Number of World War Veterans Who Have Made Application for Compensation Get Bonus

From Saturday's Daily—
A large number of the Plattsmouth world war veterans who have sent in their applications for the adjusted service certificates or the "bonus" as it is generally termed, were greeted this morning by receiving from Washington their official certificates that guarantee the payment to them in person on January 1, 1925, the full amount of the certificate or in the event of their death the payment at once to the beneficiary that they have designated the full amount of the claim.

The certificates have a loan value after a certain period of years, but for the amounts that can be secured the veterans are urged to hold on to their certificates and realize on the face value of them rather than take the chance of having to make a sacrifice on them.

The government very wisely has provided that the certificates are to be non-transferable and that they will be paid only to the veteran or his beneficiary.

In case of loans where the value of the amount borrowed is not paid, the officers of the Veterans' bureau are to pay the amount outstanding against the certificate and have the same returned to Washington by the party holding it as security, where the certificate is held by the government until the veteran pays the amount due or at maturity is paid less the amount of the loan that had been paid by the government.

While many have urged a cash compensation, these certificates assure to the veteran and particularly those of long service a very neat sum in the years when they may need it the most.

DISPUTE OVER A PLEDGE

Attorneys for the Nebraska Wesleyan university have filed with the supreme court briefs in support of their judgment in the Lancaster district court for $5,000 against the estate of Homer Griswold. During one of its endowment campaign Mr. Griswold signed an agreement to give $5,000 for the cause of Christain education payable at his death. His heirs are contesting the institution carry on the purposes for which it was created.

The fact that this pledge, with others, was not payable until death, would assist, they say, in getting necessary contributions for the running expenses from others. Mr.
Griswold's pledge was on the basis that it should go entirely into the endowment fund and that no part of the principal could be used for current expenses. This enters into the lawsuit as well as the contention that the pledge was not testamentary in character. The university attorneys insist that the question of sufficiency of consideration is to be determined not at the time the pledge was made, which was while the endowment campaign was on but when it is enforced.

Does It Pay?

Whoever thought of Robinson Crusoe as a successful advertiser? Yet he was, as history proves.

Now Robinson knew that he wanted a ship, and he put up an ad for one.
He hung up a shirt on a pole at the top of his island, and that in the language of the sea, was plain to every seafaring man.

The circulation was small (there was no other medium) but Crusoe kept at it persistently, despite the fact that one garment after another frayed out, and in the end he got what he wanted.

But had he taken down the signal after a time and declared "advertising doesn't pay," where would Robinson Crusoe and his history be to-day?

PLATTSMOUTH AD
CLUB HOLDS ELEC-TION YESTERDAY

Heads of the Business Men's Organization Are Named at Meeting Yesterday Afternoon.

From Saturday's Daily—
The Plattsmouth Business Men's Ad club at their session yesterday afternoon selected the officers for the year at the regular luncheon and meeting held at the parlors of the Methodist church, and despite the fact that the men who have headed the organization the past year were desirous of laying aside the burdens of their duties and favors passing the offices around, they were prevailed upon to once more aid in the conduct of the affairs of the club and to promote the best interests of the business life of the city and the general welfare of the community, in which they are co-operating with the Chamber of Commerce.

The officers re-elected were as follows:
President—C. C. Wescott.
Vice President—H. F. Goos.
Secretary—Roy W. Knorr.
Treasurer—Frank M. Bestor.
Executive Committee—E. A. Wurl, George Petring and John L. Tidball, Jr.

The club also voted to select W.
G. Kieck as the attorney for the club in matters that might require legal action and to take up the duties that have heretofore been looked after by Attorney A. H. Duxbury, who in his new position of county judge will be unable to handle the affairs for the club.

Of interest to the members of the club particularly was the decision to increase the fines of the club from 50c to 75c for non-attendance at the meetings in the future and which it is hoped will result in 100 per cent attendance except in the case of sickness or vital reasons for not being present.

The club has in its existence built up a very strong organization of the business men and particularly featured the monthly bargain days that have been in force for the past three years and have become an established institution in the city and one that the residents of the community look forward to with the greatest of interest every month. These sales are held on the third Wednesday of each month and the next one will fall on the date of January 21st.

