BROODER HOUSE!

Success is only achieved by starting right, and a willingness to stick to it.

If you would be a successful poultry raiser, you should start right, and to start right you should give the Chix the right kind of a start.

A brooder house in which the little chix may be kept warm and dry will do the trick.

Remember each chick you save will be about one dollar's worth of poultry this fall.

The extra number you will save will pay for the house. See us for plans and prices.

DEATH CALL FOR VETERAN

Addison Wait Passes Away at Grand Island—Was Commandant of State Soldiers Home.

The state board of control received word Tuesday morning of the death of Addison Wait, commandant of the state home for soldiers and sailors at Grand Island. Mr. Wait had served two years in the office of secretary of state, from 1911 to 1915, and held other positions under the state government. He was a pioneer of Otoe county and represented that county in the lower house of the legislature in 1895. In addition to filling the office of secretary of state he served as deputy secretary, bookkeeper for the secretary of state and was at one time chief clerk of the state banking board.

He was an active worker in the G. A. R. organization and for many years was patriotic instructor for that body in the department of Nebraska. He retained his membership in Post No. 21 at Syracuse. After his election to the office of secretary of state, Mr. Wait and his family removed to Lincoln. He resided in the home in Lincoln where he was serving as commandant of the soldiers home at Grand Island.

He was appointed deputy secretary of state in 1907 by George C. Junkin. He was bookkeeper in that office under George W. Marsh in 1902.

Mr. Wait was active as a promoter of the movement to obtain a statue of Abraham Lincoln on the capitol grounds at Lincoln. The movement resulted in the monument and statue designed by Daniel Chester French.

He was born at Woodstock, Champlain county, Ohio, on May 26, 1846, and received his education in the public schools of that town. Enlisted in Company D, 145th regiment, Ohio volunteers, May 4, 1864, and served to the close of the war. Learned telegraphy in the employ of the Pan Handle railroad, and came to Nebraska in 1870 and worked as telegraph operator and agent for the Midland Pacific & Burlington railroad at Palmyra and Syracuse until 1878, when he engaged in the wholesale produce business in the latter town.

TELEPHONE COMPANY APPEALS THE SVOBODA AWARD

Seeks to Have Decision of State Commissioner Reversed in Svo boda Compensation Case.

From Tuesday's Daily—The Lincoln Telephone & Telegraph Co. has filed in the district court in this city an appeal from the decision of the state compensation commission in granting compensation to Thomas S. Svo boda of this city who it was claimed was injured in the service of the defendant company while working as a lineman.

The reasons advanced for the reversal of the award is on the ground that Mr. Svo boda did not file his claim for compensation until one year after the time of the injury as required by law.

The decision of the compensation commission was to the effect that the telephone company pay Mr. Svo boda the sum of $15 per week from De-1923, and also the expenses of the operation on the injured man and to continue the compensation until he had recovered from the effects of the injuries sustained.
