In the second team of the boys Greenwood won from Elmwood by what score we did not learn.

PROSPERITY AHEAD FOR THE MIDDLEWEST

Fremont, Neb., March 5.—Nebraska and the middle west farming regions are on the road to sound prosperity, and are gradually recovering from the war depression period, in the opinion of Fred W. Sargent of the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad company, who addressed the Chamber of Commerce here Thursday.

"Nebraska resources should be more extensively advertised in the east," he said, "and more profitable investments in the state sought."

Mr. Sargent is making an inspection tour for his company through Wisconsin, Minnesota and Nebraska.

George Nichols Dies at Home Near Greenwood

Resident of the Vicinity of Greenwood Since 1886 and Loved and Respected by All.

On Wednesday evening at about five o'clock Uncle George Nichols, who has been an element in the development of Cass county to its high state of cultivation and who has labored incessantly for the community in which he has spent the last half century, and after an illness extending over a month answered the last summons, the one from labor to reward. As the day was waning and the light of the bright sun was slowly fading, the spirit of this excellent citizen took its flight to the other world. Mr. Nichols was born at Sedgwick, Iowa, which is a small station south of Burlington on the Mississippi river, and where he lived for some time with his parents, he being born June 27th 1858. He was married at New London, Iowa, in 1886 to Miss Sarah Carter, they immediately coming to Nebraska to live, and locating in western Cass county where he has made his home since. From this union there were five children born one of whom died in infancy, and another Ross Nichols dying about eight years ago, there remaining Herold Nichols who lives near the old home, Mrs. Peter Schroder, living but a short distance away, Mrs. Earl Hoagland of Humboldt, and daughter Miss Bessie Nichols, living at home. Mrs. Nichols preceded the husband to the other land some sixteen years ago. A number of years later he was united in marriage the second time to Fannie Pelford of Ashland. The funeral was held from the late home and was conducted by the Rev. C. J. Park formerly pastor of the Christian church at Greenwood. The interment was made in the beautiful cemetery near Greenwood.

The pall bearers were old time friends who had lived and some of whom still reside near him and who have fought the battle for a better condition of this community, they being Edward Coleman, W. R. Greig, both of Lincoln, M. A. Mathis, L. M. Mowery, O. McDonald and J. C. Lemon, all near by neighbors.

Judge L. B. Day Urged for Congress Race

Twenty-Five Omaha Democrats Join in Asking for His Name Upon the Democratic Ticket.

Mayor Jim Dahman and some friends and fellow democrats of Omaha to the number of twenty-five have petitioned Secretary of State Pool to place the name of L. B. Day upon the ballot as a candidate for congress in the second district. Mr. Day is at present judge of the district court of Omaha. He is now occupying a non-political office, but his democratic friends propose drag him into the limelight of partisan politics. They plan to have him defeat Congressman Sears or W. F. Gurley or who ever happens to be the republican nominee. There are all kinds of democrats on the petition. There is Mayor Jim at the head and not far down the line is William R. Patrick who used to be a different kind of a democrat, but always a democrat. Lee Herdman, and brother, W. H. Herdman, John F. Moriarty, George A. Margney, Sophus Nebbe, Jr., Richard C. Hunter, Richard S. Horton are among the petitioners.

Judge Day has twenty-five days in which to make up his mind and file an acceptance in writing. Judge Day was unknown in Omaha politics until about the time Judge George A. Day of that city stopped running for district judge and became judge of the supreme court. L. B. Day then became a candidate for judge of the district court and the name of Day proved to be a winner in the polls just as it had been in the days of another Day. The two judges in this instance are not related by either blood or politics.

The Dahman petition filed with the secretary of state is accompanied by a receipt for the legal filing fee signed by County Treasurer Otto Bauman. It shows that the fee was received from L. B. Day.

G. P. North, an attorney of Omaha, was nominated last week by petition of another group of Omaha democrats who desire him to run for congress. He has not filed an acceptance.

