HAS CLOSE CALL FROM BEING SERIOUSLY GASSED

L. W. Lorenz Family Has An Experience That They Will Not Care to Go Thru Again.

The L. W. Lorenz family yesterday had an experience that they will not care to go through again and which has left effects that are still a painful reminder to the family of the narrow escape that they had of being seriously if not fatally gassed.

When Mrs. Lorenz arose yesterday morning she felt decidedly ill and a splitting headache made her getting around very difficult and at that time she thought that there were gas fumes in the house but was unable to get to the door and decided that perhaps she was mistaken.

THE PLAYS THE THING

Radio broadcast stations are turning from realism of music to dramatics the past few weeks and the innovation of WGY, Schenectady, more than a year ago, is being followed by mid-west stations.

HAS THE LION BEEN KILLED?

From Thursday's Daily—A report reached this city today that the now widely known lioness or panther that has been the object of more or less comment in Cass and Otoe counties, had been done to death by a party of hunters in the vicinity of Paul, Nebraska, last night after an all day hunt in that locality.

The mysterious animal that has been seen in all section of the two counties in the past ten days, it is claimed has at last become too bold and the residents of near Paul have been on the trail of the beast since Sunday and as claimed were able to lay low the erstwhile wild animal.

MILLION DOLLAR SNOW FALLS OVER STATE YESTERDAY

This Locality Has a Five Inch Fall of the Beautiful Which Will Benefit Wheat Crop.

From Thursday's Daily—Starting yesterday afternoon and lasting through the night the snow-storm in the eastern part of Nebraska brought a five-inch downfall of the beautiful snow that will prove of untold value to the wheat crop of this locality, the wisecracks predict.

The cold weather of the last few days preceding the storm threatened to do much damage but the heavy snow that is now lying packed over the fertile fields of Nebraska brings protection and moisture to the wheat lands.

The snowfall here and all along the Missouri valley was the heaviest of the season, but was a gentle, beneficial storm that did not carry with it the intense cold and high wind of the few days previous.

THEODORE HARMS, JR., ARRIVES

A fine, big ten-pound boy arrived last Sunday, January 23, 1925, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harms, of Manley, and the little fellow received the most hearty welcome.

EVOLUTION

Abraham Lincoln told in two sentences how the individual progresses from employe to employer. Here they are: "The prudent, penniless beginner in the world labors for wages for awhile, saves a surplus with which to buy tools or land for himself, then labors for himself another while, and at length hires another new beginner to help him."

WINS A PRIZE

Louis Born, one of the energetic farmers of the northern part of Cass county, has just received from Henry Fields Co., a prize which was given for the letter of Mr. Born stating how the best results could be secured on one acre of ground and the acceptance of the Iowa company.

TWO INTERESTING TALKS ON WORK OF EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Mrs. D. D. Tabor of New York and Miss Eleanor Sprague, Omaha, Address Episcopal Ladies.

From Friday's Daily—Yesterday afternoon the ladies of St. Luke's Episcopal church enjoyed two very fine talks given by Mrs. D. D. Tabor of New York, representing the national council of the women's organizations of the church, and Miss Eleanor Sprague, of Omaha, one of the leaders in the church school activities of the church.

The meeting was held at the pleasant Gering home on North Sixth street and was very largely attended by the ladies who enjoyed to the utmost the many interesting facts and details of the church work over the nation as presented by the two guests of honor of the occasion.

Mrs. Tabor gave, in a most pleasing manner, many interesting facts as to the growth of the activities of the women's auxiliary of the church and its helpfulness in the extending of the mission work of the church so that it was one of the strongest and most active of the church organizations in the spreading of the Christian faith through the missionaries to all parts of the world.

Miss Sprague has long been a familiar figure in the work of the church schools in the state and her address was very much enjoyed as she pointed out the need for the greater expansion of the church school activities in the training and teaching of the young who are a part of the church and in whom the church finds their future strength and power.

At the close of the afternoon dining refreshments served to add to the enjoyment of the members of the party.

