ENJOY PLEASANT TIME

From Wednesday's Daily—

Last evening the Y. M. B. C. of the Methodist church enjoyed a very pleasant time at their rooms in the basement of the church that was attended by some thirty of the class members. There was a pleasant diversion in the evening by the class enjoying a visit from Rev. Paul Calhoun of Council Bluffs, who had spoken earlier in the evening at the Happy Hundred and gave the members of the class a snappy ten-minute talk on every-day problems. Captain Ruthledge also favored the members of the class with several delightful vocal selections that gave his audience a rare treat.

"ON THE CORNER"

CLOSING SUPPER OF HAPPY HUNDRED GANG

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH PARLORS SCENE OF DELIGHTFUL GATHERING.

SINGING SOLDIER BOY HERE

Captain Ruthledge of Fort Crook One of Features of Evening—Rev. Calhoun, Speaker.

From Wednesday's Daily—

The second year of the "Happy Hundred" suppers, the winter monthly gatherings of the men of the community, was brought to a close last evening at the parlors of the Presbyterian church in one of the most pleasant of the two year gatherings.

The ladies of the church, who arranged the toothsome repast, also looked after the preparation of the settings, which were in keeping with the near approaching St. Patrick's season. Green candles on the tables with streamers of the green and shamrocks added to the decorative scheme.

The committee this time had departed a little from their usual program by having as guests of the evening four of the surviving veterans of the Civil war, who sixty years ago had laid away the blue which they had so nobly worn on the battlefield for the republic. The four present were Thomas Glenn, Illinois; Thomas Wiles, Iowa; Asbury Jacks, Indiana, and John Flight, Wisconsin.

After the greetings and the starting of the supper, Mr. Glenn sang one verse of "Marching Thru Georgia," while the audience joined in the chorus. The hard working committee also was given a salute and while Guy Morgan was absent, E. H. Wescott and L. O. Minor were called upon to stand and receive the greetings.

President Davis of the chamber of commerce was also given a hand by the auditors for his excellent work in promoting the pleasant gatherings in the past. Mr. C. C. Wescott also gave a short tribute to the work of Mr. Davis in advancing the interests of the Happy Hundred.

William F. Evers, superintendent of the Nebraska Masonic Home, was also called upon to respond by the toastmaster and gave in his usual pleasing manner a straight matter of fact talk on some of the things of the Home affairs, that were real eye openers to the members of the supper party. The Home has in the past year expended $6,390 for food-stuffs, which provided 53,903 meals at an average cost per meal of 12 cents. The total expenditures of the Home had been $20,064.83 and of this $15,159.19 had been spent with Plattsmouth people. In the five years that Mr. Evers has been superintendent the expenditures have been $298,271.89.

There was a most pleasing diversion in the usual program of the evening in the presence of Captain Ruthledge, U. S. A., who favored the members of the party with a group of songs, "A Dream," "I'll Wake You Home Again, Kathleen," "The Roseary," and, later, at the earnest request of the audience, "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes" and "Sweet Little Woman of Mine." Captain Ruthledge has a voice of more than usual beauty and the selections given were admirably suited to the sweet voice of the singer. With the Plattsmouth audience Captain Ruthledge has won a real warm spot and they are trusting that in the future he may again be with them.

An unexpected ally greeted Searl Davis, who had donned the cap and bells of the jester for the evening, when after the introduction, the speaker of the evening, Rev. Paul Calhoun of Council Bluffs, gave him several well planted thrusts that were more than appreciated by the audience.

The address of Rev. Calhoun was given with fire and eloquence and a rare dramatic art that made his theme even more interesting, holding spellbound his audience as he journeyed with them through the ruins of the once great Egyptian civilization that now is marked only by the monuments strewn along the reaches of the Nile. This civilization, as the speaker pointed out, had once dominated the known world, but was marked today by only the marvelous monuments in the land of the Nile, the tombs of kings and the traditions of the past. Why it had failed was because of three virtues, none of which were possessed by the leaders of the great nation, Faith, Loyalty and Heroism. The Egyptian people today as in the past lack faith in themselves and in their leaders and lacking faith were without loyalty. These qualities were essential to any nation or any people to endure and without them even the great nation of our own might blight and die, because of these there was no moral leadership or character in ancient Egypt or in the modern nation. The heroism of the soldiers on the battlefield in face of cannon mouth and death was admirable, but there was today in time of peace an equal heroism in fighting the battle for clean manhood and clean womanhood over this nation. The call was today for clean men and women to repulse the villainess that was creeping into the national life and destroying the best in the life of the country. As Egypt had lacked those great virtues, the speaker urged his hearers to possess them in their own lives to aid in the preservation of the nation.

During the course of the evening the supper party welcomed Mr. Rea, the new manager of the light company here and bid Mr. Kepler in permanent farewell wherever place he might decide to locate.

The question was put by Mr. Davis as to the future of the Happy Hundred supper and it was decided by unanimous vote that they be continued in a series of six suppers the next season.

MRS. MARTHA AHRENS WINS DIVORCE CASE

Case Involving Well Known Nehawka People Attracts Very Much Attention.

From Wednesday's Daily—

The action of Mrs. Martha Ahrens vs. Enno Ahrens, which was the center of attraction at the court house yesterday, was brought to a close at 6 o'clock when, after the argument, Judge Begley rendered a decision finding for the plaintiff, Mrs. Martha Ahrens.

