL's yard."

THOMPSON IS TALKED ABOUT

May Be a Candidate For Governor—Gossipers Say Morehead Aspires to U. S. Senate.

Another stirring of the waters of democratic state politics brings to the top the information that an ambition to be governor of Nebraska has lately lodged in the bosom of W. H. Thompson of Grand Island. Mr. Thompson is now national committeeman and also a member of the state capital commission. He is in better health than in years and has much more leisure now than when he was following a professional career with ardor.

Mr. Thompson has been one of the Bryan lieutenants for years, his ambitions to be senator having early clashed with those of Hitchcock. It will be noticed to the world that Governor Bryan is after what everybody thinks he wants, the senatorship. The settled political opinion is that if Norris does not re-enter the senatorial race Bryan is sure to be a candidate, as the opportunity is concededly ripe for him.

The gossips also have it that Congressman Morehead is thinking about entering the senatorial race, where Congressman Shallenberger is pretty certain to be a contestant. Norris beat Morehead five years ago, and he starts in a position to know what certain he could win with Norris out of the race. There are democrats who say that Morehead would be satisfied if the cards could be cut so that he could again be governor, a job he always liked and which, it is a fair guess, he would have got into the contest in 1920.

Uncertainty seems to exist as to whether Former Representative Norton will be a candidate for governor or for senator. Several democrats expect Norton to be a candidate, but what Norton feels about it predict that he will be a candidate for senator. If Norris does not run, and they say that a dirt farmer he ought to clean the field. Democrats who are friendly to Governor Bryan say they expect Norton to file for governor.

The feeling exists among the democrats that next year will be a good year to be on the democratic ticket. They feel that the same forces that have overthrown republicans elsewhere are at work in Nebraska and that they have men who can make a good appeal to any republican. They are, however, a bit nervous over the kind of a candidate for president who will be nominated. Oddly enough, there is not much enthusiasm among the leaders for McAdoo. They say he would be strong with the railroad men because of his liberality with wages when he was director general of the railroads, but the big German vote in the state is solidly against him as a member of the last administration and as son-in-law of President Wilson.

FROM OUT OF THE ETHER

Radio News Broadcast each Saturday by Station ETAO.

Notice to ETAO Listeners

For six months we have broadcast weekly under this heading items of more or less general interest to radio fans. During this time radio interest has been at its lowest eb due to the poor receptive conditions of summer-time. Now, however, conditions are rapidly changing and already DX stations are coming in clear and distinct. Better days are ahead.

In line with our plan to continue to make this column of interest to radio owners, we will on next Saturday, double the size of our antenna (heading) although the period of broadcasting will not be lengthened. The purpose, as originally intended, will be to secure and pass on to our listeners advance tips on the high lights of forthcoming programs, bits of non-technical information, etc.

So we will begin our fall broadcasting next week under the new antenna. Watch for us.

Monday night, Aug. 27th.

Brush the dust off your set and tune in these nights.

The Atlanta Journal has started its second annual "roll call."

Schnectady, Louisville, Detroit and Fort Worth and Dallas are coming through nicely.

"KSD, Miss Jones announcing" is also numbered among those present during the past week.

Watch for our old friend, Al, the Radio Nut, at the circus tonight. His sister and brother are Ann Tena and Con Denser.

If your battery has been setting idle all summer have it charged up well before attempting to use it, or you may ruin it.

WJAZ, the new Chicago station, opened last spring has nearly enough volume to operate a loud speaker on one stage of amplification.

If you want any broadcasting done in this style of type, you'll have to pay for it at law brief rates.

Thursday night's program from WOAW by Seymour camp, M. W. A., was as good as any in the air that night and we heard half a dozen or more from the biggest stations in the country.

It is announced that WNAL, the former Omaha Daily News station is to resume broadcasting at an early date. Although they are to be on a low meter length, their nearness to us may make it more or less difficult to completely tune them out.

