Visited with Friends Here

Frank Tucker and wife and Chas. Tucker and wife, of Clay Center, and brothers-in-law of T. L. Crunk, living north of Union, were spending the week end with Mr. Crunk and family, where they visited also with Mr. Newman Tucker, who is at this time making his home with Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Crunk, he being a brother of Mrs. Crunk. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Crunk and the children were also visiting there for Sunday. The merry crowd enjoyed the occasion very much, they all having in the past lived at Warsaw, Mo. Messrs. Tucker and wife departed on Sunday afternoon via their autos for their home at Clay Center.

Edward J. McHugh Making Good

On last Monday, as the writer was coming to Union he chanced to ride with Mr. Edward J. McHugh, who is one of the cleverest fellows in this city, and who he is making good in the railroad world. Mr. McHugh was born in Plattsmouth and attended the schools there, later going into the telegraph work and when a young operator worked with the writer. Mr. McHugh has surely made good in his chosen vocation and we are sure will find something far better as he is very thorough and careful in the manner in which he conducts the business intrusted to his care.

They All Like Union

Sure, last Sunday night there was a good, heavy snow, but early Monday morning the people got after the snow shovels and soon had the walks cleared off. There were a few vacant lots where the owners lived in the country and Mayor McCarthy soon had the snow off. We like this city pride which wants to keep the town in the best condition, for there are many towns much larger which neglect this kind of work.

Have Some Excellent Equipment

The recent snow storm made the Journal man ride the Missouri Pacific train from Plattsmouth to Union. It was our good fortune to get one of the absolutely new coaches both ways, and we were pleased with the excellence of the coaches which this road has had added to their equipment. Not gorgeously decorated, but in subdued finish, which is very quiet and restful, with most comfortable seats, not chairs, with a lot of machinery in the way of foot rests which would puzzle a train mechanic to operate. Their smoking room surely is an elegant place to ride and smoke. The entire coach is almost noiseless and has concrete floors which add to the stability and quietness in the running of the car. With the new equipment is most modern and up-to-date and as the conductor said was the last word of coach building.

CASE IS DISMISSED

From Monday's Daily—

This morning in the county court before Judge Allen J. Benson was heard the matter of the State of Nebraska vs. Howard Boyles, a resident of the vicinity of Weeping Water, and in which a complaint had charged a statutory offense against the defendant.

The state had as one of the evidences in the case an agreement or settlement made at Weeping Water on February 1st between the defendant and the father of one Edna Baker, who was charged as being the object of the offense that Mr. Boyles was alleged to have committed. This fact was provided for a settlement by the payment of a sum of money to the guardian of Edna Baker, who is mentally incompetent, and its evidence was sought by the state to prove the guilt or the presumption of guilt of the defendant.

The matter of admitting the evidence was argued and at 2 o'clock this afternoon Judge Benson ruled against the admission of the agreement and this wiped out the state's case practically and made necessary the abandonment of the charges and the dismissal of the action. Mr. Boyles at the time of the settlement claimed to have been agreed upon and since then has stoutly contended his innocence of the charges that were preferred against him and by the action of the dismissal of the present case will probably have to face a civil suit from the guardian on the settlement altho no other criminal action will be started it is thought.

SHOPS START EARLIER

This morning the Burlington shops started on an earlier working schedule than called for the commencement of work at 7 o'clock instead of 7:30 as heretofore and the change will cause the employes to do the early rising act much sooner each morning than has been the practice. The new hours will be from 7 to 4:30 and effective in all the departments of the shops.

HOLDS A FINE SALE

From Tuesday's Daily— Auctioneer W. R. Young, who is perhaps the best known crier of sales in the eastern portion of the state and whose work has been in constant demand in all localities of the state, has just returned from a trip out in the western portion of the state, where he held a sale for Earl Fletcher, of near Grant, formerly a well known young farmer of near South Bend. The sale was one of pure bred Spotted-Poland-China swine and the sale was an excellent one both from the high type of the animals offered and the results of the sale. Mr. Fletcher has been very successful in his raising of the swine and at the sale Mr. Young succeeded in securing an average of $45.80 on the hogs which is a very fine price and one of the best sales results that have been found in any part of the state.

GOES TO HOSPITAL

From Wednesday's Daily— Mrs. Minnie Pickard, one of the efficient employes at the local post-office, is at the Swedish Mission hospital in Omaha where she will be operated upon today in hopes of giving her relief from her illness which has been of some duration. The many friends of Mrs. Pickard are hopeful that she may soon be able to recover from the operation and be able to return home permanently relieved of her sickness.

FILES SUIT IN COURT

From Wednesday's Daily— This morning an action entitled John C. Lindeman vs. Annie W. Smith et al, was filed in the office of the clerk of the district court and in which the plaintiff seeks to have the title to certain real estate in this city quieted in him. The plaintiff is represented by Attorney C. E. Martin.

