Prepared Exclusively for The Journal.

When you are wanting papering Elliott.

Mr. James F. Wilson, who has been visiting in Lincoln for a short time, returned home last Sunday.

Sheriff E. P. Stewart was a visitor in Union last Saturday, looking after some legal business while here.

B. E. Everett of Nebraska City was a visitor in Union last Saturday looking after some business matters for the day.

Clarence W. Plaischman of near Nehawka was a visitor for a short time looking after some business matters.

Paul Applegate was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Monday called there to look after some business matters for the day.

Miss Catherine Ellis of Weeping Water, sister of Mrs. Ellis LaRue, was spending the week end with her sister in Union.

Mr. Curd McCarthy of Nehawka was a visitor for the day last Monday and a guest of his brother, Mr. F. H. McCarthy while here.

Messrs. W. B. Banning and Vincent Straub were looking after some business matters in Denver last Friday to Tuesday of this week.

Col. W. R. Young, the auctioneer of Plattsmouth, and a royal good fellow as well as the best of an auctioneer, was looking after some business in Union last Monday.

Fred W. Smith of Plattsmouth was looking after some matters in Union last Monday, driving down in his car, and looking after some matters for the Plattsmouth Motor Co.

Louis Schumaker was a visitor in Union last Monday both in the morning and afternoon hauling corn and purchasing Soudan grass seed for sowing for a pasture at his home.

Ellis LaRue and wife and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Keedy were attending services at Nebraska City last Sunday, and also enjoying the ride as the roads were in fine condition.

Henry H. Becker has been sawing lumber at the home of Carl Balfour, and in three days was able to produce some 12,000 feet of lumber and has some weeks sawing yet to do.

Elmer McCowan and family were down last Friday, and, as Mr. McCowan was very busy, had to return the same day while Mrs. McCowan and the children remained until Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Luxford and daughter, Mrs. Dewey Christenson, both of Council Bluffs were spending last Sunday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Luxford, where all enjoyed the visit very much.

Mrs. J. M. Patterson and children were visiting at Plattsmouth last Saturday, they driving over to the county seat in their car and were guests of Mrs. Patterson's father, Mr. Joseph Fetzer, while there.

W. H. Marks and wife were visiting with friends in and near Nehawka last Sunday afternoon being guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Chappell where they drove with the car for a very pleasant visit during the afternoon.

George Wray formerly of Union, but who has been with the Missouri Pacific at Ralston for some time, was a visitor here last Sunday and a guest at the home of his son, Troy Wray, and wife, they all enjoying the visit very much.

Clifton D. Smith and wife and Mrs. W. B. Banning were visiting in Plattsmouth, where they attended the Methodist church services during the morning and also stayed for the services at the Christian church in the evening.

See C. L. Elliott for paper hanging, he is ready and will do it right.

A15-2sw Mrs. L. G. Todd entertained the members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union at her home last Tuesday, and where a most worthwhile program was given, as well as the ladies having a fine time during the social hour and a delightful luncheon before leaving.

Messrs. Ira Clarke and Bruce Wolfe are at this time constructing a boat, which they will use for hunting and fishing when completed, and from the looks of the craft we would judge it will be a good one for the purpose our judgement regarding boats this is confined mostly to the Ford.

John W. Banning, the lumberman from Alvo accompanied by Mrs. Banning, was visiting in Union and neighborhood last Sunday, they being guests at the homes of Mrs. Henry W. Banning and Henry O'Donnell for a short time to visit with others.

Lucian LaRue was a visitor in Omaha last Friday and Saturday where he sang at the Empress Theatre, on Friday evening, and again at the broadcasting station, WOAW, on Saturday evening. Lucian is indeed an excellent singer and with practice is getting better every time he appears.

Miss Alma Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson, who is attending school at one of the principal hospitals in Omaha, is making good progress with her work, and while she is desirous of getting down home for a short visit with the folks the work is such that it is difficult to get away.

Roy Garrens, while working with H. H. Becker, assisting in sawing lumber, had the misfortune to get one of his feet mashed in such a way that he has been put out of commission for the time being. The young man is getting along nicely but it will be some time before he will have the unimpaird use of his injured foot.

W. L. Taylor of Omaha was a visitor a number of times in Union last Monday, he hauling corn from the McCathey elevator to his home at Nehawka where he is using the same for feeding. The matter of getting the corn necessary for feeding purposes is one which is at this time puzzling many of the feeders notwithstanding the highness of the cereal.

