Young People Joined in Bonds of Wedlock

Mr. August Peteret and Miss Lina Klein Married Friday at Eight Mile Grove Church.

From Saturday's Daily—

A very pretty wedding occurred yesterday at 12:30 at the Eight Mile Grove Lutheran church west of this city, when Mr. August Peteret of Mynard and Miss Lina Klein, who has been making her home with her sister near Cullom, were united in the bonds of holy wedlock.

As the bridal party arrived at the church the bells pealed out their happy message to the world of the wedding and the bridal march played very charmingly by Mrs. A. Lentz, wife of the pastor and to which the bridal party entered to march to the altar where the nuptial ties were celebrated by the Rev. A. Lentz, the impressive service of the Lutheran church uniting the lives and hearts of these two estimable young people.

The bride was becomingly gowned in white satin overlaid with lace, wearing the long flowing bridal veil which was caught and held in place by a wreath of pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses, lillies of the valley and ferns.

The groom wore the conventional suit of dark blue serge.

The bridal party were attended by Mrs. August Simonet of Cullom, sister of the bride as matron of honor and Mr. Frank Peteret, brother of the groom as best man.

The bride has recently arrived in this country from East Prussia, her childhood home and has been staying here with the relatives until her decision to enjoy her own home and to remain here in Cass county where she has already made a large number of friends.

The groom is one of the industrious young farmers of near Mynard and has in his residence here made a very large circle of friends and by his industry and carefulness has been very successful in his work.

They will carry with them in their new home near Mynard the best wishes of the host of friends for years of joy and happiness.

Congress has finally decided to lease the Muscle Shoals plant to somebody who will not attempt to operate it by parliamentary debate.

Miscellaneous Shower Given for Newlyweds

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rohrdanz are Happily Surprised on Return from Bridal Trip.

Misses Florence Terryberry and Leda Ragoss gave a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rohrdanz, who returned last week from their wedding trip and who are now making plans to go to housekeeping next week on the old Spangler farm near the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ragoss.

A large number of relatives and friends assembled at the Terryberry home on Monday night, bringing with them many useful and beautiful gifts that will be greatly prized by the bride and groom and that will beautify their new home.

The bride, who is a very sweet and gracious young woman, wore her wedding gown and she and her husband greeted their friends with great cordiality and expressed their thanks for the many fine gifts. The evening passed merrily with music and lively conversation. Ruby's orchestra furnished their usual fine grade of music that has made them so popular in the neighborhood and many other musicians present rendered very pleasing selections and the young folks joined in singing the popular songs of the day.

The hostesses served a bountiful supper which was much enjoyed and appreciated by all and the young couple were also showered with many good wishes and renewed congratulations.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Heil and family, Mr. and Mrs. August Krecklow and family, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Meisinger and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Urish and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pankonin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heil, Mr. and Mrs. William Rohrdanz and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Rohrdanz and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ragoss and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Born and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Terryberry and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Terryberry and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Terryberry and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Terryberry and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Krecklow, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Meisinger, Mr. and Mrs. J. LAST OF TREES ON BUILDING SITE IS FELLED TODAY

From Saturday's Daily—

W. L. Howland and son, who have been working the greater part of a week at felling and grubbing out the roots of four large trees on the Legion lots where the new community building will be erected this summer, completed their work today with the successful felling of the last, and largest, of the trees just before noon. The tree was a big one and came down with a crash, but under the experienced woodcraft of Mr. Howland, was laid exactly where it was wanted, and without so much as brushing the roofs of nearby buildings. The tree was nearly three feet in diameter and in the felling of it, as well as the others, Mr. Howland wishes to express grateful appreciation for the service of L. L. McCarty, who hooked onto them with one of his oil trucks and started their descent in the right direction.

Mr. Howland and son have worked diligently at the task, donating all their labor and grubbing out the roots of all the trees but one, which will come within the center of the area of excavation and can be easily removed at that time, and their contribution in labor is as great as that of anyone giving the cash.

The wood has been given free to other parties for burning the brush and when the cutting of it is done and the stumps removed, the building site will present a greatly improved appearance and be ready for the beginning of excavation a little later when the incoming contributions reach a mark that will justify starting of the work.

The garage will be sold in the near future and someone is going to get it at a right price. Anyone interested should see Leslie Niel.

Commissioner Harris Gets Into Primary Race

Will Seek Election in the Second Commissioner District Again at Primary.

From Saturday's Daily—

The latest filing in the political marathon at the coming August primary is that of County Commissioner C. F. Harris of Union who will again offer his name for the consideration of the voters of his district who are of the republican affiliation.

The second district comprises the precincts of Liberty, Nehawka, Avoca, Mt. Pleasant, Center and Louisville, and these precincts will have the choice of making the nominations of the candidates from among their residents altho at the general election in November the voters of the entire county will pass on the final choice of the commissioner.

