MAYOR SATTLER WANTS CHEAPER GASOLINE FOR CITY

Mayor Sattler Joins Ranks of Gover- business matters and visiting with nor Bryan, Dan Butler and John Hopkins in Gas War.

From Saturday's Daily-Mayor John P. Sattler, who is a firm believer in the municipal own- County Commissioner G. L. Farley C. A. Sommer, state accountant, ranks of Governor Charley Bryan, county central committee.

and accordingly is on the should be matters of business and visiting Mr. Sommer represents and believes that there should be matters of business and visiting itor Marsh in this settlement. Most the same prices prevailing here and with friends. reason why this should not be realin fact has stated that he sees no

The mayor states that he believes other way can be found to give the home by auto. car owners the advantage of a low- Mrs. N. C. Klepser and son, of with the state and other shortages er rate than prevails at present. Weeping Water were here today to with the county.

claim is made that at other points it with friends.

From Thursday's Dally-

Dave West, of Nehawka, was here

Emmons Ptak, who is busily engaged in arranging for opening his new business establishment here, the big opening.

Mrs. J. D. Hawksworth, of Lincoln, who has been visiting here at the Allen J. Beeson, has returned home and was accompanied by her sister.

Miss Virginia Beeson. Mrs. Earl Brown, of Kansas City. is here visiting with relatives and the past few weeks, will leave Fri- erected. scribers for a number of years.

From Friday's Daily-

E. C. Harris is enjoying a visit at Rogers, Arkansas, with friends and relatives and taking in the sights of INDIANA MAN IS PRESIDENT that portion of the south.

Mrs. V. Dvoracek departed this morning for Western, Nebraska, at which place she will visit for some time with relatives and friends in

Mrs. Maude Babbitt departed yesterday for Los Angeles, California. where she will visit for a short time there with friends and enjoy the delights of the California coast coun-

J. F. Hadraba, wife and children, Mary Ann, Edward and Frances, dethe home of Mrs. Hadraba's parents, which $100,000 in prizes was con-Mr. and Mrs. John Janda.

Mrs. Fred Heinrich and little Milwaukee, Wis., Indianapolis, sity Place came down Wednesday ey was awarded as follows: evening to spend a few days with Misses Betty Ann and Jane Pal. Cincinnati, $600. mer of Des Moines, Iowa, who have been visiting with their grandfather

G. E. Dovey and their aunt, Mrs. R. F. Patterson and family here and the Falter families at Falls City, departed this morning for Lincoln, where they will visit Mrs. Floyd Harding,

From Saturday's Daily-W. B. Spence, of Louisville, was in the city today looking after some his friends.

C. E. Butler, the Weeping Water banker, was here today for a few hours attending to some matters at the court house.

ership of utilities and necessities of was at Weeping Water today to at- has returned from North Platte afthe general public, has joined the tend a meeting of the republican ter having effected settlement where-aha, in their war for cheaper gaso- at Eagle today, where he was called due the state as a result of shortages to look after some matters of busi- of S. M. Souder, who was for three The mayor has discovered that out ness and visit with his friends there. terms treasurer of Lincoln county in the county the gasoline is being sold at a lower price than it is here and accordingly is on the warpath and helieves that there should be spend a few hours attending to some the court house.

Ar Sommer represents State And-residents of Murray, was in the city The county has paid $17,600 and the that city should sell the gas if no business and returned later to her county has received $69,000 on Sou- From Saturday's Daily-can be secured for 15c and and 13c Vance Pitman of Murray was here found had been collected by the and this is what has aroused the today for a few hours looking after county. The state is to get its promayor to his ukase in favor of the come trading with the local mer-portionate share of what is known ficials and workers from other sec> merce of Louisville was in the city collections which are not stoday attending the sale of the Spence land being held at the court house this morning.

pesterday afternoon for a few hours yesterday afternoon for a few hours looking after some matters of busiwith his many friends.

was in Omaha today looking after been enjoying his vantion at Chica- stairways are unfinished and doors young people's work. some business matters relative to go and Milwaukee, has returned of common lumbre are being used. home and reports a very pleasant outing in the two lake cities.

home of her parents, Judge and Mrs. Weeping Water today, where he at- owed the state $13,000. This was actended a meeting of the republican cepted as a tentative statement and county central committee, the sheriff now the final settlement is agreed being the republican candidate for upon.—State Journal. this office at the coming election.

