

Alvo Department

C. D. Ganz, the banker, was looking after some business matters in Lincoln last Thursday afternoon.

Dan Muenchan has just completed the painting of the new cob house which Mr. Coatman has just had completed.

Arthur Roelofs is hustling up the building of the new house on the farm and getting it into the clear before winter sets in.

Henry Miller and wife and Jesse Hardnock and wife were enjoying the county fair last Thursday, they driving over in the car of the latter.

Mesdames C. H. Kirkpatrick and Charles Foreman were visiting with friends in Lincoln last Thursday, they making the trip in the auto of Mrs. Foreman.

Milo Ough, who makes his home in California, arrived in Alvo and Lincoln during the latter part of last week, called here by the death of his brother, Chester Ough.

John Yeager is employed at his trade in Lincoln, was a visitor in Alvo for Sunday and a guest of his parents, returning to his work on the late train Sunday evening.

H. M. Peterson, of Bartlesville, who was here to attend the funeral of his father, Ole P. Peterson, last week, departed on Monday last for his home in the south.

Last Friday Joseph Vickers and the family harnessed up the Universal auto and were away to the Cass county fair, which was a great success, and where they enjoyed the day immensely.

Miss Agnes and Mary Peterson, both of Wichita, Kansas, who have been here for some time, being called here on account of the death of their father, departed for their home at Wichita, Kansas.

C. W. Peterson, of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, who has been here since the death of his father, Mr. Ole P. Peterson, will remain for a time and assist his mother in getting her business matters arranged.

W. A. Cook, with the assistance of the boys, was busy last Thursday getting in their hay, which we say is hay this year, and are caring for it so that when the feeding time comes the cattle will thrive.

On last Wednesday Orrie Cook and family, H. L. Bornemeier and family and Frank E. Cook and family were enjoying the county fair at Weeping Water and found the exhibits, especially in the line of corn to be very fine.

Miss Carrie Peterson, a teacher in the public schools at Guyton, Oklahoma, who was called here on account of the death of her father, Mr. Ole P. Peterson, is returning to her home the latter portion of this week.

On Thursday of last week, Mrs. R. M. Coatman and the children were enjoying a visit at the home of relatives in Weeping Water as well as attending the fair which was drawing large crowds and had a fine lot of exhibits.

The Woman's Reading club held a very interesting and enjoyable picnic at the Boyles grove last Thursday at which time they welcomed the teachers who are to direct the destinies of the Alvo schools for the present school year.

John D. Foreman was out with his corn harvester cutting the fodder which he grows in the orchard and he planted, and making rough feed from it for use during the winter as well as clearing the ground where the trees are growing.

George Neumeister, the traveling salesman for Grainger Bros., of Lincoln, who has been troubled with a wart on his wrist for some time, has had the same removed and while it has left a scar, the wrist is about normal at this time and in good condition. His many friends will rejoice.

William Bornemeier and son were visiting at the Cass county fair on Wednesday of last week. Mr. Bornemeier has received an injury to one of his thumbs which has kept him from working, and he and the son were taking in the display of agricultural products, stock and fruits, which were good.

Art Dinges, the auto mechanic, and one of the best and most accommodating in the country, and the very popular rural carrier out of Alvo were looking after things in Lincoln last Thursday afternoon and found that things were running about as well as they expected in the capital city. Oh, yes, they bought some goods, also.

Wm. Sutton and the family, formerly of Alvo, but for some time making their home at Chappell, were visiting for some time in Lincoln last week, where they visited with many of their friends, being guests of Miss Della Sutton, Glen Lewis and C. H. Kirkpatrick. They departed for their home last Monday, making the trip in their auto and while here enjoyed their visit very much.

Celebrate Teachers' Birthday

Last Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rosenow was celebrated the birthday of Miss Jessie Brandt, at which all of the faculty of the Alvo schools were present and a most pleasant evening was spent. The Alvo schools are opening with much interest and many new pupils have been enrolled for the school year.

Meeting at Mrs. Murtey's

The Mothers' and Daughters' club, which meets on Friday, and which Mrs. John Murtey calls the "Friday club," met with this estimable lady last Friday, and with an excellent program, and a determination to have a good time, the ladies surely enjoyed the occasion. Following the program, which was one well worth while, the ladies enjoyed a very delightful social hour, and which was made the more pleasurable by a very dainty luncheon which was served by the hostess.

Win Over Cedar Creek

Last Sunday the baseball team from Cedar Creek, and which by the way is one that can play ball, and not only that, but do play, came to Alvo for the purpose of playing ball with the Alvo team and winning as well, but the kind of a game which the local team put up did not give the Cedar Creek boys any encouragement and at the end, after having played an excellent game and had a good time, they had to return home with no laurels for the Alvo team won over the visitors by a score of 12 to 9. Come again boys, and have another good game.

Alvo, 12; Elmwood, 2

Last Saturday the game of ball which was played between the two teams of Alvo and Elmwood, which was played at the city of Elmwood, and which was enjoyed by a large number of the Elmwood people, was won by them by a score of 12 for Alvo to 2 for Elmwood.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our appreciation for the every kindness which was shown during the recent illness and at the time of the death of our beloved son and brother, Chester Ough, and for the floral tributes and to those who sang, and especially to the members of the American Legion, in all of their ministrations.—S. H. Ough, Mrs. Clo Schafer, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Parmenter, Milo Ough, Mesdames Dyer and Powell.