Mr. Harris has been in the service of the county for the past eight years, having been elected to the office of commissioner in 1918 and has been re-elected several times to the position of commissioner. Mr. Harris has made a very earnest and efficient administration of his office and given his district a great service in the various lines of county work.

The present commissioner was formerly a farmer in the northern portion of Liberty precinct but has in late years made his home in the village of Union and devoting the greater part of his time exclusively to the affairs of his office.

Farmers Union County Convention at Eagle

Very Interesting Session and Large Number from Western Portion of County Attending.

The county convention of the Farmers Union was held Monday night at the school auditorium at Eagle.

There was a fairly good attendance from this end of the county, but it is a long drive from the river precincts and that fact cut the attendance somewhat.

Chas. Scattergood called the meeting to order and acted as announcer after the orchestra had rendered several selections. The meeting was opened by the Alvo quartet, which made a decided hit.

Mr. Welch of Bennett then gave a talk on poultry and eggs, especially picturing the handsome returns from properly handled eggs. He showed that this one item, co-operatively handled, as is being done in some quarters, will return handsome results. Our judgment is that he stated a vital truth when he urged that the farm problem could better be worked out by co-operation than by agitation and legislation.

H. L. Scattergood then favored the audience with some violin music, and he and his son sang a few old-time songs.

Prof. Eilly of the State Agricultural college then talked from an array of charts, but to us it seemed rather contradictory and unsatisfactory. He attempted to revive the old worn-out and many times discredited theory that the tariff was responsible for the ills of the farmer.

There are few farmers in this enlightened age but can remember that disaster has always followed free trade, and they are not nearly so much interested in lower tariff as some of the politicians and importers would like to see them.

Mr. Farmer was the last speaker, and he made one of the most sensible and reasonable addresses we have heard in a long time. The farmer can and will solve his problem in his own way and by his own efforts.

He must decide to follow the example of other vocations which have faced and solved theirs; consumption and production must be brought into closer relationship, and co-operative marketing of standardized products will do more than all the artificial measures law makers can devise to bring the farmer the full measure of his own.

At the close of the program an executive meeting was held in the assembly room.—Eagle Beacon.

Plattsmouth Stopped in the Semi-Finals

Local Quintet Lose Game to Indianola Last Night by Score of 24 to 21—Fought Hard Game.

From Saturday's Daily—

While the blue and white quintet staged a desperate and spectacular rally in the struggle in the semi-finals of the class B division of the state basketball tourney at Lincoln last night they were sent to defeat by Indianola, the score at the finish being 24 to 21.

The splendid showing that Plattsmouth had made in the tournament against the strong Chadron Prep team had encouraged the fans in the hope of the locals being factors in the finals and a large number of the local people were present last night to witness the hard fought battle that was in the end to result in the win of Indianola. The Plattsmouth team received enthusiastic support from the audience, the Lincoln rooters giving their enthusiasm and cheers for the locals who had won for themselves the reputation of being one of the cleanest playing teams in the big tourney.

The Indianola team which has been one of the sensations of the class B division opened up early in the game with a two point lead and only in the second quarter did Plattsmouth have a shade on their feet, at one time having a five to four lead but this was soon wiped out with a field goal by Indianola.

Both teams guarded loosely and allowed the running up of a large score on both sides.

At the half the score stood 12 to 11 for Indianola. At the opening of the third quarter of the game Hatcher of Indianola grew "hot" and scored three uncanny field goals that were destined to prove the winning shots from the side of the court being good while a jump ball from the hands of Hatcher also was good for two points and swelled the lead of Indianola 24 to 16.

In the last few moments of the game the Plattsmouth quintet staged a flashy rally that looked for a few moments that the blue and white would be able to overcome the lead of their opponents and holding the Indianola team scoreless the locals ran up five points and were going strong when the crack of the pistol ended their offensive.

For the Plattsmouth team—Wescott, left forward was the scoring ace with 11 points to his credit and adding to his tournament record which has been the best of any of the Plattsmouth players in scoring, Wescott had four field goals to his credit while Jack Hatt was also "hot" and hung up three ringers for the locals. Rebal secured one field goal in the second quarter of the battle that gave the locals their only lead. Hatcher was the outstanding scorer of Indianola as he annexed 13 of the points of his team.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

March 8, 1926, marked the end of 50 years journey together for Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wiles.

On Sunday the families of their six children arranged a surprise for them at the home of Erret Wiles. The color scheme on the tables was yellow. After dinner, when these fond parents retired to their living room they were led to a beautiful big easy chair, a gift from the children, which mother at once tried and somehow kept for the remainder of the afternoon. Sitting comfortably in her chair and father by her side, they enjoyed the pleasant occasion together visiting and listening to the music. They listened to songs sung by their son's quartette, also by Little Lloyd Ward and others. It was a happy day for all and at its close each could but wish the journey of wedded life together to extend many more years.—Weeping Water Republican.
