JUNE WAS AN UNUSUAL MONTH

More Than Ordinary Amount of High Temperatures, Rain, Sunshine and Wind.

From Saturday's Daily—

The month of June just past, according to a summary of weather and crop conditions issued by Thomas A. Blair, meteorologist, was characterized by excesses in temperature, precipitation, sunshine, and wind velocity, and deficiencies in cloudiness and humidity.

The month averaged cooler than average in the northwestern section, and warmer elsewhere, the excess being largest in central and southern counties. Maximum temperatures ranged from 93 degrees to 101 degrees in northern, central, and eastern counties, and from 109 to 105 degrees in southwestern counties. They occurred on the 14th and 29th in the eastern part of the state and on the 30th in the western. Minima ranged from 49 to 55 degrees in the eastern half of the state and from 34 to 59 degrees in the western, and occurred on the 10th or 29th in northeastern counties, and on the 9th in southeastern and central and on the 5th in western.

The monthly precipitation was more than four inches in the eastern, northern, and western parts of the state and less than four inches from Holt county southward and southwestward to the state line. Amounts ranging from six to eight inches were recorded in some southern counties.

BOOST BRIDGE AND NEW HIGHWAY PROJECT

Cass County Communities Feel That Bridge Over Missouri River Advantage to Them.

From Saturday's Daily—
Supporting the proposition advanced for the erection of a free wagon and auto bridge over the Missouri river at this point, the various communities of Cass county are getting back of the movement.

The first of the active support to be received by the proposition is that advanced by the Weeping Water chamber of commerce at its meeting this week and which includes the movement to have the Harding highway located on the Cass county roads as well as the more southern highway.

The highway now ends over in Iowa on the direct line east, the Missouri river offering a barrier to the extension of the highway directly west on account of the lack of the auto and wagon bridge at Plattsmouth. For this reason the highway has been routed south and crossing the river at Nebraska City where there is a bridge for traffic although it is a toll bridge.

Now our neighboring city is favoring the crossing of the highway here at Plattsmouth, thence south to the state highway through Murray, west from that place to directly north of Weeping Water, then south through the fine little city to the O street road. This would make an ideal route and take the traveler through the main sections of Cass county and its two principal cities, giving the autoist a vision of the great farms of this section which produce part of the crops that feed the United States.

To make the highway itself thru here would be a very easy matter, as it would really require only the improvement of the road from Glenwood to the river, the stretch from the ferry landing to this city, as the paving in Plattsmouth and the graveling of the road into Murray would give all hard surfaced highway. The graveling of the state road from Murray west to the O street road is the matter of only a short time, making the highway hard surfaced that far thru the county. With the live and public spirited citizens of Weeping Water, it would be an easy matter to have the gravel extended south from the state highway to Weeping Water and the O street road, completing the link of fine, up-to-date road.

To stimulate the continuance of the Harding highway through this section it is highly important that the boosting for the auto and wagon bridge over the Missouri be continued which would unite two of the most prolific agricultural communities in the west, Cass county, Nebraska, and Mills county, Iowa. Let the communities that are interested in this matter get busy and boost the proposition that it may be made possible and that the bridge may be secured.

This place is the logical point for another crossing of the Missouri river, lying between Omaha and Nebraska City and affording the residents of the very thickly populated Iowa and Nebraska a crossing that will not require them to go miles out of their way and which connects up the K. of T., the George Washington and the Red Ball highways with the highways across the state of Iowa.

DELIGHTFUL MID-SUMMER TEA.

From Saturday's Daily—
Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock, Miss Delores Wiles entertained some thirty young ladies at a mid-summer tea at Oakland farm, the pleasant country home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wiles.

The tea was served to the guests on the lawn which made a beautiful setting for the jolly party who greatly enjoyed the shade of the large pines and oaks which with the garden flowers tended to make the occasion more enjoyable.

The young ladies enjoyed two songs, "Roses of Picardy," and "Rose Marie of Normandy," sang by Miss Catherine Schneider, Miss Helen Wescott at the piano. Later the guests danced to the strains of Randall's Royal orchestra, playing from WAOA or enjoyed the coolness of the porch or lawn.

Miss Delores and Mrs. Wiles were assisted in serving by Mrs. Glenn Wiles, Miss Sylvia Noble and Eleanor McCarty.

The invited guests were: Misses Kathleen Troop, Mary, Ruth and Jeanne Tidball, Catherine Schneider, Helene Perry, Sylvia Noble, Violette Begley, Mildred Cron, Hazel Mumm, Eleanor McCarty, Helen Wescott, Helen Wurl, Ethelyn and Ella Margaret Wiles, Edith and Helen Farley, Marguerite Wiles, Helen Valley, Elvera Born, Evelyn Robb, Martha Gorder, Alice Louise Wescott, Ursula Harold, Ruth Shannon, Merna Wolf, Helen Wiles, Helen and Virginia Beeson and Mary Warren.