FUNERAL HELD TODAY

From Wednesday's Daily— This afternoon the funeral services of the late J. M. Young were held from the home in the south portion of the city and conducted by the Rev. H. G. McClusky of the First Presbyterian church, who, in his remarks, spoke of the long life of the departed and the part that he had in the development of the community in the years that he has lived here and also spoke words of comfort to the members of the family and the sorrowing friends. The interment was had at Oak Hill cemetery.

PLANNING AN ENTERTAINMENT

From Wednesday's Daily— The young men's class of the Presbyterian Sunday school is planning a real live wild west comedy-drama which will present in a short time at the Parmelee theatre. The rehearsals for the show are now on and the members of the cast are getting down in real earnest to give the Plattsmouth amusement lovers a real treat in the way of an entertainment. The play is to be one of the real red blooded western plays and in the hands of the very capable young men of the class should prove a real treat. The exact date of the play will be announced later.

A De Laval Separator is now 43 lbs. of Butter Cheaper than in 1913

In addition the De Laval of today has 10% more capacity; a bell speed-indicator; self-centering bowl; bowl-holding device, and many other improvements and refinements.

The average price of 92-score butter at the New York market during 1923 was 50 cents per lb. Ten years ago butter of the same quality and at the same market, was quoted at 30 cents per lb.

On the basis of these prices for butter, a No. 12 De Laval Separator, one of the most commonly used sizes, today costs the purchaser 43 lbs. of butter less than in 1913.

Inasmuch as the product of a cream separator ultimately is butter, and as many separators are paid for out of the proceeds of cream or butter, this basis of figuring the cost of a cream separator is eminently fair.

Notwithstanding much lower cost, in terms of butter, of De Laval Cream Separators as compared with 1913, the De Laval of today is a much more valuable machine, having 10% more capacity; a bell speed-indicator which helps prevent waste of cream through improper speed; a self-centering bowl which eliminates vibration, causing it to run smoother, adding to its efficiency and life, and making for more uniform separation and easier running; a bowl-holding device which adds to the convenience; and many other improvements and refinements which make the De Laval of today the greatest value ever obtainable in a cream separator.

All of which emphasize the fact that there never was a time when dairying was relatively more profitable, and there never was a time when such good De Laval Separators cost so few pounds of butter.

There are today hundreds of thousands of inferior and worn-out separators in use wasting the price of a new De Laval in a year. To delay the purchase of a new De Laval under such circumstances is the fastest kind of economy.

BOXING MATCH AT OMAHA IS STOPPED

Referee Shea Halts West-Malone Go in Last Round—Kid Knocks Out Jimmy Kelly.

Omaha, March 17.—A ten round match between Jack Malone, St. Paul, and George West of England, middleweights, was stopped in the last round here tonight by Referee Leo Shea on the ground that both men were making a poor showing. The crowd had expressed displeasure over the tactics of the fighters.

Morris Schlaifer, Omaha welterweight, knocked out Harlem Jimmy Kelly of New York in the eighth round of their fight. A ten round preliminary between Ace Hudkins of Lincoln and Jack O'Toole of Sioux City, lightweights, was in many respects the best match of the evening. Hudkins won the referee's decision after he had piled up a good lead on points, although he was puzzled by O'Toole's style of fighting and unable to wear him down and score a knockout. O'Toole was floored twice.

"Rusly" Evans of York, lightweight, won a decision over Jole Humphries of Omaha, in a four round preliminary in which Humphries showed little but gameness, and Mike Rogzall, Omaha lightweight, scored a technical knockout over Fred Van Katt of Omaha, in the second round of a four round match which started the card.

The purses of Malone and West were held up and George Kostor, state boxing inspector, announced that a hearing would be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning to inquire into the poor showing made by the fighters.

IS SLOWLY IMPROVING

From Wednesday's Daily— Mrs. E. G. Shallenberger, who returned home Saturday from the Mayo hospital at Rochester, Minnesota, has been somewhat fatigued by the long journey but is slowly regaining her strength and showing some improvement and it is hoped

"What Honey Is!"

Honey is probably the most wonderful food in the form of a sweet known to man. It is the nectar of the flowers modified but slightly by the bees. It comes to you direct from the flowers of hill and vale, untouched by human hands, and flavored, in fact, by the delicate perfume of the flowers from which it was gathered. You will enjoy using it, both on the table and in your cooking. Honey contains the most vital body-building materials, in fact, the caloric contents of a pound of honey exceeds that of every other food but dates. For that reason, honey is especially valuable for the children as it not only satisfies their natural longing for sweets, but furnishes one of the best of energy-giving foods for their bodies.
