Card of Thanks
We wish to extend our sincerest thanks to our many friends for the kindnesses they showed during the sickness and death of our dear, sweet wife and mother.—Eugene Austin and Children.

Mrs. Stella May Austin
A number of years ago when Nebraska was young there appeared within the Missouri valley a couple starting life together in a new land. This couple was John and Mary Chilcott. To this union seven children were born, two dying some time ago. Today we are met to pay our last tribute of respect to another who has answered the call to accompany her master to her future home. This one is Mrs. Stella May Austin. Mrs. Austin was born northeast of Union, May 2, 1870, and answered the last call December 11, 1925, aged 55 years, 7 months and 9 days. She was united in bonds of Holy wedlock to another early settler of this Missouri valley, Eugene Austin, and that part which says, "until death do us part" was carried out in her life. To this union were born five children.
They are: Roy, Bloomington, California; Sherman, Union; Mrs. Oeta Welsh, Omaha; Miss Addie, Union.

and Mrs. Mary Applegate, Hood River, Oregon, besides the five children, there remain to mourn her departure the husband, three grandchildren, three brothers, Miles Chilcott, Butte, Nebraska; Henry Chilcott, of Union, and Wesley, of Stockville, Nebraska; one sister, Mrs. Dora Albion, of Union, and many other relatives and friends who all feel that a vacant place has been created that can not be filled.

Mrs. Austin was converted and joined the Methodist church in Union a number of years ago and remained a faithful worker in all departments until the end, doing what she could for her Master.

She was conscious to the last and almost her last thoughts were for the comfort of others. She would smooth her sufferings for fear it would make one else worry. Her mind was always alert to the comfort of others, often neglecting herself in their behalf.

She had the spirit of Christ in that with even death staring her in the face, she thought how her friends could be made comfortable.

Her friends can not be numbered. They miss her that she's gone. But this must be remembered—She has gone to her heavenly home.

Funeral services were held both at the house and the E. Church by her pastor, Rev. Runnels, assisted by Rev. Taylor, a life long friend, interment at the M. E. cemetery at Union.

Revival Meeting a Success
The revival meetings which are being conducted by the Rev. Runnels, pastor of the Union church, assisted by the pastor of the Methodist church at Nehawka, the Rev. Van Dyke, both of whom are very eloquent speakers and who have aroused great interest with the result that there have been a number of people evidence a desire for another life and will with the close of the meetings unite with the church.

Shower for Bride Elect
Last Saturday evening Mrs. W. H. Porter entertained for their many friends in honor of her friend, Miss Virginia Copenhaver, who is in a short time to wed Mr. Rheuman. The evening was spent in merriment and a good time was had, and many were the beautiful gifts which were presented to the coming bride, who is to be wed this week. Besides the gifts which were given all extended to the winsome lass the expressed desire for a long, happy and useful life, and that she might be a blessing to all whom she might know.

Makes Nice Christmas Present
When puzzling over the matter of a gift to some distant friend, consider for a moment the pleasure they would derive from receiving the Semi-Weekly Journal throughout the coming year. Although it only costs $2 it will bring as much pleasure to the recipient as many $10 gifts could be expected to. We will send a card to parties for whom Christmas subscriptions are ordered, stating it is to be sent them during 1926 as a gift from you.

Was Thirty Days Late.
One of the prominent business men of Union, desiring to make the home happy, and especially the good wife, selected with great care a present for her birthday, which he had in his mind, fixed on December 8th, and keeping it so she could not see it, when he sat down to supper slipped it under her plate when she stepped into the kitchen for something. When she returned and took her place at the table she turned over her plate and was surprised to find lying there a package, she asked what it meant and was told by her husband that it was her birthday present. After a peal of laughter filled the room at this announcement and when she could control the mirth, she explained through her tears, for she had laughed so much that she cried that her birthday was the 8th of November and that he had missed the date just thirty days. Of course we will not tell who this man is, but one could find out most anywhere in Union.

GERMANY IS HELD LIABLE
Washington, Dec. 14.—American holders of German treasury notes purchased before the United States entered the world war were upheld by the supreme court today in their effort to satisfy their claims out of funds belonging to the German government seized by the alien property custodian. In an opinion delivered by Justice Holmes, covering twenty-five cases in which the issue was raised, the court ruled that the United States government was not entitled to property in satisfaction of its claims against Germany out of these funds, which include money amounting to $2,715,571 identified as belonging to the Imperial German government.
The German government having failed to make any provision for the redemption of its treasury notes, the American holders entered suits in the federal courts asking judgments to satisfy their claims out of the German funds.

