The

Plattsmouth

Journal.

VOL. NO. XLI

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1925.

Poisall Case on in the District

Liquor on Third Offiense-Deday and the event proved most defence Is That Liquor Not His lightful to all. As a rememberance

From Monday's Daily-

This morning at 10 o'clock the dis- ful gifts. trict started the grind in the November term of the court, the first case | called being that of the State of Nebraska vs Harry Poisall, charged with possession of liquor, the third offence being charged in the information filed in the court and on which the defendant was placed on trial.

Mr. Poisall was represented in the action by Attorney William Jameson of Omaha, while the state was represented by County Attorney W.

The jury was secured with dispatch and the case placed on trial within a short time after the opening of

The state had as their witnesses Sheriff E. P. Stewart, Chief of Police A. R. Johnson and Constable J. C. offered in evidence in the case as the announcement received here. having been found at the residence property of the defendant, Harry Poisall and the placing of the alleged after its being sealed. Mr. Brittain detailed the finding of the four boted the botles from their hiding place.

Mr. Lerov Creamer, chemist at the testified as to having tested the contents that had been submitted to him and of finding that there was 27 per cent alsohol by volume.

Justice of the Peace William Weber testified that Harry Poisall had been convicted on violation of the liquor law on previous occasions in his

had been placed in the home without structure to span the Platte river. his knowledge or consent by Paul Poisall, a son of the defendant, and poured today and the structure is been active in each of these organizawho was several months ago sent to now all complete with the exception tions in his lifetime here. the state school at Kearney for sale of the railing that will be placed that the first that he knew of the the dedication. matter was when he was arrested and charged with the crime of possession of liquor. Harry Poisall, Jr., was placed on the stand and testified that he was brought the liquor found by the officers, from Omaha and had seen Paul place the liquer in the furnace, this all being without the knowledge or consent of their father.

The case was concluded as far as

From Tuesday's Daily-

The jury in the district court comin the district court, returned a tained, verdiet last evening in which they arguments which were offered by Lambert is the heir. County Attorney W. G. Kieck, for the state, and William Jameson, attorney for the defence. The attorney for the defence contended that while the liquor was found on the property son, Paul, without his knowledge.

the request of Mr. Jameson, the at- tion of the past few days following torney for the defence, the bond of her very serious accident in Omaha. Mr. Poisall was continued over cov- The patient is now able to secure a ering the appeal to the state supreme little rest and sleep which she has court which the defendant announced he would undertake.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

From Tuesday's Daily-1

Yesterday afternoon the W. C. T. U held a very enjoyable meeting at the charming country home of Mrs. S. A. Wiles and which was quite largely that it is thought that she wil not attended by the members of the her ankle which was injured is quite

The devotional period of the meeting was led by Mrs. Frank Emory tent. Pfoutz which furnished a most fitting opening for the interesting session that followed.

The roll call of the afternoon was made with responses of thankfuliness From Monday's Dailyfor the good of the past year which was followed by the reception of Meisinger family was made very all those in attendance.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY HERE

From Tuesday's Daily-Mrs. Maude Bunch and daughter, Miss Hazel, came down from Omaha Sunday to spend a short time here Court Today with Mrs. Homer McKay, mother of Mrs. Bunch, and while here Mrs. Bunch was given a pleasant reminder of her birthday anniversary. A num-Defendant Charged With Possession of ber of the friends joined in extending to Mrs. Bunch the returns of the Formal Opening of the King of Trails Bridge

of the event Mrs. Bunch received a

Boosters Will Be Present at the Opening Ceremonies on Friday

From Tuesday's Daily-

of Trails bridge over the Platte river

The bridge has been open for weather interfered with the plans for bridge was first opened to the public. but the South Omaha boosters who tles concealed in the furnace at the have been much interested in the new Poisall home and of his having secur- bridge have decided that they will state department of food and drugs their announcement they will be on remain the mother, Mrs. Barbara ston, regent of the local chapter.