POLICE CALLED OUT TO QUELL FAMILY 'FUSS'

Disturbance Caused When Husband and Wife Come to Blows and Damage Love Nest.

From Thursday's Daily—Last evening as Officer Joe Libershal was coming on duty he received a hasty call to South Fifth street where a family battle was in progress and was called by the wife who claimed to have received the worst of the affray.

The police when arriving at the scene of action found that the warfare had subsided but were shown sundry and divers marks and bruises that the wife claimed to have received in the encounter and in person she resembled one of the Prussian guard after the late quarrel in 1918.

The officer in compliance with the request of the wife, arrested the husband and took him to the city bastille to await the settlement of the case and the matter was this morning turned over to County Attorney W. G. Kieck to handle with his usual skill and diplomacy, as a family quarrel is about as dangerous as a devoted mother to her stepchildren, and the whole family are delighted to have a baby in the house and the many friends join the Courier in extending congratulations to the happy parents.

BURLINGTON OFFICIALS PASS THRU THIS CITY

From Thursday's Daily—This morning, Hale Holden, president of the Burlington railroad, and E. P. YOUNG PEOPLE ARE WEDDED AT COUNCIL BLUFFS

Miss Edythe Kelly and Mr. Emil A. Koukal of This City Joined in Bonds of Wedlock.

From Thursday's Daily—This morning at 9 o'clock at the St. Francis Xavier chapel at Council Bluffs, occurred the marriage of Miss Edythe and Mr. Emil A. Koukal of this city, the nuptial mass of the Roman Catholic church being celebrated by Monsignor McManus.

The bride couple was attended at the altar by Miss Marguerite McDonald, of Murdock, niece of the bride, and Mr. Louis Koukal of this city, brother of the groom.

Both the bride and bridesmaid were gown'd in tan canton crepe and carried showers of Bronte roses and presented a very attractive picture.

The groom and best man were attired in the conventional dark suits.

Following the wedding ceremony at the chapel the members of the bridal party were entertained at a most charming wedding breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. O'Neill, uncle and aunt of the bride.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kelly of this city and was born and reared in Plattsmouth and where she was graduated from the high school with the class of 1918, and since made her home here in this city.

NEXT 'HAPPY HUNDRED' FEED FEBRUARY 10TH

Event of the Monthly Suppers Arranged by the Chamber of Commerce Announced.

From Thursday's Daily—The committee in charge of the Happy Hundred suppers, composed of E. H. Wescott, L. O. Minor and G. W. Morgan, are announcing their next gathering as Tuesday evening, February 10th and the occasion will be held at the parlors of the First Methodist church.

There will be a very able address given as well as the many other interesting social features that add pleasure and interest to the gathering and the ladies of the church will have their usual excellent menu arranged to care for the inner wants of those who have not made reservations to do so as soon as possible in order that the lists may be completed as there is only a limited number of the seats available and these will soon be snapped up.

RECEIVES PLEASANT NEWS

From Friday's Daily—This morning the relatives received a message announcing the fact that a fine little son and heir had been born to Mr. and Mrs. Anthony E. Svoboda at the St. Joseph hospital at Denver, Colorado, on Wednesday, January 28th. The mother and little one are both doing nicely and the occasion has brought a great deal of pleasure to the relatives of the little man in this city.

MEN'S CLUB HAS A VERY FINE SOCIAL EVENING

Episcopal Church Organization Meets at Undercroft of Church and Entertained at Rectory.

From Friday's Daily—Last evening the members of the Men's club of the St. Luke's Episcopal church held a very pleasant meeting at the undercroft of the church with a very pleasing attendance of the membership and an evening of the greatest interest and pleasure was enjoyed by all of the members of the party.

The rector of the church, Father George D. Pierce, gave a very interesting sketch of some of the early Christian history covering the original Christian church and down to and including the division of the church into two parts and later the redivision at the time of the reformation and later dates when the smaller churches were formed by the main churches of the Christian world.

