SUFFERS SEVERELY CUT HAND

From Saturday's Daily— Yesterday afternoon while Mrs. Herman Gartleman, one of the well known residents of the south part of the city, was engaged in looking after the canning of some fruit at her home, she suffered severe injury as the result of the explosion of one of the glass jars.

The exploding jar hurled the glass over the unfortunate woman and her right hand with which she had been handling the jar, was terribly lacerated and cut by the fragments of the glass.

As soon as possible medical assistance was summoned and the hand dressed, it requiring some ten stitches to close the wounds and check the loss of blood that had greatly weakened the victim of the accident. Mrs. L. Kinnaman, mother of Mrs. Gartleman, who has been visiting at Council Bluffs with another daughter, Mrs. Herman Field, was summoned by telegram and with Mrs. Field and Lester Kinnaman arrived late in the afternoon to assist in the care of Mrs. Gartleman and to try and make her as comfortable as possible despite the very disagreeable wounds sustained.

RETURN FROM FINE TRIP THRU EASTERN U. S.

Rev. Frank Emory Pfoutz and Family Enjoy Auto Trip Covering Over 4,500 Miles.

From Saturday's Daily— Yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock the auto caravan of Rev. Frank Emory Pfoutz and family returned to this city after a journey through the east and south that covered 4,500 miles and gave them a wonderful first hand appreciation of the greatness of the country that lies from the broad reaches of the Missouri river eastward to the Atlantic ocean.

The trip was one that the family all enjoyed to the utmost and not a day of illness on the part of any member of the family marred the trip through the various states and cities.

They took the northern route that led them through Detroit and Chicago into Buffalo and Niagara Falls and thence through the great cities and fine fruit country of northern New York to the New England states. While in Boston they had the pleasure of visiting with Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Dunham, Mrs. Dunham being formerly Miss Dorotha Pond, one of the teachers in the local schools, and here they found much pleasure under the guidance of Rev. and Mrs. Dunham in viewing the city and the surrounding country including Concord and Lexington, rich in historic incident as the birthplace of the struggle for American liberty.

From Boston the party drove to New York City and enjoyed a sight-seeing trip through many of the places of the greatest interest and then headed for the national capital, Washington. This city was found to be one of the most beautiful that they had the pleasure of visiting and the great government buildings and the wonderful settings that add beauty and dignity to the capital city were enjoyed to the limit. They then drove to Roanoke, Virginia, which was the birthplace of Mrs. Pfoutz and where she spent several days very pleasantly in looking over the old home where the family resided for many years. Enroute home they stopped in Iowa at the old home of Rev. Pfoutz.

FORMER PLATTS-MOUTH MAN IS TO MANAGE HENSHAW

Charles M. Sullivan, Long With the Conant Hotel Co., Receives a Deserved Promotion.

From Saturday's Daily— The many Plattsmouth friends of Charles M. Sullivan, old time Plattsmouth boy, will be interested to learn that this past week Mr. Sullivan has been promoted to the position of manager of the Hotel Henshaw at Omaha, succeeding Joseph Keenan, also well known here and a relative of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmes.

Mr. Sullivan is a son of the late Judge A. N. Sullivan, for many years prominent member of the Cass county bar. He was born and reared in this community, attending the Plattsmouth schools.

After the death of the father and removal of the family to Omaha, Charles Sullivan entered the hotel business, finally becoming employed by the Conant hotel company and since the completion of the fine new Conant hotel has been one of the day clerks at that institution. The company controls the Conant, Henshaw and Sanford hotels and with the resignation of Mr. Keenan, one of their old employees, the company called Mr. Sullivan to the responsible position of manager of the hotel.

With his long experience and undoubted ability, Mr. Sullivan should make a very valuable man for the Conant company and maintain the Henshaw at its present high standard.

SAYS CONVENTION WAS GREAT

From Friday's Daily—

Court Reporter Leslie L. Turpin and wife, who have been attending the national convention of shorthand reporters at Omaha the past week, returned home last evening for the first time since the opening of the convention with the report that the national gathering was "great."

The Nebraska members of the shorthand reporters had arranged the details of the entertainment of the convention and the general expression was that the meeting was one of the best that had ever been held by the followers of Gregg and Pitman. The committee spent no details in making the time spent in Omaha most pleasant with all kinds of social entertainments to aid them in passing the time and the entire day and the greater part of the night was filled with attractions to entertain the visitors.

The convention yesterday elected William S. Heller of Omaha, dean of the Omaha court reporters, as the national president after a very spirited contest that showed the makers of "hooks and dashes" were real politicians in their own convention.

This was the first national gathering of the reporters that Leslie has attended, but he states he is not going to pass up any in the future as they are the best yet.
