O. J. Pothast and wife were spending last Wednesday in Lincoln, driving over in their auto, while E. L. Pothast was looking after the bank.

Mr. Blum, of the Grammar room of the Murdock school has been feeling quite poorly for the past few days and was not able to teach for a few days last week.

H. W. Tool, who will be a member of the new Shriner saxophone band, which is being organized in Lincoln was up Sunday (yesterday) to practice for the first time.

J. E. McHugh was looking after some business matters in Omaha on last Thursday, making purchases for the Murdock Mercantile company of which he is the manager.

W. F. Meyer and H. W. Tool, as soon as they shall have received their license again, will resume their amateur broadcasting, the call letters of their experimental station being 9EGJ.

H. W. Tool and W. P. Meyer were in Lincoln last Wednesday, where they went to look after some business matters and also where Mr. Tool was attending a Shrine meeting as well.

James Mills and father, George Mills, have just concluded the picking of their corn and considering the season they are very well satisfied with the yield and the quality is right.

Mrs. Edward Hempke and son, Harold, were visiting for a few days last week at the home of the brother of Mrs. Hempke, A. J. Keplin, of near Bennett, they driving over in their car for a visit of two days.

Mrs. Emil Rosenow, of Elmwood, was taken suddenly taken with appendicitis on last Tuesday and was taken to the hospital at Omaha, where she underwent an operation and since is doing very nicely.

Louis Bornemeier has completed the picking of his corn and was all cleaned up last Thursday evening, and has been busy as well moving the school house which he has had built over into a very fine chicken house.

The Pawnee school had a box social at the school house last Wednesday evening at which there was a large crowd present and all enjoyed the occasion as well as raising some money for the use of the school.

Herbert Firestone, the manager of the Farmers Elevator company, was a visitor in Omaha for a day or two last week, where he was in attendance at the grain dealers' convention which was held there during the past week.

Herman R. Schmidt and wife and a brother of Mrs. Schmidt and Mr. Eichler, who is here from Oklahoma, were visiting in Lincoln last Thursday, making the trip in their auto, and were looking after some business matters while there.

W. O. Schewe was a business visitor in Lincoln last Wednesday, going to look after some business matters and while there sold one of his very fine bulls to a party there, the purchaser coming after the animal on Thursday of last week.

Harry Smith, representing the Sinclair Oil company, with a station at Ashland, was a business visitor in Murdock last Thursday, looking after some business matters for the company which he represents, and delivering some gas and oils.

Gust and Harold Hempke were busy for a few days last week blasting logs which were left when the power transmission line cut large trees along the road where they were building. They were blasting the logs to split them to use for wood.

Victor Thimgan has been working in Plattsmouth for the past week or more and is liking his work with the crew of workers who are putting in the power transmission line from Plattsmouth to Lincoln. Victor will be with the power company for some time yet.

Little Winfred Lawton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Lawton, celebrated her ninth birthday anniversary with much eclat last Friday and had besides her little girl friends her teachers in the Murdock school as well. A most pleasant time was had by all present.

Fred A. Stock completed the picking of his corn last Tuesday and was quite well satisfied with it, as he had expected that it would be some short on account of the dry weather. The corn made him an average of 28 bushels to the acre. He also disposed of some 45 fine porkers to an Ashland dealer.

Ferdinand Wendt, who is making his home at Belmont, brought three car loads of the products of his farm to the east for sale, a car load of horses, which he will sell at auction at a point near Adams, a car load of hogs which he had shipped to Kansas City and a car load of potatoes, which he brought to Murdock and will offer them for sale here.

Messrs. Henry A. Guthman of the Bank of Murdock and Frances Neitzel, of Boise, Idaho, who is visiting here, were Klessey and Reese Hasting of Louisville have been spending a few days at the river north of Murdock, where they were taking an outing at Pawnee Lodge, and where they were hunting and there enjoyed an excellent time for a few days.

Frances Neitzel, of Boise, Idaho, is visiting for a short time in Murdock, and a guest at the home of his uncle L. Neitzel and H. A. Guthman and other friends, stopping here for a short time on his way home after having visited at South Bend, Indiana, where he went to be present at the football game which was played between Nebraska University and Notre Dame last week.

L. Neitzel and wife were visiting last Sunday at Havelock, where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hitchcock. Mr. Hitchcock is interested in the bank at Havelock which was robbed last week and had some $45,000 in securities taken which he is hoping he will soon be able to realize on them as the people will be careful not to expose themselves in trying to negotiate them.

