

Alvo Department

County Commissioner Fred Gordor was looking after some business for the county in Alvo and vicinity last Thursday.

Arthur Parcell, has been assisting in the thrashing at the home of H. L. Bornemeier and makes an excellent hand in this line.

Eddie Craig of Johnson, where he is engaged in the barber business was a visitor in Alvo last Sunday and was visiting with his friends and especially one.

George Hardinck has been assisting in the unloading of a car of sand at the Banning lumber yard, and also has been making some concrete blocks for the yard.

Mrs. Paul Johnson, who was striking some four weeks since with paralysis is still feeling very badly and unable to help herself and is being cared for by the folks.

Will Nickle was a visitor in Plattsmouth last week where she was called to look after some business making the trip in his car, and was accompanied by the family.

Mrs. O. D. Babbitt, of University Place, was a visitor in Alvo, for a few days last week, with her mother, Mrs. J. P. Rouse, and also looking after some business matters as well.

Roy Coatsman was making the rough places smooth last Thursday when he was out with the tractor and drag and made traveling the better for we were enjoying his good work.

John Woods was a visitor in Omaha last Thursday, where he went with a load of cattle which he had purchased and was marketing at that place, taking them over in his truck.

Peter Nickel and the folks were visiting with friends and relatives at Arcadia and vicinity, making the trip in their car and being guests of relatives while there. They will expect to be away for about a week.

W. Westfall has about gotten his summer plowing done and is ready, when the time comes, to reseed his land to wheat. While the crop was not large this year he is willing to try it again hoping for a better yield.

The Alvo Bible school were having a picnic at the Henry Vogte grove east of Alvo last Friday, there being games and stunts of all kinds as well as refreshments and amusement of plenty. The all had a most enjoyable time.

Charles Stout, who has been employed in Lincoln during the summer and who has been at the home of his father, Thomas Stout for some few weeks, departed last week for Canada where he went to engage in harvesting as has been his custom of other years.

Andy Brobet and family, who have been in Wisconsin for the most of the year, where he has been employed in the carpenter business, returned home last week, and reports an abundance of work in his line building, while the family say it is the greatest place to fish out of doors.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Casey, of Lincoln, were in Alvo last Thursday where Mr. Casey was looking after some matters of business and also was visiting with his friends, while Mrs. Casey was attending the meeting of the Alvo Woman's club, which was in session at the home of Mrs. Charles Godbey.

John Culman and the family, of Mountain Grove, Mo., but who formerly lived at McGrew, in the western portion of the state, were visiting in Alvo last Thursday, and were completing arrangements for the embarking in the merchantile business in Wabash, in the room where Mr. Jackson formerly had a store.

Herbert Smith and family of Lincoln, who have been staying in Los Angeles during the fore part of this year, returned to Lincoln last week and were visiting at the home of Mrs. Smith's parents, Chris Eickman, last Sunday. Speaking of Los Angeles Mr. Smith had to say that time are in a way quite there through there is always much doing in that wide-awake city.

A. W. Hawkins of Weeping Water, was a visitor in Alvo last Thursday, and was looking after his business in the line of tuning pianos. Mr. Hawkins is a male instructor as well and has the teaching of the band of Murock, which has been making such phenomenal success in their playing, as is evidenced by the great popularity of their band concerts which are given weekly at that rustling sister town and which draws such immense crowds.

Meet With Mrs. Godbey.
The Woman's reading club of Alvo met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Charles Godbey, where they had a most pleasant gathering and a good time. There was a very worth while program given, which was enjoyed by all, and it is safe to say that it was beneficial to all who heard. Following the program and the business of the club, which called them together, the social session was most perfectly enjoyed, as well as the excellent luncheon which was served by the hostess.

Some Horse Shoe Pitching.
There is getting to be some experts in the horse shoe pitching game in Alvo and we were privileged to watch some fancy pitching last week when we were in Alvo, in the peculiar twirls which Kenneth Calley and Raymond Bushness were able to give the iron arches.

Alvo Cafe Sold.
Mrs. R. H. Ackley, who has conducted the cafe at Alvo, since the selling out of the place by Mrs. Sam Humphrey, disposed of the business last week to Mrs. O. A. Baier, of Omaha, who will conduct the business beginning Monday, Aug. 3rd.