Following the discussion which was enjoyed by the members following the address of the evening the men were invited to adjourn to the rectory where they found a most delectable and pleasant dinner had been arranged by Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. R. F. Patterson, Mrs. J. T. Beckley and Mrs. P. H. Dunbar, who, with Edward and Herbert Patterson, proceeded to serve the members of the Men's club with very dainty and much appreciated refreshments of sandwiches, cakes and coffee and after a short time of pleasant informal sociability, the members adjourned voting the occasion one of the greatest pleasure and in anticipation of the many equally pleasant events in the future.

ATHLETIC CLUB MEMBERS SHOW OFF FOR PUBLIC

Business Men Entertain at Games and Exercises for the Benefit of Parent-Teachers' Ass'n.

From Friday's Daily—Last evening the high school gymnasium was again with the cries of the excited members of the Business Men's Athletic club as they battled several volley ball games for the benefit of the Parent-Teachers' association of the Central building of the city schools.

The large number who wended their way up the high school hill were more than repaid for their efforts by the excellent entertainment afforded.

The opening of the program was when the members of the club in response to the snappy command of William G. Kieck, instructor of the class, fell into their places and started the exercises that are a part of their weekly toil and by means of which they keep themselves fit and retain their youthful forms and figures.

FILES SUIT FOR DIVORCE

From Thursday's Daily—In the office of Clerk of the District Court Clarence L. Beal there has been a suit for divorce entitled John W. Whiteside vs. Cecile Whiteside. In the petition of the plaintiff as filed by his attorney, W. A. Robertson, it is stated that the parties were married on March 8, 1922 at Omaha, and that in July 1922, the defendant, deserted the plaintiff and has since resided away from him. The defendant is a resident at this time of Marshalltown, Iowa, and service by publication is asked.

UNDER PEACE BOND

From Friday's Daily—Yesterday on the request of County Attorney W. G. After the filing of the bond the defendant was allowed to go on his way.

WILL ATTEND AUTO SHOW

From Friday's Daily—George K. Peiring of the Plattsmouth Motor Co. departed this afternoon for Chicago where he will spend a short time looking over the auto show there, one of the greatest exhibits of the automobile industry held in the nation, and from Chicago he will go to Detroit for a meeting and conference of Ford and Lincoln dealers that has been called by the great Ford company.

The visit to Detroit will be marked by a visit through the Lincoln and Ford factories where the members of the visiting party can see every part of the cars prepared and placed into service and gain a thorough and complete understanding of the auto industry from the bottom up. In addition important conferences will mark the meeting covering the problems and plans of the great industry for the coming year.

OLD TIMER HIKING THRU TO SOUTH

Aged Man Claiming Sioux City as His Home Reaches Here on Journey to Arkansas.

From Friday's Daily—This morning an aged man, giving his name as S. E. Whittiker and his home as Sioux City, Iowa, arrived here on his way southward and had made the journey this far by the foot method and for several hours he stated that he had come from Sioux City, walking part of the way and getting rides from passing auto drivers along the way until he reached Omaha where he had a daughter living but he had then decided to push on to Arkansas where he has another daughter residing and it was with this object in view that he came southward and reached the confines of Plattsmouth last evening as the day was closing and made his quarters for the night at the Missouri Pacific station escaping the rigors of the cold winter night and after the night there had started out on foot and progressed as far as the Briggs home when he decided to stop and feed up.

The man was taken to the court house where, after a conference of the officials, it was decided to provide him with transportation to the next county seat on his way southward as being a cheaper proposition than having the man remain here and by means of the railroad transportation escape the cost that was threatened in having Mr. Whittiker remain as the guest of Cass county.

POVERTY BALL A SUCCESS

From Friday's Daily—Last evening the Eagles hall was the scene of a very pleasant social gathering on the occasion of the poverty ball staged under the auspices of the local council of the Knights of Columbus and during the entire evening the floor was filled with a great many of the young and old alike who were out to enjoy the excellent music furnished by the Holly orchestra. There were a number of the dancers competing for the prizes offered for the most poverty-stricken costume and in this James Bull received the prize for the gentlemen and Mrs. Edward Fullerton for the lady's prize.