Did Much Business

And we say they always do a good business. On last Thursday John B. Skinner and Phillip Coatman departed for Omaha each with a load of stock for the South Omaha stock market and after they had gotten the stock delivered they moved the Rev. E. A. Knight and family to Brownville, where he will preach the coming year. It will be remembered that the Rev. Knight and family lived in Alvo a few years since, when he was minister to the church here. From there Phillip Coatman returned to Alvo, and Mr. Skinner went to Peru, where he secured a load of apples, returning home with them on Friday for the people here who have not raised apples.

Will Minister at Utica

The Rev. C. A. Norlin, pastor of the Methodist church at Alvo for the past two years, and a gentleman whom all were well pleased to have as a citizen of Alvo, and a great church worker, at the conference last week was selected to fill the pulpit at Utica the coming year, and on Saturday of last week departed for his new field of labor. The church here, while they are very loath to have him depart, are expressing the wish that he may find pleasant places in which to labor, and also they know he will succeed. The charge here will be cared for by the Rev. D. H. Chawowith.

YOUNG ALVO MAN IS DEAD; WAS SICK ONLY SHORT TIME

Chester Ough, Former Service Man, is Called to His Last Reward Very Suddenly.

From Friday's Daily—
The community of Alvo was profoundly shocked this week by the death of Chester Ough, one of the popular and well known young men of that community, who passed away after a very brief illness Monday and whose funeral services will be held Sunday at Lincoln.

Mr. Ough was taken sick Sunday with what seemed to be an attack of flu. He felt so badly that he was compelled to take to his bed Sunday afternoon, although nothing serious was thought of the matter until Monday when his condition grew more grave and medical aid was summoned and it was found that he was in most serious condition, gradually sinking until Monday afternoon when he passed away.

The deceased was 29 years of age and had made his home in Alvo for a number of years, his father, S. H. Ough, being engaged in the retail mercantile business and in which Chester was engaged in assisting at the time of his last illness.

Chester was the World war Mr. Ough heeded the call of his country and served for fourteen months in the ranks of the defenders of the nation, giving his services freely and without stint to the cause of the nation.

Of a particularly genial disposition, always pleasant under the most trying situations and his thoughtfulness for his fellow man making him well loved and esteemed by a very large circle of warm friends.

Mr. Ough is survived by the father, the mother preceding him in death, four sisters and one brother, Mrs. Chloe Schaffer, Mrs. R. L. Palmer, both of Alvo, Mrs. Dyer and Mrs. Powell, both of Lincoln and Milo who makes his home in California.

The body of the deceased man was taken to Lincoln Monday evening where it will lie in state at the undertaking chapel until after the funeral services.

Mrs. John Hiber was a passenger this morning for Omaha where she was called to look after some matters of business for a few hours.

For a mild after-dinner smoke, go to Bates Book and Stationery Store.

WRIGLEYS AFTER EVERY MEAL

Probably one reason for the popularity of WRIGLEYS is that it lasts so long and returns such great dividends for so small an outlay. It keeps teeth clean, breath sweet, appetite keen, digestion good. Fresh and full-flavored always in its wax-wrapped package.

Mrs. Thomas Gradoville and daughter, Mary Ann, were among the visitors in Omaha today where they spent the day visiting with friends and also looking after some matters of business.

GERMANY AGREES TO PEACE PACT PARLEY; COMMISSION NAMED

Teutons Want Way Left Open For Treaty Revisions; Date and Place Are Open.

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Germany will meet the allies to negotiate a security pact, the cabinet Thursday decided.

Dr. Luther, the chancellor, and Gustav Stresemann, foreign minister, will represent Germany at the conference, with Dr. Friedrich Gaus, chief legal expert of the foreign office, as secretary-general and probably Dr. B. W. Von Buelow, chief of the league of nations division of the foreign office.

Germany Wants Revision

The German delegates will enter the discussion with a firm determination to attain a security pact along the lines of the government's various recent pronouncements, especially by the German note to July 29, maintaining the right to strive for revision of the peace treaties to meet changed conditions.

This amplification of Thursday's official communique announcing Germany's acceptance, was emphasized in official quarters as obviously representing the government's attitude.

Date and Place Undetermined

While October 5 is persistently named as the date of the conference, neither date nor location has been definitely agreed upon.

Now that the nationalists have acquiesced in the government's formal participation in the conference on condition that it adheres to the principles of its July note, no serious Parliamentary opposition awaits the German foreign minister if he succeeds in obtaining a pact negotiated along those lines.

Germany's entrance into the league of nations is viewed as a logical sequel to the conclusion of a security pact and it is assumed in political circles that its application will automatically follow, so long as no conditions such as renewed confession of war guilt be enacted.

CAPPER IS OPTIMISTIC

Washington, Sept. 25.—An optimistic report on the general outlook was given to President Coolidge by Senator Capper, republican, Kansas, a member of the agricultural committee.
