

5 YEARS SUFFERING OVERCOME BY KARNAK

Lincoln Woman Gives Amazing Facts. Remarkable Power Of New Medicine More Evident Every Day.

Day by day the amazing health-building powers of Karnak, the sensational new medicine on sale here, is more evident.

As an instance of what Karnak will do, the experience of Mrs. Mabel Christiansen, of 1101 S. 33rd St., Lincoln, Neb., is given just as she tells it:

"While I was in the drug store today eleven people bought Karnak, and I don't wonder that it is so popular with everyone since it has been so wonderful in ridding me of all my troubles," declared Mrs. Christiansen.

"For the past five years I suffered from stomach troubles in its worst form," continues Mrs. Christiansen. "I couldn't eat a morsel without suffering agony for hours afterwards. Gas pressed around my heart so terribly I often thought I had heart trouble, and I would have awful headaches and weak, dizzy spells. My sleep was so nervous and restless I just dreaded to see night come, and it just seemed like I could find nothing that would help me a particle.

"But this wonderful Karnak has just ended my troubles completely. I have gained in weight and never felt better than I do now. I found the Karnak Pills splendid for constipation, also. I am just like a different person in every respect, and I am so happy to be well and strong again that I want to tell everyone about Karnak."

Over 500,000 bottles of Karnak sold in four states in ten months."

Karnak is sold in Plattsmouth exclusively by F. G. Fricke & Co., and by the leading druggist in every town.

HEAR INSPIRING ADDRESS AT BANQUET

REV. W. E. ROBB, SOLDIER-SHERIFF-PREACHER, TALKS TO THE MEN'S CLUB

URGES OBEDIENCE TO LAW

Well Known Des Moines Divine Tells of the Need for Home Training in Obeying the Law.

From Wednesday's Daily—

Last night a party of some 119 men of the community followed with the closest attention a most inspiring address that was given at the banquet at the First Christian church and at which the orator of the evening was the Rev. W. E. Robb, chaplain of the 168th infantry of the Rainbow division of the A. E. F., sheriff of Polk county, Iowa, and minister of the Christian church in the state of Iowa.

The banquet was given under the auspices of the Men's club of the First Christian church and was the largest in the point of attendance and interest that the men have staged.

The ladies of the church had prepared a real feast of chicken pie that served as the opening feature of the pleasant evening and to which all of the members of the party did ample justice. The tables were very handsomely arranged and furnished a pleasing part of the evening's entertainment.

The invocation was asked by the Rev. C. L. Edwards of the United Brethren church of Maynard as the members of the party were seated around the festal board.

Not the least of the pleasing features of the evening was the program of music furnished by the Up to Date Tuneweavers, an orchestra of this city composed of Mrs. Helen Upp, Pauline Parker, Paul Vandervoort, Mathilde Olson and Jack Ledgeway, which was of a very high type and drew much applause from the members of the banquet party. Miss Mathilde Olson also gave a very pleasing whistling solo as a part of the evening's musical offering.

The members of the banquet party led by Manfred Drake also gave several of the old familiar songs that were very much enjoyed.

The banquet was presided over by Herman Thomas in his usual pleasing manner and in his introductory remarks for the various speakers he was very clever.

The Plattsmouth male quartet, composed of Frank A. Clodt, Raymond C. Cook, Lynn O. Minor and

B. A. McElwain, gave a number that was greeted with great enthusiasm and an encore. Minor responded with a very pleasing bass solo.

To add to the variety and interest of the evening, Miss Evelyn Robb, the accomplished daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Robb, gave her reading "Jimmy Under the Table," which was awarded first prize at the state high school contest at Lincoln.

The Rev. S. R. Bradley of Weeping Water, who is leaving his charge in the next few weeks, was called upon and gave a few words of praise for the work of the men of the church and the lines of his future work in the educational field of the church.

The Weeping Water male quartet composed of Cyrus and Harrison Livingston, Clyde Jenkins and Harold Harmon, with Mr. Harmon at the piano as accompanist, gave a most enjoyable number and later in the evening, Mr. Harmon, who has a very beautiful voice, favored the company with a solo number.

The speaker of the evening took as his subject "The Meaning of Greatness," stressing man's measure of his obedience to authority, divine or civil. As an illustration the former army chaplain took the example of a hammer that could strike a 2,000 pound blow on a bar of iron and could under the guidance of an expert hand crack the shell of an egg. The control of great forces of nature and of man was dependent on the obedience to the will of the Almighty.

