LOSES SIGHT OF EYE

The many friends of Z. W. Shrader, one of the most prominent residents of Cass county, will regret very much to learn that Mr. Shrader is apt to lose the sight of one of his eyes permanently as the result of an accident that befell him a week ago Thursday. Mr. Shrader had a particle of metal lodge in the eye and while it was removed successfully at home the wound became infected and pained him for several days and finally on the advice of his family he consulted a specialist in Omaha as to the injury.

The injured eye had been allowed to go too long in the infected condition and the verdict of the specialist was that the sight of the injured eye had been almost destroyed and that there was very small chance of having the sight restored by a course of treatments. It is hoped by the family and friends that the injury may, after treatment, pass away, partially at least, and allow the use of the eye.

GIVE ENJOYABLE PARTY

One of the pleasant social gatherings of the holiday season was the bridge party given by Misses Irene Parli and Alice Waters on Thursday evening to a number of the young friends at their home. In honor of the rapidly nearing Christmas season the rooms were arranged in the red and green colors of the season and a fine and attractively trimmed Christmas tree occupied a place of honor and carried on it many remembrances for the guests of the evening and the distribution of which caused much merriment and fun for all of the members of the party.

In the bridge contests Miss Marie Boyd proved the most successful and was awarded the prize.

At a suitable hour dainty refreshments were provided that added to the enjoyment of all of the members of the jolly party.

WEDDING NEAR UNION

One of the pleasant home weddings of the holiday season occurred on Tuesday, December 16th, at the home of the bride's parents, a mile and a half north of Union, when Miss Fay Hansell was united in marriage to Mr. Ralph E. Pearsley, one of the well known young farmers of the eastern portion of Cass county.

The wedding occurred at high noon and the marriage lines were read by the Rev. C. L. Elliott, pastor of the Methodist church of Union, and the ceremony attended only by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends.

The bride was gowned in a very charming costume of tan alltynne crepe with very beautiful trimmings of the same shade that made a very striking wedding gown.

Following the ceremony the members of the bridal party enjoyed a very delightful dinner and a short reception to Mr. and Mrs. Pearsley, prior to their departure on the afternoon Missouri Pacific train for the north and where they will enjoy a honeymoon.

The bride and groom are numbered among the best known and popular young people of the vicinity of Union and both are graduates of the high school there, being members of the class of 1918. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hansell and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Pearsley, and both have spent their lifetime in this community and the bride has been a student at Peru for some time following her graduation from the Union schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearsley will be at home to their friends after January 15th at their home northeast of Murray.

The Journal joins with the many friends over this section of the county in wishing the young people a long and very happy life in the future years as they take up the journey of life together.
