

Alvo Department

George Foreman was looking after some business matters in Lincoln on last Thursday afternoon.

George E. Hardnock has had the Journal come to his address and will keep in touch with the news over the country.

Will today (Monday) the schools of Alvo are again opening for the beginning of the last half of the year's work.

Miss Marie Stronzer, who is attending school at Lincoln, was a visitor at the home of her mother for the Christmas season.

John Skinner and mother, Mrs. Mary Skinner, were enjoying the pleasant Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Friend.

Phillip Coatsman installed for H. D. Richardson a new radio at his home during the past week, making an excellent Christmas remembrance for the family.

Geo. Browne and the wife entertained her parents, Wm. Yeager and wife and brother John Yeager at their home where all had a most pleasant time.

Simon Rehmeyer, the elevator man, and wife were enjoying Christmas at the home of his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor of Weeping Water.

Miss Anastasia Barry, who is teaching school at Hastings, has been spending her vacation as a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Carl Johnson west of Alvo.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirkpatrick entertained for Christmas and had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Clifford and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Trumble, all of near Eagle.

J. W. Kallmeyer and the wife were enjoying last Sunday at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Straub of Burr, driving over in their car for the day.

Miss Link at Beatrice, who has been making his home there for some time was a visitor for the Christmas season at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Litch of Alvo.

Charles Schuch and the family of Rising City, who formerly made their home at Alvo, are visiting here for the holidays, and are guests at the home of John Sutton and family.

A. C. Kaefer and family, who are making their home at Glenwood, Iowa, were spending Christmas with friends and relatives in Alvo, driving over in their car for the occasion.

A. C. Boyles and wife and Dale Payne and wife were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Skiles of Lincoln, for Christmas day, enjoying a family reunion at this hospitable home.

On Wednesday of last week, Johnnie Skinner, with the Coatsman Hardware company, took a truck load of hog to the South Omaha market for J. Vickers and was accompanied by Mr. Vickers.

Mr. C. J. Ganz of Dunbar, father of Carl Ganz, of the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Alvo was visiting with his son last Thursday and enjoying the meeting of his many old friends in Alvo.

In order to know where he is at, Simon Rehmeyer was weighing the grain in the elevator and otherwise taking stock of his business during the last week to know just where he was for the new year.

Boyd Edwards, who has been making his home at Scottsbluff, was a visitor at home for the holidays, spending the time at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards southeast of town.

J. W. Banning and wife were enjoying the Christmas cheer at the home of the brother and sister of Mrs. Banning, east of Union, at the home of Henry and sister, making the trip in their auto.

Grandma Uptegrove and Harry Appleman and the family were enjoying Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parley Young of Lincoln. Mr. Young has just been appointed as assistant county attorney of Lancaster county.

L. D. Mullen and the family were enjoying their Christmas last Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dimmitt, of Greenwood, where the occasion was a very pleasant one for both the host and hostess and the guests.

James Foreman and wife were spending last Christmas at the home of friends in Omaha, driving over in their auto, and while they were away the stock and other matters were looked after at the farm by their friend, Charles Ayres.

W. J. Warner was a visitor in Lincoln last Friday, remaining for the balance of the week, where he was a guest at the home of his brother, Frank Warner and family for the time. Mr. Warner was also looking after some business matters as well.

A. J. Foreman, of Raymond, who claims that he is president of the Ladies Aid society of that place, was a visitor in Alvo on last Thursday, coming over to look after some business matters and to visit with his brothers, James and George Foreman.

A. I. Bird who is one of the very familiar personages in the make-up of the personnel of the citizenry of Alvo, together with the family, departed last week for Clay Center, Kansas, where they are enjoying a two weeks visit with friends and relatives.

Fred Weaver and son, Judson of South Bend, came along last Christmas morning and took Mrs. A. J. Schaefer and sister, Violet, to Lincoln where they all spent a most pleasant Christmas day at the home of the sister of Mrs. Schaefer and Miss Ough's, Mrs. A. Dier.

