

Alvo Department

John Wood was a visitor over near Eagle last Thursday where he was purchasing some cattle.

James Pilkington has completed the foundation for the new house which is being erected by Arthur Roelofs.

Wm. Coakley and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a very fine young son who arrived on August 19. All are doing very well.

Grover Hill of southeast of Elmwood will move to the neighborhood of Alvo and farm the Mrs. Hagan place, east of Alvo two miles.

Mrs. E. Cooley of Lincoln was a visitor with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kirkpatrick for a number of days during the past week.

George Hardnock says he is getting to be a professional chore man and is competing with W. H. Warner for the honor of being the most popular.

Ruby Woods has had a time with a number of boils which persist in coming on his chin and cheek, but it looks like she has them checked at this time.

Charles Ayers and the family departed last week for the west where they will visit for some two weeks with brother and sister and also see the country.

E. W. Thimman of Murdock was a visitor in Alvo last week checking bills for a sale which he is holding of farming implements in order to make room for storage in his garage.

Simon Rehmeyer entertained with the wife from Weeping Water last Sunday, there being present his brother, Fred, and G. Rehmeyer and wife and son, Paul, Frank Taylor and wife as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Godbey enjoyed the opening night at the Elmwood chautauqua which was in the form of a home talent play and was attended by many people from the surrounding country.

Arthur J. Roelofs has been getting the material out to the building site where he is having the structure erected and getting the lumber and building material at the John W. Bunting lumber yard.

Mrs. John Clites, better known as Grandmother Clites, and her son, Lance, and a daughter, were visiting last week at Red Oak and Shenandoah, Iowa. While they were away W. H. Warner was looking after the thing on the farm.

The woman's club met at the home of Mrs. W. L. Copple last week and had a most pleasant time. They had a real live topic for discussion and all were most interested in the matter of good reading, the meeting was a most profitable one.

Do not forget the chautauqua which is to be held the first of September for it will be a good one and all will want to be in attendance. Boost for Alvo and its interest and do not neglect anything which will make her a better town.

George Parsell of Peoria, who has been visiting in Alvo with friends and relatives for the past week, returned to his home and to his work last Thursday, taking the Rock Island for his home and a visit here.

John Coleman of Bennington, son of Mrs. Coleman, who has purchased the building which is being transformed into a moving picture show, is here and assisting in the work of remodeling the structure. The building is expected to be completed in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kirkpatrick and Glen Lewis and the family were enjoying a visit last Wednesday at Shenandoah, Iowa, where they picnicked and also visited the seed house and broadcasting station of Henry Field. They enjoyed the trip very much and think Shenandoah a very nice town.

C. D. Ganz and wife are now on their vacation and departed for the Black Hills one day last week where they will visit for some time and take an outing and see what the country is producing as well as getting a few freckles and sunburn which adds much to their general enjoyment of life.

S. C. Hardnock has just purchased a new Overland sedan which he will use for the family and what traveling he will have to do. He has exercised good judgment in the purchase of a closed car and will find it much to his liking as well as being very comfortable when the weather is cold and stormy.

Mrs. L. L. Palmer of Gainesville, Florida, was a visitor in Alvo for a short time last Thursday while waiting for the writer who makes Alvo every Thursday, and was to ride home with him, where she was for a visit. Mrs. Palmer is a sister-in-law of Mr. Briggs and comes to visit for a time at his home in Plattsmouth.

Harry Appelman received a card from his friend, H. L. Bornemeier, who is spending his vacation in the northeast and is now at Madison, Wis., where he wrote and said they were having a good time and hoped it was raining in Alvo. He did not know we had been blessed with a number of good rains while he has been away.

H. M. Wichell is building a new coach body for a new truck which Earl Bennett is having placed on a truck which he has recently purchased from R. M. Coatsman and which Earl will use for carrying scholars from and to school this winter.

The other carries and all using trucks, this winter are Elmer Bennett, Edgar Klemme, Joseph Vickers, W. W. Coatsman and Charles Roelofs.