METHODIST AID SOCIETY

From Saturday's Daily—
The aid society of the Methodist church will meet on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the church parlors. Mesdames S. A. Barker and Frank J. Morgan will be the hostesses. Five of the piano pupils of Mrs. Kittle Cummins Roberts, will be heard in recital at the meeting. All members are urged to be in attendance and the public is cordially invited.

A believe-it-or-not from Dayton, Tenn.: A news dispatch states that when the news photographers prepared to make pictures of the scene in the court room, Mr. Bryan seized his hat and held it in front of his face.

BATHING BEACH OPENS

The residents of Murray, who were here today, announced that the bathing beach just east of that place which has been closed so far this season, would open tonight in all of its glory and permit the residents of this section to enjoy the delights of the relief from the heat in the splashing water of the pool. The management of the pool have just arranged for installing of some very much needed equipment that will aid in the purification of the water and bring the swimming pool up to the highest standard. The pool was one of the popular attractions in this part of the state and extensively patronized when it was in operation the past two seasons and the bathers will be glad to learn that it will be open for service. The pool is not entirely full but will be ample for the use of the devotees of swimming.

"GET SET" FOR BARGAIN WEDNESDAY THIS WEEK

Careful Shoppers Find That Trading in Plattsmouth Means a Saving in Time and Money.

The careful shopper well knows that the best of satisfaction is secured where a personal inspection of the articles purchased can be had, where there is the buyers own experience and skill to determine the value of the goods as well as the hearty cooperation of the home merchant to assist in the selection of the goods desired.

This is one of the reasons that the monthly bargain days held in Plattsmouth each month have proven such real opportunities for the shopping public. The shoppers have been able to take advantage of prices as low as can be found anywhere for good, dependable merchandise and advantage that they have the personal inspection of the goods before they buy.

On this Wednesday the Plattsmouth merchants are again offering another of the monthly sales days when the large stocks of seasonal merchandise in all lines, clothing, novelties, shoes, groceries and special lines such as ladies ready to wear in all lines are offered at the lowest market prices to the customers.

A visit to the stores of Plattsmouth is convincing to the most doubtful as is shown by the fact that those who have come here from distant points in the past are coming back each bargain day to take advantage of the real money saving opportunities that are offered by the local merchants. The stores of the city will be open Wednesday from 8 a. m. until 10 p. m. and the proprietors and clerks are ready to give their patrons the courtesy and careful treatment that makes trading in Plattsmouth a pleasure as well as profitable.

Remember the date of the big sales day this Wednesday. Secure your list of bargains offered by the Journal advertisers and you will find real offerings at the lowest prices and backed by the merchants who are broadcasting their wares through the means of the printed page—the modern method of reaching the shoppers of the community.

FORGER IN THE CITY

From Saturday's Daily—
The report has reached the office of City Attorney Capwell of the operation of a forger in this city, who has been engaged in canvassing the city with a patent can opener, the list of bargains offered by a number of householders. The article that was sold is similar to those sold in local stores and was offered to the housewives at a considerable price over what they were being retailed for in local stores.

The forger's part of the deal came to light today when a check, which was made out for $9 on the Farmers State bank and on the order of C. C. Barnes, the name of the maker of the check being given as B. E. Wiles. The check was endorsed by C. C. Barnes, the writing being in the same hand as the face of the check, and later the name of M. O. Edwards was endorsed on the check.

The check was cashed at the store of H. M. Soennichsen and sent out in the course of exchange to the bank where it was found that it was worthless and apparently a forgery. The city attorney is desirous that all householders when they find any of these workers out in the resident section notify the police that the matter can be looked into. Simply by getting in touch with central and asking for the police will get the results desired and the police gladly respond day or night.

AGED MURRAY MAN STRUCK BY A BURGLAR

A. H. Graves, Aroused Last Evening at Home by Burglar, Suffers Injury From Blow.

From Saturday's Daily—
Last night A. H. Graves, one of the old time residents of Murray, was the victim of the assault of a burglar that had invaded the peace and quiet of the Graves home.

Mr. and Mrs. Graves had retired for the night and after several hours Mr. Graves was aroused by a strange noise in the house that quickly brought him from slumber, as it seemed the movements of some person in one of the rooms adjoining his bedroom.

The aged man arose to investigate the sound and as he came to the door of the bedroom to try and locate the noise, he was struck on the head with some instrument that for a moment dazed him but did not knock him down. Blood flowed freely from the injured head of Mr. Graves and the burglar evidently growing frightened at his murderous assault on the aged man hurried to make his escape from the scene.

As soon as Mr. Graves collected himself he secured a light to investigate the scene of the burglary but could find nothing missing from the house.

The burglar had secured entrance through a window, removing the screen and as the window was up for ventilation, made an easy entrance to the house.

Sheriff E. P. Stewart visited the scene of the burglary and assault but there was no trace that might lead to the identification of the invader of the peace and quietude of the Graves home.

It is thought that the crime was committed by some hobo that had drifted into Murray while traveling along the railroad and had come out to try and raise a stake by the burglary route.

Mr. Graves is still feeling the effects of the blow which was fortunately not severe enough to cause a fracture of the skull or concussion of the brain, the prowler in the dark apparently being unable to gauge his aim sufficiently to knock out the aged man.