The Methodist program which was to have been held on Christmas eve, was on account of the rain postponed until the following night when a crowd which taxed the capacity of the building to hold them were present and enjoyed the excellent time which was provided for the occasion.

W. W. Coatsman and the family, living just east of town and, R. E. Coatsman and family of Alvo, were spending last Tuesday (Christmas) at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Coatsman, of Weeping Water, where the family enjoyed their Christmas very pleasantly.

The series of free shows which have been provided by the business men of Alvo, and which by the way, demonstrated a considerable degree of enterprise, continues to go merrily on, with the ninth episode of "Her Dangerous Path" for the regular order, and finishing with a comic which is a side splitting merry maker.

On last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Boyles, accompanied by Mrs. Dale Boyles, went to Lincoln, where the latter will visit for some time at the home of relatives and later return to her home at McCook. Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Boyles only remained at Lincoln for a short time, but were visiting during the time with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Boyles, of McCook, where they are making their home and where they are engaged in business, were spending Christmas in Alvo at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Boyles, and where they enjoyed a most pleasant visit.

Mr. Dale Boyles was compelled to hasten back on account of business, while Mr. S. C. Boyles remained for a longer visit.

On Christmas Edward Bade and wife of near Syracuse, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kallmeyer, where they enjoyed the occasion very much and on their return, were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Habine, of New Haven, Iowa, who have been spending some time visiting at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Kallmeyer, and who will visit for a period with old friends at Syracuse.

The business men of Alvo, through their agents Messrs. Albert Stroemer and H. B. Richardson, have signed a contract for a new series of pictures which will be shown at the movies on Saturday nights. The contract will cover the period from January 18th until some time in April.

Had Folks At Home On Christmas day, Charles C. Bucknell and the good wife had all but one of the family present for the family reunion which they had planned for the occasion. A most pleasant time was had and all present enjoyed the occasion. There were present to celebrate the Christmastide: Burl Lynn, Clarence Bucknell and Alva Skinner and families, living between Alvo and Elmwood, and Dan Menchau and Geo. Frollich and families, living near Eagle.

Christmas Family Reunion At the home of Archie Miller was held on Christmas day a most pleasant gathering in the form of a get-together of the members of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Miller at which they all enjoyed the occasion very much. There were present besides the host and hostess: Mr. and Mrs. Archie Miller, their parents, Henry J. Miller and wife of Alvo; Lyle Miller, Jesse Hardnock and family, Geo. Hardnock and family of near Alvo and Mrs. Harry Kear and sons who are making their homes at Lincoln at this time.

Funeral services for Herman F. Detlef, mention of whose death has already been made, occurred Saturday, December 22, from the home north of Balfour, where short services were held, and the Christian church in Glenwood, conducted by the pastor, Rev. D. S. Thompson.

Funeral services were furnished by a quartet consisting of J. W. Moryan, Thomas White and Mesdames Ed Marshall and Orley Altkruse, with Miss Elsie Evans at the piano. The pallbearers were his neighbors who knew him well, Frank Hammond, John Muldowney, James Sawyers, David Brooks, Louis Jens and Russell Phifer.

The body was taken to the Mineola cemetery for burial. The many floral offerings silently spoke the high regard in which the deceased was held.

A number of his I. O. O. F. brothers attended the church service and also went to the cemetery, where the ritualistic ceremony was given by Brothers J. L. Ross and D. S. Thompson.

The following brief annals only hint at the regard felt for Herman F. Detlef by his friends and neighbors:

Herman F. Detlef, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Detlef, was born in Mills county, November 9, 1885, and died December 19, 1923, at the age of 38, 1 month and 10 days.

Herman's home life in Mills county has been such that his friends are counted by all who knew him. In business and social life he always meant to be right.

