They lived here for a number of years but have been gone some time.

Mr. R. W. Ryder is engaged in the contracting business in Omaha at the present time.

The Nehawka schools dismissed on Friday afternoon for the Cass county fair, there being no school during the afternoon.

Those who were able to go themselves went and those who had no way of getting there were provided a way by the school board, as the trip was considered a portion of the school work, and was educational in its character.

The party arrived shortly after 1 o'clock, there being some 14 cars in the caravan and on their arrival at the home they received a most gracious welcome and were at once entering on an occasion that was most pleasant to all who were participating.

The members had come with baskets filled to overflowing with many good things to add to the luncheon and the dining room of the home was used as the place for the luncheon, the tables being arranged so that there were seventy seated. The tables decorated with roses of the season and garden flowers made a most attractive setting for the delicious repast.

During the course of the luncheon there were a number of toasts given. Messrs. Baker and Dr. Wells of the visitors responding with appropriate remarks fitting to the occasion.

The time was one of the most pleasant that has been enjoyed for a long time at the Home and each member of the Home and the employees were presented with a fine American Beauty rose and a box of candy as a token of esteem by the party of visitors.

The Lincoln party departed at 5 o'clock for their homes and carried with them a most pleasing impression of the city and the people and some of the party it was their first opportunity of looking over the Home.

Who's the stranger, Mother Dear? Look! He knows us! Ain't he queer? Hush, My Own! Don't talk so wild; That's your father, dearest child. That's my father? No such thing! Father died, you know, last spring. Father didn't die, you dub! Father joined a golfing club. But they closed the club, so he had no place to go, you see— No place left for him to roam; That's why he's now coming home. Kiss him, he won't bite you, Child! All those golfing guys look wild. —Russell B. Hobson.

The teacher-parent association of the Columbian school which has been very successful in the last few years in promoting the general helpfulness of the work in this school by the cordial co-operation of the parents of the children with the teachers of the school, held their first meeting of the year last week and arranged for the commencement of the regular program which will include many plans for the mutual helpfulness of all concerned.

The officers of the association named were: President—Mrs. W. R. Holmes. Vice-President—Mrs. Ed Trively. Sec.—Treas.—Miss Nettie Hawksworth.

There was a very pleasing attendance of the parties interested and during the afternoon all enjoyed to the utmost the discussion of the plans for making the coming year even more successful than those of the past and promoting the good will that would result in a great deal more efficiency on the part of the pupils of the school.

HAS AN INTERESTING OLD NEWSPAPER OF YEAR 1865

Miss Ella Kennedy Has Issue of New York Herald Giving Details of Lincoln's Death.

Miss Ella Kennedy of this city has a very interesting relic that has been cherished in her family for a great many years and which is a copy of the New York Herald of April 15, 1865, more than fifty-nine years ago.

This paper gives the details of the assassination of President Abraham Lincoln and the headings of the paper were very sensational for a newspaper of that day and the heads represented a large number of fonts of type of all sizes and styles and on the front page the column rules were turned in mourning for the fallen leader.

In the copy of the Herald the dispatches issued by the state and war departments were given showing the gradual sinking of President Lincoln and his final passing.

The paper also has the story of the fall of Richmond and the flight of President Jefferson Davis from the southern capital and the gradual crumbling of the forces of the south.

The paper is a real curiosity both from the makeup and appearance as well as the historical value and is something very much treasured by Miss Kennedy.

LINCOLN ORDER OF EASTERN STAR VISITS HERE SUNDAY

Electa Constellation of the Capital City Visits at the Nebraska Masonic Home Yesterday.

The Nebraska Home in this city enjoyed a very pleasant time yesterday afternoon when some forty members of the Electa Constellation of Lincoln motored down to spend some in looking over the home and enjoying a luncheon with the aged people who are making their home here in the great west.

The party arrived shortly after 1 o'clock, there being some 14 cars in the caravan and on their arrival at the home they received a most gracious welcome and were at once entering on an occasion that was most pleasant to all who were participating.

OMAHA BOOSTERS FOR NEW BRIDGE OVER THE PLATTE

Meeting of Omaha and Sary County People This Week to Take up Matter of New Bridge.

From Monday's Daily—A meeting of the residents of Omaha and Sary county is being projected for this week to boost the proposition of securing a new $150,000 free bridge over the Platte river north of this city and on the main highway between Omaha and Kansas City.

The proposition of a free bridge has long been one of the big plans of the good roads boosters of Omaha and vicinity and they are now getting ready to try and place their wishes in concrete form that will bring results and secure the long desired bridge for them.

"We are going to endeavor to build a bridge at Plattsmouth in order to secure federal aid in the highway construction project now being proposed through Douglas and Sary counties," declared W. A. Ellis, assistant commissioner of the Chamber of Commerce and secretary of the joint good roads committee.

The proposed bridge is to be of concrete and steel.

19.2% OF DELINQUENTS ARE WITHOUT RELIGION

Only 19.2 per cent of delinquents brought before Omaha police courts are not professed followers of the three main religions of the city, Protestant, Catholic or Jewish, according to statistics of T. Earl Sulzenger, head of the department of sociology at the University of Omaha.

Professed Catholics are Protestants, 34.4 per cent Catholic and 1.4 per cent Jewish, he says.
