DEATH OF WELL KNOWN GREENWOOD CITIZEN

Elton Nelson McDowell Called to His Reward at the Age of Twenty-Seven Years at Greenwood.

From Saturday's Daily— Elton Nelson McDowell was born at Emerson, Iowa, May 15th, 1898, and passed away, after a brief illness, at his home in Greenwood, Nebraska, on August 25th. Age 27 years, months and 10 days. His early childhood was spent at Emerson and Carson, Iowa. In 1910 he came with his parents, to Greenwood, where he grew to manhood.

On Feb. 24th, 1923, he was united in marriage to Flora L. Harris, of Ashland, Nebraska. To this union was born one daughter, Geraldine Marion.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife and little daughter, his father, Nelson McDowell of Greenwood, two sisters, Alice Olson of Cedar Bluffs, Nebraska; Ethyl Armsong of Greenwood; three brothers, Emery E., of Emerson, Iowa; Harry and Ralph of Greenwood and a host of relatives and friends.

The mother and one brother preceded him in rest.

To weary hearts, to mourning homes, God's meekest angel comes. No power has he to banish pain, to give back our lost again. And yet, in tenderest love, our dear and heavenly Father sends him here.

Oh thou, who mournest on thy way, With longings for the close of day— He walks with thee, that angel kind And gently whispers, "Be resigned; "Bear up, bear on, the end shall tell The Dear Lord ordereth all things well."

Funeral services were held at the home at 2:30 p. m., Thursday, August 27th, 1925; Rev. L. S. Jeffery officiating. The interment was in the Greenwood cemetery.

LOUISVILLE PEOPLE OBSERVE GOLDEN WEDDING TODAY

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Mayfield Enjoy Occasion With Relatives and Friends at Their Home.

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Mayfield, two of the best known residents of Louisville, was observed today at the old farm home where first the happy couple started their married life, and now being occupied by their son, L. C. Mayfield and family.

The chief event of the day was the golden wedding that was celebrated at 3 o'clock this afternoon beneath the shade of the large and beautiful trees and in which the bride and groom, in whose hair the silver thread of time has woven its touch, were once again thrilled by the ceremony that had given them so many years of happiness in the past half century.

Rev. W. E. Goings, former pastor of the Christian church at Louisville and an old time friend of the family, presided over the wedding and again spoke the words of love's pledge of fidelity.

Miss Alice Harris, daughter of the bride, was present and played the Mendelssohn wedding march. Two of the younger grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Mayfield officiated as the ring bearer and flower girl while the bride couple were attended by six children, who have come into their lives, making a very pretty scene as they gathered beneath the canopy of large and handsome trees.

One of the striking features of the golden wedding was the presence of Mrs. Mayfield, who, being in her ninetieth year and one of the grand old ladies of this portion of Nebraska where she and her husband, the late Elder G. W. Mayfield, were among the early residents and where the husband was one of the pioneer pastors of the Christian church.

There are six children, three sons and three daughters, the sons being all engaged in farming. Clem V., the eldest, resides at Two Harbors, Minnesota; and the other two, J. R. and L. C., are in the vicinity of Louisville. The daughters are Mrs. J. R. Noyes and Mrs. C. W. Merriam, and Miss Edith, who resides at home.

The marriage of Miss Amelia R. Wilbourn, daughter of the late John Wilbourn, early pioneer of the vicinity of Greenwood, occurred at Watson, Missouri, August 31, 1875. After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Mayfield came west to Nebraska and located near Louisville, settling on the farm southeast of that place where they resided up until fifteen years ago when they moved to town and have lived there since.

The friends are joining in the wish that this estimable couple may find many more years of happiness and joy in their declining years.

WOMEN RETARD ENLISTMENT IN THE TERRITORIAL ARMY

London, Aug. 27.—The territorial army is not being kept up to its establishment strength because of "women irascible unions, and motor-cycles," said Lord Raglan in the house of lords recently. He declared that young men were not joining the territorials in sufficient numbers and the causes mentioned had been "enemies" of the territorial army since the war. Women, he said, did not want their husbands and sweethearts to join, and while the young man of pre-war days found the territorial army one way of getting off into the country, today he uses a motorcycle.

EASTERN STAR SHOWS LARGE GAIN IN YEAR

From Saturday's Daily— Election of Philip A. Jerjerson of West Medford, Past Grand Patron of the Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star of Massachusetts, to the position of Associate Grand Patron of the Grand Chapter, Chapter—a position that usually leads to one of the highest two offices in that order—and reports of heavy growth in membership were features of the eighteenth triennial assembly of the General Grand Chapter, recently concluded at Toronto, Ont.

Gains of 500,000 in the world membership in the last three years bring the figures up to approximately 1,500,000 and makes the order the largest fraternal organization in the world whose members include both men and women, it is said. The next assembly is to be held in Denver.

Delegates, with voting powers, are limited to past and present Grand Patrons and Grand Patrons. Districts having the largest representation at the convention were: Illinois, 22; Ontario, Canada, 20; Kentucky, 18; Michigan, 17; Vermont, 15; Florida and Minnesota, each 14; Indiana, Missouri, Texas and Tennessee, each 13; Massachusetts and Wisconsin, each 12.

Massachusetts delegates included two "proxies," Julian C. Woodman, Past Patron of Melrose Chapter, representing the Grand Patron of Massachusetts and Joseph H. Neal, Past Patron of Evansville Chapter of Brighton, for the Associate Grand Patron of Massachusetts. Mrs. Annie L. Woodman, Grand Matron of Massachusetts, headed the delegates from that state.

A silk bag of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts was presented by the delegation from that state to the delegation from Scotland, those having come the greatest distance to the convention. Each delegation presented silk flags to that from Scotland. Delegates were present from all the states of the United States, Alaska, Mexico, Hawaii, Canal Zone, and every Canadian province excepting British Columbia.

The delegation from Philadelphia presented to the city of Toronto a replica of the famous Liberty Bell on behalf of the city of Philadelphia. The presentation was made by Mrs. Margaret B. Alexander, Past Grand Matron of Pennsylvania.

The Rev. Willis D. Engle of Indianapolis, first Most Worthy Grand Patron of the General Grand Chapter and one of its founders, attended the session, thus holding his record of not having missed one triennial assembly of that body. Lemuel W. Standish of Boston attended the meeting in the interests of the monthly organ of the organization, "The Eastern Star World."

In accordance with custom, a song was composed in the convention in honor of the newly elected "line officers" who assume positions leading to the top. Mrs. Carrie A. Cushing, past Grand Matron of Massachusetts and present Grand Secretary, composed a fitting song to the music of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," which was sung by all the New England delegates in honor of Mr. Jerjerson.

Jerjerson was Worthy Patron of Royal Chapter of Medford several years ago and became Grand Patron of the Massachusetts Grand Chapter in 1919, serving one year. That same year he was appointed Worthy Grand Sentinel of the General Grand Chapter.

In 1922, he was elected Right Worthy Grand Trustee and this last assembly made him Right Worthy Associate Grand Patron. This puts him in the position for election to Most Worthy Grand Patron at the next assembly.

When Samuel Cro