The defence in the case was that have a delegation of several hundred member of the city council from the cieties of the nation and which all while the liquor was found at the Poisall home, it was not the property lof the defendant, Harry Poisall, but how bottom the should follow in the making of better and active figure in the democratic men and women. Foisall home, it was not the property ers present to formally accept the left and active light in the Bookmeyer Mrs. E. H. Wescott also gave one lof the defendant, Harry Poisall, but new bridge that gives the second was a member of the Fogles M W of of her delightful vocal numbers and

DOINGS IN DISTRICT COURT

From Tuesday's Daily-

This morning an action was filed at the home when Paul Poisall had by David Tighe against the National attorney, C. E. Tefft, alleges that the plaintiff secured an insurance policy covering fire loss on his property from the taking of testimony was concerned by noon and the argument will be made this afternoon by the atthe defendant company. That on plaintiff but a property nearby that posed of W. F. Huneke, H. A. Light- plaintin but a property nearby that lives at the taking away of this heady George Poters T. W. Flaming he did not own and which it is albody, George Peters, T. W. Fleming, the did not own and which it is al-ble Krigger D. Stoffens, I. C. Com, leged was a mistake made by the The corples was conducted. H. L. Kruger, D. Steffens, J. C. Com- agent of the defendant company. The O. A. Coon and C. B. Smith, which plaintiff asks that the policy be corheard the trial of the case of the rected and that the defendant com-State of Nebraska vs. Harry Poisall pany be required to reimburse the

An action has also been filed by found the defendant guilty as charg- Louis Keil, guardian of Ray W. ed of possession of intoxicating Lambert, vs. John L. Smith, et al., in liquor and also of its being the third which the plaintiff seeks to foreclose a mortgage and note for $1,000 which The case was given to the jury the defendants are alleged to owe to C. Cook, B. A. McElwain and H. G.

MARKED IMPROVEMENT SHOWN

From Monday's Daily-

The reports from the bedside of of the defendant that it was not his, but had been placed there by his Mrs. John Carmack at Omaha, states that the patient is now showing some Following the verdict of guilty on marked improvement over her condiheretofore been unable to do as the result of the pain and the shock from the injuries that she received. Mrs. Carmack was injured by being struck by an auto on 17th street in Omaha the first of last week and was for several days in a very critical condition at the Lord Lister hospital in Omaha. The injuries of Mrs. Carmack are now showing so much improvement her ankle which was injured is quite painful and probably will be some time before it can be used to any ex-

LITTLE DAUGHTER ARRIVES

Sunday morning the Henry J.

happy by the arrival of a fine daufour new members. Mrs. John F. Gorder, leader of the ghter that came to join the family meeting gave two very interesting of three fine husky boys that now readings on the subject of prohibition form the household. The little lady and Rev. Harmon, paster of the U. B. arrived at the home of her grand- to go to the hospital for a slight church at Mynard also gave a most mother, Mrs. John Libershall where operation that the offending tooth pleasing talk along the lines of pro- Mrs. Meisinger had been for some

At the close of the meeting dainty little daughter is the object of the but it will be several days before the and delicious refreshments were ser greatest admiration from the proud patient recovers. ved that added to the enjoyment of and happy relatives and with the mother is doing very nicely.

Wesley Bookmeyer is Called

Well Known Plattsmouth Man Passes young girl. The the new past his on After Long and Lingering Illness From Cancer.

From Monday's Daily-

number of very handsome and use-As the sentinel of time was about malady of cancer.

Mr. Bookmeyer was at the time of his death fifty-one years of age, havof one year by his parents, Mr. and Large Delegation of South Omaha Mrs. Anton Bookmeyer and here he has spent the remaining years of his

The deceased was born February 26, 1874, at Prague, Bohemia, where The formal opening of the King his parents were then residents and shortly afterwards the family came Fontenelle Chapter of the D. A. R. north of this city has been set for to America and located at Platts-Brittain, who testified to four bottles Friday, November 20th according to mouth. After attending the public school and completing his education al work Mr. Bookmeyer entered the something like a month but the bad employe of the Burlington and was engaged here in the paint shop, being liquor in the vault at the court house the formal opening at the time the one of the oldest employes of the railroad here in point of service.

