ORDERED OUT OF CANADA

Buffalo, N. Y., July 8.—The Buffalo Evening News today prints a story by a staff correspondent which said that the correspondent and a photographer were ordered out of Canada by Canadian customs men and were instructed to destroy photographs taken in Port Colborne, Ont., of rum smuggling operations. The story said that within the last twenty-four hours more than twenty boatloads of liquor shipped from Port Colborne have landed in Buffalo and vicinity. Two of the three photographs taken were destroyed, the story says, while a third was concealed and brought back to Buffalo. It showed a cabin cruiser being loaded with alleged whiskey.

The Canadian officials objected to the presence of the reporters and photographer on the ground that they entered Canada as tourists when they were there for commercial papers, they said.

JUDGE ROBERT EVANS DIES WEDNESDAY AT LINCOLN HOSPITAL

Judge of the Supreme Court and Well Known Masonic Leader Answers Last Summons

From Thursday's Daily.— Judge Robert E. Evans, 69, formerly of Dakota City, Nebraska, member of the Nebraska state supreme court died in Lincoln at 5:35 a. m. Wednesday, following an illness of several weeks. Death was due to cerebral hemorrhage.

Judge Evans has been a well known figure in politics and of the Nebraska bar. He represented the Third district in the Sixty-sixth and Sixty-seventh congress. He was a delegate to the republican national convention at Chicago in 1912. In the election of 1918 he defeated Dan Stephens, of Fremont, in the congressional race and in the 1922 contest he was defeated by Edgar Howard, of Columbus, and returned to the practice of law at his home in Dakota City, Neb., where he remained until his election to the supreme judgeship.

He was prominent in Masonic work over the state. He was grand master of the Masonic lodge of Nebraska in 1901 and 1902. He was grand patron of the Order of Eastern Star of Nebraska in 1900 and 1901.

Judge Evans was born at Coalmont, Pa., on July 15, 1856. He was the son of Levi and Mary (Keith) E. Evans. He attended the State Normal school at Millersville, Pa. in 1876 and the Indiana Normal school in 1883 and 1886. He received the L.L.B. degree at the University of Michigan in 1886. On January 27, 1887, he was married to Annie M. Burket, of Altoona, Pa.

He later took up the machinist's trade. From 1877 to 1883 he lived in Colorado. He was admitted to the bar in Michigan in 1883. He resided in Pennsylvania in the same year, and in Nebraska in 1888 and at a later time he was admitted to practice in United States courts.

He settled at Dakota City, Neb., in 1887. He was superintendent of the Winnebago industrial school from 1889 to 1891. He was county attorney of Dakota county in 1895 but resigned from this position.

Judge Evans was judge of the eighth judicial district of Nebraska from 1895 to 1899. He was a member of the Nebraska State Bar association of which he was president in 1919, and of the American Bar association.

He was affiliated with the Methodist church and was a delegate to the quadrennial conference of the church at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., in 1915. His home was at Dakota City, until he came to Lincoln a few weeks ago to take up his duties in the supreme court.

Judge Evans had served but six months of the six year term to which he was elected from the Third district last year. Under the constitution whoever is named as his successor will serve out the remainder of his term, five and a half years. The governor is given the sole power of appointment to fill the vacancy. Usually a person appointed to fill a vacancy in an official position serves only until the next election. In the case of supreme judge vacancies, however, the constitution provides that the appointment shall be for the unexpired term and until a successor shall be elected and qualified. Judges are now elected from districts and there is no election in the Third district until 1930. The office pays $7,500 a year.

While there are of course, no applicants for the vacancy at the present time, the fact that the judge's condition has been hopeless from the beginning has led to considerable speculation among lawyers. Governor McCullen thought so highly of Judge John C. Martin of Merrick county, which is in the Third district that he drafted him for one of the supreme court commissioner places, and this has given rise to the idea that he may promote him now that a vacancy has occurred. Other men whose names have been mentioned are W. P. Warner of Dakota City and W. L. Dowling of Madison. There are also several district judges in that section who are regarded as of supreme court judge stature.

In the history of the supreme court bench a number of members in the court have died in service. Later years this list has included Judge Conrad Hollenbeck of Fremont, Judge S. H. Sedgwick of York, Judge Albert J. Cornish of Lincoln, Judge Chester H. Aldrich of David City and Judge F. C. Hamer of Kearney.

LOST

Friday evening July 3, about 7:45 p. m. two miles south of Plattsmouth, Nebraska on King of Trails and Washington highway, Brown travelling bag, also an army raincoat.

Brown travelling bag contained various articles of wearing apparel for 5 year old girl, my wife and myself, also contained other articles which I can readily identify to any one. People in a Chevrolet car were seen to pick this bag and raincoat up and if they will get in touch with me at Kenwood 1677 Omaha or write me at 3718 Meridith Ave., Omaha, or leave same at the Journal office in Plattsmouth, Nebraska a liberal reward will be given and no questions asked.

The carrier on the running board of our car came loose and this bag and raincoat fell out in making the turn in the road at this particular place.

Banker W. J. Rau has been in sore straits with a very bad carbuncle on one of his knees which has put him in a position that he could not get around for some time, but Mrs. Rau was looking after the business at the bank.

Herman Rauth and wife, accompanied by the father, J. C. Rauth, and Miss Anna Rauth were enjoying the Fourth at Plattsmouth last Saturday afternoon and remained for the fireworks during the evening. They were particularly taken with the water fight as the day was very hot and just right for such an entertainment.

Sure the world looks bright and it is bright and a most pleasant place to live, and especially for Uncle George Cain and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lawson not all on account of the son who has recently come to make his home with the family, but this has much to do with their feeling just about right at this time.

It Is Now Judge Humble

The city of Manley has arisen to the distinction of a town with a court, and by the way they would be well pleased to have more of this nature, as A. H. Humble has been furnished the books necessary for the conducting of a court of justice. Judge Humble will look after the legal business which may come before him in the most approved manner. We are sure he will be a terror to evil doers.

Campaigning for Business

The Missouri Pacific is at this time campaigning for business, they having felt the pinch of competition with the various truck lines, and they hold this is what causes the higher freight rates. They claim they are required to run their trains all the time, whether there is business or not, and that when they take the worst end of the traffic or long hauls, they are entitled to the better business as well, which is the local shipments. As an enthusiastic supporter of the institution which furnishes him an opportunity to make a living, the local agent, A. H. Humble, is rustling for business for his company, and this he should do. There is a merry fight on at this time for the business and we believe all should line up with the proposition which will be for their own best interest in the long run.

Enjoyed Seeing His Friends

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Humble were attending the Fourth of July celebration at Syracuse last Saturday and while there witnessed two very fine ball games, one of them being between the Syracuse and Burr ball teams. Burr was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Humble for a number of years, when he was agent at that place, and they met many of their old time friends and enjoyed the day at Syracuse very much.

Buys a Trip Hammer

In order to facilitate the business, J. A. Lenard, the Manley blacksmith, has purchased and installed at his shop a trip hammer for the purpose of better caring for a line of business for which this machine is suited. He will now be in better position to look after the business which comes in increasing quantities to his place of business. There is a reason for the increase in business, as he is doing the best of work, and is there always, giving the best of service to the public.

The school census shows there are 3,285 children of school age in this district.
