Cunningham, who has been living at King hill south of Rock Bluffs, for the past two years, where he has been running a saw-mill, moved, this week, to his former home at Nehawka, having quit the saw mill business as there was getting scanty of logs that were fit for lumber for the purpose for which he was sawing.

If you wish to drive dull care away attend the performance of "Always in Trouble," at the Peterson hall on Saturday evening. It is vaudeville and a fine dance after the show. Don't miss it.

There will be an entertainment given under the auspices of the Christian church of Murray and in which there will be a special feature by the blind youth, Clites, who is attending the institute for the blind at Nebraska City, but whose home is in Omaha. To Chicken Raisers.

Blessed are ye, who live on the farm. With your big flock of chickens where they do no one harm.

But if you live in town. Don't let your chickens run. Don't blame your neighbors if they don't all come home.

For those who have gardens. Through work and toil, Don't plant their stuff. For chickens to spoil.

I'm sure there is no one. Who wishes another any harm. But to raise chickens at large, You better move to the farm.

PEOPLE ARE GROWING BETTER SAYS OFFICIAL

Secretary Wilbur Sees Improvement from a Religious Standpoint, He Tells Conference

Annapolis, Md., April 6.—The peoples of the world as a whole are getting better from a religious standpoint, Secretary of the Navy Curtis D. Wilbur declared here tonight in an address before the laymen's association of the Baltimore annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Secretary Wilbur said the religious aspect could not be judged adequately without some standard of measurement, yet, he said, the clamor about barbarism that marked the beginning of the world, gradually abated as the people realized that each of the nations involved was struggling for some ideal regarded as great.

Mr. Wilbur gave it as his opinion that the people of the present generation do not have the reading of the Bible as in the old days; that long prayers that made for a standard of life have been much shortened and home work is almost abolished. Yet, on the other hand, he said, people of all countries are steadily gaining a wider knowledge of God; that there is something more significant in the fundamental attitude of love of God and man is showing a more loving affection for the infinite.

VON HINDENBURG DECLINES TO MAKE RACE

Berlin, April 5.—General Von Hindenburg tonight definitely declined to run for president, according to reports received from Hanover, where the former commander-in-chief now lives in retirement.

The aged field marshal, national hero of the world war, had been asked to become the presidential candidate of the parties of the right, or nationalist bloc, against former Chancellor Marx, choice of the constitutional parties.

His "no" was given to a nationalist committee which called on him today. Efforts to induce Von Hindenburg to change his mind continued but if these fail it is believed that the right bloc will nominate Jarres—who led the nationalist votes in the recent election—who would run with the strong endorsement of the field marshal.

Miss Mary Wehrlein was a visitor in Omaha today to spend a few hours at that city visiting with Mrs. Ida Tritsch at the St. Catherine's hospital where she is taking treatment.

WALSH SAYS PROPAGANDA BOOSTING MELLON PLAN

Washington, April 6.— Propaganda to force the Mellon tax revision plan through congress at the next session was declared by Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana, today as responsible for a large part of the criticism now being directed against congress, particularly the senators.

He declared that friends of the "Mellon plan," foreseeing opposition in congress and especially in the senate, were attempting to excite and solidify public sentiment in support of the program by raising the issue that congress encroaches upon the prerogatives of the administration and is not as representative of the public will as the president.

These charges he emphatically denied, insisting that congress was responsive to the will of the people. The senate, he predicted, would not be "intimidated" by any such methods "into enacting any tax legislation which it did not approve."

E. A. Lorenz and little daughter, Emily, were among the passengers this morning for Omaha where they will spend a short time looking after some matters of business.