> In 1902 Mr. Bookmeyer was married to Miss Rose Svoboda in this Mrs. William Baird. city who with one son, Raymond see that the new structure is most Bookmeyer, mourns the passing of the fittingly dedicated and according to husband and father. There also presided over by Mrs. J. S. Livinghand on Friday to see that suitable Bookmeyer, and three sisters, Mrs. ceremonies are carried out to give Lillian Freeman, Misses Clara and of honor Lieutenant Covernor Johnthe new steel and concrete structure Mary Bookmeyer, all residing in this son and wife of Fairmont, Nebraska city. The father and one brother, who enjoyed the opportunity of meet-> was a member of the Eagles, M. W. of The last of the concrete piers was A. and the Z. C. B. J. society, having Harvey Johnson, one of the new mem-along the structure and a small fence knowing Mr. Bookmeyer esteemed a violin number. Mr. Poisall, the defendant testified to the fact that he had no knowledge at a stage where the South Side that the liquor was in his home and that the liquor was in his home and boosters feel that they can join in his friends and his tender and able address on "Defence Day" which be greatly missed and the family adequate peace.

The Baird home was very prettily death only the healing touch of time arranged with decorations of chrycan bring a sense of comfort to the santhmums that added a pleasing plaintiff in his petition filed by his family and those nearest and dearest touch of beauty to the scene and to to the departed.

> From Wednesday's Daily-Yesterday afternoon the funeral added to the pleasantness of the ocservices of the late J. W. Bookmeyer casion. In serving Mrs. James W. from the home on Marble street, drew Burnie presided at the coffee urn. for adjustment it was found that the policy was made through error to cover, not the property of the the sorrow that had come into their

The service was conducted by Rev. words of sympathy and comfort to the bereaved family and the sorrowing relatives, bringing to them the message of comfort and cheer that the teachings of the christian faith can offer in the hour of deepest grief and sorrow. During the services a male quartet composed of Frank A. Cloidt, R. shortly after 2 o'clock following the the estate of which the minor, Ray McClusky gave two of the old familiar hymns of comfort, "Jesus Savior Pilot Me" and "Rock of Ages. There was a very large representation of the members of the Burlington paint shop present at the service, among these being many of the assoc iates of many years standing. The interment was at the Oak Hill emetery beside those of the family From Monday's Dallywho have preceded Mr. Bookmeyer

WILL CONTINUE TREATMENT

Mrs. Earl Redd of this city who has been suffering for the past two months from the effects of the breaking of the first finger of the left hand and the complications that followed is still to have to undergo further treatment will be undertaken in from amputation which will be the last resort to give the patient relief. Mrs. Redd has suffered a great deal from the effects of the injured hand.

SUFFERING FROM BAD TOOTH

From Tuesday's Daily-

W. A. Swatek, the junior member of the firm of Bestor & Swatek, is taking an enforced vacation from his duties at the hardware store as the has made necessary. It is not thought time. It is needless to say that the that the operation will be serious, Newspaper advertising pays!

ENJOYS VISIT WITH FATHER

From Tuesday's Daily-Mrs. Joe Martis, who resides south of this city, has just recently returned home from a very pleasant visit back in Wisconsin with her to Last Rest visit back in Wisconsin with her father, James Bonhuer at Battemine, whom she had not seen for twentyeight years or since she was a very seventieth year and was one that was a real pleasure to all of the family. The home of the Bonhuer family is in one of the very attract- From Monday's Daliyive spots in Wisconsin and the visit to strike the hour of noon Sunday, there with the father was one that Lutz was engaged in looking after Wesley Bookmeyer, lifetime resident Mrs. Martis will long remember very her usual household duties she reof Plattsmouth, answered the last much and she expects to return to call, death coming to mercifully close that section of the country next his suffering which has covered a summer for a visit as it is one of the earthly activities and pass on to the period of several months as he strug- most attractive of the resort sections great beyond. gled in a losing battle against the of the state of the lakes and woods.