They Win and Lose.
The Alvo ball team had two battles last Sunday in which they won one and lost the other. In the first game, which was staged between the Alvo team and the Yellow Cab's of Lincoln, Alvo won by a score of 14 to nothing, and in the second game the score was Lincoln 11 and Alvo 9.

Are Seeing the North.
A number of the young men, who have completed the harvesting and thrashing in this neighborhood, departed last week for the north where they will harvest in the Dakotas while the harvesting lasts. Among those who went were Herold McKinnon, Jacob Rodaway, Lloyd Pifer, Walter Vincent and Elmer Taylor.

Will Hold District Picnic.
Messrs. Bert Kitzel, Floyd Dickerson and A. B. Stromer, members of the picnic committee of the Alvo lodge of the Knights of Pythias, were in Lincoln last Monday night, where they were members of the district committee having in hand the arranging for the district K. of P. picnic, which is to be held at Crete, August, 18th.

Visiting in Minnesota.
H. L. Bornemeier and family are departing the first of the week for Minneapolis, where they will visit for some time at the home of relatives of Mrs. Bornemeier, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Osterlag and family, and from there they will go to Madison, Wisconsin, and visit at the home of Reuben Osterlag and family. They will expect to be away for about away week or ten days and are making the trip in the Essev auto, which Herman considers the most reliable gas wagon going.

Will Visit at Woodstock.
Albert Benjamin Stamer, the carrier of the mail on the rural route out of Alvo, with his family, is taking a vacation, and has gotten into the universal car and departed for Woodstock, where they will visit with the wife's folks and will expect to be away for about two weeks, the period of vacation the government allows their carriers. They will also visit at Chicago as well and see something of the real city life of the most active of America's large cities. While they are away R. M. Coatsman will look after the getting of the mail to the patrons of the route.

WILL FATTEN CATTLE
From Saturday's Daily—
Robert Troop, Jr., one of the enterprising young farmers and cattle men of this section of Cass county, who will be in the city bright and early this morning to arrange for handling two car loads of feeders that were shipped in today and which Mr. Troop will take to his farm near Mynard to fatten for the season.
The cattle were recently purchased by Mr. Troop from one of the large stock farms near Grand Island and will make excellent feeders for the coming season. Mr. Troop has been engaged quite extensively in the cattle feeding game in the past few years and has proven quite successful in this line of farm work, securing some real prices on the market for his stock.

TWO HUNDRED NEBRASKANS ARRIVE AT IOWA CAMP
Des Moines, Ia., July 31.—Two hundred Ne-braskans will arrive here tomorrow for the opening of the Citizens' Military camp at Fort Des Moines. This is said to be the largest single contingent from any of the three states—Nebraska, Iowa, and northern Missouri—which will supply the 1,600 men for the camp.

A Portland, Ore., minister is preaching sermons on the question, "Can a girl roll her stockings and still be a Christian?" A reader suggests she might be a Holy Roller.

LOCAL NEWS

Dr. Heineman, Dentist, Hotel Main Bldg., Phone 527.

Dr. H. C. Leopold, Osteopathic physician and surgeon, phone 208. J7-ttd

From Thursday's Daily—
Adam Meisinger and wife of near Cedar Creek were here today attending to some matters of business with the local merchants.

Mrs. Charles Tasler departed on the early Burlington train today for Western, Nebraska, where she will spend some time there visiting with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Thomas Walling, Jr., who has been attending the American Legion auxiliary convention at Columbus, returned home this morning after a very pleasant time spent at the state meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hill departed this afternoon for a visit of some two weeks at the Yellowstone national park and other points in the scenic west and where they will spend their vacation period.

Father George D. Pierce and C. L. Pitman, who were attending the American Legion convention at Columbus, Nebraska, returned home last evening after a most pleasant time mingling with the members of the organization from all parts of the state.

Miss Mildred Fleming of this city departed yesterday for Eagle where she joins Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Westlake, cousins of Miss Fleming, and with them will go to Denver and Colorado Springs as well as Yellowstone park for an outing, making the trip via auto and camping out on the way.

From Friday's Daily—
L. R. Snipes, county agent, and Carl Day motored over from Weeping today to visit with friends and look after some matters of business.

