"Bring Him In!"

FEATURING
EARL WILLIAMS
and FRITZE RIDGEWAY

An exceptionally dramatic story of mystery, love and adventure in the great Northwoods. Also a good 2-reel Jimmy Aubury comedy, "The Detective."

B. G. Watkins of near Nehawka was a visitor in Union last Monday afternoon looking after some business matters.

Herman L. Swanson was a visitor in Union last week and was meeting many of his friends here, for he has a lot of them.

Eddie Towne and Jacob Morton were visiting last Saturday evening in Omaha, seeing their friends and attending a show.

Tony Sudduth was a business visitor in Omaha on last Monday and also had some eggs which he took to market as well.

Joseph Petzer, of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Union last Sunday and a guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. M. Patterson, while here.

C. V. Wallick and wife, of Weeping Water were spending last Saturday and Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Larue.

J. D. Marcell of the Union schools was looking after some business matters and also visiting with friends in Plattsmouth last Saturday evening.

For a higher quality, more nutritious and finer flavored bread, we recommend "Lincoln Maid" brand bread.—O. J. Hathaway, Union, Nebr.

Mrs. K. D. Clarke and son, Will Clarke, of Weeping Water, were visiting in Union last Sunday, being guests at the home of Mrs. Vesta Clarke.

There comes a rumor that B. H. Sumner, who has been the agent at Stevia will be given the station at Union and will make the change in a short time.

John Farris of near Murray was looking after some business matters in Union last Monday and was also visiting at the home of W. S. Coppenhaver while here.

T. M. Patterson, of Omaha, was a visitor for a short time in Union last Monday evening and went to Weeping Water, where he was looking after some business matters.

W. H. Sheeley and wife will depart in a few days as soon as the business matters are closed up here for North Bend or Fremont, where they will engage in some business there.

On last Sunday at their home north of Union, J. D. Bramblet and daughter, and Mr. Ray Bramblet entertained for the day and an excellent dinner, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Todd and children, J. C. Snavely and family and W. B. Banning and family.

A. L. Becker, who has been at Centerville for some time, looking after the seeding of some 70 acres of wheat on his farm there, returned home last Monday evening and was well pleased with the condition of the crop, which he has just got seed-

Lonnie and Bert Crawford, of Coleridge were visiting in Union for a few days last week with relatives and friends and on their return to their home in the north last week, were accompanied by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crawford, who will visit there for a while.

Mrs. E. H. Riggs, of Brewster, where she is engaged in business, was a visitor for a short time last week at the home of Mrs. Jennie Frans, having driven here from her home and then departed for St. Joseph, where she went to purchase goods for the winter. She was driven from here to St. Joseph by Mr. Omar Clark.

George Tyson of Los Angeles has been visiting in Union for some time and while here was a guest at the home of R. D. Stine and mother, Mr. Tyson being a brother of Grandma Stine. He departed on last Monday evening for Omaha, where he will visit for a short time at the home of R. M. Rathbun before going to his home in the west.

D. Cross, Frank Owings and L. W. Crawford have been making some changes at the telephone office which is the property of the telephone company and which is making the office the better. A new floor has been laid while the entire front has been changed considerably, a new door installed and in all the building has been made more comfortable and convenient.

Sure Two Good Steers
Last week Edward Dowler, who is a trader, purchased two steers from J. H. Ruhman, as he was going to ship them and they were included with other stock that were sent to market, and the two weighed 4,500 pounds and brought seven and a half cents per pound which brought him $337.50 for the two animals. Do not think but Mr. Dowler will buy your stock at a good price when he comes to sell it, for he is there for that purpose.

Is Killed in Elevator
Last week while David Dennis, Jr., the young son of David Dennis, of Falls City, who is the grandson of George P. Barton and wife, formerly lived in Union, while playing around an elevator where they were unloading apples into a warehouse. The elevator ran up along the outside of a building and the boys at their play were riding up and down as the elevator made its trips. The workmen had cautioned the lads to be careful and to keep away from the elevator as they might get hurt. The lad was looking down over the platform of the elevator, and as it went up, he extended his head into the door way and his head was caught between the elevator and the top of the door, breaking his neck and causing instant death.

