THE PROUD AND THE HUMBLE

A sad auto accident is reported. On Main street Saturday a man lost control of his car. He couldn't keep up the payments.
The general assumption is that the American naval aviator who flew five miles in a minute didn't have much time to enjoy the scenery.
White crosses by the roadside at scenes of accidents to warn motorists would seem to be a good proposition. Surely something ought to be done. Advertising is what will bring "Koeh's Safety Crosses" before the public.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter Harrison, of Chicago, are going to French Indo-China to hunt the saladang. This, it appears, is not a green vegetable, as you might think, but an animal with horns.

THE RIGHT TO PROPOSE

Women are doing practically everything else that man formerly did. Yet man's initiative in affairs of the heart is the last citadel of romance. Will it be bowled over one of these beaming days? If it is it will serve the women right.
The women have surely been striding some these latter years. Is this so-called progress justified by its results? Are they happier, more contented, more delightful than the ladies of the long ago? Take the ballot, for example. "Give us the vote," said the suffragette, "and politics will be purified, the problems of state will be solved and everything will be lovely." Has it all come to pass as exultantly predicted?
The women are to blame for all this. They have stood silently by and watched their privilege demolished and accepted new burdens thrust upon them without a protest. The overwhelming majority of them were more than satisfied with things as they were, but they would not so much as shed a hairpin for the grand old status quo. Will they repeat this cowardice in the present instance? If a few of the unwooded and unwomanly sisters begin to agitate for the right to propose will the women allow themselves to be plundered of their most diverting bit of strategy, of the finest of their fine arts?
It is for the women to say whether they shall be reduced to dreadful imitations of men.

Sheetrock has a heat-insulating value many times that of brick, stone or wood. That's why rooms lined with Sheetrock are so cool in summer, so warm and economical to heat in winter. Takes any decoration—wall paper, paint, or Textone. Its cost is low.

Answers to a questionnaire circulated among 1,000 college girls of the middle west, are said to show that 65 per cent of them think that the ideal husband should be cave-mannish, but in a "refined way."
These responses would be more illuminating if they were more complete. It is a common failing of questionnaires to elicit everything but the one thing most persons would like to know.
It is not at all clear what kind of cavern the "refined" variety is. Of course, some of the things not to be expected of him are apparent. He is not supposed, in the pet phrase of professed wife tamers, to "catch 'em young, treat 'em rough and tell 'em nothing." It is to be presumed that he may be entirely ruthless in seizing the weekly pay check, dragging it home and hurling it into his wife's lap. On occasions he may even be cross with the janitor—especially on cold mornings when the steam is low—and he must not allow landlords to browbeat him when it comes time to renew the lease.

Capital Stock Tax
In addition to their income tax, corporations are required to pay the Federal Government a capital stock tax. It was instituted as a special source of war-expense income and is denominated an excise tax, but is actually a property tax on the entire assets of a corporation. Corporations have followed different methods in figuring this tax, and there are as many as 20,000 disputed revisions yearly. It is now planned to re-examine the 300,000 odd annual capital tax returns for past years with a view to an impartial readjustment according to a common rule. All future returns will be subject to a similar overhauling, perhaps, years after the taxpayer has, as he supposes, fully met all tax obligations.
This adds another set of tax complexities to those that seem to be inevitable in the administration of the income tax with its endless regulations, changing and conflicting interpretations.
If the government needed the $80,000,000 a year this war tax yields it would be better to include the amount of it in the income tax. But as the prospect is that the latter is to be greatly reduced at the next session of Congress, the capital stock tax is, obviously, a superfluity, as well as a vexatious nuisance.

REFINED CAVEMEN
If you ever get to feeling conceited about what you have accomplished in life, read a little biography and find out how some others with half your opportunities have won worldwide recognition before they were anywhere near your age. And if you should feel depressed you might note the number who have won both fame and fortune after they were far older than you.

JURY ON NOVEMBER 16

From Saturday's Daily—
District Judge James T. Begley has announced that the petit jury for the November term of the district court will be called to report on Monday, November 16th, at the court here. Judge Begley is now winding up the jury term in Sarpy county, and goes from there to Otoe county for a jury term and then back to Cass county for the jury term. There are a large number of cases for trial in the court and which will probably take a great deal of the time of the jury unless a number of them are settled and dismissed.

Knabe's Hampshire Boar & Gilt Sale
At Wm. Hicks' Sale Pavilion, Nehawka, Neb.
Saturday, October 24th, 1925
Sale starts at 1:00 O'Clock P. M.
30B BOARS! 20 GILTS!
The Hampshires have added another world's record to the breed this year when George M. Pringle of Parks, Nebraska, shipped 20 carloads to one market at one time, all of his own raising, selling for $46,936.14. The 20 carloads all sold for 20 cents per cwt. higher than any other load on the same market.
Here is your opportunity to get your Boar to make a record for you the same as the Hampshires have done for Mr. Pringle, for this is the greatest offering of Hampshire Boars to be sold in the middle west this year. This offering traces back to many noted sires and sows and more Blue Ribbon winners than any sale of Hampshires held for several years. This offering will be mainly sired by Yankee King, the Boar that had more sons, daughters, grandsons and granddaughters in the prize winning pens at recent Nebraska and Kansas state fairs and other state shows (also Jr. Champion Boar of National Swine Show of 1924 on Boar Pig under 6 months) than any other Hampshire sire. This breeding is a successful out-cross on every line of Hampshire blood.
So if you are wanting an outstanding Boar, be sure and attend this sale. For we have full brothers to Yankee's Pride, the Grand Champion Boar of Topeka and Hutchinson, Kansas, fairs in 1925. Yankee's Pride also sired 1st Jr. Boar Pig at same fairs and Nebraska state fair in 1925, one outstanding boar that is a brother to 1st prize Senior Boar of Iowa, and Junior Champion Boar of Nebraska, 1925. Several brothers to Super Yankee and Yankee Champion, sensational show boars of 1924; 1st prize Pig Club boar of Nebraska state fair, 1925; one boar by Pershing Over the Boar that sired 1st prize get of sire for last four years at National Swine Show; one boar by the Clan, Grand Champion at Interstate fair of 1924; one boar that is litter mate to 2nd prize boar pig of Iowa, and sired by Marvel Sensation, Grand Champion of Iowa and Nebraska state fairs, 1925.
We will be glad to have you attend this sale, whether you buy or not. Write for a catalog today and come and see this offering.
