C. C. Carroll is not feeling the best on account of an attack of summer flu.

Wm. Lintner was attending the state fair at Lincoln last Thursday, making the trip in his auto.

Lewis Crabtree and wife were enjoying a visit at the state fair last Thursday, driving over in their car.

John S. Vallery shelled and delivered corn last Tuesday to the Farmers Elevator company at Murray.

Charles Green was a visitor in Omaha last Saturday, where he went to look after some business for the day.

Roy Gregg will in a short time move from Mynard to Murray, and will make his home here in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. John Royer and family from Arriba, Colorado, are visiting at the home of Earl Lancaster and family.

Messrs. Harvey Gregg and Gold Rice have been building a chicken house for Wayne Lewis, the Murray tonsorial artist.

Dr. G. L. Taylor was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Thursday, where he was looking after some business matters for the day.

An important meeting of the Library will be held Saturday night at 8 o'clock. Everyone who is interested should attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dalton, of Lincoln, were visiting in Murray for the past few days, guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Bakke.

Dr. Joseph H. Hall, of Plattsmouth, was a visitor for a short time in Murray on last Tuesday, driving down in his car.

Robert Shrader was assisting Jas. Tigner with his haying last Tuesday and the gentlemen were making hay while the sun shone in good order.

C. M. Christwiser was looking after some business in Murray last Tuesday, having driven over from his home in Nehawka in his truck.

Phillip Lambert has just completed the painting of the barn at the home of Mrs. Levi Eusterholtz, and the building is looking much better.

Last Saturday C. A. Trent and family departed for South Dakota, where they went to see Paul Trent, a son of Mr. Trent and to look after some business as well.

J. W. Robbins, of Mynard, the agent for the Missouri Pacific, was a visitor at St. Louis for a few days last week, when he went down to consult a specialist regarding his health.

Mr. and Mrs. John Royer and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lancaster motored to Plattsmouth Tuesday evening and took supper with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Royer, a brother of John Royer and Mrs. Lancaster.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel have been feeling quite badly for a number of days during last week and have had a severe attack of summer flu, but are at this time showing much improvement.

W. J. Hippot shipped two cars of cattle from the Murray station to the South Omaha market on last Monday, which he had been feeding for some time and which were of a very good grade.

Little Dorothy Green has been quite poorly for some time and her case has been discussed by the parents and physicians regarding the advisability of taking the little one to the hospital at Omaha for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kirkpatrick and their daughter, of Worthington, Mo., have been visiting at the home of their daughter in Murray, Mrs. A. D. Bakke and family, and with them visited in Omaha on last Tuesday.

J. C. Spangler, of near Louisville, was a visitor in Murray last Tuesday, and after having looked after some business matters here for a time visited at the home of his sister, Mrs. Val Gobelman, southeast of Murray.

Joseph Mrasek was called to Omaha last Monday to look after some business for the firm and on Tuesday he went to Plattsmouth to deliver a hay sweep from the Plattsmouth house, this making two hay sweeps this week.

Uncle J. W. Edmunds and daughter, Mrs. Wm. Sporer, were visiting at the home of the former and aunt in the latter, Mrs. Robert Ferguson, of near Nebraska City last Sunday, where they spent the afternoon and evening very pleasantly.

Wm. Patterson, while putting up hay at his home last Thursday had his mower clog up with weeds and grass and as he was in the act of stratching it out accidentally on his hand a little too far forward and knives of the sickle bar.

There was a big bunch of boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Cook last Tuesday morning when the stork brought to their home a fine big bouncing boy who will make his home with this happy couple. All are doing nicely at this time.

During the past summer the hail storm which visited this section did some havoc to the corn of Messrs. Long and Edmunds, but as they had the crop insured in the Fidelity and Phoenix Insurance company, they have settled, making the loss good.