W. P. Meyer installed during the past week radios at the homes of Gust Stock and Dan Panska and now has them connected with the rest of the United States, for they had installed machines which will reach over the entire country with the best of satisfaction and service. Mr. Meyer knows a radio from "A" to "Z."

That is, he knows what it means and will give the best of service.

W. O. Gillespie and wife were in Plattsmouth for a number of days last week. Mr. Gillespie being one of the regular panel on the jury for the district court and were excused Wednesday evening on account of the case which was then being heard was one not requiring a jury, they returned home on Wednesday evening to report again on Saturday.

When Mr. Gillespie returned to Plattsmouth on Saturday he was accompanied by Mr. A. J. Bauer, who was also looking after some business matters for the day there.

John Scheel was at Omaha on last Wednesday and visited his daughter, Alma, who has been recovering from an operation for appendicitis, and found the daughter doing very nicely, the mother going the following day to accompany the daughter home. Mr. Scheel while there found his old time friend, Henry Ahl, there recovering from the effects of a broken leg, which caused him to have to go there for treatment.

Newton Hazelbert, of Pittsburg, Pa., who was visiting in Lincoln and looking after some business matters stopped at Ashland, where he was visiting for a short time in Murdock with his cousin, W. T. Weddell. The cousin, who is in the banking business now at Pittsburg, was for 49 years and 8 months, within four months of being fifty years, and as his birthday came that much before he has worked the half hundred years, he was placed on the retired list, he passed his 70th birthday, and the rule is with the Pennsylvania railway to pension all employees when they arrive at seventy, who have served a sufficient number of years.

Getting the Line in Shape
The boys are getting the lines of the Murdock Telephone company in condition and are strapping some new wires for affording additional service and are getting the lines in good shape. They have had much extra work on account of the building of the power transmission line causing a change in the lines of the company. Kenneth, Lacey, Harry, Gust and Dick make a good team for the work and are keeping things on the move all the time.

J. J. Roberts Dies in Omaha
J. J. Roberts, who it will be remembered suffered a very serious injury by being crushed by a tractor with which he was working, and from which it was hoped that he might recover, was taken to the hospital at Omaha and on last Wednesday underwent an operation for the removal of one of his legs affected from the injury, after which he began sinking and during the night passed away. Mr. Roberts was an exemplary citizen and one of the representative farmers of western Cass county.

Buys Harness for the West
Last Wednesday Charles E. Cook, of Plattsmouth, and Will Spiltz, of Imperial, were in Murdock, and while here, Mr. Spiltz purchased a set of harness of A. J. Tool, one of those excellent ones which Mr. Tool is manufacturing, and said that he would need a number of sets like it, as they were away better and less expensive than the ones which it is possible to purchase in the western portion of the state.

Celebrated Birthday Thursday
Last Thursday little Dorothy Goerth celebrated the passing of her sixth birthday anniversary at her home and with a fine dinner prepared by her mother, Mrs. L. B. Goerth. There were present besides the family, the grandmother, Mrs. Geo. Vanderberg and son, Edward. The birthday was enjoyed very nicely by all present.

Will Visit the West

RECEIVES A JOLT

From Friday's Daily—
Yesterday the mills of justice operated by Judge William Weber were set to grinding and as the object of the grinding was a man giving the name of E. L. Kaufman and his residence as near Weeping Water. The defendant was found on Wednesday evening by Officer Clyde Jackson in what was claimed to be a state of intoxication and was taken to the city jail to rest for the night before he was sent forth to face the law for his shortcoming.

Judge Weber after hearing the testimony in the case and the plea of the prisoner decided that a fine of $10 and costs would settle the matter, which was accordingly placed on the prisoner and on his settling he was sent on his way rejoicing.

DID YOU GRAB YOUR SHARE OF THE COLLARS?

Washington, Nov. 16.—Five collars, approximately, for every man in the country were made last year. Census bureau's statistics of today show 15,590,662 dozen, or 187,087,568 men's collars were turned out in America in 1923. That included starched and soft collars made principally of cotton, and there also were some of celluloid, pyralin and paper. Their total value was $39,803,554.

HAD TO GIVE UP SCHOOLS

Matzen Tell Reasons Why Walthill Teachers Were Relieved of Their Duties.

In reply to an article in the Walthill Times criticising him for cutting off two teachers in rural districts State Superintendent Matzen said in each case there is failure on the part of the teacher to come up to the requirements of law for a second grade county certificate, a certificate issued by the county superintendent.