DEATH OF AGED LADY OCCURS AT UNION LAST WEEK

Mrs. Margaret McKnight, Aged 90 Years, Dies at Home of Her Son, D. C. LaRue.

The death of one of the oldest residents of Liberty precinct occurred on April 15th at Union, when Mrs. Margaret McKnight, who has made her home with her son, D. C. LaRue and family, passed to her last reward after a life of sterling worth.

Mrs. McKnight was born in the state of Illinois on March 13, 1835, and was reared in that pioneer state to womanhood. At the time of her birth the development of the nation had only started and the most wonderful inventions and discoveries that have since made it the greatest nation on earth were not even dreamed of by the wisest visionary.

At that time Andrew Jackson was just closing his second administration and the great Lincoln was entering public life in Illinois.

The deceased lady was one of the very early settlers in southern Cass county and here her first husband, Lon Creeley, passed away and was buried near Avoca. The son of this marriage was later married by a family named LaRue and reared to manhood by them and has since made his home in this county where he is known as David C. LaRue.

After the death of the first husband, the widow was married to Lon Pervinus and the family continued to reside in this county. Two sons, Jesse Pervinus of Los Angeles, and Harry Pervinus of Mitchell, South Dakota, are also living to mourn the loss of the mother.

For fifteen years, Mrs. McKnight, who had married the third time, made her home with her son, Harry Pervinus, near Mitchell and four years ago she came to Cass county to reside with her son, D. C. LaRue and family at Union and has since resided there, known and loved by a large circle of warm friends who most sincerely mourn her passing.

The funeral was held Friday from the home and conducted by the Rev. W. A. Taylor and the interment was made in the cemetery west of Union.

W. C. T. U. MEETING
From Tuesday's Daily—
The ladies of the W. C. T. U. enjoyed a very pleasant meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. C. Wesscott and the event was attended by a very large number of the members and the greatest interest shown.

The meeting was in the nature of a patriotic gathering and the members pledged their allegiance to the flag and the enforcement of law as represented by the 18th amendment to the constitution. Child welfare was also discussed by the ladies and the program was one in which all joined very heartily in carrying out.

Mrs. G. W. Goodman was elected as the county secretary of the young people's branch of the W. C. T. U. work and gave a few remarks on the work in the county that was much enjoyed.

During the afternoon the ladies enjoyed a very pleasant piano duet by Misses Marjorie and Bernese Ann and also a vocal number by Miss Bernese who was accompanied at the piano by Miss Marjorie.

At the close of the afternoon very dainty and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess that added in making the occasion one of the rarest pleasure to all of the members of the party.

THINGS QUIET AT COURT HOUSE
From Tuesday's Daily—
The last few days have been ones of the greatest quietude at the Cass county court house aside from the routine work that keeps the clerks and officials busy and the occasional visitor that darkens the doors of the county government building is a decided sensation. The courts have failed to echo to the ringing notes of the attorneys for many days and the deth of litigation has been very pronounced, from either the general profferance of judgments or the settlement of their differences out of court. Judge Duxbury is anticipating a rush in the next month, however, in his matrimonial department and will be on hand to assist any of the young people that are seeking into the great matrimonial handicap.

FILES SUIT IN COURT
From Tuesday's Daily—
This morning a suit was filed in the office of the clerk of the district court entitled Paul Applegate vs. Applegate, et al. in this action the plaintiff, through his attorney, Allen J. Beeson asks that the trusteeship in the estate of Leroy Applegate, who deceased in 1909, be determined and the shares of the heirs at law be determined and adjusted.

FUNERAL OF J. W. BLACK

From Monday's Daily—
The funeral services of the late J. W. Black were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of William Newland on Lincoln avenue and were very largely attended by the friends and neighbors of many years standing of the deceased.

The services were conducted by the Rev. Walter R. Robb, pastor of the First Christian church, who gave words of comfort and cheer to the bereaved family and the friends who had known Mr. Black in his many years of residence in this city. During the service B. A. McElwain and Frank A. Clotz gave two songs that had been such favorites of the departed, "Jesus Savior Pilot Me" and "Just As I Am." At the close of the service the body was borne to Oak Hill cemetery where it was laid to the first Christian church, who gave words of comfort and cheer to the bereaved family and the friends who had known Mr. Black in his many years of residence in this city.
