Philathea Class Act as Hostesses to Y. M. B. C.

From Wednesday's Daily—Last evening the spirit of Halloween was greatly in evidence at the First Methodist church, when the members of the Philathea class of ladies were the hostesses to the members of the young men's Bible class of the Sunday school.

The parlors were aglow with the brightness of the Halloween season, and the ghostly forms that flitted to and fro in the parlors furnished a fitting welcome to the members of the men's class as they arrived on the scene of the festive gathering at 8 o'clock. As the members of the visiting class arrived they were greeted by the "spooks" if we may apply this term to the jolly ladies who had for the occasion disguised themselves as ghosts, and the gentlemen were soon right in the midst of the fun and frolic of the evening.

The decoration committee in charge of Mrs. Hallie Perry had been busy indeed as the beautifully arranged decorations testified and the whole of the church parlors was arranged in the color scheme of orange and black, the colors of the season. In all parts of the room goblins, witches and black cats were used effectively in the decorations and the lights of the room were shaded with the long streamers of orange paper that cast a pleasing glow over the room and furnished a proper effect on the Halloween spirit that prevailed. Apples on strings, also added to the autumnal note of the evening.

One of the features of the occasion was the fortune telling booth, where Mrs. Fred Kissling and Mrs. A. F. Moore were present and related to the seekers after a peek into the past and the future some real revelations of what the coming years might hold for them.

The program of the evening was in charge of the committee headed by Mrs. Frank Emory Dantz and who were up and going and kept up the continuous flow of fun and entertainment until 10 o'clock, the entertainment features being informal and thoroughly delightful to all of the party.

After the close of the fun the refreshment committee headed by Mrs. James Mauzy took charge of the evening and served refreshments of pumpkin pie, whipped cream, apples and pop corn balls, all in keeping with the spirit of Halloween.

The whole entertainment was in charge of Mrs. W. J. Heinrich, president of the Philathea class and it was voted by all of those fortunate enough to be present that this was the greatest of all the Halloween festivities.

TOLL RATES SLASHED AGAIN

From Wednesday's Daily—The toll bridge war that has made travel over the Platte river bridge almost as cheap as a free bridge and today announcements of a further slash in the rate over the bridge of the Plattsmouth Auto and Wagon Bridge Co., and which will probably be met with a similar reduction on the new King of Trails bridge.

As will be seen from the advertisement of the Plattsmouth Auto & Wagon Bridge company appearing elsewhere in this issue the rate on cars and trucks has now been placed at 10c for each class regardless of size or the number of passengers. The new bridge which was opened two weeks ago for travel met the former reductions of the old bridge company to 15c and will probably take steps to meet the new lower rates.

The auto or truck owner who has occasion to do a great deal of traveling over the Platte river to and from this city is certainly in the heyday of enjoyment of the low prices that are now more than half lower than the old rate.

"I tell you it was the surprise of my life how quickly my troubles disappeared after I began taking Karnak. It didn't leave me with a single trouble, but simply made a new man out of me."

"And now people ask me if the results I got are lasting. I just want to tell everybody I've gained 14 pounds in weight and never felt better in my life than I do now. That's how lasting my relief has been."

Karnak is sold in Plattsmouth exclusively by F. G. Fricke & Co., and by the leading druggist in every town.