The court in his findings gave the decree of divorce as prayed for, the custody of the minor children, $200 in permanent alimony, $150 in attorney's fees, $30 per month for the care of the children, for the plaintiff, as against the defendant, and also taxed the costs of the case against the defendant.

The case had been warmly contested and much testimony brought out on each side of the dispute that was heard by a crowd that filled the court room. There was a very large number present from Nehawka, near where all of the parties reside, and the audience evinced the greatest interest in the story of the troubles and tribulations that had wrecked this household were revealed in the testimony.

The plaintiff was represented in the action by Attorney W. A. Robertson and Attorney W. G. Kleck.

FIRE AT H. N. DOVEY HOME

From Wednesday's Daily—

This morning at 11:30, the residence of H. N. Dovey and family at Fifth and Oak street was discovered to be on fire and by the prompt work of the fire department the blaze was extinguished but not until considerable damage had been done the roof.

The family were at the noon day luncheon when neighbors came to the door and informed them that the roof of the house was in flames. The department was called and at once responded but in the very short time required the fire had gained considerable headway and it was only by the efficient work of the fire department that the blaze was gotten under control.

There will be quite a loss to the north portion of the roof as the shingles were burned and a portion were required to be torn off to check the spread of the flames.

Mr. Dovey and family feel fortunate that the fire was no worse and grateful to the firemen for their prompt work that checked the blaze and saved the home.

The cause of the fire is unknown but is supposed to have been from sparks.

SMALL FIRE LAST NIGHT

From Wednesday's Daily—

The fire department was called last evening to the west portion of the second ward where a small frame residence on West Oak street was reported to be on fire. The house, known as the Osborn place, was very badly damaged as the blaze traveled rapidly over the small structure and soon gutted the place. The fire department was able to check the blaze but not until a great deal of damage had been done. The cause of the fire was unknown.

DISCUSS BASEBALL SITUATION IN THIS CITY FOR THIS YEAR

Members of Team of Last Year and a Few Interested Fans Take Up Matter of Team.

From Friday's Daily—

Last evening members of the baseball team of last year which was one of the best that the city has had to represent it in a number of years, as well as a few interested fans, gathered at the home of Peter Herold which had been placed at their disposal for a meeting place, and there discussed the possibilities of a team for this year.

The team has to face the fact that was self evident last season, that out of a population of 4,800 there are practically about 100 who are strong enough for a baseball team to give them patronage at the games and which of course means that a team in this city playing good ball would be wasting their efforts when there are so many opportunities of securing good playing dates elsewhere. In the games played here last season the receipts would not exceed $15, which would hardly pay for the trouble of practicing and could not even pay the expenses of the visiting teams from Omaha or nearby points. The largest crowd of the season was on July 4 at the free game when there were some 1,500 present but this did not help maintain the team for the playing season.

With these facts in view to be considered and also the fact that the ball park which the citizens so loyally created a number of years ago is fast going to rack and ruin, the team as far as playing in this city is concerned has practically closed the book as its uselessness is apparent.

There is some very good baseball material here and it is hoped that some of the smaller towns that are boosters for the great American pastime, may be induced to take up the formation of the team in which the Plattsmouth players may work and enjoy the sport—otherwise the team will operate in playing independent ball, for self preservation staging the games at some other point than here.

The loss of the baseball park here is a matter of regret to a great many of the Plattsmouth people who were instrumental in the work of raising the funds and erecting the fences, grandstand and bleachers that made the park one of the best in the state and on which many of the best amateur teams of this part of Nebraska have appeared. The bleachers have long since gone and only a few planks remain where once they stood, the fence leans crazily at all angles while the grandstand, weakened by age and neglect, is about to peacefully join the wreckage of the bleachers. The diamond has long since given up the struggle and resembles more the shell-pitted battlefields than anything else.

It probably will be only a short time until the last survivor of the one time ball park will be the gentle-eyed boyhood of John Cory, and the community will not be called up to worry over the rude and brutal sports of baseball or football and those who wish to enjoy these popular sports can do so by hiring themselves elsewhere.

APPOINTMENTS SPECIAL COUNSEL

From Wednesday's Daily—

In the district court yesterday afternoon appointment was made by Judge James T. Begley of F. N. Prout of Falls City, as special assistant to County Attorney W. G. Kleck in the cases of the State of Nebraska vs. Carl D. Quinlan and the State of Nebraska vs. Carl G. Fricke, both of which are to be tried at the March term of the district court. Mr. Prout is former attorney general of Nebraska and one of the leading members of the bar in southeastern Nebraska.

GIVES MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

There was a very pleasant social gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harm Klemme on last Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Frank McCormie. There was a very large number in attendance and the occasion enjoyed to the utmost by all of the party.

During the evening an informal program was given by the members of the jolly party, Miss Gladys McCormie offering several piano numbers, while the ladies quartette also sang a number of selections. To add to the fun and frolic of the occasion the members of the party enjoyed a mock wedding that was a feature of the evening and provoked the greatest laughter.

Mrs. McCormie is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wes Hill of near Murray and her visit in the old home has been enjoyed to the utmost by all of the members of the party.