GIVEN PLEASANT SURPRISE

From Saturday's Daily—
Last evening, Mrs. Clarence Cotner was given one of the most complete surprises that she has ever experienced and one that she will not long forget and which marked the passing of another milestone of her life.
Mrs. Cotner and her son had gone to Omaha on the early train and while she was absent the friends and neighbors started the conspiracy that had the surprise as its object and in this they were aided by Mr. Cotner.
The members of the Jolly party, some thirty in number, had gathered at the Cotner home with many baskets of the good things and presents for the guest of honor and awaited her coming. Mrs. Cotner arrived on the 9 o'clock Burlington train from Omaha and was taken to the house at once and on arriving there found the structure wrapped in the gloom of darkness and was wholly unsuspecting as she unlocked the door and started in and suddenly found herself surrounded by the friends shouting their greetings. It took the guest of honor some time to get back her poise after the real surprise and to enter into the spirit of the occasion.

SUFFERS AN ACCIDENT

From Saturday's Daily—
Mrs. R. W. Knorr was the victim of a very painful and unusual accident yesterday noon that will for some time give her an unpleasant reminder of the affair. Mrs. Knorr was working around the house and had occasion to go to the cupboard for some article and as she opened the door, the electric iron that was standing just inside the door, fell out and in falling came down on her foot, the pointed end of the iron striking the middle toe of the right foot and broke the bone of the toe.
The injury, while not dangerous, has proven very painful and will inconvenience the lady for a period of several days at least.

MOVING DAY NEARING

From Saturday's Daily—
The county court today is presenting a scene of more or less disorder as the preparations are on for the change in the office that is to occur on next Thursday when A. H. Duxbury takes over the office and Judge Allen J. Beeson retires from the bench after eighteen years of service.

The long occupancy of the office has brought with it the gathering of considerable property that is being transferred to the new office of the judge in the First National Bank building and Mr. Duxbury is also engaged in moving his effects to the court house to be installed in the office of the county judge.

When the moving day arrives both gentlemen will be ready to assume their new duties and responsibilities without any hitch in the proceedings.

LEAVES HOSPITAL

From Saturday's Daily—
The many friends of Henry Ahl will be glad to learn that he was able to leave the M. E. hospital last week and to be at home for Christmas, which he enjoyed very much with his family and friends. Mr. Ahl had the misfortune to break his right leg just below the hip, a few months ago, when he was driving in from the farm. His horse kicked him when he was trying to adjust some part of the harness along the road. His injuries seemed serious at the time, but his cheerful spirits and optimistic outlook certainly helped him through this very trying time and he is getting along very nicely. He can walk with crutches and we trust it will not be long before he can dispense with those aids.—Louisville Courier.

FORMER MURRAY
LADY IS VERY ILL
AT DENVER, COL.

Mrs. Vera Yardley-Claggett Suffering from Severe Attack of Ptomaine Poisoning.

From Saturday's Daily—
A message was received here yesterday from Denver announcing the very serious illness of Mrs. Vera Yardley-Claggett, daughter of Mr.
John Yardley of near Murray. The message stated that the young woman was suffering from a very severe attack of ptomaine poisoning and that her condition was very dangerous, with little hope of her recovery entertained by the members of her family there.

Mrs. Yardley, the mother, was taken to Omaha yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Georgia Creamer, aunt of Mrs. Claggett, and from that city the mother departed for Denver, where she arrived this morning to be at the bedside of her daughter.
Last evening Mrs. Creamer had a conversation with the relatives at Denver by long distance telephone, and the word received was not assuring to the family here and the many friends here are anxiously awaiting word from the Colorado city hoping that the patient may soon show an improvement and be able to rally from the attack.

NEW RECTOR OF ST.
LUKE'S CHURCH AR-RIVES IN THIS CITY

Father George D. Pierce of Washington, D. C. Will Hold the First Service Here Sunday.

From Saturday's Daily—
This morning, Father George D.
Pierce, new rector of the St. Luke's Episcopal church, with Mrs. Pierce, arrived here to take up the work in the local parish and to minister in this community the message of the Master and assist in the upbuilding of the church.

The new rector will hold his first service at the church Sunday morning at 7 o'clock with the celebration of the Holy Eucharist and will then address the members of the parish at the altar for their Sunday devotions.

Father Pierce brings to the charge here a very splendid personality and youth that should aid in the betterment of the church activities and place this church, one of the oldest in the city, in the forefront of the progressive churches of the community. The rector has been in charge of the Church of the Incarnation at Washington and was one of the ablest of the younger ministers of the church in the capital city. He is a graduate of Nashotah House, at Neshotah, Wisconsin, being a member of the class of 1922 and since entering the priesthood has had a very active career in the ministry of the gospel.

