

Nehawka Department!

Prepared in the interests of the People of Nehawka and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers.

Glen Rutledge was looking after some business matters in Union last Monday, driving over in his car.

R. Kettlehut was at Shenandoah on Wednesday of this week where he was called to look after some business.

Fred Nutzman was having a corn crib built on the W. E. Contryman place northeast of Nehawka during this week.

Chris Rose and the boys were shipping cattle from the Nehawka station to the South Omaha market last Monday.

George Poillard was looking after some business in Omaha on last Thursday, driving over to the big city in his auto.

R. Kettlehut and son, Vilas, were working the roads and getting them in much better condition than they had been in for some time.

J. A. Dougherty and Abner Tucker and wife and daughter were visiting and looking after some business matters at Plattsmouth last Monday.

Charles Hall was doing some changing in the wiring of his home last Monday to make it more convenient for the wife regarding lights.

Chauncey Schupp and the family were enjoying a visit at Shenandoah, Iowa, last Sunday and picnicked with other of the Nehawka people there.

Miller & Gruber have accepted a contract for the construction of a reinforced tank for the holding of water on the farm of Peter Halmes west of Plattsmouth.

J. R. Hill and the family were in attendance at the Sunday school picnic of the Mynard Sunday school, which was held at the Edward Spangler grove east of Murray.

John R. DuClos who has been working in St. Louis for some time past, arrived in Nehawka on last Sunday evening and immediately went to work at the carpenter trade.

John W. Murdoch and son, Paul, W. O. Troop, Will Kruger and W. T. Schlichtemeier shipped hogs from the Nehawka station last Monday, they all going to the South Omaha market.

Warren Munn was shelling corn at the homes of James R. Hill and Edward Murray last Monday and on Tuesday also shelled corn for Chas. Chriswiser, all getting the dollars for the cereal.

Ray Klaurens and wife have moved to Firth where Mr. Klaurens has accepted the position of assistant superintendent of the schools of the place and began his year's work on last Monday.

Walter Wunderlich was feeling pretty bad last Sunday, being kept to his home for the day and also having a raging fever all the time, but was feeling much improved on Monday morning.

On last Sunday Harry Vantine and the family were visiting at the home of J. L. Crum near Ashland and the visit was repaid on Tuesday when the Crum family spent the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vantine.

Bert Snavely of Ord and the family while on their way to Falls City stopped in Nehawka last Friday and visited for over night and a portion of Saturday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Con Hewitt, Mrs. Snavely being a cousin of Mrs. Hewitt.

Gale and Ruth Kettlehut who had to undergo operations for the removal of their tonsils and adenoids last Thursday, were able after the operation to start in with the term of school on Monday of this week and are getting along nicely.

Elmer Philpot has got the best out of his Maxwell car during the past ten years and he has made it run that length of time, he being a mechanic himself, and has now discarded it and purchased himself and the family a new Universal sedan, which is about the last word in automobile transportation.

Jack Philpot and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a very fine little girl at the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Colbert of Weeping Water and Mrs. Elmer Philpot has been caring for the little Miss and her mother who are reported as getting along nicely at this time and all are happy.

There will be no services the coming Sunday at the United Brethren church in Nehawka and north of town as the Rev. Con Hewitt and wife will be attending the annual conference of the church which will be in session in Lincoln the present week and extending over the coming Sunday. The soloist, father of Mrs. Hewitt, will also attend the conference with the Hewitt family.

Mr. and Mrs. Con Hewitt have just returned from a visit of about ten days at Burlington, Iowa, where they went to attend a reunion of the Hewitt family which was just concluded there a few days since and which was most thoroughly enjoyed by all members of the family who attended. Mr. Con Hewitt, their son, was also present as was Henry Hewitt, a brother of Rev. Hewitt, of Shelby, Iowa.