He explains that Mrs. Harold West, formerly Miss Wilma Wheeler, failed to come up to the requirements when she came to renewal of her second grade county certificate and there is no way by law whereby a certificate can be granted her. She has taught in Walthill school district, No. 9, south of Walthill two years.

The state superintendent says the law does not permit the issue of emergency certificate except where there is a scarcity of qualified teachers. There is a surplus at this time, he says.

In the case of Agnes Stanek, teacher in district 35, known as the Summers school, the teacher had no certificate. On examination her general average was lower than 80 per cent, the legal minimum.

The Walthill paper complains that the rulings of the state superintendent under the law are autocratic.

INDEPENDENT PARTY COMMITTEE POW WOW

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 20.—John Zahnd, chairman of the national independent party, today called a meeting of the party's national committee to be held here December 9, to reorganize and plan the party's activities for 1925. The party endorsed the La Follette and Wheeler ticket in the last campaign, but announcement is made in the call that "from this time on the party will not mix with other groups."

The members of the national committee, listed in the call include: Roy M. Harrop, Omaha, Neb.; N. Neilson, Fort Worth, Texas; Gladys C. McGuire, Elsinore, Cal.; Silas S. Bunn, Grand Junction, Colo.; H. G. George, Forest City, Ia.; D. R. Baldwin, Roberts, Mont.; and Mrs. Zahnd of Indianapolis.

LOYAL SERVICE CLASS MEETS

From Friday's Daily—
The Loyal Service class of the Christian church last evening entertained their husbands at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Tschert in honor of Mr. Tschert.

The evening was spent in playing games of all kinds and also in hearing a number of very fine readings by Miss Hilt that proved most delightful to all in attendance.

At a suitable hour dainty refreshments were served and much enjoyed. Those attending the event were: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stine, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Clark, Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Robb, Mr. and Mrs. Ranney, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stones, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Sydebotham, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Rhin, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hackenberg, Mrs. Jessie Woodward, Mrs. McCloy and two sons, Miss Virginia Robb, Miss Hilt, Cleo Stone and Mr. and Mrs. Tschert and daughter.

ENJOY FINE TIME

The Delta Dek club were very pleasantly entertained by the Misses Gladys Lash and Elleen Oeder at their home at 1207 Main street last evening. In the contests of the evening, Miss Marion Walker received the first prize and Miss Alice Waters the second prize. At an appropriate hour dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Thanksgiving will soon be here. Have you secured your Thanksgiving cards? The Bates Book and Gift Shop has a large variety to select from.

MAYOR SATTLER IS GIVEN A REAL PARTY SATURDAY

Friends From Omaha Visit Here and Give City Executive Reminder of His Birthday.

From Monday's Daily—
Saturday evening Mayor John P. Sattler was given a real surprise at his home on North Eleventh street on the occasion of his sixtieth birthday anniversary and the event will long be very pleasantly remembered by all of the party and the host in particular.

The larger part of the members of the party came from Omaha and their call was very unexpected to the general mayor, although the other members of the family were "wise" to feel that the "invasion" was planned by the Omaha friends of the family.

The mayor who has been one of the prominent residents of the city for the greater part of his lifetime, was given hearty well wishes by the members of the party and with the contents of the well filled baskets that had been brought by the visitors there was a feast fit for a king arranged and which was enjoyed by all of the party.

It was late in the evening when the members of the party departed for their homes, wishing the mayor many more years of success and happiness.

The diversions of the evening were in cards and a general good time, and with plenty of music to cheer on the musically inclined members of the party.

Those who enjoyed the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Bob Seaton, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Longmore, Mrs. James Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rymert and daughter, Dorothy; Mr. and Mrs. John Hatt, Mr. and Mrs. William Bloemer, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ash, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hauth, Emory Heston, Mrs. Grace Doyle, Fred Heston, P. T. Becker, Anna Lohmann, Lester Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lohmann and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Krecklow, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wagon, Mr. and Mrs. Jess F. Wagon, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Burdick, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sprecher.

NEW SON ARRIVES

From Tuesday's Daily—
There arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bartik, west of this city, yesterday a fine nine and a half pound son and heir, and being the first child in the family the little one has brought with it a great deal of joy and happiness. The mother and little one are doing nicely and the occasion has brought much joy to Fred and also to Grandpe Louis Born, Mrs. Bartik was formerly Miss Edna Born.