Union Dealer Has Kindness Much Misused

A. L. Becker Loses Goods Amounting to Some $150 as Result of Attempt to Do Kindness.

The milk of human kindness which is a rarity in the most of men was given a severe test this week in Union and A. L. Becker, well known farmer and merchant of that place is about ready to believe that the golden rule of "do unto others as you would have them do to you" has been revised to include, "but do them first."

Mr. Becker lost some $150 worth of merchandise from his corner store in Union sometime late Saturday night or early Sunday morning the goods disappeared at the same time that a stranger that had been given shelter from the cold and storm of the winter season also took wing.

Several days ago a stranger, giving the name of M. R. Blatt, wandered into the pleasant little city of Union, being a side door tourist and who stated that he was desirous of having shelter from the cold and disagreeable features of the winter and desired to secure work.

Mr. Becker, who has a warm spot in his heart for the unfortunate gave the man a job of helping unload a load of coal and such other odd work as was available around the store and on Friday evening, after the man had completed the task assigned him he was given shelter in the basement of the store. This was not as comfortable quarters as could be desired and accordingly Mr. Becker decided that he would do more for the man and accordingly had a bed, mattress and bedding brought down from the Becker home and placed in a hall in the upper portion of the building and where the stranger was allowed to get a real "flop." This was on Saturday evening and the next development was when the owner of the store visited there on Sunday and discovered that his good heartedness and confidence had been rudely violated by the stranger. The stranger had made his way from the upper floor of the building down to the store and proceeded to shed his old garments and attire himself in new and costly raiment that he took from the stock in the store and to add to this gathered up several sheep lined coats, expensive underwear and other staples in the line of winter clothing and with there made his getaway.

The matter was reported to the authorities but so far the man that committed the offense has been at large and seems to have made his escape with the goods from the store. It is safe to say however that the next man will have a hard time in talking Mr. Becker out of any assistance.

SCOPES GRANTED TIME TO FILE HIS APPEAL

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 14.—An announcement was made today that opposing counsel has agreed to a decree being filed in the state supreme court allowing counsel for John T. Scopes until January 19 to file assignments in error in his appeal from conviction of violating the state law against teaching evolution. There has been reports that failure to file the assignment by the original time allowed, November 30, might automatically terminate his appeal.

RECOGNITION OF RUSSIA 'MAY NOT BE FAR AWAY'

New York, Dec. 14.—A Washington dispatch says "certain indications suggest that recognition of Russia by the United States may be nearer than generally is supposed." Among the recent indications, says the dispatch is news that Keown Shiley, vice president of the Chase National Bank gave a dinner at the bankers' club last Thursday night which was attended by prominent American and Russian business men. News of the dinner first came from Moscow.

Ernest Jack is Found Dead in Field at Eagle

Failed to Return to Noon day Meal and Search Revealed Him Dead Beside Haystack.

The community was greatly startled this afternoon by the rumor that Ernest Jack had been found out in the field in an unconscious condition and a physician was wanted at once. Dr. Longacre and Will Trumble went to the home immediately, and found Mr. Jack in the field, where he had gone for a load of hay. While at first it was thought he had suffered a stroke of paralysis, the doctor's diagnosis was that he was dead when he arrived.

The news did not reach town until we were about ready to go to press and we are unable to give further particulars, or what arrangements will be made for the funeral.—Eagle Beacon.

WHY MEN DIFFER

President George H. Wood of the National Military Home, said at a Constitution Day dinner in Dayton: "Men differ according to their nationality, and that is why universal brotherhood is a long way off."
"Eight men were once wrecked on a desert island. A year later a ship picked them up. The skipper of the ship noted in his log that:
"The two Scotchmen had founded a Caledonian Society."
"The two Irishmen had fought twice a day during the whole year."
"The two Englishmen hadn't introduced."
"The two Americans had opened a real estate agency in a palm-leaf hut, with a Rotary Club, a Boosters' League and a hootchmaking plant in the cellar."—Exchange.