Fred Weidman of Plainview came down this morning for a few hours' visit, having been at Omaha securing a fine new Buick car for his agency in Plainview.

Charles Rechart and Frank Ackles of Louisville were here today for a few hours attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends for a few hours.

Charles Hitt, Jr., and cousin, Emmett Hicks of Nehawka, were among those going to Omaha this morning where they will visit for a few hours looking after some matters of business.

Mrs. Bertha Jennings of Chicago, who has been here visiting at the home of her niece, Mrs. Hilt Martin and family, departed this morning for Omaha from here she will return home.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stuart of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Miss Blanche Long of Casey, Iowa, are here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hilt Martin, the ladies being relatives of Mrs. Martin.

Mrs. John Wunderlich, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, Lester Wunderlich and Miss Noell, all of Nehawka, were here yesterday for a few hours visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rosenkrans and family.

Mrs. J. A. Donelan, who has been visiting at Nebraska City with her sister, Mrs. J. C. Thygeson and family and also enjoying an auto trip with the other members of the family, has returned home.

Miss Helen Wescott, who has been spending the past ten days at Grand Island and Gothenburg, returned home last evening. While at Grand Island, Miss Wescott was a guest of the A. V. Hunter family and also attended the Epworth League institute at Gothenburg over which Rev. Hunter served as dean.

From Saturday's Daily—
A. J. Sshafer of Mt. Pleasant precinct was here today for a few hours attending to some matters of business with the merchants.

Mrs. V. C. Jones of Oakland, California, who is here visiting with friends, departed this morning for Lincoln to spend a few hours there with friends.

W. R. Young of this city and Henry Out of Ashland returned home yesterday from Perkins county, where they have been for several days. They report the wheat near Grant as running very heavy.

Dan Neben from west of Murock, accompanied by his sister, Miss Della, and Miss Pearl Brakage, was here today for a few hours, the young ladies attending the teachers' examination at the court house.

Miss Clarissa Townsend of Newton, Mass., who has been here visiting at the home of Miss Jessie Robertson for a few days, departed this morning for Denver and Yellowstone park where she will spend some time. Miss Robertson accompanied her guest as far as Lincoln.

Mrs. John Sneed and children of Sioux City, were here yesterday for a few hours visiting with their relatives and friends for a short time. Mrs. Sneed reports her husband as doing very nicely following his recent severe burning in the explosion of a steam hose of his auto.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine
Those who are in a "run-down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that Catarrh is a local disease. It is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions.
HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Combined Treatment, both local and internal, and has been successful in the treatment of Catarrh for over forty years. Sold by all druggists.
F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

Forgetting the Scott case, tax reduction, the California earthquakes and other matters for the moment, ain't the Giants and the Pirates having one heck of a race for the National pennant?

AUCTION!

Saturday, August 8th
2:00 P. M.

We are stocked with used cars and they must move. This is our big Mid-Summer Housecleaning. Between 40 and 50 good used cars to be sold under the hammer to the highest bidder.

Every Car Will Be Sold, Regardless of Price!

The cars to be sold include Ford Cars and Trucks, one Oakland, two Chevrolets, two Overlands, one Buick, two Oldsmobiles, two Reos, one Moline and several others.

This will be a sale worth attending. Many bought bargains at our last sale and this is another opportunity.

REMEMBER

You Buy Them at Your Own Price!

Unusually Liberal Offer!

Anyone having a car they wish to sell may sell it at this sale FREE OF CHARGE and have the proceeds applied on the purchase price of a New Ford Car or Truck.

$10 GASOLINE BOOK FREE!

To the person who pays the most money for a Car or Truck at this Auction Sale!

Terms—One-Half Cash, Convenient Terms on Balance!

Plattsmouth Motor Co.

Plattsmouth, - - - - - Nebraska

FORD DEALERS

Sale Held at O. K. Garage
(RAIN OR SHINE)

REX YOUNG, Auctioneer

Hot Weather Sure!

Harvest is here. Our service will be just as efficient as ever. See us for whatever you need. How about a New Perfection Oil Stove, Ice Cream Freezer or an Electric Fan for hot nights. All kinds of Hardware and Farming Implements. Feed grinding.

—TRUCKING!

Coatman Hardware Co.

ALVO - - - - - NEBRASKA