Meeting at the Baird Home

Entertained at Home of Mrs. William Baird Last Evening.

Last evening the members of the Fontenelle chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, togethe with their husbands were entertained very pleasantly at the home of

The occasion was in the nature of a patriotic meeting and the occasion

The ladies enjoyed as their gnes A large number of those who have extensive interests in the South Oma Wesley in death.

Otto C. Bookmeyer have preceded Mr. Johnson also gave a very interha packing companies have been In his long years here Mr. Book- esting address during the evening on among the strongest boosters of the meyer was active in the life of the "Good Citizenship" making this one new bridge and they are planning to community, being for several terms a one of the goals of the patriotic so-city also afforded the members of the Those who had the opportunity of party a real treat in his offering of thoughful care of his family and lov- was an inspiration to those who are ed ones and devotion to the home that interested in the better protection he had established in this community, of their nation and their homes in In the circles of his friends he will the time of danger by making for an

At a suitable hour dainty and delicious refreshments were served that

YOUNG PEOPLE ARE WEDDED

Frank Emory Pfoutz, paster of the away and had the marriage vows one will be waiting. groom and who witnessed the cere-future years. mony. The many friends here of the contracting parties who were well known here among the younger people will be pleased to learn of the marriage and join in their well wishes to the newly weds.

ENTERTAINS LITTLE FOLKS

Those in attendance were: Mary in that neighborhood. The property Margaret Squire, Anna Marie Rea, was occupied by Clyde Brittian and hopes of being able to save the finger Philip Rosencrans, Bobby Squire, family. Dickie Warner, Joseph Reichstadt, Edward Hadraba and Ambrose Claus.

GOES TO HOSPITAL

From Monday's Daily-

the operation performed. relief in the operation.

Death Calls a Well Beloved

young girl. The visit was a surprise Mrs. John Lutz Passed Away Very covering from the effects of a recent Deceased Lady That Passed Away Suddenly at Her Home Here Sunday Morning.

> Yesterday morning while Mrs. John this part of the world in touch over ceived the last call to lay aside her

> The family had just a short time before completed their breakfast and Mrs. Lutz had taken up the work of preparing for Sunday dinner and was so engaged when the death summons came. Mr. Lutz had gone to the celrequested him to secure and while T. H. Pollock, Winner of Overland iar to secure a tub that the wife had there heard a fall on the floor of the kitchen and hastened up the stairs o find the wife breathing her last is she lay on the floor. Medical aid From Monday's Dailyvas called but death had been the natter of a few second after her fall.

var. Mrs. Lutz was stricken with the the erection of the building on the Spanish flu that took toll of so many Legion's plat of ground facing Vine Grove precinct and was lives in the United States and her street, has again evinced his wholereakness of the heart resulted from hearted support of this worthy proher serious illness at that time, she ject by contributing to the fund the having been suffering more or less in new Overland sedan won at the joint the succeeding years altho of late she Legion-Elks carnival Saturday. The September 26, 1889, was married in has been apparently growing much car will be sold forthwith and the Plattsmouth to George A. Kaffenber-better and was able to be around and entire proceeds applied to the buildnjoy her usual activities. To the faming fund, which will give it one of portion of the young farmers of this by the sudden death has come as a the fam- the sudden death has come as a the colored to date. In addition there being performed here by Father H. treat shock but to the departing lady ceived to date. In addition, there B. Burgess of the St. Luke's Episcothe summons came peacefully and will be applied to the fund in the pal church. without suffering, a merciful ending near future half of the proceeds of since made her home. The marriage of the $10,000 goal.

