Prepared Exclusively for The Journal.

Free, a large, best made Scooter, or a large, beautiful talking and walking doll, or a Kodak, doll carriage or apron. Absolutely free. See them at O. J. Hathaway's, Union, Nebr.

Washers? Yes, the best electric, hand, bench and combination of any styles at Bannings. Better see them; they do the work.

On last Monday Flossie McCarthy of the McCarthy & Sturm elevator company, loaded out two cars of grain, one of corn and one of wheat.

Thomas M. Patterson of Omaha was a visitor in Union last Friday and was looking after some business matters as well as visiting with his friends.

J. C. McCarroll, who has just completed the seedling of his wheat was delivering the remainder of his wheat to the elevator of Mr. F. H. McCarthy.

Ralph Davis was a visitor at Nehawka last Monday where he went over to see the miller, Mr. C. D. St. John and also was calling on his friend, Bert Willis.

Miss Madge Cheney by an accident while walking over the rough ground turned her ankle and was compelled to remain away from school last Monday.

J. H. Reynolds, L. G. Todd and W. B. Banning were in Plattsmouth last Monday evening where they went to attend the speaking there in behalf of the democratic national ticket.

W. H. Marks who is one of the most accommodating of men, last Monday took Mr. and Mrs. James F. Wilson to Murray where they were looking after some business matters.

You need a stove for the winter. Better look over our stock in heaters. Also that range which you are needing. See our Range Eternal, it will last a lifetime, and is the very best.

Many were well pleased with the address which Mrs. Newman, who preached at the Baptist church and said it was filled with excellent thoughts, good common sense and was a most eloquent address.

Will Cook and family of north of town were spending last Sunday in Union guests at the home of Mrs. Cook's mother, Mrs. Lucy Wolfe, and while here also attended Bible school and meeting at the Baptist church.

Howard Graves of Plattsmouth, one of the carriers of the rural route and by the way a ruster and a very careful handler of the mails, was a visitor in Union last Friday and a guest of his uncle, Attorney C. L. Graves.

One of the citizens and business men of Union has recently taken unto himself a wife and is now very cozily ensconced in their new home in Union and it is reported that another of the bachelors of this thriving village, seeing the happy home of those who have taken unto themselves a wife, will in a short time also join the ranks of the benedicts.

For a higher quality, more nutritious and finer flavored bread, we recommend "Lincoln Maid" brand bread.—O. J. Hathaway, Union, Nebr.

Bud Fitch and family were enjoying a visit at Old Rock Bluffs last Sunday? Our school is doing very good work. Help us keep growing.

There will be a class held on Saturday from nine until ten for the purpose of giving religious instruction to the children. This is somewhat different from the Sunday school lessons. Mr. Elliott will have charge of the work. Parents, see to it that your children are enrolled for this course. Next Saturday is the first meeting.

The Epworth League has been having some very interesting topics for discussion each Sunday night. There should be more young folks attend.

The Epworth League had a wienie roast last Friday evening in the orchard near Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Everett's home. A very fine time was enjoyed by all present and the picnic lunch tasted extra good eaten out in the open with a big bon fire near to give ample heat and light.

Don't forget the election day dinner and supper and bazaar held at the M. W. A. Hall. The best of eats and also a nice display of home made articles which are always useful. Tell your friends not to miss this affair. The ladies will appreciate your co-operation.

Messdames L. G. Todd and Ivan Ballfour were in attendance at the meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union at its county convention which was held last week at Weeping Water. They represented the society of Union at the county meeting.

Zola Eaton who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Hiram Shinn for the past week at Omaha, returned home last Saturday evening and was also accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Shinn who came to visit with the parents, Albert Eaton and wife.

A. Harding of the Farmers' Elevator company, was a visitor in Bethany for over Sunday and remained for Monday and while he was away Joe Dare looked after the business at the elevator and received corn from James Niday which was of an excellent quality.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis who have recently moved into Union from their farm south of town, are getting things straightened up and ready for living. The people of Union are welcoming this excellent family as new residents and are well pleased that they have moved to town.

Professor Hobbs of Nebraska City who is a very able instructor in hand practice and music, was a social visitor at Union and the meeting of the Union band last week and by his suggestions added much to their practice and pleasure in the progress which the young men are making in their organization and getting to the real work of making an excellent band.

Green Piggett and Mrs. Jennie Jenkins of Murray were in Union last Monday afternoon, coming to bring Daniel Draper to Kansas City who has been visiting at Murray with relatives and Mrs. John Sporer of Valparaiso, who is a sister of Mrs. Jenkins and Mr. Draper and who accompanied Mr. Draper home, they coming to Union to catch the Missouri Pacific flyer.

Uncle Wm. Wolfe, formerly of Union and well known by the citizens of Union and vicinity and who left here in 1885 and has since been making their home at Lusk, Wyo., passed away there on September 30. Mr. Wolfe and the family have been making their home there where they have been engaged in farming. Mr. Wolfe, who was 93 years of age, leaves his aged wife and two sons. They formerly lived on the farm where Herman C. Ross lives at this time.

Give Friends Pound Shower
The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lidgett and whose friends are hosts, coming from the fact that they are among the most excellent citizens and having its incipency in the Royal Neighbors of America, got together and consulted in the matter of giving their friends a surprise and so last Monday afternoon went to the home, east of town and surprised them and spent a pleasant hour with them and also added to the stores of the Lidgett larder by a shower of gifts and expressions of their appreciation of the true worth of this excellent couple.

Election Day Dinner
The Methodist Aid society of Union will serve dinner and supper and also have a bazaar at the M. W. A. hall on election day.

Anyone wishing to help either with the bazaar or dinner and supper may leave articles with any of the ladies on or before that day. All help will be greatly appreciated.

Visited in the North
Last Sunday, Mrs. D. C. La Rue and son, Lucian, and daughter, Miss Bessie, who is teaching near Murray, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Farrett of Omaha, drove to Randolph and Magnet and other points in the north where they visited for the day with friends and returned home the Sunday evening.

Bulls For Sale
I have two Holstein bulls for sale coming two years old.—E. E. Leach, Union, Neb.

Enjoyed Visit in Ohio
William Hamilton Mark was born at Springfield, Ohio, on November 20, 1860, where he lived and farmed until he was some twenty-three years of age and was engaged in working on a farm and in the dairy business and there learned to care for cattle as well as a farm and became at that time a most efficient judge of cattle. In 1884 he came to Nebraska to make his home and before for a short time lived at Jackson, Ohio. On December 28, three days after Christmas, Mr. Mark was united in marriage with Miss Mary Becker, they making their home on the farm and Mr. Mark farmed for some twenty-four years leaving the farm in 1912 and disposed of their farm and came to Union to make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Mark have just returned from a three months' visit in the east and while there attended the funeral of Dr. Sawyer, who was the family physician of President Harding and who was buried but a very short distance from his lifetime friend.