The citizens of Plattsmouth are joining in a cordial welcome to the genial rector and his wife and trust that they may find their stay in this city the most pleasant in their experience and that they may find ample return in the success of their service in the church and community.

MRS. PETER COON DIES
AT LOUP CITY, NEBR.

Mrs. Peter Coon, aged nearly 94 years, and who had a record of almost a half century in Nebraska, most of which time was spent in Cass county, died at the home of her son, Fred Coon, near Loup City, on New Year's day, and the remains arrived at Weeping Water on the midnight train Thursday. The funeral will be held at the Congregational church at Weeping Water tomorrow and interment made in the cemetery there.

Mrs. Coon was born in the east, and came to Nebraska over fifty years ago. She leaves a son in Manley, Mr. George Coon, and a number of other relatives, Mrs. Jennie Jenkins and granddaughter, Mrs. Elmer Pearson, all of Manley. Omar Coon is a nephew of the deceased.

The husband, Peter Coon, died in 1907 when the family was making their home in Manley after having retired from active farming operations. Mrs. Coon went to live at Loup City about four years ago, she having previously resided at Manley and in the country near there.

WEDDED LAST SATURDAY

From Saturday's Daily—
Last Saturday Mr. Joseph Rauth, of Manley, and Miss Alma Spangler, of Weeping Water, quietly slipped away from the maddening crowd and going to some place outside of the state of Nebraska, where they did not have to publish their intention for ten days, they secured a license and were united in marriage, coming home to surprise their friends.

This is an excellent young couple and both are well known to the people of central Cass county. The groom is a young farmer, hard working and prosperous, and the bride is the accomplished and winsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Spangler and a most popular young lady.

They will make their home in the vicinity of Manley, where they will engage in farming. The Journal, with their many friends, extends congratulations and best wishes for their happiness and success in life.

ENTERTAINS AT TEA

From Saturday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon Miss Catherine Schneider was the hostess at a most charming 5 o'clock bridge tea, which was given in honor of the young ladies who are here for the holiday season from the various schools over the country.

The home was most attractive in the Christmas decorations of red and green and which lent a very bright and pleasing setting to the gathering of young ladies.

In the games, Miss Helen Farley proved the most successful and was warded the first prize while Miss Violette Begley was given the second prize of the afternoon.

SUFFERING FROM GRIPPE

Ward Whelan, one of the employes at the Burlington shops, is now confined to his home suffering from the prevailing malady of the grippe and which has caused him a great deal of suffering and inconvenience and for several days he has had to remain confined to his bed. At last reports he was some better but still very weak and suffering from the malady with which he has been stricken.

CARD OF THANKS

In the hour of our deep sorrow and bereavement in the taking away of our husband and father, P. M.
Nord, we have received the tender and loving sympathy of our friends that has aided in the bearing of the burden of grief and sorrow, and for these, and those who so kindly assisted at the funeral services, we desire to express our heartfelt gratitude.—Mrs. P. M. Nord and Family.

Benefit Game For Joe Krejci Goes to Players of Old By Score of 25 to 15.

From Saturday's Daily—
Plattsmouth High school's old time basketball flippers proved too much for the present wearers of the Blue and White in the benefit game last night for Joe Krejci at the local gym. The fans who were out to see the game had the rare opportunity of seeing ten of the players who have battled for Plattsmouth High school during the last five years. The game netted $40 which will be given to Joe Krejci, star football and basketball player of the local school who was injured in the football game with Nebraska City last Thanksgiving, and added to the $50 already collected from the student body of the school and given to Joe, will make a very tidy sum for the crippled youth.

Manager Martin of the Alumni had two complete teams ready for action at the time of the starting whistle and alternated them every other quarter, which provided fresh players for the old timers every ten minutes and contributed somewhat to the defeat of the High school, but it gave them one of the best workouts they could have. The first team set in against Coach Rother's pupils proved the most effective and with the exception of Harold Malis was the same team that represented the High school in 1922, Howard and Harry Dwyer, "Buddha" Gradoville, Charles Hartford and Stuart Chase playing. The second outfit numbered among its players, Carl Ofe, Hilt Martin, Carl Schneider, John Settler and Russell Wasley.

The Alumni scored first and were always in the lead, but at times were hard pressed by the fast High school team and never lacked up at any time. There was a decided improvement in the High school's playing over the Sun game two weeks ago and they are beginning to show the earmarks of a real team.