Parts With Her Friends. Yes, friends are some times tire some to be a person, notwithstanding the acquaintance may be of long standing. Such has been the experience of Mrs. Schaeffer, the postmistress, her teeth, which surely have befriended her many times in the past also have caused her much trouble, consequently the parting, the experience was very trying and caused her so much pain that she has had to allow her brother, Chester, Ough, who is deputy postmaster, conduct the affairs of the office while she is recovering from the shock of losing so many of her teeth.

Are Home From the West. Paul and Glen Coatsman and Sheriff Fifer, who have been in the west for the past six weeks where they have been harvesting and assisting in threshing in the western portion of the state, arrived home last week, and report having had a good time as well as working all the time they were away. The say the wheat was much better than in this portion of the state. They were at and near Chappell most of the time they were gone. Following the completion of their work they visited at Denver and other places in the west.

Is Sure a Batchelor. R. M. Coatsman, who is kept pretty busy with the store and trucking business, as well as being deputy rural carrier, and having to work while A. E. Stromer is away, and is kept very busy, has nothing to keep him from working, for the good wife and children departed with their car for Huron, South Dakota, where they are spending some ten days at the home of two sisters of Mrs. Coatsman, they being Mesdames Frank and Simon Scott. Roy and John Skinner divide the work between them during the time the folks are away.

New Superintendent Arrives. R. E. Dale, the newly elected superintendent of the Alvo schools has arrived in time to get acquainted with the situation before the beginning of the school, which commences on the 21st day of the present month. He has been at University Place and was moved over to Alvo by John B. Skinner, the accommodating helper of R. M. Coatsman.

Enjoys Sunday School Picnic. The Bible school of the Methodist church enjoyed a picnic one day last week, which was held at the home of S. C. Hardnock, and was in the grove near the home. The young men and young ladies classes being the leading spirit in the movement.

Many Knights Enjoy Picnic. Among those from Alvo and vicinity who enjoyed the Knights of Pythias picnic which was held at Crete last Tuesday and which was one of the largest and best attended as well as being one that had a tendency toward being the good projects of the order to the front were John Woods, Jesse Hardnock, Charles Appelman, Edward Edwards, Bert Kitzel, Art Skinner, P. J. Linch and Art Dingus.

MAKE TRIP THROUGH MUD. From Thursday's Daily—Early this morning, Mr. and Mrs. August Kell and Don Seivers came in from the vicinity of Cullom, Mrs. Kell being called here by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Adam Stecher, whose condition has been quite poor. The party started from home about 3 o'clock and found the greatest difficulty in bucking the mud for the distance on into this city. The rain last night following that of Sunday made the roads very soft and the trip was one that was far from pleasant.

ROY KNORR IMPROVING. From Saturday's Daily—The friends here of R. W. Knorr will be pleased to learn that Mr. Knorr is now doing very nicely at the hospital at Kirksville, Missouri, and while it will be several weeks before he returns home he is feeling much improved and will take a thorough course of treatment before leaving the hospital.

DEATH OF FORMER CASS COUNTY LADY OCCURS THIS WEEK

Mrs. Jane Tighe Kennedy, Long Time Resident of County, Passes Away at Elm Creek.

From Saturday's Daily—

In the past week the community of Manley has been called upon to mourn the loss of one of the pioneer members of that locality who has gone to her last long rest at the ripe old age of 87 years. This lady was Mrs. Jane Tighe Kennedy, who died almost half a century a resident of the vicinity of Manley.

The deceased lady has for the past twenty years been making her home at Elm Creek, Nebraska, with her son, William Kennedy, and family, and where she was called to her last reward on Saturday, August 15th.

The body was brought to Manley last Tuesday and the last rites performed at the St. Patrick's Roman Catholic church, where the departed lady had been an attendant. The requiem mass being celebrated by Father W. L. D. Higgins, rector of the church. The old friends and neighbors were present in a large number to attend the services and the burial service where the body was laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery beside that of her husband.

Jane Tighe was born in Canada, 87 years ago and when but a girl came with her family to Cass county, they settling in the central portion of the county and were for many years prominent residents of that portion of the county. Some sixty years ago she was married to John Kennedy, one of the prominent residents of that section of the county. The family settled on the farm east of Manley now occupied by the Herman Rauth family and resided there for a great many years. The husband and wife were called to the family circle in 1893 and since that time the mother has had the rearing of the family and made her home with different members of the family. For the past twenty years she has been a resident of Elm Creek with her family, that residing at the place.