Messrs. Harvey Gregg and Gold Rice are at this time building a crib on the farm of Mrs. Jacob R. Vallery and are getting ready for the crop of corn which just now is ripening in the fields as rapidly as possible and which all are hopeful will mature before frost hits it.

Joseph F. Tabbs has made some very material improvements on his home in Mynard, among which is a new roof, the painting of the entire house and the installation of electric lights, as well as making the place as near modern as the conveniences at hand in Mynard will permit.

A vote of thanks is due Mr. Edmunds for the interest he has taken in cleaning and beautifying the lot back of the library. All rubbish was removed, the lot leveled and grass seed sown. Just take a look back of the library. Thanks, Mr. Edmunds. Who will be next? The building needs a coat of paint.

W. O. Troop and family and Robert Troop and wife, who have been spending about two weeks in Colorado, returned home last Saturday evening, after having had an excellent time and visited at many places. While in the west they visited at Otis, Holyoke, Cheyenne and a number of other places. While there they visited with George Tanner and family and found that gentleman feeling very well and prospering.

Mrs. Hendricks, better known as Grandma Hendricks, who has been visiting in the northwest for several weeks, returned home last Saturday and was met at Omaha by her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Carroll, who accompanied the mother home. While away, Mrs. Hendricks visited at many different places and was a guest of W. H. Taylor and family at Gordon; A. B. Schlegel and family, at Magnet; Jesse Hendricks and family at Creighton; Louis Taylor and family, at Osmond; John Carroll, at Plainview, and Will Hoggumund, residing near Osmond. Mrs. Hendricks while away also visited with Mrs. Frank Albion, of near Creighton, and tells of this excellent lady not enjoying the best of health, though she is so she can get around and is showing some improvement.

Caught Many Fish

A number of the people of Murray were enjoying an outing last Sunday at Cedar Creek, where they took their dinner and also enjoyed fishing and camp life for the day, at the banks of the Platte near Cedar Creek. They were rewarded for their patience by a goodly catch and returned home happy in the evening and with a suspicion of being a little weary. Among those who attended the outing were G. W. McCracken and family, Thomas Woods and the family and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mrasek and the children.

MAKERS OF CASS COUNTY

David J. Pitman

David J. Pitman was born on April 4th 1852, at Corydon, Indiana, and remained there until he was near thirty years of age, and there in the public schools received an education which has stood him in good stead during his life, and was made most thorough, by his application to his studies and the untiring work which he applied to the study during the years he was getting his education.

When but slightly over twenty on October 19th 1873, he was married to Miss Harriet Mock, they remained at Corydon until 1882, when they moved to what was known as Mt. Pleasant where there was a postoffice some six miles southwest of the place where Murray now stands.

At the time the railroad was put through from Union to Lincoln this postoffice was taken to Nehawka, and the one established at the home of Wm. Laughridge, where he had a blacksmith shop, where the Murray bathing bench now is located. In 1887 Mr. Pitman and family removed to the farm which he now owns, a half mile south of Murray.

He saw Murray grow and develop and with his neighbor, J. A. Walker, established an elevator, when the Missouri Pacific was constructed from Union to Omaha. This they conducted for some thirteen years and sold to A. B. Wilson, and Mr. Pitman has been the manager ever since. The town of Murray received its name from a minister who preached in the building where Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Nickles now live, and whose name was Rev. G. R. Murray.

Mr. Pitman who had been farming many years came to Murray to live in 1910, he has been engaged in the grain business for a number of years before. The union of Mr. and Mrs. Pitman was blessed with four children, they being, Mrs. Glen Perry of Mynard, Mrs. O. A. Davis, of Murray, S. O. Pitman of Los Angeles, and J. V. Pitman of Murray.

Mr. Pitman at the age of fifteen years united with the church and has been a consistent member all his life, and has been a man whom all have respected and honored. He became a member of the Masonic Order in 1875.

During his life he has always been honored with the church and American citizen and always a loyal democrat, believing the principal, that in the citizen lays the true foundation of government.