J. G. Wunderlich and wife and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Roush took a spin last Sunday, going via Nebraska City and over into Iowa when they went to Glenwood and at the park there ate their dinner and then to Council Bluffs over the bridge road and over to Omaha and down to Plattsmouth where they stopped for a short time and then on home, making a very pleasant drive over a very scenic roadway.

Nehawka Schools Began Monday

The Nehawka schools began on Monday of this week with a somewhat diminished attendance due to a number of families moving from the town and district during the past summer and a portion of last winter. However, there is much interest manifested in the school and there are now fifty in the high school and about a hundred in the grades, not counting the primary. The classes were organized on Monday and the real work of the year was commenced on Tuesday with prospects for a good year of school work. The faculty who will have in hand the instruction of the scholars are: Superintendent L. W. Burby, Principal Mark W. Swengel and with Kathryn Reyman and Dorothy Greenhalgh complete the high school. The grade teachers are: Margaret Whipple, Opeline Sala, Helen Schreiber and Ethel Albright.

The Dog Was a Forager

E. Kettlehut has a dog which is a goer and no mistake when it comes to rustling something to eat. Not so long ago while George Lopp was calling at the Kettlehut home and had left his car standing in the road in front of the Kettlehut home, the dog appropriated two loaves of bread, eating one and carrying the other off for future use. Then a few days later he performed the same trick with the car of H. Beck, under the same conditions. C. M. Chriswiser and the good wife who have been out to the farm were returning with a jar of butter and they had occasion to stop for a short time at the Kettlehut home and left the car standing in front. The dog took the butter out of the car and devoured the contents and was rolling the jar around licking it clean when discovered by Mr. Chriswiser. This dog sure knew where his bread and butter was coming from.

Ate Their Dinners in Iowa

Last Sunday being an excellent day for an outing, not too hot nor too cold, a large number of the people of Nehawka and vicinity got out their Ford cars and some other makes that does not matter and slipping into the pantry, filled a basket of "Nebraska's Best" and turned the growl of their hosts towards Shenandoah which with no intent on the part of anyone of having a picnic, a large crowd of people visited the Henry Field broadcasting station and also picnicked in the grove and bathing in the limpid waters of the Nishna Botna river and enjoyed most thoroughly the drive there and back as well as stopping at Morton Park in the evening for supper. Among those who were privileged to attend this outing were numbered: James M. Palmer and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bates, Ed Hadley and wife, James M. Dunbar and family, Mrs. M. G. Kime and daughter, Frank Boedecker and the family and also accompanied by Mr. Ed Boedecker, Frank M. Lemon and wife, Herbert Stoll and Miss Hope St. John, William Ost and family.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

The hospitable country home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy C. White, east of Murray was the scene of a most enjoyable 6 o'clock chicken dinner last evening, given by Mrs. White in honor of a number of the young ladies employed in the offices of the Burlington in this city. The occasion was one of the rarest hospitality and the feast one such as can only be found at the Cass county farm homes and was very much appreciated by the members of the jolly party. Those attending were: Misses Nettie Moore, Frances Bentley, Josephine Rys, Mildred Schlater, Emma Johnson, Cressie Hackenberg, Lula Mayhew, Nettie Jirousek, Lillian White, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young and Mr. Dale Welliver.

RIVAL CANDIDATES HERE

The Plattsmouth people had the opportunity last evening and today of meeting two of the distinguished members of the state supreme court, Charles B. Letton and William B. Rose, both of whom are candidates for re-election this fall. Both Judge Letton and Judge Rose have been on the bench for a number of years and Judge Letton is the dean of the court in the point of service, but this year they find themselves opponents for the suffrages of the people of the state and one of them will have to retire from the court.

Under the new law the supreme court justices are elected from the various congressional districts and this year the first and fifth districts are electing with the result that the fifth will have a new judge while the two veterans must contest in the first district for the election.

The Plattsmouth people were pleased to meet both of the two jurists and will take their choice from their own personal impressions of the distinguished visitors.