William Bergen, wife and childfriends and on her return home will ren, departed this morning for Fairbe accompanied by Misses Frances mont, Nebraska, where they will From Saturday's Daily-being held there this week.

fices filled included:

L. V. Westerman, Seattle, as a member of the board of trustees. The features of the convention to-Nebraska, where they will visit at the home of Mrs. Hadraha's parents. tested for.

cousin, Jimmy Eggers, of Lincoln, Ind., and Jamestown, N. Y., were the From Saturday's Dailyand Miss Miriam Leigh, of Univer- three big prize winners. Prize mon-

Advertise your wants.

LARS DUE NEBRAS-KA FROM COUNTY

Lincoln County Owes for Souder Shortage-Collects on Bonds of Defaulting Officer.

From Saturday's Daily-

by the county of Lincoln will pay Dan Butler and John Hopkins of Om- County Attorney J. A. Capwell was the state $25,000 as a proper amount > today attending to some matters of balance will be forthcoming. The der's bond to cover the shortage

The local gas rate has suffered one spend a few hours attending to some In the final settlement effected the reduction from 22c to 18c but the matters of importance and visiting county of Lincoln is held only for state funds which the accountant city dispensing the gas if necessary, chants, motoring up from his home as stylus receipts issued from the tions as well as a large number of His scalp, it is said, was taken becounty treasurer's office. These re-R. H. Hastain of the Bank of Com- ceipts total $16,000 and represent collections which are not shown

> Records including tax lists and ing. The county board made a new cality here today attending the land the year 1923 are still missing. The sale at the court house and visiting court house, a new building, has not able speakers. Among the subjects were accupying Logan's home. Thirbeen completed, but is being used. George Schmidtmann, who has The floors are of rough cement, the tion, social service, missions and the body home. Mrs. Henry Fon-

The county of Lincoln presented to the state auditor a settlement Sheriff E. P. Stewart motored to sheet in 1923, showing the county

RETURNING FROM ABROAD

Krejei and Cordelia Black, who will spend a few hours attending to some Attorney William G. Kieck has visit in the Missouri city for their matters of business and visiting with just received word of the sailing of vacation. Mrs. J. E. Jones departed this merning for Exeter, Geneva and Hile Grove Evangelial church, de-Germany, back to this country after Lincoln, where she will spend some parted this morning for Columbus, several months spent in post gradime visiting with relatives and Nebraska, where he was called to uate work in the celebrated schools friends and enjoying a short outing preach at the mission feast that is and hospitals at Vienna and Berlin L. R. Feller drove down this afsearch work and special studies at F. J. Vitersnik, of Edgement, So. terneon and temorrow win accom-Dak, and family, and J. F. Viters- pany his family home, as the garage ment of the condition of affairs and nik and family, and J. F. Viters- at their new home near Fontenelle writes very interestingly of his exnik and family of Great Falls, Mon-tana, who have been here visiting park is completed and they will re-with their relatives and friends for side in it while the house is being American visitors is found in Vienfor their home in the west. Edgar Wescott, who has been na and the new Bohemian republic of the work of sinking the well re-While here the gentlemen were call- spending the summer months at where the people are very cordial ers at the Journal and renewed their Camp Sheldon, near Columbus, being and pleasant, but in the other contisubscription to the semi-weekly edi- in charge of the store there at the nental nations there is not the same tion of which they have been sub- camp, returned home this afternoon warm feeling shown to the visitors hopes to the operators of the sucand has the appearance, of having from the U. S. A. and in France and cessful outcome of their venture in had a real time in the Y. M. C. A. Germany the Americans are not as the securing of a paying well. cordially received. The aftermath of The oil bearing sand which was FRATERNAL ORDER EAGLES United States and the sting of de-porous rock formations which are feat that the German ascribes to the generally found in the successful oil was known and loved by a large circle of friends Providence, R. I., Aug. 14.-Otto in the stores and all places by the the oil finds a passage. P. Deluse of Indianapolis, Ind., an actions of the business people and The work is exciting the interest organizer and charter member of Aerie 211 of that city, was today decided grand worthy president of the Fraternal Order of Eagles at the 26th annual convention of the order being that the money of Germany is now confident that if there is oil that it getting back to normal as they are exists in this section and along the held in this city. Other elective ofonly a few pfennings worth of stamps was located and this was true of sev-

CAPTURES A 'POSSUM

Libershal was making the rounds in time and which would be one of the Milwaukee, $2,200; Indianapolis, the business section of the city, see-greatest events in the history of the Miss Leigh's brother. Hans Hein- $1,456; Jamestown, $1,200; Buffalo, ing that all was peaceful and calm, state. rich and wife. They will return $900; Worcester, Mass., $700; San he had the experience of running on home Saturday morning. Francisco. $700; Scranton, $650; a strange animal in the vicinity of COMMISSIONERS AT LOUISVILLE the Elks club house and which was far removed from any animal or rodent that Joe had experience with. He was passing the entrance to the alley on 6th street when he heard a throwing the rays of his flashlight pearing animal curled up near the is an authority on the strange and put in a 60 foot span bridge. unusual, and Jackson, being a napossum was caged and left at the Kroehler hardware store.