CASS COUNTY YOUNG MAN IS MARRIED

Wedding of Miss Florence M. Griess to Mr. William McCrory Occurred Wednesday at Harvard.

From Saturday's Daily—
The marriage of Miss Florence M. Griess of Sutton, Nebraska, and Mr. William M. McCrory, former Elmwood young man, occurred on Wednesday, June 15th at Sutton, Nebraska, announcements received here by friends state.

The marriage of these two popular and well known young people occurred at Harvard, Nebraska, and was the culmination of a romance of the university days of the two parties, both having been students at the University of Nebraska and very active in the life of the university during their stay there.

The bride is a graduate of the University School of Music and has since her graduation, been largely engaged in the musical work in her home community where her splendid work has won her recognition. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Griess of Sutton.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. McCrory of Elmwood, and was graduated from the University of Nebraska in the class of 1923. In his senior year he was captain of the baseball team of the university and very active in the athletic work of the state school. He is a member of the D. U. fraternity and was in service during the world war.

The young people will make their home at Arapahoe, the coming year, where Mr. McCrory is engaged in teaching in the public schools of that place.

The many Cass county friends join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. McCrory success and happiness in their new home.

Another reason we don't expect the Dayton trial to settle anything very definitely is that one of the jurors who can't read is asked to pass judgment on what shall be taught in the schools.

ARREST CHICAGO MAN FOR AUTO LAW VIOLATION

Ernest Plumbeck, Claiming Chicago as His Home Arrested at Eagle Yesterday By Constable.

From Saturday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon, Sheriff E. P. Stewart was called out to Eagle to investigate the case of a man arrested there earlier in the day by Constable William Norris, better known as "Two-Gun Bill," on account of his exploit in routing the would-be bank robbers there some time ago.

On the arrival of the sheriff there he found Ernest Plumbeck, claiming Chicago as his home, as being the man under arrest, the charge pre-vehicle law. The man had come to Eagle driving a car without a license plate and number as is required under the law of the state of Nebraska, the car not even bearing the proper Illinois registration plate.

Mr. Norris placed the man under arrest and on the arrival of the sheriff the prisoner was turned over to him and brought on to Plattsmouth and placed in the jail over night.

The prisoner states the car is his and that inquiry at the office of the secretary of state of Illinois will bear him out in this statement.

At the office of County Attorney W. G. Kieck this morning it was thought that complaint would be filed against the man, who, if he pleads guilty, will make necessary the securing of the Eagle constable as a witness and may delay the hearing.

COLONEL W. S. MAPES IS KILLED IN DENVER

Colonel W. S. Mapes, formerly of Fort Crook, and recently commanding officer of Fort Logan, Colo., was instantly killed in Denver in an auto accident Thursday evening.

His brother, C. B. Mapes of Omaha, and Mrs. Mapes, with their daughter, Mrs. Floyd Warren, and Mr. Warren left Friday night for Denver.

WEEPING WATER CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETS

The Weeping Water Chamber of Commerce met last Tuesday for their midday lunch at the Johnson Hotel, where they were served with an excellent dinner, for the purpose of discussing topics of the day.

They made plans for better roads leading into the city. They also appointed a committee to confer with the Plattsmouth Commercial Club, to the end that the Harding Highway might be brought from Plattsmouth via Murray, over the Red Ball highway to north of Weeping Water and thence through Weeping Water to the "O" street road and thence on south and west as is being discussed by those having in hand the construction of this highway.

MRS. STREIGHT ABOUT SAME

From Saturday's Daily—
The reports from the Clarkson hospital in Omaha today were to the effect that the condition of Mrs. William J. Streight, who has been at that institution for some time, was unchanged. Mrs. Streight was operated upon Thursday and rallied nicely from the operation but it will be several days yet before her case will offer any definite change for the better.

HORSEHOERS TURN TABLES

From Saturday's Daily—
Last evening the clang of the horseshoes was heard on high school hill where the residents there who are followers of this sport, gathered to repulse the invasion of the dwellers from the first ward, John Iverson and Homer Shrader, who had won a very striking victory Thursday from the Hilltoppers.

Last evening the west Main street Hilltoppers reversed the situation, and scored on their foes, George Sayles and Ed Becker, both of whom are recognized as among the best of the shoe hurlers in the city, were able to snatch victory from Iverson and Shrader by the score of 21 to 6.

Sayles and Burdick were not as successful, however, in their battle as they lost by the score of 5 games to 3, to John Iverson and Homer Shrader. George Sayles, however, won a single-handed victory against Iverson by the score of 21 to 11.

Homer Shrader captured the individual honors of the game by throwing thirteen ringers.

In the junior games, George Sayles, Jr., and Ralph Mason defeated "Buzzer" Walling and Iverson, Jr., for games to two in real hot fought battles.

A movement is on foot to establish about four sets of stakes on the high school grounds if the consent of the board of education can be obtained, as the present court used by the high school hill players is not large enough.