THE PASSING OF GEORGE G. ASKEW WEDNESDAY

Well Known Old Resident of Weeping Water Goes to His Last Reward; Funeral There.

From Saturday's Daily—The residents of Weeping Water have been called upon to mourn the loss of one of their old and highly respected residents, George G. Askew, who was called to his last reward Wednesday, September 3rd.

The funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late home and were conducted by the pastor of the First Congregational church of Weeping Water. The music was furnished by the choir of the church and at the close of the last prayer, the hymn, "Shall We Gather at the River" was sung. At the grave there was a short prayer and the bugle call given for this fine old veteran of the Civil war. The interment was at Oak Wood cemetery at Weeping Water.

George G. Askew was born in Odell, Bedfordshire, England, July 15, 1827, and came to America in the year 1857 at the age of twenty and has since resided here. When the calls for the soldiers to defend the nation in 1861 was made, Mr. Askew entered the Union army and served to the close of the war and from the hardships suffered he sustained sickness from which he never fully recovered.

Mike Mauzy was a visitor in Omaha today, going to that city on the early morning Burlington train.

REBUILDING THE WORLD

Golden Text: "He anointed me to preach good tidings."—Luke 4:18.

That nation or people without a vision, that man or woman not having aim, that ship without a rudder or compass or a pilot are lost. They become derelicts upon the great ocean of time and eternity. At the time when Jesus Christ came to this world there was darkness and superstition over all the land. The Jewish church had become corrupt. The rites which came into the treasury of the church and was used by those in authority was the main incentive which held the church together and the rulers as a general thing played upon the ignorance of the common people.

The great objection of the Jews, and headed by the rulers of the Jewish church to the Christ and his preaching was because the preaching of Christianity was love, mercy, forgiveness of sins and salvation for all. Other Jew or Gentile. This great and merciful practice was not in accordance with the practices then prevailing in the Jewish church. So they were enemies of the new church and to Christianity and sought to destroy not alone the church, the Christian belief but the Savior himself.

In today's lesson, the Master had some the second time to his boyhood home, Nazareth, where he had lived for thirty years and where the people were anxious to see him and have him do some wonderful thing. Some had been present when he had made the water into wine and some wanted to see him perform some other miracle more wonderful. As he had been the custom of the Master, he attended church, when the services were begun which consisted of the reading of a portion of the law and which by reading of so much each Sabbath completed them in three weeks and also a portion of the prophecies were read. Some were selected to read the portion of the Scriptures and then explain them. When the roll was handed the Master, he found the place and read: "The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he anointed me to preach good tidings to the poor. He hath sent me to proclaim release to the captive and recovering sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised. To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."

Then he closed the roll and departed to the workshop, sitting down for at that time the speaking was done sitting. When all was ready he began his discourse by saying: "Today hath this Scripture been fulfilled in your eyes." An account of the manner in which the Jews and Gentiles felt towards him. They were looking for some thing that they might say against him. The common people were pleased to hear from His lips the words of grace and truth but the rulers stirred the people up and cast him out of the synagogue and led him to the brow of a high hill to see him over to the temple, death and destruction. He hurriedly passed between them and went his way. The old society was tottering and injustice was done on every hand; superstition prevailed; and lawlessness stalked abroad at midday and worse at midnight. The poor were oppressed and to relieve the condition the Master had come and so told them. He was setting a new standard of living and was to initiate a new order of things where truth and justice should prevail!

When he said "Today is this Scripture fulfilled in your eyes." He meant he had come to establish a new way of living and set at liberty the captives, those held by ignorance, superstition and human debts as well as habits which had them bound, held by unbelievers, by false beliefs and bring light into the darkness. The Jews sought to kill him, and they did kill the Son of God, little knowing that by so doing they were opening up a way for a greater church which should be an avenue that should allow the salvation of the world. From this there has been
