feeling quite badly for the past few weeks and for a portion of the time was kept in bed, but is feeling somewhat improved at this time.

Mrs. D. C. West was a visitor at Lincoln where she was the guest of friends for the day, last Monday, and remained over for most of Tuesday as she returned Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Lalroy of Omaha, who has been working for some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Strum, concluded her work here and went to Council Bluffs where she is working at this time.

C. D. St John was looking after some business matters in Omaha on Friday of last week, and Monday of this week was at Union with a truck load of mill stuffs for the Union merchants.

L. J. Austin has been assisting in the work at the Fulton blacksmith shop, mostly shoeing horses caused by the extremely bad roads, which in a measure ruin the automobiles and trucks out of business.

There is to be a real interesting game of basketball in Nehawka on Christmas night, which will be between the boys of the Nehawka school and a team which will be selected for the occasion.

Henry Gruber is having a furnace installed in his home, and his partner, James Miller, are doing the work of installation. They are both excellent workmen and will see that it is properly installed.

Last Monday evening the A. O. U. W. lodge held their annual meeting at which they had eats, a general good time and elected the officers for the coming year. The officers will be reported later in this paper.

Miss Lena Barkhurst, auditor for the State Farmer's Union, was in Nehawka last Monday looking after the auditing of the affairs of the Farmer's Union Grain Company, who are also taking an inventory as well.

Uncle Z. W. Shrader is having some trouble with one of his eyes. Because of a particle of rust lodging in it. He was working with a barrel hoop, driving it into place, and as he struck it the rust flew into his eye.

Chalmer Switzer, who has been at Plattsmouth for the past two weeks installing a heating plant at the green house of that place, the Henry Jasper property, completed his work there and returned home last week.

R. Kettlenut, who some time since sustained a fracture of one of his legs, is so he can get out, but the getting is not the best. He walks to the wagon, with the aid of his crutches, and drives to town to see the doctor.

Rev. VanDyle, pastor of the Methodist church of Nehawka, was a visitor in Lincoln last Monday and unfortunate in missing the train for Lincoln on the Missouri Pacific, and was compelled to make the trip via Omaha, in order to get to Lincoln on Monday.

Roy Chriswiser was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Thursday, driving over to the county seat in his car to look after some business matters. He found the roads so very bad that they delayed him so he did not get his business transacted until late and therefore stayed over night.

Troy Shrader has been having some trouble with appendicitis, and has been compelled to keep in bed part of the time lately, but at this time is feeling some better. While he has been so he could not look after the work on the farm. Lester Wunderlich has been assisting in the work.

Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Sheldon were visiting with friends and also looking after some business matters in Omaha last Monday and Tuesday. They were accompanied by D. C. West of the Nehawka bank, they being taken to Union by Glen Whitman, and from there completed their journey on the train.

Henry Wessell, who has been having much trouble with the rheumatism for some time past, went to Nebraska City last Monday, where he expected to have one of his teeth, which has been giving him trouble taken out, as he feared the offending tooth might be the cause, to some extent, of the rheumatic pains.

Albert Stoll and son, Gilbert, who were down to South Omaha a short time since with stock, and remained here for corn picking, returned home last week in their car and arrived home to find the weather much colder than when they left with some 11 inches of snow on the level, but everything in fine shape otherwise.

James Stone, notwithstanding the very bad roads here, drove to Des Moines, where he went to attend a spotted Poland-China hog sale, which was held on Tuesday of this week. Mr. Stone had taken the precaution to telephone to Omaha and found that the "Great White Way" which runs east from Omaha was in good condition and so he went with his car.

Frank Boedeker, who is bank examiner for the eastern portion of Nebraska, and was at Beatrice the latter portion of last week, endeavored to get home, but was only able to get as far as Lincoln with his car, the roads being graveled that far, so he left the car there and came home for over Sunday on the train, returning on the early train Monday morning to take up his work again.

Will Develop Gravel Pit.
The gravel pit on the Weston place, which is owned by Frank P. Sheldon, and from which samples had been sent to the state offices for testing purposes, has been reported on as being all right and just the thing for graveling roads. This pit lies very close to the O street road and will afford an excellent opportunity for getting gravel when this popular thoroughfare shall be graveling, which is supposed to be the coming summer.

Basketball Game Postponed.
The basketball game, which was to have been played between Eagle and Nehawka, was postponed because of the very bad roads which prevented the Eagle team from getting here on the date. However, the teams of the Nehawka school will play with the Elmwood team this week.

HAS GUARDIAN APPOINTED

From Tuesday's Daily—
This morning in the county court Judge Allen J. Benson on hearing the request for the appointment of a guardian for James Lambert, of near Nehawka, appointed to the position George L. Farley, county commissioner, who will have charge of the affairs of Mr. Lambert in the future. Mr. Lambert is well along in years and has been in bad shape physically for some time and has had great difficulty in getting around and it is thought best to have him cared for at the county farm here where he can receive the proper attention. He has a small sum of money that may be used in his care.

NEW UNION POSTMISTRESS

From Monday's Daily—
The senate in executive session the past week named the nomination of several Nebraska postmasters and among these was the name of Mrs. Sarah I.