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT

From Saturday's Daily-

well known residents of Greenwood. years. Mr. Coleman was eighty-one

Mr. Coleman has been a resident ing directly south of town. of the vicinity of Greenwood for the past forty years and was at the time y, being the representative of the third commissioner district. Catherine M. Coleman, Hettie E. greater number of people. Wright, Ella Marshall, Mattie J. Bailey and Lula R. Landon, of Greenwood; Ada F. Guillion, Grand Island; Isa O. McLeese, Salt Lake ton, departed this morning for terment was at the late nome and were conducted by the Rev. A. Stauss of the fivangelical church and the intermediate nome and were conducted by the Rev. A. Stauss of the fivangelical church and the intermediate nome and were conducted by the Rev. A. Stauss of the fivangelical church and the intermediate nome and were conducted by the Rev. A. Stauss of the fivangelical church and the intermediate nome and were conducted by the Rev. A. Stauss of the fivangelical church and the intermediate nome and were conducted by the Rev. A. Stauss of the fivangelical church and the intermediate nome and were conducted by the Rev. A. Stauss of the fivangelical church and the intermediate nome and were conducted by the Rev. A. Stauss of the fivangelical church and the intermediate nome and were conducted by the Rev. A. Stauss of the fivangelical church and the intermediate nome and were conducted by the Rev. A. Stauss of the fivangelical church and the intermediate nome and were conducted by the Rev. A. Stauss of the fivangelical church and the intermediate nome and were conducted by the Rev. A. Stauss of the fivangelical church and the intermediate nome and were conducted by the Rev. A. Stauss of the fivangelical church and the intermediate nome and were conducted by the Rev. A. Stauss of the fivangelical church and the fi City; Myron E. Coleman, Sheridan, Kearney where they will visit with cemetery, near the old farm home Wyoming, and Elmer C. Coleman, the father of Mrs. Dale who is quite and where rest the other members of Greenwood.

WILL BE AUCTIONEER

Mrs. John Busche is staying with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clarence Busche at the old home in the country while her son is in Decatur, Indiana, taking a course in training to become an auctioneer. This is a course covering a period of several weeks and Mr. Busche will return the last of this month a full-fledged auctioneer. The farm has been sold and Mr. Busche decided to give up farming and engage in another lin of business. His many friends in this part of the county will wish him the From Thursday's Dailybest of success.-Louisville Courier.

EPISCOPALIANS ARE PLANNING FOR THE COMING 6TH SYNOD

of the $25,000 due the state was Omahans Active in Their Preparations For Diocese Delegates-In Session Sept. 21-24.

the coming sixth synod of the northwest which meets in Omaha, Sep- six of them.' tember 21-24. All dioceses of the eight states of the synod will send at Trinity cathedral the Rev. Bishop Shayler is to be celebrant of the holy communion, the Rev. Bishop Bennett body the next day, wrapped it in parreceipt books were burned or miss- of Duluth, Minn., to preach the ser- fleshe, buffalo hide and carried it to practical subjects to be presented by pan, daughter of La Force Pappan.

> clergymen to the synod will be at and has pointed out the site of the spread devastation throughout the Hotel Fontenelle. Charles L. Hopper s chairman of the arrangements graves. committee. The Rt. Rev. Harry S. Longely, D. D., bishop-coadjutor of Minneapolis, secretary.

WORK AT OIL WELL SHOWS GREAT PRO-GRESS LAST WEEK

Favorable as Well Reaches a Depth of 950 Feet.

From Saturday's Daily-The reports from the Nehawka-Murray oil well continue the most favorable and the drillers in charge port having reached 950 feet and the drill is going through the most fav- August Panska Has Filled Large orable formations that give strong the war has apparently left a poor hit last week with its unmistakable feeling in these countries, in France traces of the presence at one time of because of the war debts due the petroleum has been followed by the Americans. This feeling is shown bearing fields and through which cle of friends.

of the whole state and the geologists ary 17, 1854, and at the age of ten placing their currency on a solid gold vicinity of which the present well is standard basis and letters from that located. In many of the fields over ville where he resided for a period of country that formerly required sev- the country it has been necessary to eal million marks postage now have sink many wells before a paying field eral of the Oklahoma fields that have Murdock, where he resided with his where the conditions were not as favorable as in Cass county.