he St. Paul's Evangelical church. To mourn the loss of this good its retail value, voman there remain the sorrowing farry L. King of St. Louis, Missouri. had a chance on the car. here are also two sisters, Mrs. John Sattler of this city and Mrs. harles Herold of Peoria, Illinois. In their hour of sorrow when the pain of seperation is the keenest and vords of sympathy fail to bring a a tender loving wife and mother, been called to have an examination her life an example to them in their made by the specialists who have beth Eaton, daughter of Mrs. Edna been one of the most highly esteemed mother returns to this city. Marshall Petteys of Omaha and and loved ladies who have resided in Harold Draper, son of Mrs. Claus this city, her splendid character, her Speck of this city. The young people unfailing brightness and genial diswere accompanied to Glenwood by position making her a host of friends Mrs. Frank Marshall, sister of the who will miss her very much in the

FIRE AT ATLANTIC HOUSE

From Wednesday's Daily-This morning at 1:30 the fire department was called to the Atlantic house at Third and Granite streets where the ancient structure was reported to be in danger of destruction by fire. The department on their Saturday afternoon the home of arrival found the blaze to be in the Mr. and Mrs. Herman Reichstadt was hallway of the house where the fire the scene of a merry party of little had evidently originated from a pan folks when little Miss Lorene Reich- of hot ashes that had been left sitstadt entertained a number of her ting near the partition in the hall. little friends. The time was spent The flames had eaten its way in games and extending to Lorene through the partition and up the many returns on her birthday an- side of the wall but was extinguished niversary which was being observed without much trouble and the prompt and at an appropriate hour dainty action of the department saved the refreshments were served that added destruction of the house and perhaps to the enjoyment of th occasion, a number of other pieces of property

WEDDING AT COURT HOUSE

From Wednesday's Daily-After several weeks of extreme Frank Sedlacek departed yesterday quietness in the matromonial departfor Omaha where he enters the hos- ment of the county court, Judge pital for an operation for the removal Duxbury was called upon this mornof his tonsils which has for some ing to make two young people happy time been giving him a great deal by performing the ceremony that of trouble and annoyance and to made them man and wife. The consecure relief from which he will have tracting parties were Gottleib Sell and Miss Margaret Conley, both of This morning Arthur Blunt de- Weeping Water. The ceremony was parted for Omaha taking with him performed in the usual impressive his small son, Robert, the little man manner of the Judge and was withad tonsils and adnoids removed at nessed by Robert Walling, the abthe hospital today as he has been starctor and Miss Stella Conley. At suffering very much from this afflict- the conclusion of the marriage cereion for some time and from which mony the young people departed for he hopes to derive some permanent their homes in the central portion of the county.

VISITING IN OMAHA

From Tuesday's Daily-Yesterday Mrs. Jennie Klimm and Miss Geneva McNatt of near Murray, were visitors in Omaha for a few Lady to Rest hours where they spent a short time visiting with their friends, Mrs. Ed Midkiff of Avoca, at the St. Catherine's hospital where she is now re-

> While in Omaha the ladies also visited the WOAW radio station and enjoyed the fine program there as From Wednesday's Dallywell as viewing the plant that keeps