Little Surprise at This

WGH, the 800 watt broadcasting station that was to eclipse everything in the middle west, including ETAO, has faded out, occasioning little surprise among those having knowledge of radio terms and conversed any on the subject with the would-be promoter. The only thing the "hired hand" of ETAO ever was able to write successfully were a very limited number of "IOU's."

Your Boy and Radio

There will be a lot of boys building sets again this fall, and many misguided attempts will result in disappointment and a feeling among parents who furnish the money that it has been wasted. This could be avoided easily enough if parents understood the fundamentals and would give their boys advice and assistance as well as a meagre amount of money. If your boy wants to build a radio, by all means let him build a tube set, as it would be like throwing money away to monkey with a crystal set in Plattsmouth. The expense of a tube set can be reduced considerably by using the dry cell type of tube and other savings can be effected by using lower priced parts, although in the long run, that doesn't pay, either. Let your boy build a set; the whole family will enjoy it this winter, and the time he spends constructing it will be most profitably employed.

Senator Howell to Speak

WOC, Davenport, is slipping in a couple of extra periods this week, although they will continue on summer schedule until the middle of September. Monday and Thursday nights at 8 o'clock they will pick up part of the P. S. C. lyceum course program from the platform at the lyceum tent and broadcast it for their listeners. It happens that Monday night Senator Howell of Nebraska is scheduled to speak, and if he can break away from his task of restoring the Omaha water supply he will be heard from the eastern Iowa town.

WOC's present broadcasting schedule is as follows: Sunday—Church service, 8 p. m. Two hour orchestra program by P. S. C. orchestra, beginning at 9.

Monday—Lyceum program, including address of Senator Howell, 8 p. m.

Wednesday—Pipe organ, 8 p. m. Late musical program, 10 to 11, followed by Tourists' road report.

Thursday—Lyceum program, including address of B. J. Palmer, beginning at 8 p. m.

Saturday—Dance program by P. S. C. orchestra, 8:30 to 10:30. Incidentally we might add that WOC, like other more distant stations is now being picked up here very satisfactorily, proving that the trouble has not been with local receiving sets, as WOC's announcer once intimated, but with weather conditions.

SAND SHIPPERS SEEK A REFUND OF FREIGHT CHARGES

Charge Old 2 1/2 Cent Rate, Louisville to Omaha Not Canceled when Higher One Imposed.

From Saturday's Daily. The McCafferty brothers, W. A. Knight and other shippers of sand from Louisville to Omaha are seeking in supreme court, to recover from the Burlington what they claim are excessive charges for hauling.

The total runs up into the thousands, and is bottomed on the fact that the railroads charged them 3 1/2 cents a hundred when they think the legal rate was a cent a hundred less. The lower court decided in favor of the railroads.

On behalf of the claimants a lengthy brief was filed Friday in supreme court. They lay down a number of legal principles they ask the court to adopt. Among these are the following: 1.—That a rate when published cannot be legally canceled by tariffs naming new rates unless the new tariff cancels the old ones, and without a cancellation the new ones are not made effective.

2.—That when two rates are given it is the duty of the railroad to see that its printed tariff sheets are correct, and the shipper need not look behind the printed sheet to find out the rate.

3.—That the fact that the shipper knows the published rates are an error cannot alter the law, and that tariff must be construed according to its language and not its intent.

The rate up till September 27, 1920, was 2 1/2 cents, as the shippers contend, while the railroads says the rate was boosted along with others by the interstate commerce commission in July of that year. The claimants say that the supplemental tariff they received did not specifically cancel the 2 1/2 cent rate, and that they had a right to rely on the bold-faced type declaration on it that if not canceled a rate is still in effect, and that the old rate was not listed among the canceled ones, claimed by the road as an error.

VISITS OLD FRIENDS

Young, who was for a number of years one of the members of the board of county commissioners of Cass county, is here in company with Mrs. Young in visiting amid the scenes of his earlier days and with the old friends who he knew so well in the past.