There are surviving the loss of this good woman four sons and five daughters, William and Arthur of Elm Creek; Joseph, residing in western Nebraska, and Ed, living in Chicago; Mrs. Kate Gilmore of Cozad; Mrs. Lettie Chandler of Central City; Mrs. Lizzie Davis of Omaha; Mrs. Carrie Van Cleave of Lexington, and Mrs. Maggie Hayes of Elm Creek. One daughter, Mrs. Anna Katon of Alliance, preceded the mother in death.

There are also a number of brothers and sisters to mourn the death of this good woman: Ed Tighe of Council Bluffs; John Tighe of Omaha; Joseph Tighe of Raymer, Colo.; Josiah Tighe of Pukwana, South Dakota; Charles Tighe of West Point, and Mrs. J. M. Carper of Lincoln.

To the family of the deceased the sympathy of the old friends in Cass county is extended and the members of the family circle can find in the memory of the faithful life of the departed a real inspiration.

WEeping WATER BOY IS MAKING GOOD. From the paper at Taylor, Loupe county, we notice the name of Rev. Horton Colbert, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Colbert, live at Weeping Water and Long Beach. Below are several notices that tell of some of his doings:

"Rev. and Mrs. Horton Colbert entertained a party of young folks at the parsonage Tuesday night. A most delightful evening was spent."

"Remember to bring your own basket dinner Sunday, and after the morning services we shall all eat together in the park. Instead of the evening service at 8 o'clock, there will be vesper service at 4 o'clock p. m. There will be special music by Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Colbert of Gerling."

"The reception held in honor of Rev. Horton Colbert and wife, by the Congregational church folk, was attended by a goodly number. The affair was very much enjoyed by all and the welcome was sincere, as well as cordial. Taylor and Loupe counties now have two churches with regularly installed pastors. The gospel of Jesus Christ ought through these organizations be brought to every soul in the country. As I see it, the situation was never more favorable for evangelization, and God grant I see truly."—Weeping Water Republican.

SMALL AUTO WRECK. From Friday's Daily—This noon the vicinity of Third and Main streets was the scene of a small auto accident that occurred when the roadster driven by Riley Jones collided with a Ford touring car driven by one of the Burlington shop employees. The Jones car was coming down Main street going east and the Ford coming down Third street north. The cars met at the intersection and as the result the front axle of the Jones car was badly damaged while the Ford was driven into the curb and had one rear wheel torn off and one very badly damaged. The car of Mr. Jones was driven away under its own power, but the Ford will have to wait until it is doctored up before it can be used.

MAKES PERKINS HOTEL PLACE OF REAL COMFORT

Parlors of the Hostelry Beautifully Refurnished and Made a Place Real Homelike Comfort.

From Saturday's Daily—

"We wish all of our boarders and patrons to feel that their home is at the Hotel Perkins while they are here," said Ed Brantner, one of the new hotel managers of the city, this morning in conversation with a Journal representative, "and to show that we mean business we have just fitted up the parlors in the best of shape."

An inspection of the parlors and the rooms furnishes abundant proof that the statement is not an empty boast but the real facts in the case, the Hotel Perkins has grown so that it is a real homelike hotel and supplied with very handsome and pleasant settings for the accommodation and entertainment of its guests.

The parlors on the second floor of the hotel have just been refurbished by Mr. and Mrs. Brantner and are as fine and attractive as any home in the city and with every possible device that might contribute to the comfort and pleasure of the guests. The floor has new rugs that are of the quiet and restful tones of soft green and set nicely with the brown tones of the furniture. Large roomy leather upholstered rockers and chairs are provided for a considerable number of guests. There is also a piano, a large and latest type Victrola and also a high class radio set that will provide fun and entertainment in the long winter evenings for the guests.

All the rooms of the hotel were given a thorough redecorating and painting last spring while they are in the very best of shape and every convenience that could add to the comfort of the guests is being provided by the management of the hotel.

During the winter Mr. Brantner states he will have special heating facilities installed for the hotel that will make it very comfortable in all parts of the building and a place of real enjoyment to the residents of the city and the traveling public who are guests there.