Senator P. W. Scott of McCook has filed nomination papers as a candidate for renomination upon the republican ticket in the 29th senatorial district.

tion, the following named persons shall constitute the board of directors: H. K. Frantz, J. C. Deuser, Jr., P. L. Hall, Jr., E. A. Landon and A. E. Leesley. Article 10—Each stockholder shall at any regular or special meeting be entitled to one vote, either in person or by proxy for each share of stock held.

Article 11—These articles of incorporation may be amended at any regular or special meeting called for that purpose by a two-thirds vote of all the stock.

Witness our hands this 30th day of December, 1925. H. K. FRANTZ, P. L. HALL, JR., P. J. COSGRAVE, E. A. LANDON, H. B. SCHROEDER, IRA E. ATKINSON, H. F. ATKINSON, HELENA B. HALL, O. W. EVERETT, A. E. LEESLEY, J. C. DEUSER, JR.

State of Nebraska } ss. County of Cass }

On this 30th day of December, 1925, before the undersigned, a notary public in and for said county and state personally appeared H. K. Frantz, P. L. Hall, Jr., P. J. Cosgrave, E. A. Landon, H. B. Schroeder, Ira E. Atkinson, H. F. Atkinson, Helena B. Hall, O. W. Everett, A. E. Leesley and J. C. Deuser, Jr., to me known to be the identical persons whose names are affixed to the foregoing articles of incorporation, and each for himself acknowledged the same to be his voluntary act and deed.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and notarial seal this 30th day of December, 1925, at Greenwood, Nebraska.

E. O. MILLER, Notary Public.

I, H. K. Frantz, President of the Greenwood State Bank, of Greenwood, Nebraska, do hereby certify that the within and foregoing is a true and correct copy of the original articles of incorporation of said bank. Witness my hand this 28th day of December, 1925. H. K. FRANTZ, President.

Business Changes Hands.

James O'Leary who has been farming east of town for several years has concluded as the prices of farm commodities did not warrant his farming longer, and like many others sought other avenues of making a competence. He and John Crane who was also seeking a change got together and consummated a deal whereby Mr. O'Leary becomes the possessor of the interest of the Manley Lumber Yard, which has been owned by Mr. Crane. During the latter portion of the week Mr. Crane and Mr. O'Leary invoiced the stock. The other members of the firm are George Curyea, and Mrs. Winifred Murty, both making their homes at Alvo.

PUGILIST SLASHES HIS OWN THROAT

Grand Island, Neb., March 4.—Arthur Charleton, 30 known in amateur fight circles as "Red" Charleton, it as a local hospital as the result of the effort to take his own life. Charleton pleaded guilty several weeks ago on a "still" charge. As he is practically the only support of an invalid mother he was paroled. Late Wednesday he was going to the city in his light car and collided with another. Damage was light, but Charleton immediately drove a mile at top speed to his home, got a .25-caliber Spanish revolver and then went to the home of L. Brakel, whom he accused of imparting the information to the sheriff of his still.

Bracket wrenched the weapon from Charleton, who at once ran to a bureau, seized a razor and slashed his own throat. He will be examined by the commission on insanity. The Bracketts had always been friendly and had assisted Charleton in the care of the mother.

A. W. CLARKE IS DEAD; PIONEER SARPY BANKER

A. W. Clarke, 85, pioneer Sarpy county resident and president of the banking house of A. W. Clarke in Papillion, died Monday at his home in Beverly Hills, Cal., according to word received Tuesday. He had been ill for only a week. Mr. Sharke, a native of New York state, and three brothers came to Bellevue, Neb., in 1864. All four were actively identified with the early history of the state. In 1880 Mr. Clarke moved to Papillion, where he organized the bank bearing his name. The bank is the oldest in Sarpy county. Fifteen years ago he moved to Beverly Hills, Cal., but in the spring and fall of each year he returned to visit his many friends in both Sarpy and Douglas counties. He is survived by his wife, Adelia, three sons, I. D. Clarke of Papillion, Neb., and August and Nedwin of Alamosa, Colo., three daughters, Mrs. Martha Kelly of New York City, Mrs. Jesse Powers of Beverly Hills, Cal., and Mrs. Grace Pattee of Perry, Ia. The body will be placed in a vault at Beverly Hills and brought to Papillion for final burial in the spring.