He leaves to mourn his untimely death a wife, Viola Detlef; one daughter, Irene; his mother, Mrs. Johanna Detlef; four brothers, Frank of Plattsmouth; Henry of Mineola; Charles and Chris of Glenwood, and a sister, Mrs. Henry Rosenfeld, of Mineola.—Glenwood Tribune.

A REAL CHRISTIAN
From Thursday's Daily—
There is nothing more beautiful in the world than a real Christian character, one that stands out in the hurrying, bustling world, a devout follower of the Master in the daily tasks, who gathers from the teachings of the Word the bread of life.

Such is one of our residents here in this city, a lady who has lived with us many years and borne, beyond the average, the burdens of her cross uncomplainingly and smilingly as her faith has remained unshaken and her belief in the ultimate fulfillment of the promise of the Redeemer, her staff upon which she has leaned in her hours of trouble which have been many.

Recently she has suffered because of the fact that advancing years have made her eyesight more fading and made difficult her communion with the work of truth in her well-thumbed and loved Bible. On Christmas day a friend remembered her with a Bible of large print which is easier to read and which has more than repaid the giver in the real joy that stole across the face of this fine old lady as she tearfully clasped the Bible, saying: "I could not live without my Bible." There are those who have perhaps seldom if ever poured over the pages of the book of books in their daily lives and yet this lady suffering the many thrusts of the thorns on the journey of life forgets, in her faith, the wrongs and injuries of the world to find a smile and a helping hand in the teachings of the Prince of Peace in whose honor the world rejoices on Christmas day.

NICE CHRISTMAS PRESENT
From Thursday's Daily—
T. H. Pollock is receiving the thanks of American Legion members for his Christmas gift to them, in the form of 100 face cigars which were sent to the club rooms Christmas day for their enjoyment. Mr. Pollock is one of the loyal Legion boosters and never neglects any opportunity to lend valuable assistance to the organization.

BRINGING HOLSTEIN CATTLE
From Friday's Daily—
Ray Young is leaving Wisconsin Friday, Dec. 28, with a carefully selected car load of Holstein dairy cattle, the first shipment to Cass county by the Farmers' State bank of Plattsmouth.

This load consists of fresh cows, heavy springers and a few heifers and will be sold on Jan. 12, at Ed Leach's sale pavillion at Union by Ray Young who has personally selected these Holsteins with a view to giving Cass county farmers the best that can be had in grade Holsteins.

Society women held a cat show in New York. None of the women, however, were on exhibition.

FORGOT HIS BIBLE
From Thursday's Daily:—
A rather amusing incident in connection with last Sunday night's radio chapel service was created by the fact that Rev. McClusky in the rush of getting away for Omaha that evening left behind his trusty Bible from which to read the Scripture lesson, nor did he think of the omission until during the number just preceding the Scripture reading. A hurried search was made about the studio for a Bible and strange to relate, one was found and passed into Mr. McClusky's hands but a moment before he began reading.

HELPFUL WORDS!

From a Plattsmouth Citizen
Is your back lame and painful? Does it ache especially after exertion? Is there a soreness in the kidneys region? These symptoms suggest weak kidneys. If so there is danger in delay. Weak kidneys get weaker fast. Give your trouble prompt attention.

Doan's Pills are for weak kidneys. Your neighbors use and recommend them. Ask your neighbor.

Read this Plattsmouth testimony. G. T. Archer, formerly painter of this city and now one of the proprietors of the soft drink parlor at Sixth and Main streets, says: "As a rule all painters are bothered with disordered kidneys because of the fumes of the turpentine. This has always affected my kidneys when I have had inside work to do. I have had to get up as often as every hour of the night to pass the secretions. Sometimes when going up or down the ladder, I had sharp stitches take me in my kidneys that felt like needles. I have always found Doan's Pills a reliable kidney medicine. A few have always given relief and kept my kidneys in good and active condition. I wouldn't be without Doan's."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mr. Archer had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