SURPRISE FOR MRS. ANNA LENZ ON HER 67TH BIRTHDAY. From Friday's Daily—

On Monday Mrs. Anna Lenz, who had been attending the convention of the Evangelical church at Milford, Neb., accompanied her son, Ed and family to Elmwood and drove on out to the George Lenz home where a large crowd of her children had assembled to help her enjoy her 67th birthday anniversary. The surprise was indeed great to her as she had not the least idea of the gathering for this event. A sumptuous dinner was enjoyed with all the good home-made ice cream and cake that all could eat. In the evening when she returned to her home she was surprised to find other surprise when she found that the children had had Bud Clements install a fine three-tube radio and horn for her as a present. There are eight children and all were present. They are as follows: Mrs. Wm. Pahl and family, Geo. Lenz and family, Walter Lenz and family, and Mr. and Mrs. John Hopkins and family, all of Elmwood; Ed Lenz and family, Mrs. Andy Cook and Mrs. Herman Koelling and family, all of Ord, Neb.; and Rev. Frank Lenz and family of Lincoln.

A most pleasant day was spent with their mother and they departed knowing that all were much happier having spent the day together in honor of their mother.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

POLICE CAPTURE "SNOWBIRD". From Friday's Daily—Last night, Officers Libershal and Jackson made the capture of a "snowbird" near the corner of Sixth and Pearl streets where the man was enjoying his "sleighride" to the utmost.

The man claimed to be a resident of Omaha and was "cocked" up to the limit as he gave the police a wonderful story of his success and wealth and by the time that the party had reached the city jail the stranger had imparted the fact to the police that he was rich beyond the dreams of Monte Cristo, had gold mines and owned banks in all of the large corporations that were in existence.

The wandering "snowbird" was placed safely behind the bars of the city jail to recover from his hop dream and the last the police officers heard of the man he was regaling two other unfortunate who were in the jail with stories of his wealth and his wonderful position in the world.

This morning he was somewhat over his excursion into the land of the "snow" he was released and warned to bend his footsteps northward toward Omaha so that he would not again be snared by the law and be a charge on the city.

NEMAHA COUNTY MEN GET PICKED UP IN THIS CITY

Receive Heavy Fine for Possession of Liquor and for Being Drunk. This Morning in Court.

From Friday's Daily—Last evening Officer Joe Libershal and Constable Jack Brittain made the arrest of two men on South Sixth street, one of whom was decidedly under the influence of liquor and the other, while not so seriously affected by the liquor had evidently been drinking to some extent.

A search of the men revealed the fact that one of them possessed a bottle containing a quantity of the distilled intoxicants that makes men do many strange and unusual things and accordingly the men were taken to the city jail to repose until the mills of justice could be placed in operation.

To the police the men gave the names of Fred Straw and Joe Navy, both claiming to be residents of Nemaha county and stated they were enroute home from Omaha. After a search a car bearing a Nemaha county number was unearthed and which the men stated belonged to them and which was also hauled to the jail to await the time when the owners might claim it.

This morning when the bell sounded for the opening round in Judge William Weber's court Straw was given a fine of $100 and costs for the possession of intoxicating liquor while Navy was fined $10 and costs for being drunk. The men made arrangements to pay their fine and were later allowed to leave on their way homeward feeling much sadder for their experience in the talons of the law.

RETURN FROM TOURING TRIP IN THE WEST. From Friday's Daily—

The families of C. L. Wiles and Sherman Cole have just returned from a touring trip in the west. In Keith county they visited at the homes of Earl V. and Carl Cole, especially enjoyed to the utmost their trip up the Big Thompson Canyon Drive to Estes park. While at Estes park, they experienced a rain storm in the clouds, when the lightning and thunder was below them instead of above them.

After spending a few days in Colorado, they returned to Brule, Neb., to join the Sherman Cole family for a week end visit with the families of the Cole brothers.

On their homeward trip, they stopped at Lexington, Neb., for a few days' visit at the home of an uncle. They found the roads in excellent shape throughout the state, traveling the Lincoln highway via Omaha, going out, and on their return trip coming on the Lincoln highway as far as Grand Island, where they followed the S. Y. A. to Lincoln and thence came on home.