One of the deplorable features of the present day, Rev. Robb pointed out, was the fact that in the past year 180,000 of the youth of the country were confined in the prisons and penitentiaries of the nation. From his own personal experience, the speaker related of taking 300 men to the Iowa state penitentiary from Polk county alone. He related the fact that all of the state prisons were overflowing and still crime was on the increase. This was because of the fact that the spirit of law obedience was lacking in the teachings and life of the people of the land.

He urged the home training of the child as one of the responsibilities of the father and mother, to teach the child that was forming character of the sacredness of law and its necessity for having the obedience of the every citizen in the land.

The Rev. Walter R. Robb was also called upon for a few remarks and expressed the feeling of appreciation of the class of the assistance that the Plattsmouth people, not members of the class, had given in making the banquet a great success.

The members of the banquet party gave special recognition to Sidney Bradley of Bedford, Iowa, father of Rev. S. R. Bradley, who was in attendance and also Dr. C. K. Cotner of Bridgeport, Conn., the audience standing and giving them a real salute.

The banquet was pleasantly closed by the benediction by the Rev. Frank Emory Piont of the First Methodist church.

There was a very large attendance of the members of the church at Weeping Water to enjoy the event of the banquet.

CITY HAS FINE RAIN

From Wednesday's Daily—

Last night shortly before 12 o'clock the city was visited by the first real summer storm of the season and what a relief it was.

The duration was one that did a great deal of good to vegetation of all kinds. The rain storm was preceded by quite a heavy electrical disturbance and also some hail but not sufficient to cause any serious damage.

The rainfall from the hills sweeping down into the main section of the city caused a noticeable flow of water along Main street which cleaned off the paving in fine shape and freshened up the general appearance of the business section.

South of this city at Murray, very little rain was reported while north and west of Plattsmouth the rainfall seems to have been heavier than it was here.

During the most intense part of the storm the street lights were out of commission caused by the electrical disturbances on the transmission lines and this added to the severe aspect of the storm as the skies veiled in heavy hanging clouds were revealed only in the flashes of lightning.

GIVEN PLEASANT SURPRISE

From Wednesday's Daily—

Mrs. George W. Goodman, matron of the county farm, west of the city, was given a most delightful surprise last evening when a large party of ladies from Weeping Water visited the farm and tendered her a wholly unexpected greeting. The ladies had accompanied their husbands to this city where the gentlemen were to attend the Christian church banquet and the ladies arranged to enjoy a few hours visit with Mrs. Goodman.

The time was spent in visiting and also in participating in a fine picnic supper that was appreciated to the utmost by all of the members of the party. After the supper the ladies motored to the Christian church and enjoyed the addresses at the banquet. Those who were here were: Mesdames Bert Reed, Earl Towle, Clyde Jenkins, S. R. Bradley, Harrison Livingston, Cyrus Livingston, all of Weeping Water, and Madame Bradley of Bedford, Iowa, mother of the Rev. S. R. Bradley.

DEATH OF MRS. FRED S. RICE OCCURS TODAY

Passes Away at the Family Home on Wintersteen Hill After an Illness of Some Duration.

From Wednesday's Daily—

This morning Mrs. Fred Rice passed away at the family home on Wintersteen hill following an illness covering several months and in which she has been gradually sinking despite all that medical skill and loving hands could do to prolong her life.

The deceased lady was formerly Miss Anna Bulin, born and reared in this city and where she was married several years ago to Mr. Rice. She has suffered the bereavement of the parents and a number of the brothers and sisters who have preceded her to the better world. To survive her death there are, the husband, two brothers, James and Joseph Bulin of this city and one sister.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

LIKES THE SOUTH FINE

From Wednesday's Daily—

Mrs. S. E. Kerr, one of the old residents of the city, who has been spending the past winter at Houston, Texas, with her son, Merritt Kerr and family, writes to the Journal ordering the daily edition of the paper sent to her that she may keep in touch with the old time friends. Mrs. Kerr is not certain as to when she will return to the north as she is having a real time in the south and enjoying very much the sights and hospitality of the southern city.

She states that Houston is a very fine place and one that has a great deal of natural beauty and with a great many places of interest to visit. Mrs. Kerr was planning to visit San Jacinto battlefield, twenty miles southeast of Houston, as the roads in that section are of the very best and makes opportunity for many ideal outings.