Are Much Interested in Game
The people of Union, who are all very much wrapped up in the national game, have been taking much interest in the world series now being played in the east. It would seem that most of the people are in sympathy with Washington winning the series. There have been large crowds at the garage and other places where there was opportunity of listening in over the radio, and all were enjoying the reports, although it was not quite like the real game.

Enjoys Visit in the East

Last Friday Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Marks, who have been visiting for some time in the east, where they spent many weeks with the friends of their youth, returned home after having had a most pleasant visit.

Election Day Dinner

The Methodist Aid society of Union will serve dinner and supper and also have a bazaar at the M. W. A. hall on election day.

Anyone wishing to help either with the bazaar or dinner and supper may leave articles with any of the ladies on or before that day. All help will be greatly appreciated.

At the Methodist Church

The attendance at the Methodist Sunday school last Sunday was $9. Make it 100 next Sunday. Everyone is urged to attend if not attending school elsewhere.

The school now has an honor roll on which will be entered the names of those having perfect attendance records for a quarter. The children with perfect attendance last quarter were Iola McQuinn, Marcella McQuinn, Leora Fletcher and Irma Burke.

All the regular services next Sunday.

Business Changed Hands

Mrs. Mable Reynolds, who has been identified with the business interests of Union for the past sixteen years in a variety of ways, but always a careful and painstaking saleslady, having a host of friends, last Friday purchased the business interests of W. H. Sheeley, who has conducted the corner store, and immediately took charge of the business and is conducting the same in her most businesslike way.

All the friends of this vicinity, and all are her friends, will be pleased to learn of her embarking on business here. We are sure she will make a success of her venture.

Celebrates Passing of Birth

The many friends of Mr. Charles Hoback organized in favor of a good time and put it over at the home of Mr. Hoback, when they all went to his home unbeknown to this gentleman last Monday evening and with the making had an oyster supper with many good things to eat on the side as well as a most enjoyable evening. The coming of the friends was a complete surprise to Mr. Hoback, but he with the others enjoyed the occasion very pleasantly.

Will Have Services

There will be services at the Baptist church on the coming Sunday morning at the usual hour. Mrs. Niman, wife of the pastor of the Nebraska City Baptist church will preach and conduct the services at the church in Union on Sunday, October 12th. All members are requested to be in attendance.

DEATH OF DOROTHY MASON

From Monday's Daily—The message was received yesterday morning announcing the death of Dorothy Mason, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mason, which occurred Saturday evening at the family home in Los Angeles, California, following a short illness. The message did not give the exact cause of the death but a later message this morning from Carl Sattler to his parents here stated that the death followed a very severe attack of quinsy from which Dorothy had formerly suffered for the past year, and from which she had failed to rally. Mrs. Ed Mason was taken sick last Wednesday and is now confined to her bed and her sickness badly affected by the death of the young child.

The deceased leaves the parents and one sister, Miss Alice, all of Los Angeles, and several uncles and aunts, W. H. Mason, Mrs. C. C. Koke and Mrs. R. H. Fitch of this city, and Clara of Nebraska City, the grandmother of the little one. Mrs. Paul Billion also resides at Nebraska City.

The funeral services will be held on Wednesday at the late home in California and the interment held there.

The news of the death comes as a sad blow to the many friends of the family here where they resided up until a few months ago, and especially will the little school friends of Dorothy be shocked to learn of her death.

ENTERS PLEA OF GUILTY

From Wednesday's Daily—This morning in the county court before Judge Allen J. Beeson, Raymond Lairson of Fremont was arraigned on the complaint charging him with manslaughter in connection with the death of Mrs. Lorrissa Dodge in an auto accident near Union on September 18th.

To the charge preferred by County Attorney J. A. Capwell, the prisoner entered a plea of guilty and waived the preliminary hearing in the case and was bound over to the district court. The amount of the bond was fixed at $100 and in failure to supply this, the man was remanded to the custody of Deputy Sheriff Rex Young.

The charge of manslaughter charges Lairson with unintentionally causing the death of Mrs. Dodge while he was driving his car while in an intoxicated condition and in the wrecking of the car in which Mrs. Dodge received the injuries from which she later died.