Carnival Car to be Applied on

Sedan, Gives It to Legion to be

Sold for Aiding Cause

T. H. Pollock, largest individual con libutor to the Legion's commun-Seven years ago during the world ity auditorium fund being raised for the carnival received by the Legion Kaffenberger made their home on Minnie Prettig was born March as its share, and 20 per cent of the their farm west of this city until in 31, 1868, at Pekin, Illinois, where her Elks' half, given as their accredited 1913 when they removed to Plattsamily were among the early German contribution to the fund. These sums mouth where they resided until 1919 sidents in that locality and in that will send the thermometer, which when they moved to Lincoln to percommunity she spent her childhood has been standing dormant for some mit the daughters of the family comlays, moving to Plattsmouth in 1886 time around the $6,000 mark up the pleting their work in the University with her family and where she has scale a goot bit of the way toward of Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Lutz occurred at Platts- "No more worthy need has ever Kaffenberger was a very active figure outh in July 1888, and since that been sponsored," declared Mr. Pol- in the work of the First Methodist time they have been numbered among lock three months ago, when he sub- church of this city and a lady that the most highly esteemed residents scribed $500 as his personal pledge made a very large circle of warm of this community. In her early life to the new community building list friends who are mourning her death Mrs. Lutz became a member of the of donors, and he reaffirmed that most sincerely. German Lutheran church and remain- statement again today when he ad- To survive this good woman there d a member of that faith until her vised the committee of his intention remain the husband and five chilleath, her assistance and work in of contributing the newly-won car-dren, John B. Kaffenberger of Plattshe church here having made her one which has not been run a mile, being mouth, Mrs. C. A. Spacht of Peru, f the most useful and highly esteem- displayed atop a truck wagon prior Mrs. Carl Courtright of Des Moines, d members of the congregation of to and during the carnival and Iowa and Misses Golda and Gladys will bring a sum of money well nigh Kaffenberger at home. One daughter, nusband and four children, Otto E. in thus furthering the early erection one brother. Of the brothers and Luiz. Henry F. Lutz, Miss Cathe- of the building will meet with the sisters of the deceased lady there reine Lutz, all of this city and Mrs. hearty approval of every one who mains Mrs. C. T. Peacock, University

TAKING TREATMENT AT ROCHESTER

From Wednesday's Daily-

The marriage of two former Platts- future years and the blessed promise charge of her case and from their mouth young people occured Satur- of another meeting when the storms treatment Mrs. Luschinsky has de- known residents at the Nebraska day evening at Glenwood, Iowa, to of life have ceased and they too are rived a great deal of good, but the Masonic Home who has been enjoying which city they had quietly slipped borne to that land where their loved course of treatment makes it neces- a visit at Omaha, Lincoln and other sary for frequent exeminations. Miss out in the state points, returned First Methodist church, who gave away and had the marriage vows one will be waiting.

The community in which Mrs. Lutz Ruth Lushinsky accompanied her home yesterday after a very pleasant were aware of the forthcoming event, has lived for the past forty years is mother to the Minnesota city and visit with friends. The parties were Miss Laura Eliza- indeed poorer in her going as she has will remain there with her until the Passing of Mrs. George

NO. 83

Yesterday at Lincoln Was Resident Here for Many Years.

Kaffenberger

It was with the most profound sorrow last evening that the many friends in this community learned of the passing of Mrs. George A. Kaffenberger which occurred at her home 1955 A street, Lincoln. The death of Mrs. Kaffenberger was foreshadowed in her rapidly failing health that had been especially marked in the last few months in the malady of cancer Building Fund from which she was suffering, the family having been informed in the last few days of the fact that the beloved one was not to be with them for many days.

Mary Ellen Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Becker, was born January 4, 1871, at Pekin, Illinois, where the family had been making their home for a number of years and while yet a child of very tender years she was brought by her parents to Cass county, Nebraska, where the father, John H. Becker, located on a farm in Eight Mile prominent resident there. In this county the deceased lady grew to womanhood and received her education in the public schools and on

After their marriage Mr. and Mrs

While a resident of this city Mrs.

Mrs. Baumgart, preceded the mother The generous action of Mr. Pollock in death as did also the parents and Place; Wiliam A. Becker of Mynard; H. E. and P. T. Becker and Mrs. Frank A. Cloidt of this city.

While no definite arrangements as to the funeral have been made it is expected that the services will be Mrs. George Luschinsky is at Friday afternoon at the late home ly have to sustain them the memory Rochester, Minnesota, where she has in Lincoln and the interment at the

C. A. Caldwell, one of the well

Advertising pays! Try it!