With the present favorable conditions it would not be at all surprising Last evening while Officer Joseph to tap the field at Nehawka at any

From Saturday's Daily-

Gorder were in town Tuesday with a seven children by a previous marlight noise and investigating and bridge at Sixth street which was Waco, Nebraska; Mrs. Marie Miller washed out again a few weeks ago. of Ogden, Utah; Mrs. Martha Bornearound he discovered a strange ap- This bridge was washed away during meier of Elmwood; Fred Panska of the big flood September 28th of last Alberta, Canada; Reichardt Panska light pole. Now this was something year. It was repaired temporarily, of Elmwood; Sam Panska of Cheynew for Mr. Libershal and he at once and again went out this summer. enne. Wyoming: Dan Panska of summoned Officer Clyde Jackson, who Now the commissioners propose to Louisville. Two daughters, Carrie tive of old Missouri, at once identition of opening Fifth street has been There are also two stepsons, Will fied the find as a real 'possum. The agitated in order that farmers liv- Meyers, superintendent of the Muring south and west of town might dock schools and Emil Meyers of haul their grain to the Farmers' ele- Lincoln. ling back again.

> desired. In case of the abandon-communities where he has made his house in order to get down town, so of the school board there for a This will also be true of farmers liv-long period of years and in which he

the matters more fully before they nent in the republican party of Cass of his death a member of the sol- decide just where the new bridge county and has been many times comdiers' relief commission of Cass coun- will be located. It is not desired to mitteeman and one of the leaders in work a hardship on anyone yet it is his party in Elmwood precinct and said the proposed new location of his ability and steadfastness has been He leaves the following children: the bridge would accommodate a a great asset to his party.

poorly at this time.

CHIEF LOGAN FON-TENELLE SLAIN 69 YEARS YESTERDAY

Last Chief of the Omaha Indian Tribe Was Ambushed in Nance County by Sioux Indians.

Sixty-nine years ago yesterday, August 13, 1855, Logan Fontenelle, was shot to death and scalped by a band of "Laramie Sioux" and some Arapahoes and Cheyennes. rapahoes and Cheyennes.
Out on the plains of Beaver Creek FORMER RESIDENT in what is now the county of Nance, the home and possession of the Omaha Indians, about a thousand of the tribe had gone on a buffalo hunt sixty miles north of Omaha. Logan Fontenelle had gone on the hunt much against his inclination, saying according to S. D. Bangs, an early settler, who tells the story, that the government was sending a weak, de fenseless tribe to be massacred by the Sioux who had thousands of war Omaha Episcopalians are busily riors. "I am ready for them," Logan engaged in making preparations for is quoted as saying, pointing to his revolver. "If attacked I am good for Two months later riding forth to find a suitable place for their enbishops, clergy and lay delegates of campment for the night, he was sudvisitors are planning on attending, fore he lost conscioussness and the At the opening session to be held warriors rode triumphantly away. Joseph La Flesche (Ironeyes) then his friend, later his enemy, found the The various sessions which the camp. Then the slow march to to be discussed are religious educa- teen days it had taken them to bring tenelle, now more than 1 hundred but was the worst ever experienced Headquarters for the delegates and years old, still remembers the scene in that part of the country and it old home and the position of the territory covered.

Stephan Decatur was at the funeral services, she said. There was of Mrs. Belle Twiss and also of the Iowa, is president of the synod and not a priest or missionary, but Deca- first wife of E. C. Twiss, now long the Rev. Addison Knickerbocker of tur, who, with his wife had taken claim next to Logan's home, read the Episcopal burial service.

Sloan, an Otoe half breed, protesttimself to make a mockery of the Christian religion by reading the solmn services of the church."

Over the graves of Logan and Lucian, trees have been growing these sixty-nine years. No one will ever ed over it.—Omaha World-Herald.

DISTINGUISHED FIG-URE IN COUNTY LIFE

Part in the History of Past 40 Years in the County.

The sudden calling by death of Au-Murdock on Tuesday, removed one of the leading figures in that portion of the county and a gentleman who August Panska was a native of fully realize the dreams of success he two years and later on moved to a farm near what is known as the Louisville church, in the vicinity of family for more than thirty years and where he has reared his large family and made them fitting citizens of this great commonwealth. With the coming of advancing years Mr. Panska with his wife and companion, reenjoyed the past eight years in the calm and restfulness of that attractive little city.

Mr. Panska leaves to mourn his death the widow and two daughters, County Commissioners Harris and side with the mother at home, and view of replacing the Mill creek riage, Mrs. Dorothy Bornemeier of and Hilda, have preceded him in For a number of years the ques- death, passing away in their infancy.

vator without coming down to the Mr. Panska has been a very devout Third stret bridge and then doub-member of the Evangelical church in his lifetime and has labored long The commissioners say they will and faithfully in the advancement of The death of one of the old and place the new bridge on either street the teachings of that church in the Elic Chalker Coleman, occurred at ment of the Sixth street bridge, it home. His worth and ability was his home in that city last evening at will be necessary for people living recognized by his fellow itizens in 9:30 following a short illness due to in the south part of town east of having him chosen as a member of the infirmities of his advancing the creek to go around by the school the village board at Murdock and alhas proven very successful

The commissioners will look into In politics, Mr. Panska was promi-

The funeral services were held this afternoon at the late home and were

HERE FROM ST. LOUIS

From Saturday's Daily-

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clabaugh, of St. Louis, arrived here this afternoon where they will enjoy a visit at the home of Mrs. Clabaugh's parents, Col. and Mrs. M. A. Bates and with the T. B. and R. A. Bates families for some time while on their vacation. Mr. Clabaugh is connected with one of the large public utility corporations with headquarters a St. Louis and is taking a brief rest from the duties of his position and with Mrs. Clabaugh is enjoying a Mr. Clabaugh was at one time manlast chief of the Omaha Indian tribe, ager of the Nebraska Gas and Electric company interests.

OF LOUISVILLE IS

Thomas Childers Loses Life in Bad Twister that Carried Home Away Last Week.

E. C. Twiss received a message ist week announcing the death of is brother-in-law, Thomas Childers, who was killed on his farm near Hinchley, in the vicinity of Gordon, n a tornado that visited that section arly on Thursday of last week. The wind wrecked their ranch home, killd the cattle and wrecked many other buildings in that vicinity. It is Voice; Renken Sisters in their Aervas rendered unconscious, but no Terrance La Belle Troup, Sensationfurther particulars could be learnd in time for this week's issue as linchley is an inland postoffice for- to mention. y-five miles northeast of Ellsworth, and it was impossible to establish communication.

The storm was of short duration,

Mr. Childers lived in Louisville in early days. His wife was a sister since deceased. They had four children and all are living but are married and settled elsewhere. The children are William, Milliken, Colorado; ed that "he should be ashamed of Ethel, now Mrs. Grant Richey, of Chicago; Fannie, now Mrs. Clarence Thomas, Longmont, Colorado, and Alice, now Mrs. V. M. Haddon, of Dunlay, Iowa, and where they were Valley. The news of their father's death the graves, but as near as Mrs. Fon- mother, when Mrs. Haddon was a they are expecting to be able to leave hat country .- Louisville Courier.

DELAYED BY RAIN

who have been spending some time the day there looking after some matit Lake Okoboji, Iowa, and a num-ters of business.

Tent Show

AT TOURIST PARK

KILLED BY STORM Wednesday AUGUST 20, 1924 Night Show Only

25 - PEOPLE - 25

Dramatic and Vaudeville Absolutely Clean

Several high class acts featuring Viola Lind, the Girl with a Golden ial Teeth Suspension; Jack Welch, Mrs. Childers was badly hurt and Black Face Comedian, Clog Dancing; al Acrobats and others too numerous

Lind Bros. Concert Band

Reasonable Prices

Show Starts at8:15

ber of the Minnesota lakes, were expected home last evening but their plans were checked somewhat by the heavy rain that they encountered at resting and awaiting for the roads to dry out and get in shape for travwill come as a great shock to the el. The trip had been a fine one up know, it is said, the exact spot of children. Since the death of their to the time they hit the rain and tenelle and Elton Beksted can point baby, he moved to western Nebras- the Iowa town sometime today. Rev. Rock Formations Continue the Most out a marker will some time be plac- ka and was married again and had McClusky will be home by Sunday at prospered and owned a fine ranch in least and will hold services at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

> Edward Gradoville was a passen-Rev. H. G. McClusky and family. | ger this morning for Omaha to spend

"Get in the Well Dressed Circle"

New Fall Suits

Feature Values The Greatest Ever!

C. E. Wescott's Sons

"ON THE CORNER"

Boy's School Suits! Thru an oversight, we failed to include the following sizes of boy's suits in our regular Bargain Wednesday Ad. They are too good to pass up, if you are looking for a good sturdy single pant suit for your boy, and want to save some money.

9 10 12 13 14 15 16 Blue Serge, 1 3 Fancy, 2 1

